To accommodate a number of members who wish to attend the Association's meetings held in the different churches on Monday evening, the "Y" has changed its date of meeting to Saturday at 8 o'clock p.m. Don't forget the regular meeting, June 8th.

A Manufactory in Prospect.

The Toronto capitalists who visited town yesterday returned home this morning. The results of their visit are kept a secret as yet, but it is stated that there are bright prospects of a large new industry being established in Peterborough this summer. As soon as negotiations are completed, the public will be more fully informed.

Remember Rochester

and the grand excursion on Saturday, June 15th. Four day's pleasure costing for $3. Study the opportunity. If you have friends in Rochester, this is your chance to pay them a visit. Or if you want to spend two or three days in admiring the beautiful city, this is your chance. Or if you want to break the bonds of business and enjoy a Sunday in Rochester and get back to town on Monday, the Rochester excursion is your chance.

The Garden Party.

The "Y" Garden Party at the residence of Mr. H. C. Winch last night was successful despite the cold weather. The spacious lawn was beautifully ornamented and lighted by Chinese lanterns, while the house was also open to guests. Refreshments were served and an impromptu programme was rendered. The Y.M.C.A. band gave several instrumental selections and also sang a number of glees; Misses Lansdown and Annesley contributed piano solos. There was a good attendance, and altogether the garden party was quite a success.

Choice, Fresh and Cheap.

Another supply of choice, fresh and cheap groceries, provisions, etc., with a few special lines of teas at unusually low prices now being received and offered for sale at R. H. Green's grocery and provision store, corner Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Also fresh butter and eggs, with apples, potatoes and other farmers' produce always on hand, which will be sold at the lowest market prices and delivered to any part of the town. tutw

A Patron Saint a Pattern Saint.

As a rule patron saints have merely sentimental functions, but the tutelary saint of the sons of Scotia in Peterborough gives a plain, practical application. Just think of an excursion to Toronto—two day's traveling over the "finest line on earth," with a chance of two full days in the city, and all for the nominal sum of two dollars. And all along the line and from every station between Norwood and Myrtle correspondingly low prices for tickets. Remember the St. Andrew's excursion to Toronto and return—tickets only $2—on Thursday, June 20th.

Masonic Excursion.

A Masonic excursion to the back lakes on Tuesday, June 18th. The Masonic fraternity will celebrate the opening of the Chemong branch of the G.T.R. on the above date by an excursion to Bridgenorth. From this terminus the steamer Peterborough and palace barge, Pakenham, have been engaged to convey excursionists to Jessie's Island, a beautiful spot on the waters in Pigeon Lake. Those wishing to go on to Bobcaygeon have the privilege of doing so. Cheap rates. Tickets for adults, [illegible], 50 cents. Further particulars giving further particulars issued to-morrow.

Getting Railway Rates.

The public have sometimes reason to complain that railways charge exorbitant rates, but the C.P.R., through the influence of a local body, has made a tremendous cut in passenger rates. For instance, on the St. Andrew's Society Excursion to Toronto on June 20th, for two dollars, you can ride 77 miles going and 77 miles returning, or in other words your can travel at the rate of 7/10 of a cent per mile. You can leave Peterborough as early as 4.30 and remain in Toronto till 7.45, spending the longest possible time in the city. Tickets, good to return on any regular train on June 21st, may be obtained at the railway stations and ticket offices or from members of the Society.

Looking After the Lumber.

Mr. T. B. Pierce, proprietor of the railway from Cobourg to Harwood, is in town to-day with a view to inducing the owners of the Scott timber limits to have their lumber moved at the Harwood mills and shipped over his road to Cobourg. Mr. Pierce is offering the syndicate strong inducements.

Well up in the Front.

L. Petrin, pastry cook and confectioner, No. 300 George street, has engaged the services of a first class baker who has had a long experience in Toronto. Special attention given to getting up wedding cakes and fine pastry. If you want a good article give Petrin a call. Daily supplies of bread, cakes, buns and tarts. Icecream in bulk or by the dish during the season. 6md

ADAPTED TO THE UMPIRE OF THE BASEBALL GAME TO-MORROW BETWEEN EXAMINER AND REVIEW TYPOS:—

There was a man in our town
And he was wond'rous wise;
He thought he knew all baseball rules
And knew them off by heart.
On Saturday he proposed to act
As umpire in our game,
For he thought with it would come a chance
To gain a long-sought fame.
But he found that he had bitten off
Far more than he could chew,
And they held an inquest on him
Before the game was through.
And they laid his wrecks to rest
Beneath that spreading elm tree,
And placed a broken bat
At his head in memory.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

To-night will be the last meeting of Miss Gordon's for Bible study. These Bible readings have been seasons of great blessing to all who have been able to be present. With Miss Gordon's consent, a thank offering unto the Lord will be taken up this evening, to be given to Miss Gordon. No doubt it will be liberal, for much good has been accomplished by this talented servant of God; and a rich harvest is in store for the future, the result of honoring the word of life as presented by Miss Gordon.—COM.

Chemong Park Notes.

Mr. T. Rutherford leaves on Monday with a staff of men for Chemong Park, where he will erect half a dozen new summer cottages. Chemong Park is going to boom this year as a watering place. The proprietors of the park have already this season negotiated for the sale of thirty lots.

On Monday week trains will begin running over the Chemong Lake line, twice a day. It is confidently expected that the line will be extended to the Park from its present terminus in a short time. As soon as this is done the new hotel will be built. Its managers purpose to extensively advertise Chemong Park all over Canada and the States, and expect that next season, if not this, it will be the most popular summer resort in the district.

A New Manufactory.

Our city fathers are very commendably alive as to the importance of bringing new manufactories to the town, and in one case they have succeeded. Arrangements are about completed for the bringing of an important industry to town, fuller particulars of which will be forthcoming at an early date. But there are some existing industries of far greater importance. For instance, Hawley Bros.' tea store, where are kept the finest brands and varieties of tea, the latest crop, the best qualities and at the cheapest rates. Making a special line of teas, they have a special stock, and have special prices which other dealers cannot touch. Remember when you need first class teas, coffees or spices or similar goods, the best place is Hawley Bros.' tea store, George street.

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BRAMHIN, secretary of committee. ded

After a Calm Comes a Storm.

So it is in this case. We know that the farmers have been busy for the past few weeks, so we have left them at their laborious task without getting them roused to such a state of excitement that they would have to quit their work and rush to receive the bargains we have been offering. So now we issue our manifesto. Don't compare other houses with us; we carry larger stocks than all the pretending houses. We buy in larger quantities and buy for cash, and for the next few weeks will cause a panic among all other grocery houses by offering for sale our entire stock of fine teas to make room for our importations of new teas, which will arrive in a few weeks. Those who desire bargains call.

Masonic Memoranda.

Last evening Eminent Preceptor Fitzsimmons, of Brockville, paid a visit to Moore Preceptory No. 12. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the satisfactory condition of the preceptory.

All Masons are requested to meet at the lodge room Sunday afternoon at two o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late Bro. Walker.

Next Wednesday evening the Masons of Peterborough will be treated to a society lecture by Mr. John Ross Robertson, of Toronto, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada. The lecture has been delivered thirty-five times recently in the principal towns and cities of the Dominion, and is very popular, interesting and instructive.

The Late George Walker.

Through these columns, the readers of the EXAMINER were apprised of the serious illness of Mr. Geo. Walker, Charlotte street, and consequently the sad intelligence of his death, which took place on Thursday afternoon, about 4 o'clock will not be a surprise. For some time Mr. Walker has been afflicted with that fatal disease, diabetes, but the symptoms did not lead to fears of its dangerous and even as late as Monday he struggled against his feelings and was at his post of duty at Messrs. Hall, Innes & Co.'s, but from that time his decline was rapid though it would not appear that he himself had any fear of fatal results. Unconsciousness set in early and for some time before death there was an entire obliviousness to external surroundings. Mr. Walker has been a resident of Peterborough for five years, during which time he has been the head of the cutting department of Hall Innes & Co's. establishment, and in this capacity he enjoyed the full confidence of his employers and of the public. He is of English descent, but was born in Halifax, N. Y. Nov. 16th 1857. He was consequently, 32 years of age. He came to Canada when a child, and lived in Stratford, till the time of his removal to Peterborough. In Feb. 1881 he was married to Miss Jennie Douglass of Stratford. He leaves behind him a widow and three children. Mr. Walker was a member of the Masonic order and of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. He was an enthusiastic curler, popular with the members of the local club and was the winner of the club medal last year. He was also a staunch Liberal in politics, a great admirer and warm supporter of Hon. Mr. Mowat and the government of which he is the head. Mr. Walker did efficient and appreciated work at election times, having been the chairman of the Reform committee for No. One Ward. In fact in all the relations of life he performed his duties faithfully and was very deservedly held in high esteem. Mr. Walker had identified himself with the citizenship of the town, having a short time before his decease begun the erection of a residence for himself on the corner of Park and Charlotte streets, the excavation for which is completed. His widow and family have the earnest sympathy of the community in their bereavement. The funeral takes place on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock to the Little Lake Cemetery, and will be conducted with Masonic ceremonies.

School Trustee's Statement Challenged.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I see by the issue of last night's EXAMINER a statement of the proceedings of the school Board, and in the report I find a charge made by J. B. McWilliams, one of the trustees, that he would oppose giving me the contract for building the North Ward school, if Mr. Belcher was going to have the superintendency of it, as he did not want "any collusion at the public expense."

Mr. Editor, I wish to state right here, that any person making the statement that there is, or ever was, any collusion between Mr. Belcher and myself, is making a statement that is utterly false, and I dare him to prove the first thing.

I have been contracting now for the past twenty-five years, and it has been my fortune or misfortune, I know not which, to obtain a larger number of contracts than any other person, and which I have to the best of my ability carried out to their full completion, notwithstanding the desire of some persons that I would fail to carry them out, and almost all of the buildings thus erected have had Mr. Belcher as architect, for the reason that he was the only architect in town, until the last few years, when Mr. Blackwell commenced business, and I have already under him completed seven or eight buildings and I suppose there will be soon some grounds for some collusion between him and me.

Mr. McWilliams goes on to state, "that it is currently reported that these two parties work into each other's hands." This is a vile insinuation, worthy only of the man who gave utterance to such a statement.

I wish, Mr. Editor, to state in conclusion that I will give the sum of one hundred dollars to any person or persons that will make good and prove the least advantage that I have ever received from Mr. Belcher or any other architect under whom I have worked.

Thanking you for the space in your paper, I am,

Yours faithfully,
ARTHUR RUTHERFORD.

Peterborough, June 6th 1889.

The South Ward School Contract.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I notice in the report of the School Board proceedings in your paper that Mr. J. L. Hughes, as well as that other extremely tolerant champion of Protestantism, Mr. Thomas Rutherford, does not wish to have Mr. Bogue awarded the contract for the South Ward School building because he was a Roman Catholic. Probably both Mr. Rutherford and Mr. Hughes will be surprised to know that Mr. Bogue is a public school supporter and pays more taxes, three times over, than Mr. Rutherford for that purpose, and probably as much as Mr. Hughes. Until Mr. Rutherford got the soft snap of superintending the construction of the post office, which meant practically drawing big pay for little work, he might not have had so much property qualification as he now has. At any rate, the property upon which Mr. Bogue pays his public school taxes is not in his wife's name. The position of Messrs. Rutherford and Hughes on this question does not supply an entire absence of disinterested motives, for some people have been suspicious to hint that Mr. Hughes was not altogether disinterested in Mr. Lyle's contract for the Institute gymnasium, and that he was not far away when Mr. Lyle was figuring on his tender for the South Ward building. If this is incorrect, it is Mr. Hughes' duty to give the rumour contradiction. It is well known that Mr. Stevenson's opposition to Mr. Bogue arose from the latter's opposition to Mr. Stevenson's election as mayor.

The unfitness of these gentlemen to represent the public interest and the Board is shown when they are willing to throw away $500 of the people's money by giving the contract to a higher tenderer—one to satisfy a personal spite and the other to satisfy a malignant spirit of sectarian bigotry that would do justice to the dark ages.

As a ratepayer, I believe in giving the contract to the lowest tenderer, all other things being equal, and there would be no justification in giving the contract to a man whose tender is $500 higher simply because the one who tenders lowest may happen to be born a Roman Catholic. It might be well for public men to remember that they are expected to do justice to the interests they are elected to serve, without fear or favor. Thanking you for the space I have taken.

I remain yours truly.
A PUBLIC SCHOOL RATEPAYER.

Bay of Quinte Conference.

Chancellor Burwash Elected President of the Conference—The Nominating Committee Appointed.

BELLEVILLE, June 6.—The Bay of Quinte Conference opened here this morning. President Rev. M. L. Pearson presiding. After devotional exercises and other routine business, the election of a new President was taken up.

The first ballot resulted as follows:—Chancellor Burwash, 84; Dr. William Williams, 38; Rev. J. B. Clarkson, 14; Rev. F. B. Stratton, 19; Rev. O. R. Lambly, 4; Rev. Wm. Jolliffe, 13; Rev. M. L. Pearson, 11; scattering votes, 2. Ninety-four votes were necessary for a choice. Another ballot was called for and resulted thus:—Chancellor Burwash, 126; Dr. Wm. Williams, 37; Rev. F. B. Stratton, 7; scattering votes, 4. Chancellor Burwash was declared the choice of the Conference, and was called to the platform, when he was warmly applauded. The retiring president congratulated him on receiving so hearty a support. He believed that at the back of it was an expression of confidence in his administration of affairs at Victoria University. The man he turned over to him were loyal and true to the cause in which they were enlisted.

Dr. BURWASH said:—I can only thank God that for the twenty-nine years that I have been in the ministry my heart has been in the work. I thank you for your confidence, and ask the help of your prayers that we may have grace and wisdom to discharge the duties which may devolve upon us.

ELECTING THE SECRETARY.

There were a number of candidates for the secretaryship, the contest lying between Rev. William Johnson, of Omemee, and Mr. William Johnson, Belleville, with a few scattering votes. Rev. William Johnson, on the second ballot, received 120 votes out of a total of 189.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference assembled at 2 p.m., President Burwash in the chair. After devotional exercises and the reading of the minutes, Revs. Dr. Dewart, Dr. Briggs and James Gray were introduced and addressed the conference in the interests of the Guardian Book Room and General Conference Fund. Resolutions expressing confidence in the management of these interests were passed.

The secretary nominated Rev. W. R. Young and R. W. Clark, as assistant secretaries, and Rev. C. W. Walsh, journal secretary. The following comprise the nominating committee:—Rev. J. Lanoyd, E. R. Howard, Rev. S. Craikshanks, Rev. Wm. Beckness, Rev. J. B. Clarkson, Rev. M. L. Pearson, Rev. W. Williams, Rev. O. K. Lambley, Rev. J. S. Clarke, Rev. F. B. Stratton, Rev. W. Birdsall, J. Holgate, J. B. Aylesworth, A. Macdonald, M. H. Peterson, Jas. Roberts, John Hall, J. R. Dundas, E. J. Atkinson, J. R. Fraser, S. Shire.

Preferred grievances were sent to the London, Niagara, Guelph and Montreal conferences were in session at London, Ingersoll, Guelph and Sherbrooke.

The committee on statistics reported an increase in the membership of 251; an increase in the educational fund of $665, and in missionary fund of $1,666.

Monday afternoon was selected as the time the conference would receive the delegates from the Women's Missionary Society.

Several local matters were disposed of, and conference adjourned at 5.15.

Kingsley's Water Babies.

Prof. Clark's lecture in St John's School room on next Monday night given under the auspices of that beautiful book of Charles Kingsley of Chester. His delightful descriptions of life and action are really Shakespearian in their fidelity to nature, and they are told with a charming simplicity. The deep undercurrent of moral instruction underlying the fable of the "Water Babies," is fully brought out in Prof. Clark's excellent address. Everybody should hear his address, and everybody should prepare for the treat by reading "Water Babies," to be had at the Peterborough Bookstore.

Records prizes—1, C Curtis; 2, F C Roy; 3, J Cluney.

The scores are smaller than usual on account of the high wind which blew all afternoon.

To-morrow's Typographical Contest.

All the best people are going to the baseball match to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock on the P.A.A.A. grounds. The Prince of Wales has cabled his regrets on account of the short notice, but he is to be kept posted in the game as it proceeds. It's going to be a tremendous struggle. The weather department at Toronto has been notified that a cyclone may result from the terrific atmospheric convulsions caused by the "sluggers" trying to drive the ball over Ludgate's hill and "fanning wind" instead. The department is taking all proper precautions to prevent an earthquake, so that the public at large may feel reasonably safe. The Review men were practising batting a foot ball with a section of board fence last night when they should have been sleeping and recruiting their energies for the battle. They think they have the striking part of the game down to a science, and boast confidently that each and every member of the nine can catch anything that comes in their way—anything from the mumps to a baseball. It has been proven by actual test that the festive young reporter on our down-town contemporary can come nearest to hitting the side of a barn, and he will probably be in the pitcher's box. The man who is to be behind the bat has supplied himself with a complete suit of fly-paper, so that if the ball misses his hands it will stick to his uniform. The editorial department think they can supply "wind" enough to keep the boys from getting too tired running bases. Altogether they are well equipped. As for the EXAMINER nine, our modesty prevents us speaking too highly of its merits. All we can say is, watch us when the umpire cries "play ball." This "battle of the giants" may be witnessed for the very small sum of ten cents—a dime—the tenth part of a dollar. There will likely be a big crowd in attendance. Come early and avoid the rush. The William Hamilton Company is working over time on a suit of boiler plate for the umpire, and if it is completed in time there may be no disaster to chronicle.

Next Week's Bicycle Races.

There was a large and enthusiastic attendance at the meeting of the Bicycle Club last night. Arrangements were completed for the first of the series of evening races to be held on the P.A.A.A. grounds the coming season. The races will begin at seven o'clock sharp, and valuable medals are offered for each event. The prize must be won three times before becoming the property of the winner.

Next Thursday night the races will be one mile and two mile events, a one mile green race and a two mile handicap. There will also be a hundred yards and quarter mile foot race.

It is expected the band will be in attendance. The bicycle club hope to have a large attendance at the races.

SPORTING CHAFF.

On account of the unfavorable weather the Otonabee Canoe Club regatta, adjourned from a week ago, has been still further postponed.

To-morrow afternoon the Collegiate Institute and Business College baseball clubs play another match on Riverside Park.

The Maple Leaf eleven of the cricket club goes to Port Hope to-morrow to play the second eleven of Trinity College school.

At Port Perry yesterday Mr. A. P. Morgan's Mayflower took second money in the 2.30 trot, F.O.P. first.

The Staten Island cricketers play in Peterborough August 10th.

News Nuggets.

—The Order of Chosen Friends meets to-night.

—Mr. T. J. Farron and his "Help" company are stopping at the Oriental.

—A sitting of the Division Court is being held to-day.

—Some boys will appear in court to-morrow for throwing stones at an old man.

—The identity of the "town baby," found yesterday on the steps of St. Peter's Cathedral, is yet undiscovered. The police are making every effort to trace the mother and compel her to care for the infant.

Personal.

Mr. F. W. Gearing, barrister, of Stratford, was married on Wednesday to Miss Motherwell. Mr. P. J. C. Macdonel, of Peterborough was a groomsman.

The friends of Miss White will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering from the effects of the runaway accident. She is now out of danger and progressing favorably.

Hamilton's Summer Carnival.

The Secretary of the Hamilton Board of Trade has issued a circular inviting the wholesale and retail merchants and manufacturers of the province to a convention to discuss matters of trade and commerce at the Hamilton Summer Carnival, August 19th to 23rd. Special railway rates will be provided.

The Times in Dakota.

A subscriber of the EXAMINER writing from Auburn, Dakota, June 1st, says:—"Times are hard here, at least money is hard to get hold of. Out of 200 acres of wheat I had last season, I could not sell one dollar's worth. The crops in my neighborhood suffered terribly from blight and frost. Thousands of acres were not worth harvesting. However, the prospects are good this spring, and a large acreage of wheat is sown. We hope to have a good harvest this year."

Studies of Human Nature in Buying the Baby Carriage

"I like to wait on a man who has a family of eight or nine children. He has bought buggies before, and, as they eventually become kindling wood, he merely asks for an extra good quality of inflammable wood in the buggy, pays for it and departs in a few minutes."

A practical matron in the most matter of fact way, leaves this order:—"Send to my residence a new baby buggy, not quite as gorgeous as the last, a little heavier in axles, and just about the same size as the one before the last, which my husband purchased. I am not particular about trimmings."

ATTRACTION

AT

TURNBULL'S

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 5oc. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"

FROM THE NEW FIRM OF

H. LeBRUN & Co.

Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February inst. The new firm beg leave to make this, their bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

a position they attained by using experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MEDIUM SUITS, BETTER FABRICS, FINER STYLES than were ever handled before.

Special values in FINE SPRING OVERCOATS, and FINE SPRING and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment is an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and talent. Besides perfect fit and first-class trimmings, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS' CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SHORT WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department of ours. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HANDKERCHIEFS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

DOLEFUL CONDITION OF DEVASTATED JOHNSTOWN.

Pneumonia, Typhoid Fever and Measles Among the Refugees—A Village That Was Swept Out of Existence.

JOHNSTOWN, June 7.—The Associated Press representative walked through one of Miss Hinckley's nurseries to-day and found a score of little ones playing and laughing, oblivious of the cruel blow that had been dealt them. In one group nine children of the same family were seen, the eldest not over 15 years. They were Germans and both father and mother and found a watery grave, while the nine little waifs had escaped in the floating debris of their humble cottage.

Col. Scott said to-day the probabilities are there will be a great many bodies discovered under the rubbish that covers the streets. He added: "We propose to continue this work of searching the wreck until the miasma becomes so strong as to defy science and then we may well stop. I do not believe, however, that that time will ever come. The greatest consideration is being given to this matter of the recovery of the dead and treatment of the bodies after discovery. I think an impression has gone abroad that the dead are being handled here very much as one would handle cordwood, but that is a great mistake. As soon as possible after discovery they are borne from the public gaze and taken to the morgue, where only persons who have relatives are admitted. Only the hardiest can enter the morgue now, so overwhelming is the stench. The undertakers even after hurriedly performing their task of washing a body and preparing it for burial retreat to the yard to await the arrival of the next ghastly find.

Two additional cases of typhoid fever are reported from Minersdale, making seven in that village since yesterday morning. Measles are also becoming prevalent on Prospect Hill at the refugees' camp.

The indications are that only one of the inhabitants of Woodvale was saved.

2000 men have been at work all day clearing out the debris. Fires are burning up and down the valley of the Conemaugh as far as the eye can reach. The air is thick with smoke. The army of workers, however, have scarcely begun their tasks. The most careful estimates are that it will take 10,000 men four weeks to clear out the heaps of ruin. Eighty-six men are scattering disinfectants over the wreckage that the bridge stopped and it is believed that thousands of bodies will yet be found in that territory.

A staff physician said to-night: "Prospect Hill is full of pneumonia with some diphtheria and measles, the hospital is full to overflowing, and to-day I attended forty-two cases on the outside. They were almost all severe pneumonia. There is every condition needed for the spread of the disease and I fear an epidemic." Another doctor reported several cases of pneumonia on the hill near Morrellville.

A row of human feet was noticed sticking out of the sand near Keraville. The bodies of two men and one girl, all in a good state of preservation, were unearthed. The body of Rev. A. P. Diller, rector of the Johnstown Episcopal Church, another of his wife and child were recovered to-day. Clasped in one rigid arm was the body of the rector's babe and in the other his wife, whose arms were about his neck. They were removed in this position and will be so buried to-morrow.

Reports received show that between seventy and eighty lives were lost between Woodvale and the hamlet of South Fork.

A. M. Wellington and A. F. Burt, associate editors of The Evening News of New York, examined the dam whose breaking caused the great disaster. Mr. Wellington states that the dam was of very inferior construction and wholly unwarranted by good engineering practices of 30 years ago. Both the original and reconstructed dams were of earth only, with no heart wall, but only riprapped on the slopes.

Many Lives Lost in Centre County.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., June 7.—The flood played terrible havoc in Centre County. The entire bottom land with all the spring crops for 300 miles in the lower end of the valley was destroyed. All bridges from Milesburg to Lock Haven are washed away and nearly all small buildings in the line of the flood succumbed. The damage in the Bald Eagle Valley amounts to $750,000. In Penn's Valley there was loss of life. At Millheim and Coburn several houses were carried away with the people in them. All escaped except Mrs. Simon Phonst and three children. Their house was overturned and all were drowned. Mr. Phonst worked in Cameron County and started to come home but was drowned in crossing the river. The damage in this part of the county will amount to nearly $750,000.

Some poor people lost not only their houses and contents but also lost their lots, nothing being left but a creek bottom of rocks and debris. The greatest loss of life occurred on Fishing Creek in the Nittany valley. A large dam at Washington furnace at the head of the valley broke in the night and filled the valley from mountain to mountain, sweeping everything before it. The flood left only a few houses in what were prosperous villages of from 20 to 30 houses each. Many families were saved by getting on the roofs and floating to the end of the valley. The following is the death list so far as known: At Mackeyeville 15, at Salona 12. There was a great amount of damage done in the western part of the county but no lives were lost. The damage in the county will be between two and three millions.

Another Sportsman's Paradise.

ROCHESTER, June 7.—A special to The Herald from Olean says: The largest artificial body of water in the United States is situated 782 feet above Olean. It is said to be liable to give way at any moment. It was formerly used to feed the old Genesee Valley Canal, but it is now merely a sportsman's paradise. It is condemned by public sentiment and the State Superintendent of Canals and also by people residing in Cuba, Hinsdale, Olean and Allegheny. In fact the whole Genesee Valley has protested against the maintenance of the reservoir as it is a public menace to the people and is liable to sweep them into chaos, as did the Johnstown reservoir, at any time.

Trains Again Stranding.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 7.—The Pennsylvania railroad announces the resumption of the running of through passenger trains from New York via Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Lockhaven and the Allegheny Valley railroad to Pittsburg.

Cork's Vote.

CORK, June 7.—The Municipal Council here has adopted a resolution expressing sympathy with the sufferers by floods in Pennsylvania.

SCORCHED SEATTLE.

The Loss Placed at $7,000,000. Insurance $2,500,000—The Residences Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—The burned district in Seattle covers thirty-one blocks bounded as follows: University, Front, Spring to Second, Jones, Smith, Fourth, Wall and Water streets. This comprises the business portion. The residence district escaped.

From official figures furnished by local and foreign insurance companies The Coast Review places the property loss at $7,000,000. On this is an insurance of $2,500,000.

Winnipeg Wire Whipped.

WINNIPEG, June 7.—President Van Horne arrived to-day and leaves to-night for a trip over the prospected Soonts branch, work on which will be commenced at once. The construction business of the Canadian Pacific Railway will also be extended this year.

The annual convention of Manitoba University was held to-day.

John Reed, near Killarney, and Mary Todd, at Minnedosa, were drowned to-day.

Four trains of immigrants arrived by the Canadian Pacific Railway to-day.

In Penn's Valley there was loss of life. At Millheim and Coburn several houses were carried away with the people in them. All escaped except Mrs. Simon Phonst and three children. Their house was overturned and all were drowned. Mr. Phonst worked in Cameron County and started to come home but was drowned in crossing the river. The damage in this part of the county will amount to nearly $750,000.

Some poor people lost not only their houses and contents but also lost their lots, nothing being left but a creek bottom of rocks and debris. The greatest loss of life occurred on Fishing Creek in the Nittany valley. A large dam at Washington furnace at the head of the valley broke in the night and filled the valley from mountain to mountain, sweeping everything before it. The flood left only a few houses in what were prosperous villages of from 20 to 30 houses each. Many families were saved by getting on the roofs and floating to the end of the valley. The following is the death list so far as known: At Mackeyeville 15, at Salona 12. There was a great amount of damage done in the western part of the county but no lives were lost. The damage in the county will be between two and three millions.

Another Sportsman's Paradise.

ROCHESTER, June 7.—A special to The Herald from Olean says: The largest artificial body of water in the United States is situated 782 feet above Olean. It is said to be liable to give way at any moment. It was formerly used to feed the old Genesee Valley Canal, but it is now merely a sportsman's paradise. It is condemned by public sentiment and the State Superintendent of Canals and also by people residing in Cuba, Hinsdale, Olean and Allegheny. In fact the whole Genesee Valley has protested against the maintenance of the reservoir as it is a public menace to the people and is liable to sweep them into chaos, as did the Johnstown reservoir, at any time.

SHROUDED IN MYSTERY.

THE QUEST FOR THE MURDERERS OF CRONIN.

A Clan-na-Gael Man Who Fails to Appear Before the Coroner and is Missing From His Office—The Triangle's Exhibition.

CHICAGO, June 7.—In the Cronin inquest to-day Brown was confronted with Mrs. Conklin, Livery-stable Keeper Dinan and others, but they all declared he was not the man who drove the white horse and he was released.

Luke Dillon of Philadelphia, the representative of Dr. Cronin's eastern friends, testified that Cronin had frequently said to him that he believed that to further his ambitions to rule American and Irish politics Sullivan would murder him (Cronin).

Dillon told of the trial at Buffalo of the charges against Alexander Sullivan, Michael Boland and Dennis Feeley. These charges were made by John Devoy and were of misappropriation of Clan-na-Gael funds. Witness said that when Sullivan learned that Cronin was to be a member of the trial committee he denounced him in unmeasured terms. After the trial it was voted to allow Sullivan to circulate with the finding of the trial committee a protest which he had prepared. Mr. Dillon read the protest. It was very long and was dated New York, Sept. 15, 1888. In it Sullivan protested against the presence of Cronin on the committee on the grounds first, that Cronin was his personal enemy, second, that he had expressed an opinion in the case, third, that he was a perjurer and a scoundrel unfit to be placed on any jury. In support of his first objection Sullivan appealed to the members of the United Brotherhood in Chicago from which Dr. Cronin was expelled in a case where Sullivan conducted the prosecution.

There was no question in Chicago of Cronin's hostility to him or any one who was present at the meeting of the National League Committee in 1886 when Dr. Cronin assailed him. Upon this enmity Sullivan claimed it was unnecessary for him to enlarge.

As to the second objection Sullivan said Cronin was a member of the executive body of the United Brotherhood who had formulated charges against him, that Cronin had expressed an opinion in the case and would not be accepted as a juror in any civil case in which Sullivan had anything to do.

In support of the third reason Sullivan went into a long history of Cronin's career, accusing him of being a perjurer and a British spy, who had taken the oath of allegiance to Her Britannic Majesty, and that he had sworn falsely in regard to the election of delegates from the Chicago district to the convention, that he had sworn falsely in regard to his American citizenship, his age and various other matters.

The witness continued: "In June, 1882, John Devoy said that $300,000 and over was in the hands of the triangle and over $180,000 had been spent in violation of the constitution."

"The $300,000 does not include the $180,000 given to Sullivan by Patrick Egan?"

"I know nothing about that." The funds of the organization were supposed to be used in case of England getting into difficulty and to assist Ireland in getting her liberty. There is nothing in the constitution regarding a man to sacrifice his life for the order.

The name of John F. Beggs, chief officer of the Clan-na-Gael camp of which Dr. Cronin was a member, was called, but he did not respond. It was subsequently found that his office was closed and that there was a sign on his door which read that he was not at anybody's investigation.

Lawyer Trude denies that he said yesterday that Alexander Sullivan had operated on the Board of Trade for a number of bucket shop men. He said Sullivan represented only one person. Mr. Trude claims that Egan requested Sullivan to remove the $100,000 in question from Paris to America because of the unsettled condition of affairs in France at the time. When the danger was over the whole amount was transferred back to Egan, and Sullivan has Egan's receipt for it.

WANTS TO BE "ELECTROCUTED."

A Man Offers to Test Execution by Electricity for His Family's Benefit.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 7.—A strange communication came in the mail of the Superintendent of Prisons this morning. It was nothing less than an offer on the part of a man, whose name is withheld for the present, to act as a victim to science by testing the efficacy of the new apparatus for executing by electricity. The writer of the letter, which is postmarked Philadelphia, says he is a poor man with a family. He understands that there are grave doubts as to the reliability of the electrical apparatus, and that a trial of it would doubtless settle all mooted questions and remove many of the objections now urged so vehemently. He is willing to be a trial victim if the Superintendent will pay $5000 to his family to provide for their wants after the deadly current has taken away their provider.

The letter will probably be kept as a curiosity in General Lathrop's office.

AN APPEAL TO THE COURTS.

Favored by the Congregational Union re the Jesuits' Estates Act.

BRANTFORD, June 7.—At the morning session of the Congregational Union of Ontario and Quebec the invitation of the Kingston Congregational Church to meet there next year was accepted.

A series of resolutions proposed by Rev. W. H. Marling, denouncing the acts of the Legislature of Quebec incorporating the order of the Jesuits and granting $400,000 for their forfeited estates as by no means the last of a long series of encroachments upon the prerogatives of the Crown and the rights of the subject and inimical to personal freedom, and heartily supporting such an appeal to the courts as may cause a thorough investigation to be made of the constitutionality of the obnoxious legislation, were unanimously passed.

A Kansas Tragedy.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 7.—Burt Halvorson, a farmer living 6½ miles from Olivet, shot and killed his wife with a rope Wednesday night and then went to the house and hanged himself. He left papers stating that his property should be divided among his five children and no one would ever know the cause of his crime. The murderer was very overbearing, compelling his wife to work in the field. His property is worth $40,000.

The Second Ballot in the Kansas State.

HARTFORD, Conn., June 7.—Governor Bulkeley to-day vetoed the bill providing for a second ballot. He holds that the bill is too radical, too cumbersome, too expensive, opens the door to fraud and will result in disenfranchisement of voters. The House passed the bill over the Governor's veto, 125 to 76. The bill was subsequently reconsidered and tabled and the House adjourned.

CONFERRING OF DEGREES.

ON PREMIERS, JUDGES AND ALL KINDS OF STUDENTS.

Vice-Chancellor Mulock of Toronto University Answers the Charges of Principal Grant in a Vigorous Speech.

TORONTO, June 8.—Yesterday was a red letter day in the history of Toronto University. It witnessed the conferring of no less than 186 degrees: 8 honorary LL.D.'s, 6 M.D.'s, 9 M.A.'s, 1 C.E., 25 D.D.S.'s (Dental Science), 12 LL.B.'s, 30 M.B.'s, 70 B.A.'s, 6 B.S.A.'s (Agriculture), 9 M.D.'s and candom gradum, a much greater number than on any previous occasion. It was the first time an honorary degree was conferred by Toronto, and those on whom they were bestowed were certainly worthy of the mark. The new "Doctors" are Sir John A. Macdonald, Hon. Edward Blake, Hon. John Alexander Boyd, Hon. Oliver Mowat, Hon. William Ralph Meredith, William T. Aikins, M.D., Rev. John Campbell and John Hoskin, Q.C. All except Mr. Blake were present to receive their degrees and made felicitous speeches.

When the degrees had been conferred Mr. Mulock delivered the customary address of the presiding officer. After some preliminary remarks referring to the progress of the University during the year Mr. Mulock replied at length to the statement made by Principal Grant on Feb. 15 before the council of Queen's that the matriculation examinations in Ontario and Quebec were not equal to the standard in England, Australia or the best universities in the States, that Queen's had for years done everything in its power to bring about a remedy, that Toronto University was the obstacle to progress, that Queen's had been obliged to lower the standard of its matriculation examination in order to be level with that of Toronto, and the grand remedy for all this was common action on the part of the different universities whereby they could combine on thinking out, preparing and conducting a common matriculation examination which system might be extended when examinations down to the end of the entrance year might be conducted by the combined action of the universities.

The speaker held that this was simply a proposition to place under denominational control at once a large portion of the public school system of Ontario, with the prospect of extending that control until the whole system shall have passed beyond the reach of the people's responsible representatives and become an element of discord among our people to the destruction of the whole system.

Mr. Mulock said that Principal Grant himself on May 27 abandoned this scheme in favor of one proposing a leaving or final examination for the High Schools and Collegiate Institutes, those passing such examinations being entitled to register as matriculants in the universities. The speaker said that far from Toronto University opposing the adoption of a general scheme founded on sound principles it would heartily co-operate in order to the attainment of so desirable a result.

Returning to the charges against the matriculation requirements Mr. Mulock detailed the steps taken by the Senate in preparing the curriculum, showing

THE ONTARIO PUMP CO'Y.

Will Locate in Peterborough for a Small Bonus.

They Are Granted $200 a Year and Exemption from Taxes—A Growing Industry to Locate Here—The Railway Companies Must Guard Their Crossings.

A special meeting of the town council was called last night. Every member was in his seat, and the session lasted till after ten o'clock.

Mr. STEVENSON stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of laying before the council the negotiations which had been going on for the last few days regarding the establishment of a new pump manufactory here. The manager of the concern was present to speak for himself. It was for the council to say what terms should be given them.

The clerk read a legal opinion from Mr. W. H. Moore, barrister, (the town solicitor being absent) giving it as his belief that a municipal council can grant freedom from taxation for ten years, and renew such freedom for ten years more, last consent without, the consent of the ratepayers entitled to vote on it, pass a by-law granting a bonus to a manufactory, nor bonus an industry already established, without a bonus, nor grant a bonus to secure the removal to the town of one elsewhere established, nor where the total bonuses would amount to 10 per cent. of the total revenue.

Mr. CARLE explained that Mr. O. R. Peck, who was present, represented the Ontario Pump Company, of Toronto, which manufactured pumps, windmills, and some railway material. The Manufacturing Committee had proposed to Mr. Peck to exempt him from taxes for ten years in the old stove foundry, grant a bonus of $600 a year, thus practically paying the rent, the company to employ 25 hands the year round.

Mr. Peck gave a history of the company's progress from its inception to the present. It was established in Toronto, and in 1881 the business was transferred from a private individual's hands to a joint stock company. The business of the company had steadily increased from $19 712 in 1884 to $53,990 in 1888. Their prospects were good, and they were compelled to remove because they were crowded out of their present premises at the corner of Spadina avenue and Cedar street, Toronto. They decided to leave Toronto a year ago, and were negotiating with Hamilton and Whitby. On the 24th of May he came down to Peterborough on business and was induced to open up negotiations. Mr. Peck mentioned a number of the contracts the company had fulfilled. They manufactured twenty-five kinds of windmills, and had a full supply of other pumps. They did largely a wholesale business and had practically no opposition in the railway pump business. They did a large foreign trade, but principally with the Northwest. They proposed to buy the building of the old stove foundry, (as they had to make a number of alterations,) which they could get for $20,000. The company had a paid up capital of $46,000, with a reserve fund, and they would bring $60,000 here. They at present employed 30 men and he had no doubt they could easily employ 35 or more. Mr. Peck said he would prefer to make a change in the bonus. He offered instead to take a bonus of $600 per year for each man employed, or six per cent. on the money paid out in wages.

Mr. RUTHERFORD considered that one of the best guarantees they could have of the permanence of the industry was the fact that Mr. Geo. A. Cox had offered to take $5,000 stock in it.

Mayor STEVENSON said that they should first get over the legal difficulty.

Mr. R. H. D. HALL said that he could see no obstacle in the way of the council making an annual grant, but in any case the people would have to vote on it.

There was some discussion as to whether a by-law should be passed or not. It seems that if the by-law was passed it would require a two-thirds vote of the actual ratepayers, which it would be almost impossible to get. Then a clause of the act prohibited bonusing an industry which was already in operation. The proposed annual grant of $600 might be made without any by-law, but unless a by-law was passed future councils could not be bound to carry out the agreement, thus leaving the company in a precarious position. The difficulty was to make the bargain legal and at the same time binding.

In answer to a question if Mr. Peck accepted the offer of the council, he explained that there would be some expense over the $600, $700 for the building. He would have to teach some builders, and then would be the interest on the premises money besides. He would prefer to have terms as he had himself suggested, but failing that, would like to have $700 a year.

Mr. STEVENSON said he would himself make this offer. He would give his personal bond, with any two other councillors, to guarantee that Mr. Peck be paid his $600 per year for ten years.

There was considerable discussion as to whether the amount should be made $600 or $700 as Mr. Peck asked.

Mayor STEVENSON said there was a feeling against giving bonuses to new concerns because old established industries were not assisted one cent. If a high amount was given it might be the means of defeating the by-law.

Mr. CARLE said that the jealousy should not be allowed to stand in the way, as the manufactures now here would not be injured, believed it would there be any increase in the taxation. He didn't think $600 or $600 was a matter of great consequence, but in order to settle a question he proposed to split the difference and make the sum $650. This was carried.

Mr. CARLE moved, seconded by Mr. DUNCAN, that whereas the Ontario Pump Company are about to establish [illegible] in this town, be it resolved that this corporation grant them the sum of $650 per annum for ten years, provided the said company employ not less than 25 hands each year for ten years, for a period of not less than 10 months each year; and exemption from taxes for ten years.—Carried unanimously.

Mr. CARLE moved, seconded by Mr. DAVIDSON, that the town solicitor be instructed to prepare a by-law and take steps necessary to give effect to the resolution passed regarding the Ontario Pump Company.—Carried.

OTHER BUSINESS.

Mr. LANGFORD presented a report of the Street and Bridge Committee, recommending that the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific railway be required to place gates at all crossings where their respective roads cross the public streets of the town of Peterborough, the said gates to be placed where in the opinion of the Street and Bridge committee, they are required. The report was adopted.

Mr. DAVIDSON moved, seconded by Mr. WILSON,—That the time of the C.P.R. Company be extended one year more to fill in lot No. 2, west of George and south of Wolfe streets.—Carried.

Before the meeting adjourned Mayor STEVENSON called the attention of the council to the necessity of dealing promptly with the application of the school board for a remuneration of the Collegiate Institute by-law.

The council adjourned with the understanding that the Finance Committee, to which had been referred the matter, would meet Monday night, and probably another meeting of the council will be called in a few days.

NO CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE.

Cause of the Inquest Into the Death of the Girl Katie Dunbar.

TORONTO, June 7.—The inquest into the death of Katie Dunbar was continued this night in the City Morgue by Coroner Powell. It opened at 8 o'clock and lasted until far after midnight. Among the witnesses were Mrs. Pollard and Wilmerding Allen and Alfred Charles Nicholls, whose names have been mentioned in connection with the case when it first received the attention of the police. He had come all to Rathbun but was prevented on return and give information. County Crown Attorney Drayton requested the Coroner; Detective Ahl Quinlan and Lemon, Rathbun the police, and Mr. N. G. Bigelow Mrs. Wright, accused of complicity in the girl's death.

In opening the business Coroner Powell incidentally remarked that he had learned that some of the previous witnesses had been guilty of perjury, and he simply warned those who were still to be heard that perjury before a coroner's jury was just as great an offence as when committed before the Court of Assizes. Alfred C. Nixon was the first to testify. He knew the deceased as a boarder at Mrs. Liddiman's, but knew nothing about the cause of her death until the doctor had been called in. She was separated from his wife and had known Mrs. Liddiman for two years, living with her at various periods in that time. He was acquainted with Mrs. Cook for four years. He had gone to Buffalo after the girl had died, and he had been followed by Mrs. Liddiman: a warrant for his arrest had been sworn out.

The County Crown Attorney asked that the bottle of medicine found in the deceased's room be produced. The coroner had it produced instead a report from Dr. Ellis, to public analyst, stating that he had examined the contents and found them harmless.

Mr. Bridgeford did not seem pleased with this, and hinted pretty strongly that the jury was being trifled with.

Dr. Wilberforce Aikins followed and gave the report of the post mortem. It was positive to the effect that a criminal miscarriage had taken place. The direct cause of death was pulmonary hemorrhage.

Some of the jurors thought that Dr. Ellis should have been present at the inquest to explain his report, but afterwards withdrew the objection, and the coroner then gave the case to the jury.

It was 12.30 when the verdict was rendered. It ran as follows:

That at 123 Queen-street, east on May 31 the deceased Katie Dunbar came to her death as the result of the illegal action of Alfred Lemon, and contributed to by the weak condition of her system brought on by a miscarriage, but in what manner that miscarriage was induced we have no evidence to show.

Mrs. Wright was accordingly discharged from custody.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED

The Most Agonizing, Itching, Burning and Bleeding Eczema Cured.

Remains in its worst Stages. A Row Sore From Head to Foot. Hair Came, Scabs and Blotches Full. Tried Everything. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies for $6.

I am sorry to say that I have had a horrible disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and been through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. My hair came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everything, I heard of your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and procured three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, and used all three in the course of about 3½. I could not be without the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, and I think they are the only skin and blood medicines.

A Most Wonderful Cure.

I have had a most wonderful cure of salt rheum (eczema). For five years I have suffered with this disease. I had to cut my hair short and hands for over two years. I used hundreds of remedies, and not one had the least effect. The doctor said my case was incurable. I saw your advertisement, and concluded to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES; and in addition as it were soon, after using one bottle of CUTICURA and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP and two bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I find I am entirely cured. Those who think the latter compromised may come and see me for themselves.

A New Ball Club's Dinner—School Report for May.

Some eleven boys received an invitation a few days ago to spend an evening at the residence of Mrs. McMartyn. Thursday evening, May 30th, at the hour of 8 o'clock, all of them were present and beautifully attired in their best "bib and tucker." How long they were shown to the dining-room, and truly the lamps shone o'er a beautiful sight. The table was richly laden with the very best and gladdened the hearts of all who were in any way connected with this excellent supper. Mr. Strike, Principal of the Ashburnham school, occupied the seat of honor, and after justice had been done to the inner man, at the request of Mrs. McMartyn, Mr. Strike addressed the boys in his usual affable style—delighting the boys and convincing them that the surest way to be happy is always to do right, and imparting to them such counsel as will the better fit them for both work and play. The team is known by the name of the "McMartyn Baseball Team" of Ashburnham. It is composed of boys under 13 years of age. Master Samuel Adams is captain and Master Angus McMartyn is treasurer. It was unanimously carried that any boy who uses profane language is to be compelled to apologize to all the members or else he will at once be expelled. Mrs. McMartyn purposes giving the boys a picnic ere long, and will on the day of picnic present each of the boys with a handsome badge. Mrs. McMartyn is a remarkably kind lady, as is shown on this and many other occasions prior to this. What a grand aim in life to some—trying to do good to others and provide amusement particularly for the young, encouraging them to be manly and using means to prevent boys standing on our streets hearing and seeing that which has a baneful influence. We are certain these boys will never forget the kindness of Mrs. McMartyn on this occasion. May she be long spared to deal out such kindness in the wish of the boys.—[Com.

TROUBLE IN THE BROTHERHOOD.

The Locomotive Engineers Don't Like the Chief's Opposition to Strikes.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The Evening Journal says: There is trouble in the ranks of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Chief Arthur is a candidate for re-election and has been making a quiet canvass of the various lodges of the brotherhood. Last week's secret meeting was held here. There were upwards of 200 representative lodges in session. Delegates from Minneapolis and Winona, Minn., with their duties by the "C. L." the expense collection of wages on the Santa Fe and discharges by the Alton of a large number of brotherhood men fresh in their minds they were not satisfied with the chief's optimistic speech. A member of the general grievance committee addressing Chief Arthur declared the latter was wrong in stating that no misfortune threatened the organization. Said he: "A reduction of wages is expected to be made before long on a number of western roads. Such action we do not propose to accept. We desire to know whether in the event of a reduction being ordered despite our opposition you will sanction a strike?"

Chief Arthur did not like the question, but with compressed lips he rose, looked at the determined faces before him and said:

"Under no circumstances of which I can conceive shall I ever sanction another strike."

A murmur of surprise tinged with indignation arose, but ceased as the chief continued: "In the first place I am opposed to strikes on general principles. In the second place to strike would be practically suicide, for, owing to the immovable laws of supply and demand and the large number of unemployed engineers in the country, it would take but an exceedingly short space of time to fill our places."

"Then," broke in the grievance committee, "I suppose a reduction of wages should come on the Union Pacific system, where the brotherhood is so thoroughly equipped as to obtain everything they ask, would not you authorize a strike to resist it?"

Without hesitation the chief said: "No, sir, I would not. I believe no reduction of wages is to be made, but should there be and the men follow my advice they will accept it. I shall never sanction another strike."

Chief Arthur stopped and the meeting adjourned. Murmurs of discontent have been heard ever since. It was known that the chief had a strong dislike to strikes, but that his conservatism was so strong as his speech showed it to be was never dreamed.

BRAMPTON'S NEW POSTOFFICE.

The Corner Stone Laid by Hon. John Carling Yesterday Afternoon.

BRAMPTON, June 5.—The corner stone of the new postoffice was laid this afternoon by Hon. John Carling, assisted by Alfred Alburn, Hon. John Crosbie, supported by N. Clarke Wallace, M.P.; Robert White, M.P.; Postmaster-General John Haggart and many other prominent Conservatives were met by the Brampton Mechanics Band, the Town Council, the County Council and many private citizens.

After a drive through the principal streets the new postoffice site was reached, where a spacious platform had been erected, which was occupied by Mayor Haisty on behalf of the town of Brampton, Warden Anderson on behalf of the county council and Dr. Moore, President of the Conservative Association, who, amidst the hats, cheers and music suitable to the occasion. A large and handsome bouquet of red flowers was also presented by two little girls, the daughters of Judge Rose and Mr. McCabe, M.P.

After the corner stone had been well and truly laid with a silver trowel presented by the contractor, Mr. Gregory, of the town of Brampton, embossed the address to a large copy to which a large number of the citizens had each invited, 300 covers were laid. After full justice had been done to the feast the usual loyal and patriotic toasts were drunk, the distinguished guests leaving by the 6.30 train for Toronto.

THE JESUITS' ACT.

Big Mass Meeting at St. Catharines—Col. O'Brien and Others Talk.

ST. CATHARINES, June 6.—The Opera House was filled to-night to hear the speeches by Col. O'Brien and others on the Jesuits Estates Act. Amongst those on the platform were noticed: Dr. Comfort, Rev. Messrs. Wilson, Bland, Ratcliffe, Archidge, Alt. McCormick, Mr. Thomas Kopas and others. The hall of order prevailed and many ladies were present. The usual resolutions were passed.

TO THE DEAF.—Aderson cured of deafness and noises in the head of 28 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it free to any person who applies to Hammond, 39 St. John street, Montreal.

Many a sufferer from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, etc., will be glad to find that Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine is strongly recommended for such cases. It is easily taken, blends pleasantly with food, and is put up in convenient form. W. A. D. Dyer & Co., Montreal. 54t30

SCHWATKA'S FIND.

Cliff and Cave Dwellers in Southern Chihuahua—A Primitive People.

DURANGO, N.M., June 6.—Lieut. Schwatka arrived here to-day. His party has been very successful in its explorations, especially in Southern Chihuahua. There living cliff and cave dwellers were found in great abundance. Their abodes are similar to the abandoned cliff dwellings of Arizona and New Mexico. It was almost impossible to get near them, so wild and timid were they. The cliff dwellers are sun worshippers. They throw their new born children out in the full rays of the sun. They are usually tall, lean and well formed. Their color is a blackish red, nearer that of the negro than that of the Indian. Schwatka thinks his investigation will be of immense anthropological and archæological value. He estimates the cave and cliff dwellers number from 2000 to 12,000. They are armed only with bows, arrows and stone hatchets.

Rheumatic Pains require no description, since with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their tortures. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundations. The most successful treatment known, and it is now frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that new famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the suffering. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottles of Nerviline can be had at the drug store for 10 cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6dw23

Piles! Piles! Burning Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

Nerve Torture.

"I suffered with neuralgia and obtained no relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil. Since then I have also found it an invaluable remedy for all painful burns and cuts, rheumatism and sore throat." Mrs. F. Cameron, 137 Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ont. 2w234

Pictou Pencilings.

Mr. Hazen F. Murray, of Pictou, N. S., writes:—"I was affected with dyspepsia and nervous debility, and tried many remedies without avail, but one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters much improved me, and two more made me a well man." 2w23d

Given Instant Relief.

"I have been troubled with asthma and a bad cough for years. I got nothing to help me like Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and would recommend it to others as it gives instant relief." Extract from a letter from Walter McAsley, Ventner, Ont. 2w23d

In 10 Days Time.

"Was troubled with headache, bad blood and loss of appetite, and tried all sorts of medicines without success. I then tried one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and found relief in 10 days." A. J. Maindle, Matawan, Ont. 2w23d

SCROFULA

Humors, Erysipelas, Canker, and Catarrh, Can be cured by purifying the blood with

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 999 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Mrs. Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Price $1; six bottles, $5.

Hotel Business.

Mr. Hugh Beckett, of Norwood, has purchased the Queen's hotel from Mr. Wm McGregor, and has taken possession. Mr. Beckett is an experienced hotelkeeper, and will no doubt conduct the Queen's in a way that will bring him the confidence and patronage of the public.

TO-NIGHT

The Game Postponed.

Rain is no respecter of persons. It was confidently expected that no such objection would be offered to the printers' baseball match, but on account of the softness of the ground and threatening weather it has been thought advisable to postpone the game for one week. In the meantime the boys will practice hard, and spectators may expect to see a brilliant game.

Watching all the Boats.

The St. Andrew's Society are working up their excursion to Toronto, on the 29th of June, very industriously, and as much interest is already awakened in it that the committee are constantly hearing from our citizens who purpose taking advantage of the trip. A full meeting of the Excursion Committee is called for this evening in St. Andrew's Hall at 8 o'clock, sharp.

Missing Beauty.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Gananoque are providing a free reading room, ice water, blacking and brushes, soap and towels, and writing materials, etc., for the use of the military camp, which will assemble there on the 15th of this month, and they invite all the men who will attend camp this year to make use of their mammoth tent, etc.

Masonic Excursion.

A Masonic excursion to the back lakes on Tuesday, June 18th. The Masonic fraternity will celebrate the opening of the Chemong branch of the G.T.R. on the above date by an excursion to Bridgenorth. From their terminus the steamer Rosebounge and palace barge, Falcon, have been engaged to convey excursionists to Jessop's Island, a beautiful sylvan resort in Pigeon Lake. Those wishing to go on to Bobcaygeon have the privilege of doing so. Cheap rates. Tickets for adults, 75c.; children, 50 cents. Posters giving fuller particulars issued to-day.

IN IRISH SONGS.

A Sum of Money Found.

Not in the streets, but in the rate for the grand excursion to Rochester on June 18th. Three dollars pays the bill of fare (travelling) for a four days' trip to Rochester. You leave town by G. T. R. Saturday evening, cross the lake on the Norseman and arrive in Charlotte, the port of Rochester, at six o'clock a.m. After spending Sunday in Rochester you can return in time for resumption for business Monday morning, or you can stay till Tuesday night. Just think of it—all this for only $3. Tickets may be had at COX & DAVIS' ticket agency, or at the Grand Trunk station.

An Ontertical and Intellectual Treat.

The address of Rev. Dr. Clark, of Wesley College, Toronto, in St. John's school room on Monday night will be a decided oratorical and intellectual treat, as well as a moral lesson of deep significance. One need not have read Canon Kingsley's "Water Babies" to appreciate the beauty of the lecture, but all who hear the lecture will at once wish to read the reverend Canon's clever book.

Fine Property in the Market.

Attention is directed to the advertisement in another column of the sale by auction, on Friday, June 14th, of that fine residence property on the northeast corner of Hazelwood and Water street, the Mrs. Wildman residence. This is a good opportunity for any person desirous of securing first class real estate, for either personal use or speculative purposes. Messrs. Hatton & Wood, solicitors, town, or Mr. Stapleton, auctioneer, will give all desired particulars. 1d

Fraternal Tribute of Respect.

Among the floral emblems sent for the funeral of the late Gen. V. Walker, was one contributed by Peterborough Lodge No. 125, Ancient Order of United Workmen. It was a combined anchor and shield the design being beautifully worked out in choice flowers. The emblem was furnished by Mr. F. Mason, Holmdale Greenhouses, and nestling among the flowers in the cross-bar were the letters "C.H.R." (the initial letters of the motto of the order), and on the flake, the letters "A.O.U.W."

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. H. BEAMISH, secretary of committee. dtd

The Chemong Lake Bridge.

A King's Wharf, Emily, correspondent of the Lindsay Post writes:—"The Pigeon Lake Bridge has stood the spring freshet very well, being almost in as good condition as it was last fall. Travellers to Peterborough, however, have something more serious to reckon with in Chemong lake bridge which is in a very precarious condition. It would be well for the people of King's Wharf and Verulam not to venture on taking very heavy loads to Peterborough until the bridge is repaired. Mr. Kelly informs us that this will be proceeded with at once." The Post's solicitude for the residents of Emily is pathetic in its disinterestedness. But it is not probable that the exaggerated accounts of the dangerous condition of the Chemong Lake bridge will deter the farmers from running the risk in order to get to a good market in a live town.

At the Opera House.

Mr. Thos. J. Farron, of Baker & Farron, and his company presented Jos. Murphy's comedy drama "Help" at the opera house last night to a good sized audience, while the troupe is composed of a number of good actors. Mr. Farron appeared in five different characters, and took them all creditably. The company is a good all-round theatrical troupe, there being scarcely a weak spot in the whole cast. Gus Pixley, "the djude," is a brother of the celebrated Annie Pixley, a prominent figure on the American stage. Mr. Farron's Irish songs were received warmly, as were also the songs of the "twull" and "Miss Fannie." It was announced that the company would reappear to-night. It seems they were billed for Trenton, but when the agent found that the "opera house" there was a plain hall, devoid of stage settings of any sort, he cancelled the engagement. They will reproduce "Help" at Bradburn's opera house to-night.

A Local Organist in Oshawa.

The Oshawa Reformer has the following in reference to the performance of Mr. W. H. Dingle, organist of George Street Methodist Church, at an organ recital in Oshawa:—"Mr. W. H. Dingle, who has for some time been a resident of Peterborough, was the organist of the evening, and his brilliant playing on this occasion quite eclipsed any of his previous performances in Oshawa. A stormy fugue by Sebastian Bach, was finely played, the theme being well sustained throughout, the excellent pedal passages being a marked feature of the rendering. The player's versatility of style was shown in the transition from the dainty gavotte from "Mignon," crisply played, to the Swedish Wedding March, and the solemn strains of Playel's Hymn, opening with a plaintive voice like solo, and ending in a triumphant chorus as of victory. William Tell and the Fanfare were splendidly played, and brought out the capacity of the organ in the hands of a skillful performer."

The Interpreter of the "Water Babies."

Dr. Clark is expected to arrive by the 8 o'clock train from Toronto this evening, and will be the guest of Judge Weller during his stay in town. This being his first visit to Peterborough, the eloquent divine is only known to those who have heard him in Toronto and other places where he has delivered sermons or addresses. Dr. Clark may be briefly introduced to the readers of the EXAMINER by saying that he is a Scotchman, educated in England. After distinguishing himself as a Wesleyan minister and preacher, Dr. Clark came to Toronto some six years ago, accepting a Professorship in Trinity University, Toronto, to which the honor since given his valued services. The many tempting offers which have been made him to go to the United States. Dr. Clark is so highly in the estimation of his neighboring republic that he has been invited to address the General Convention of the Episcopal Church on three successive occasions, besides lecturing before the University of Michigan, Hobart College, and other educational institutions.

Happy Homes.

Happy homes are found wherever Bellegham's furniture is found. Its beauty of style puts the housewife in good humour, and she meets the husband with a happy smile, for she knows that no matter who he may bring home with him, in the sudden and unexpected way husbands have, she will not be ashamed to have them see her home, and the husband points the friend of his school days, whom he has not seen for years, to his neatly furnished home. Bellegham's furniture is well made and of seasoned timber, therefore it is not constantly breaking down, and it gives no excuse for repairs and the husband—therefore keeps his money and his temper. With both wife and husband in good humour, how can home be anything but happy. And, remember, Bellegham has enough of stock at his capacious warerooms, covering three large floors, to supply a hundred homes, and his well equipped factory is constantly adding to his stock. There's no discounting the fact that Bellegham heads the furniture trade of this district, because he has the largest stock of the best goods and at the most reasonable prices. Remember Bellegham's, 186 and 188 Hunter street, when you want anything good and cheap, too, in the line of furniture.

Personal.

Dr. A. T. Emmerson leaves to-night for Port Arthur, where he proposes practising his profession. The best wishes of success of his many friends follow him.

Miss Mattie Gordon, the talented young Southern lady, who has been holding Bible readings in connection with the Y.M.C.A. throughout the week, left this morning by the 7 o'clock C.P.R. train for Toronto, en route via Detroit and Chicago, to attend the Christian Alliance Convention to be held at those places next week. Quite a number of her friends gathered at the station to bid her adieu. She declined to accept any remuneration for her services, and presented to the Association the $45 offered her.

BROWN vs. ROSS.—Action for false arrest.

NON-JURY CASES.

CHALMERS vs. COSTELLO.—Settled.

BROWN vs. BRADBURN.—Plaintiff, Mrs. Harriet Brown, claims $175, the price of certain chattels sold by her to defendant. Pousette & Johnston, for plaintiff; Edmison & Dixon, for defendant.

KEMP vs. KEMP.—Plaintiff claims $25 for wrongful detention of goods. E. A. Peak, for plaintiff; Hatton & Wood, for defendant.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings.

Miss Gordon's Farewell Bible Reading.

The heavy down pour last night did not prevent the filling of the George street Methodist school room to hear the last of Miss Gordon's Bible readings, and those present were richly rewarded for their temerity, in the delightful character of the meeting. Miss Gordon carried the congregation with her in her enthusiasm regarding the nearness and immeasurable love of Christ, and the boundless possibilities of faith. Whether agreeing with her in her Scriptural conclusions or not, no one who hears her can fail to be impressed with the intense reality to her of what she teaches and of the exalted character of her faith. At the close of the meeting a voluntary thank offering was made of $45 which was presented to Miss Gordon and which she immediately presented to the Association as a contribution towards a building fund which they are so earnestly in favor of securing. Is it not time that Peterborough were moving in the matter of securing a permanent home for this valuable institution (the Y.M.C.A.) and placing it on a firm basis? Who will take the initiative by presenting a suitable site?

LADIES' AUXILIARY.

All ladies interested in the work of the Association are invited to meet in their rooms on Monday afternoon at 3.30 p.m., with the view of forming a ladies' auxiliary.

Bay of Quinte Conference.

The Methodist Ministers and Laymen Hold Council.

BELLEVILLE, June 7th.

A large part of the second day's session was devoted to routine business and the reception of candidates for the ministry. Amongst those admitted was Edwin Arthur Pearson, B.A., Peterborough. The resolutions of district meetings, largely referring to the Jesuit question, were referred to appropriate committees.

A resolution of thanks to Rev. M. L. Pearson for the urbanity, promptness and ability with which he has filled the presidential chair, was moved by Mr. Wm. Johnston, seconded by Rev. John Learoyd, and carried by a standing vote, after which a similar resolution was presented to the retiring secretary, Rev. J. J. Rice.

The evening session was devoted to the reception of young men ready for ordination. Rev. M. L. Pearson was among the speakers.

Police Court.

SATURDAY, June 8.

Old Paddy Hendrigan was given a six months' lodging ticket for the county boarding house.

Three boys named Herron, brothers, were before the magistrate on a charge of throwing stones at old Mr. Hillier. They were reprimanded and confined in the cells for six hours as punishment.

About nine o'clock this forenoon a man named Jas. Thompson took a pair of pants from in front of Gough Bros' store. He was very drunk, and apparently didn't know what he was doing. His action was observed and the police notified. He was promptly arrested, but, being too drunk to stand his trial, was remanded till Monday to allow him to sober up.

News Nuggets.

—Mr. R. M. Roy, of Peterborough, gave a stereopticon and sleight-of-hand exhibition at Lakefield last Friday night. Of the entertainment the Chronicle says that it was without exception one of the best performances every given in Lakefield.

Young's Point.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

LUMBERING—Our lake presents a lively appearance at present, being almost filled with logs. Four blocks belonging to the Gilmour Company, containing in all about one hundred thousand logs, passed the Point last week, under the able superintendence of Mr. Jno. Gale assisted by the genial clerk, Mr. A. Lemaine. These are being sorted from Mr. Strickland's drive of eighty thousand logs at "Three Islands." It has been remarked that the men are the quietest and most orderly set of fellows who have ever passed through this place.

CROPS—The crops are looking well after the recent heavy rains, and were damaged only to a slight extent by the frost on the morning of May 29th. Some stalks of rye have been noticed in this vicinity which measured five feet in length.

CAMPERS—A number of owners of lodges are making a tour of inspection of the islands in Stony Lake to see that everything is in readiness for the camping season.

HONOR ROLL—The following is the Honor Roll of S. S. No. 8, Young's Point, for the month of May:

A. A. Smith, teacher.

Fourth class—R. Kearns, I. Kearney, F. G. Young. Third class—A. Young, W. Pope, M. Young. Second class—L. Wright, K. Pope, G. M. Blewett. Part II Class Sr. F. Walsh, S. Dever, V. McFarlane. Part II Class Jr.—N. Maguire, L. McNaughton, L. Quinlan. Part I Class Sr.—L. Young, G. Pope, T. White. Part I Class Jr.—M. Walsh, M. Quinlan, M. Dever.

Cardiff.

From Our Own Correspondent.

We had a call from the Baptist preacher at Norwood, Rev. Mr. Peer, and a gentleman from Peterborough, a friend of his. They were doing some of the lakes in search of trout. They came to Little Trout lake and for their trouble they carried off forty-two fine trout.

We are having snow late here. We had snow on the 25th May, and it is snowing now, the 28th.

The Deer Lake factory is running nicely now. We have got a young man from Westwood, Mr. Graham. He seems to have good success. It is a small factory, and we have twenty-five cheese made now.

The High License By-law.

Argument on the motion to quash the Peterborough high license by-law was heard before Mr. Justice Rose in Toronto yesterday. The learned judge reserved decision, the question of the right of leaseholders to vote being one that required consideration. Mr. Pousette appeared in support of the motion and Mr. Edwards, contra, showed cause. The Toronto journals law columns thus refer to the case:—"Re Croft and Town of Peterborough.—Pousette, Q.C., moved to quash a by-law of the town of Peterborough passed under R. S. O., ch. 194, sec. 42, and approved by the electors, providing for a duty of $400 to be paid for tavern and shop licenses on the ground that certain electors, being leaseholders, were improperly prevented from voting upon the by-law, and the same was therefore not legally adopted."

A New Manufactory.

Our city fathers are very commendably alive as to the importance of bringing new manufactories to the town, and in one case they have succeeded. Arrangements are about completed for the bringing of an important industry to town, fuller particulars of which will be forthcoming at an early date. But there are some existing industries of far greater importance. For instance, Hawley Bros.' tea store, where are kept the finest brands and varieties of tea, the latest crop, the best qualities and at the cheapest rates. Making a special line of teas, they have a special stock, and have special prices which other dealers cannot touch. Remember when you need first class teas, coffees or spices or similar goods, the best place is Hawley Bros.' tea store, George street.

IS YOUR BAKING POWDER PURE?

Do its Manufacturers Publish all the Ingredients Used?

IS IT FREE FROM AMMONIA?

As is well known, ammonia is unhealthful in food, and dries up the bread material.

Protection to consumers of food compounds lies in their ability to choose those made from healthful substances. Unless manufacturers publish just what their baking powder is made of, do not use their goods, but buy instead

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER.

This powder is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, and strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, with a little wheat flour to preserve it. This is attested by the official analyses of Government and State chemists, and physicians, and chemists of Boards of Health throughout the country.

SIDEWALKS VERSUS SHOES.

The permanent sidewalk question is a hard one, and requires a good understanding—which nobody can supply better than a good shoemaker. In fact, it is pretty much a shoemakers question, first and last—especially last.

"I like to wait on a man who has a family of eight or nine children. He has bought baggies before, and, as they eventually become kindling wood, he merely asks for an extra good quality of inflammable wood in the buggy, pays for it and departs in a few minutes."

A practical matron in the most matter of fact way, leaves this order:—"Send to my residence a new baby buggy, not quite so gorgeous as the last, a little heavier in axles, and just about the same size as the one before the last, which my husband purchased. I am not particular about trimmings."

CHAS. BUTLER'S

GROCERY STORE, HUNTER ST., PETERBOROUGH.

My Shop must be re-fitted and renovated. This requires money, and money I must have. To secure the cash I have decided to have a GIGANTIC CLEARING SALE at such prices as will compel the public to turn my stock into money in the shortest possible time.

Take Notice that my Splendid Stock of China, Crockery and Glassware, is well assorted and of the LATEST design, is cheap at current prices—but at the prices which will rule at Butler's Clearing Sale they will be Genuine Gifts.

☞Remember this applies to my fine stock of Cutlery and Fancy Goods, Teas and General Groceries of all kinds.

FOR THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS

THERE WILL BE A

Slaughter of Goods at Knock-Down Prices

for I need the money for the purposes above indicated and the Stock MUST be sold, and the Stock WILL be sold if Low Prices for First Class Goods are any temptation to a buying public.

Don't forget Butler's Great Clearing Sale now going on. A boom in big bargains for ready cash

If You Are Done Housecleaning

You will find you are wanting something in the line of Tableware we are sure. ATTRACTION
AT
TURNBULL'S

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 50c. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"
FROM THE NEW FIRM OF
H. LeBRUN & Co.
Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

a past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to favor prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BETTER FABRICS, FINER SUITS than were ever handled before.

Special values in FINE SPRING OVERCOATS, and FINE Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine drawers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment is an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and talent. Besides perfect fit and first-class tailorings, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little men—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, Boys' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SUMMER WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HANDKERCHIEFS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

MOVING AT A FAIR PACE.

MR. GLADSTONE THINKS THE LIBERALS ARE ALL RIGHT.

A Summons for Obtaining Money Under False Pretences Issued Against Viscount Mandeville.

LONDON, June 8.—Mr. Gladstone addressed a Liberal meeting at Weymouth to-day. He said the Liberal party was moving in the right direction and at a fair pace. He spoke in favor of limiting the length of a Parliament to four or five years. Referring to Ireland, he admitted that crime had decreased there and attributed the movement to recent remedial measures, to the beneficial influence of Irish members of Parliament and the press, and above all the knowledge possessed by the Irish people that a large majority of the people of England sympathized with them. It remained for Englishmen to say whether they will do a further act of justice which alone would give a true and indissolubble union of the various countries comprehended under the designation of Great Britain and Ireland.

A Bad Viscount.

LONDON, June 8.—The Public Prosecutor has ordered that another police summons be issued against Viscount Mandeville, the eldest son of the Duke of Manchester, whose bankruptcy was announced three months ago. The Viscount is charged with obtaining money under false pretences.

Paris in a Ferment.

PARIS, June 8.—M. Reinbert, the attache of the War Ministry who was arrested yesterday, has purged himself of contempt of the Boulanger commission and has been liberated. A Boulangist meeting announced to be held at Angouleme to-day was prohibited by the authorities. MM. de Roulede, Laguerre, Laisant and Richard and a score of citizens were arrested for protesting against the action of the authorities. The populace is in a ferment. The troops are confined to their barracks.

The Seats Above the Church.

PARIS, June 8.—The discussion of the educational budget was continued in the Chamber of Deputies to-day. Count Albert Dumun of the Right, referring to ex-Premier Ferry's speech of Thursday, in which he said he desired to see peace between church and state, repelled the advances of Ferry and made a savage attack upon him. The Count's allusion to the ex-Premier as a man whose name alone caused the country to shed tears of blood, was received with frantic applause by the Right. "The country," continued the Count, "owes the end of M. Ferry's intolerable dictatorship which rendered France uninhabitable to honorable men."

M. Fallieres, Minister of Education, said he was confident an appeal to the country would justify the Government's policy.

M. Clemenceau repudiated the policy of M. Ferry. It was better, he said, to wage war with the church frankly since it was chimerical to dream of a reconciliation. The church must not be begged to tolerate but must be compelled to obey the laws. [Applause on the Left.]

Paris Editors in Trouble.

PARIS, June 8.—On the appeal of the Procureur-General the directors of the newspapers Intransigeant, Triboules, Autorita, and Gaulois, charged with insulting the Chief Magistrate, have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from one week to one month, and to pay fines ranging from 200 to 500 francs, and small damages.

Bruno's Statue Unveiled.

ROME, June 8.—The statue of Bruno was unveiled to-day with imposing ceremonies. 20,000 persons, including students and deputations from various parts of Italy, marched in procession through the principal streets. The removal of the canvas covering the statue was the signal for deafening cheers. The ceremonies were witnessed by the Syndic of Rome, the Government officials and a large number of deputies and senators. Deputy Bovio in an oration eulogized the martyr and declared that to-day there was born a new religion of free thought and liberty of conscience which would be worse for the papacy than the loss of temporal power. After a banquet at which 1000 covers were laid the procession returned to the starting point and was dismissed. In the evening the monument was illuminated. The proceedings throughout were orderly. The memory of Garfield was honored with an imposing ceremony at the capitol to-day.

The Pope Depressed.

ROME, June 8.—The Pope is much depressed. It is reported that he refuses to see anybody and that he has passed three days absorbed in prayer in his private chapel. Four hundred telegrams have arrived at the Vatican deploring the unveiling of the Bruno monument. All the ambassadors accredited to the Vatican met this afternoon in the Pope's chapel.

A Secret Treaty.

LONDON, June 8.—It is reported in St. Petersburg that during the Shah's visit there a secret treaty was made between Russia and Persia for the temporary annexation of Northern Persia to Russia in certain cases.

DOWN TO DEATH.

The Cataract at Niagara Claims Two Victims Sunday Afternoon.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 9.—The mighty cataract claimed two more victims this afternoon in the persons of "Jack" Walker and "Jerry" Davey of Niagara Falls, N.Y., aged respectively 29 and 25, unmarried, and who followed the life of "riversmen." About 2.30 this afternoon the two men started in their boat to cross the river to Chippawa from Point Day above the falls on the American side. Both of them were under the influence of liquor, it is said, when starting. Visitors on Goat Island saw them going down to destruction and shouts, clinging to their boat, which was being tossed about like a cork in the rapids. Down flew the frail craft with the rushing torrent. When reaching the brink of the falls it shot over the centre of the Horseshoe Falls, the men clinging to it.

One Year in Prison.

HAMILTON, June 8.—George Myers and John Bradley were arraigned this morning before the Police Magistrate on a charge of assaulting and robbing Robert Stonehouse on Wednesday night last. The Magistrate found Myers guilty and sentenced him to one year in Central Prison. He found Bradley not guilty.

Jay Sometimes Hits.

MONTREAL, June 8.—A butcher named Carroll two years ago murdered another butcher named Donnelly, and was sentenced to imprisonment for life. Recently his friends obtained a pardon. When informed of the fact last night the sentiment of joy proved too much for Carroll, and he dropped dead.

THEY WERE SLIGHTED.

The Congress Committee Snubbed at the Recent Christian Endeavor Convention.

BRANTFORD, June 8.—Considerable discussion took place at the morning session of the Congregational Union over the committee on Christian Unity not being conversed with at the recent conference held in Toronto. A great deal of feeling was expressed. Finally this resolution, moved by Rev. W. H. Warriner and seconded by S. P. Leal, was carried:

That notwithstanding the fact that the committee on Christian Unity appointed at the last meeting of this union were not invited to take part in the deliberations of the conference recently held in Toronto, nevertheless since there is a possibility that some mistake may have been made, as it therefore resolved that the committee on Christian Union be re-appointed. The [illegible] Committee consisted of Rev. Messrs. Wild, Bates, Jenkins, Fuller and Messrs. Leal and Clark as delegates to attend the said Jubilee convention in Toronto and Rev. Messrs. McColl and Saunders and Messrs. Jarvis and MacLauchlin as delegates to the Dominion Alliance for the suppression of intemperance.

WASTING PRECIOUS TIME.

PITIFUL EFFORTS AT CLEARING THE JOHNSTOWN BRIDGE.

Present Methods Make the Task Almost Impossible—The Work at Other Points Progressing Very Favorably.

JOHNSTOWN, June 8.—Affairs at the tremendous stone bridge wreckage pile seem to have resolved themselves into a state of almost hopelessness. It is amazing the routine into which everything has fallen in this particular place. Every morning at 7 o'clock a score of lilliputs come mechanically from huts and tents, or the bare hillside, and wearily and weakly go to work clearing away this mass, and at the rate they are now proceeding it will actually be months before the debris is cleared away and the last body found. Fortunately the wind is blowing away from us or we would have olfactory evidence that what is not found is far worse than what has been exposed. It may be good business and good policy to have these few workers feel around the edge of the wreckage for five or ten minutes adjusting a dynamite blast, then hastily scramble away and consume as much more time before a tremendous roar announces the ugly work is done, but the onlookers doubt it. Sometimes, when an extra large shot is used, the water, bits of wood and iron, and other shapes more fearfully suggestive, fly directly upward in a stolid column at least 200 feet high only to fall back again into almost the same spot to be tugged and pulled at, or coaxed to float down an unwilling current that is falling as rapidly now that even this poor mode of egress will soon be shut entirely off. The fact of the matter is simply this: They are not attempting to recover bodies at the bridge, but as one blast tears yards of stuff into flinders it is shoved indifferently into the water, be it human or brute, stone, wood or iron, to float down towards Pittsburg or to sink to the bottom maybe a few yards from where it was pushed off from the [illegible]

Up in the centre of the town debris is piled even higher than at the stone bridge, but the work is going on fairly well. The men seem to be working more together and enter into the spirit of the thing. Besides this, horses and wagons can get at the wrecks, and it really looks as if this part of the ruins has been exaggerated. Some of the foremen there say at the present rate of work going on through the town all the bodies that ever will be recovered will be found within the next ten days. As to the condition these bodies are in, that has become almost a matter of indifference, except as to the effect upon the health of the living. Facilities are no limited that but little sanitary precautions can be taken, and the doctors say a pest of some kind must result. An alarming report has just reached here that diphtheria has broken out in a crowded camp in town, and fears in the case will be soon taken, as everybody is excited and frightened and the doctors take no pains to conceal the fact that disease is the only enemy now. The wreckage can be, and is being rapidly cleared away and with the splendid discipline under trying circumstances now in force the only thing that can stop it is a pestilence of some sort.

A most welcome arrival this morning was Dr. H. Bullen of disinfectant fame. He brought with him fifty barrels more of his disinfectant. The doctor will take charge of the disinfecting of the dangerous sections of the flooded district and notably at the stone bridge. Dr. Lee of the State Board of Health says this disinfectant is the most effective of anything of the kind he ever saw, and it is also highly recommended by all the undertakers and doctors here. Twenty-five barrels have already been used with most favorable results. Its great virtues consists in the fact that it is perfectly harmless. Dr. Bullen was a former resident of Johnstown and lost thirty relatives in the flood, among them three brothers-in-law, three uncles and two aunts.

Seventy-Eight More Bodies.

JOHNSTOWN, June 8.—The number of bodies taken to-day from the ruins was seventy-eight, of which only nine have so far been identified. Forty-seven of the bodies were discovered in a hole on the site of the Hurlbut House. They are supposed to be bodies of guests. Fifteen bodies were received at the Fourth Ward morgue, of which seven were unidentified.

The Bodies Now Placed at 2200 to 2400.

JOHNSTOWN, June 9.—To-day 58 bodies were recovered. The remains now being found are far advanced in decomposition and physicians advocate their cremation as fast as found. This has been the hottest day since the disaster and the weather is telling on the workmen. Many of them were exhausted before evening. The stench arising from the wreckage above the bridge has been more offensive to-day than at any time yet.

At the Cambria hospital over 500 persons have received attention. Several women who nursed the injured became ill and one of them may not recover. At the Bedford Hospital 262 injured persons were cared for and afterwards were taken to the Pittsburg hospitals. The tent hospitals have been practically abandoned, as none of them have had a case for several days.

The work of registration goes steadily on. Up to this evening there were about 21,000 registered. The number of the lost is placed now at 5000 by those who hold it would reach 10,000 a week ago. A conservative estimate is between 2500 and 4000. Up to date there have been 1800 bodies recovered.

Queen Victoria's Message of Sympathy.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, called on the President this morning in company with Secretary Blaine and delivered a message from Queen Victoria expressing her deep sympathy for the sufferers by the recent floods in Pennsylvania. The President said in reply:

"MR. MINISTER: This message of sympathy from Her Majesty the Queen will be accepted by our people as another expression of her own generous character as well as the friendliness and good will of her people. The disasters which have fallen upon several communities in the State of Pennsylvania while extreme and full of the most tragic and horrifying incidents have fortunately been limited in territorial extent. The generosity of our own citizens will promptly flow to the stricken people every loss that is not wholly irretrievable, and these the sympathy of the Queen and the English people will help to assuage. Will you, Mr. Minister, be pleased to convey to the Queen the sincere thanks of the American people?"

$200 From Wentworth County.

HAMILTON, June 8.—The Wentworth County Council to-day by a vote of 12 to 9 authorized the warden, if occasion requires, to forward a sum not exceeding $200 to assist in the relief of the Johnstown sufferers.

$250,000 from Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, June 8.—The sum raised in Baltimore for the sufferers by floods in Pennsylvania and other states in approaching $250,000. The churches took up collections to-day.

A Cooking Main Broken Up.

BRANTFORD, June 8.—Last evening the police drove to the Peel farm, five miles down the Cockshutt-road, and broke up a cooking main which was about being carried on between Port Huron, London and Brantford. The officers secured 10 birds, cocks, etc. There was a good number of spectators and a general stampede made when the officers burst in door open. The names of those present were secured and probably early next week the case will be brought up.

Cobourg Boys.

OTTAWA, June 8.—Mrs. Charles White, wife of a well-to-do farmer at Harmony, who received a fall a few days ago from a ladder while putting up a clothes carrier, died this morning from the effects of the accident. In her fall her head struck on a sofa.

A good deal of damage has been done to the crops in this section by the late rainy days especially late root crops.

ALEXANDER'S OPENLY HOSTILE POLICY NOW WEB.

The Kaiser's Workmen Combine for Increased Pay—The Shah Threatened—Berlin Gossip.

BERLIN, June 8.—Prince Bismarck's period of repose at Schonhausen was probably cut short by advices from St. Petersburg showing a renewal of the openly hostile policy of the Czar. The Emperor's program for his visit to England and for the reception of Emperor Francis Joseph and other places remain uncertain through the Czar's tacit refusal to settle preliminaries for the projected interview with Emperor William. Prince Bismarck sent to St. Petersburg asking the appointment of a date and place for the meeting of the emperors. The Czar declined to appoint a date further than that on returning from Copenhagen he might meet Emperor William at Kiel, and he desired that the interview should be without ceremony and attended with no naval or military demonstration. The same response from Russia renders the sending of a formal invitation from Berlin doubtful. Semi-official papers say that the cordial personal relations between the Czar and Emperor William are unchanged, but they ignore the fact of the renewal of the strained relations of the Berlin and Vienna governments toward Russia.

The Shah at Berlin.

BERLIN, June 9.—The Shah of Persia arrived here to-day. He was welcomed with much ceremony by the Emperor. A number of princes, Count Herbert Bismark, General von Blumenthal and a crowd of officials. Royal salutes were fired and the Shah received an ovation en route to the Bellevue Palace. The Emperor and the Shah exchanged formal visits and a grand banquet was given in the evening in honor of the Shah.

Berlin Gossip.

BERLIN, June 8.—Prince George, the Czar's favorite son and probably his successor in view of the weak brain and general debility of the Czarewich, will soon begin a tour of the world, starting from Paris, where his presence is intended to mark the Czar's adhesion to the French alliance.

The Cologne Gazette declares that the Czar is definitely committed to a Pan-Slavist policy involving critical developments which are bound to have a violent end.

The Volksblatt announces the combined action among the workmen on the Royal estates—coachmen, stablemen and gardeners—for increased pay. The Emperor has already ordered that the wages of the married men be raised.

Twelve thousand masons have gone to seek work in the country. Only 5000 are left in Berlin. The police are more offensively active to suppress workmen's meetings everywhere.

The Dr. Peters expedition has collapsed owing to an epidemic among the Somalis. The expedition has disbanded and the munitions have been re-shipped for Germany.

A despatch from St. Petersburg to The Cologne Gazette says that the Czar told the Shah, and boldly too, that if while in England he should make any concession unfavorable to Russia 100,000 soldiers on the frontier would be made to march into Persia.

ROBBERY AND ARSON.

A Double Crime at Winnipeg—Attempted Suicide of a Jealous Wife.

WINNIPEG, June 9.—The Ontario Excursionists are being cordially received throughout the country by committees of citizens, and every attention is being paid them.

The co-operative store here was robbed Friday night and then set on fire. The flames were discovered and extinguished but not before the stock had been nearly all destroyed.

The wife of a negro barber named Jones tried to commit suicide Saturday by swallowing oil of cedar, but medical assistance was secured in time to save her life. Jealousy is supposed to be the cause of her act.

The system of elevators is about to be started by the Northern Pacific and Manitoba and the Keewatin Milling Company throughout the province.

Suicide at St. Elmo.

ST. CATHARINES, June 8.—People in the city were somewhat startled this morning on hearing that a cigarmaker named John O. Hallicker had committed suicide by cutting his throat. It appears that deceased had been addicted to drinking spells, and was more or less mentally affected, being very morose at times. Deceased retired to bed at 3 o'clock a.m. to-day, and shortly afterwards his father heard a noise in his bedroom. Proceeding there he found his son lying on the floor with his throat cut and a cooper's drawing knife in his hand, with which he perpetrated the bloody work. The father was almost distracted and went out of the room to send for a doctor. Returning in a few minutes he found that the young man had finished his work by cutting his jugular vein and severing his windpipe. A coroner's inquest will be held.

Limped Not Run Away.

WINDSOR, June 8.—A short time ago Joseph Corvyeau purchased Charles Corveau's wife for $1. Since then the latter decided to cancel the bargain, and endeavored to get his wife back, but Joseph would not agree to it. A warrant was issued for Joseph Corveau's arrest, but the constables have been unable to find him. Last night Constables Masters and Smith went to Joseph's house. As soon as Corveau heard them at the door he ran to the cellar. He had a hole dug to the cellar from the outside, and when Masters went inside he crawled out and started for the marsh. Masters saw him and fired two shots, but Corveau kept going and reached the marsh. The officers returned home. It is claimed that Corveau was hurt by the shots, as he limped while running.

FARMING IN ONTARIO.

Hon. Charles Drury Talks to the Lennox Farmers' Institute.

NAPANEE, June 8.—The Lennox Farmers' Institute received a visit this afternoon from Hon. Charles Drury, Minister of Agriculture, who was introduced as address by the officials of the Farmers' Institute and also by the Mechanics' Institute, to both of which he replied in fulsome terms.

Subsequently he delivered an able and practical address on "Farming in Ontario: Is it Profitable, If Not Why Not?" He showed by comparison of official returns the yield of the principal cereal crops in very much better in Ontario than in the leading portion of the Union and then referred to a few of the matters which remain in unprofitable farming.

THE LICENSE REFUND.

Last Tuesday an Order-in-Council was passed by the Ontario Government granting a refund to the Town of Peterborough of the amount of excess of license fees claimed by the Government under the amendment to the Liquor License Act passed last session. A great amount of political capital has been sought to be made ove this matter, and a great deal of talk and newspaper ammunition have been wasted in an endeavour to fix a charge of a heinous political sin against the Ontario government and to convict that government of tyranny oppression and all sorts of reprehensible conduct. And now when the word politicians and newspaper editors had just got themselves in good working order to make the most out of their alleged grievance, the action of the government removes what little real grounds they may have fancied they had for blaming the Ontario government. We had never any doubt that the government would make the refund, in view of the exceptional circumstances attending the case of Peterborough; as explained to the government by the member for the West Riding at the time of the the passage of the amendment. Mr. Stratton pointed out that the proposed legislation would appear invidious when Peterborough was the only place, besides Brockville, which had taken measures to increase its local revenue by adding substantially to its license fees on the coming in force of the Crooks Act. The amendment had no special reference—all municipalities, of course, come under the same regulations. The question of the right of the government to claim a share of the license fees is hardly a debateable one. According to the British North American Act, section 92, sub-section 10, the government has the right, if it choose to exercise it, to the whole of the liquor license fees and in giving the larger portion to the municipalities, it naturally follows that the higher the municipal license tax the larger should be the proportion returned to the government. The government undertakes from its smaller share to pay the expense of the enforcement of the Liquor License Act—the salaries and expenses of Inspectors, commissioners, etc., and it cannot be deemed unfair or unduly exacting if it claims a share of the increased sum derivable from an addition to the local license fees. The higher the municipal license tax, the higher should be the proportion returned to the government. But under the exceptional circumstances the government promptly recognized the propriety and fairness of making the refund to the town of Peterborough. The provincial revenue derivable from license fees was largely reduced by the adoption and operation of the Scott Act in a score of counties, and while the fines from infractions of the Scott Act brought no little income to the municipal treasuries, that Act not only depleted the provincial treasury to a large extent, but threw upon it no inconsiderable tax for the enforcement of the Act. And in view of the largely increased revenue which substantial increase of licenses would bring the municipalities, the Government felt that it was entitled to a share. Some empire scorn to talk as if the Government wished to take their proportion of the license money for purposes of gratuitous harrassing of the municipalities. They ignore the fact that a large share of the provincial revenue comes back to the municipalities in the way of school grants, road grants, grants to charities, hospitals, etc., thus largely relieving the drain on municipal funds. In dealing with Peterborough, the government has shown a disposition to deal fairly and equitably, and only the most bitter partisan, for purely partisan purposes, can insist on holding the government blameworthy in the premises.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Warmer Norm.—Flowery May has again left us, the beautiful landscape and waving fullness of spring once more charming the heart of man. For the first few days it felt a little cold but on the 5th a perceptible change; options the thermometer reading at 70° in the morning, 2 p.m. on the 6th at 84° on the 7th at 86° on the 8th at 90° on the 9th and on the 10th, at 86°, keeping a little cooler and on the 11th again rising to 90° after which the weather getting cooler, continued during the remainder of the month. We had slight snow on the 1st and 2nd; on the 15th the third the 25th and 26th we had frost, the thermometer standing 4° below freezing and on the 29th at 5° below; the former soon being a thing of the past and little harm, the latter being a heavy white frost cutting down all vegetables liable to suffer from frost, also barley to some extent, other grains, omitting the worse. Rain fell on 13 days to the depth of 4 inches and 36 100 of an inch being above the average for May. Three thunder storms but little rain falling but you may believe we got a parting charge on the 31st falling 1 inch and 76-100 of an inch in 24 hours. The average temperature of the month at sunrise and sunset was 50°. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month respectively, namely; South west 10 days; north west 4 days; west 2 days; south 2 days; north east 3 days; north east 5 days; east 1 day; and north 2 days.

THE LOSS OF LIFE AT SEATTLE.

Only One Man Perished and He was an Incendiary—But Two Churches Burnt.

Portland, Ore., June 8.—Later dispatches from Seattle fail to confirm previous reports of loss of life. Careful and diligent investigations thus far made show that no lives have been lost. While the flames were raging a man was seen carrying five trunks across an alley between Third and South Fourth-streets. He was seeking to get a horse that had escaped the flames. When a special policeman commenced shooting at him to avoid the shots he darted into the house he had fired and never came out alive.

Sixty-three safes were counted in the ruins to-day. Most of them seem to be uninjured. In an immense brick vault of Dexter, Horton & Co.'s bank, which stands undisturbed save by the heat, in the middle of the ruins of the bank building there are locked up $1,500,000. But two churches were burned, the Episcopal and the Methodist Protestant.

Relief Pouring In.

Portland, Ore., June 9.—As far as can be ascertained 200 firms and persons doing business in Seattle have suffered a loss, the majority of them total. Relief in the way of money, provisions, bedding, tents, etc., is pouring in from all directions. There will be no suffering as far as reported. No dwelling houses were burned, hence there are no homeless women and children.

A Blaze at Duluth.

Duluth, June 8.—Fire was discovered this morning on the north pier at Superior Entry threatening the lighthouse and storage piers. The steamer Plowboy saved all the Government property. A pile of driftwood containing 1,000,000 cords is still burning.

Other Fires in the States.

Sewalls, June 8.—Bishop Quinlan's beautiful residence was burned to-night. The Bishop's valuable collection of curiosities was destroyed.

Hamton, June 8.—The roller skate factory and furniture store at Stamford burned to-day. Loss $17,000; insurance $11,000.

Franklin, Mass., June 8.—The Franklin straw works burned to-night. Loss $60,000; insured.

THE LAND OF TORNADOES.

A Severe Wind Storm Cuts a Wide Swath in Missouri.

Kansas City, June 8.—A severe wind, rain and hail storm passed over a large portion of western Missouri yesterday, doing considerable damage to crops and buildings. Near Warrensburg a church was blown down and two persons dangerously injured.

An Illinois Cyclone.

Rockford, Ill., June 8.—A severe tornado occurred last evening at Durand. A church was destroyed, freight cars blown from the track, a flax factory ruined and many barns and dwellings unroofed.

A Toronto Boat Stranded.

Oswego, N.Y., June 9.—The worst thing of rain and hail experienced here in many years passed over this section about 7 o'clock this afternoon. The steamer Hurlet, owned in Toronto was driven ashore at Nine Mile Point. The crew escaped. An unknown schooner was driven ashore at Fairhaven. There is no communication with shore by wires to-night, but the damage to crops is believed to be very heavy.

A Hot Wave in Gotham.

New York, June 9.—It was oppressively hot here to-day. Hold-a-down prostrations were reported and one death. The temperature at 3.30 p.m. was 93.

TOPICS FROM THE CAPITAL.

Statement of Revenue and Expenditure for Eleven Months of the Fiscal Year.

Ottawa, June 8.—The statement of revenue and expenditure for the eleven months ending May 31st of the current fiscal year gives promise of a substantial surplus:—

Revenue to April 30		$36,000,000
" for day		1,291,000
Total		$37,291,000
Expenditure to April 30	$30,455,277
" for May	5,888,847
Total		$36,337,125
Surplus		$1,453,875

The revenue during the corresponding period last year was $31,856,794, and the expenditure $30,422,212. The net debt of the Dominion on May 31 was $234,680,694, a decrease of $87,000 in the month. The expenditure on capital account to May 31 was $4,800,000, $120,000 higher than at the same time last year.

The annual report on canal statistics for 1888 has been issued. The revenue for the year shows an increase of nearly $11,000 over 1887. Over $30,000 was refunded last year on grain delivered at Montreal. During the year 169,864 tons of grain passed through the Welland Canal from United States ports to United States ports, on which there was no refund, while 160,348 tons of grain passed down the Welland and St. Lawrence Canals from ports west of Port Colborne to Montreal.

Rupture.

Dear Sir—I am only to inform you that the Scientific Truss you put on me last spring has been all I was recommended and more, as it has healed my Rupture, which I was troubled with for a long time, and not having been able to work on account of it; but on hearing of you, I came and had you adjust this Truss, which gave me great relief at once, as I was able to work at once, and if I would not part with it for ten times the price if I could not get another. For further proof send them to me.

I remain, yours truly, ALEXANDER RYCKMAN, Jordan Station, Ontario.

COMPULSORY CLEARING SALE AT CHAS. BUTLER'S GROCERY STORE, HUNTER ST., PETERBOROUGH.

My Shop must be re-fitted and renovated. This requires money, and money I must have. To secure the cash. I have decided to have a GIGANTIC CLEARING SALE at such prices as will compel the public to turn my stock into money in the shortest possible time.

Take Notice that my Splendid Stock of China, Crockery and Glassware, is well assorted and of the LATEST design, is cheap at current prices—but at the prices which will rule at Butler's Clearing Sale they will be Genuine Gifts.

Remember this applies to my fine stock of Cutlery and Fancy Goods, Teas and General Groceries of all kinds.

FOR THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS THERE WILL BE A Slaughter of Goods at Knock-Down Prices

for I need the money for the purposes above indicated and the Stock MUST be sold, and the Stock WILL be sold if Low Prices for First Class Goods are any temptation to a buying public.

Don't forget Butler's Great Clearing Sale now going on. A boom in big bargains for ready cash

BYAM'S Improved "Common Sense" SASH BALANCE. LOCKS AND LIFTS.

This only practical substitute for weights invented. The most desirable, the cheapest and best device for all ordinary windows. Balances when in position are entirely out of sight. No strain, holes or screws are used in pockets in frames, so that neither can get out of order or need repairing. No cutting, boring or marring of the sash, as the latest new but true fits best. Hope daily made for sash old buildings as they can be put in by a tinsmith apprentice, as easily put in old buildings as new ones. Sash can be removed from frame in a moment (cleaning or repairing) without glass. Can be used where it is impossible to use weights or other fixtures. No unsightly cord wearing pass off sides of frames. No rattling of sash as pressure against sash prevents it. No cutting of weights or pulleys when sash is raised or lowered. No sticking of weights in frame. No cords to rust off, wear out and break. No rubber rollers to become destroyed by standing in one position for some time. No heavy and spring or delicate mechanism to break, wear out or get out of order. Its simplicity of construction and operation is the wonder of all.

Byam's Automatic Sash Locks (self fastening) and Sash Lifts for upper and lower sash are the best and cheapest in the market.

MUNCASTER'S

AFTER A COP'S SCALP.

A Thugs Starts a Shindy at a Hamilton Policeman in Court.

HAMILTON, June 7.—Among the prisoners at the Police Court this morning was a sunken-eyed, powerfully built and wicked-looking woman of 36 years, named Harriet Hillett. Years ago Hillett was a terror, in her way, to the police. In '80, '81 and '82 she hung out in the city and was convicted eight times in 1882. In Toronto some time ago she got on one of her tears, and a sergeant of police told a constable to arrest her. Before the latter could get up to her she picked up a large stone and let go at him, striking him on the head and laying him up for a time. For that offence she was fined $20 or six months in jail. When her case was called to-day she stood up with fire in her eye and a heavy tin drinking cup brought from the cells concealed under her shirt. Constable Campion stepped into the witness box and the woman suddenly threw the cup at him but missed her aim, the missile striking Constable Cameron in the arm. Harriet accompanied her shot with a volley of oaths and filth and was taken back to the cells to cool off, after which she was sentenced to a year in the Mercer Reformatory. The woman said she could stand on her head for that time and come out fresh as a daisy, and that she would kill that officer as soon as she came out.

On Tuesday last Alex. Laing found a bottle at the beach, in which was enclosed this note:

Whoever may find this will know that the yacht Mary Ann and her crew are gone to the bottom. We left the beach at 4.30 to-day and spying a leak at 5.15. No boats in sight and no help for us there.

THE PULSE OF TRADE.

Commonwealth's Flood Checks the Movement of Merchandise—Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The terrible disaster in the Conemaugh Valley, together with floods extending from Southern New York south into Maryland and Virginia, have checked the movement of general merchandise at all supply points for the region referred to. The loss of property in the territory outlined will probably not exceed $45,000,000. The estimated amount of capital invested in the Conemaugh Valley, where the property loss is placed at $20,000,000, was $7,000,000, of which $5,000,000 was employed industrially.

The almost total destruction by fire of Seattle, W.T., has apparently obliterated more than $15,000,000 worth of property. The estimated commercial capital invested at Seattle was $4,100,000.

Crop prospects remain favorable, except in Georgia, and to a less degree in Louisiana, where drouth has been severe. At most trade centres only a moderate general business is reported.

Under the abnormal conditions involved in temporary suspension of "talker" quotations the New York Stock Market was remarkably steady. Since the resumption of dealings a lower tendency has developed and liquidation of profits, rate troubles were also larger gold shipments. Banks are firm. Money at New York is fairly easy, call loans 2 to 3 per cent. Foreign exchange is high and firm, demand sterling $4.84½ to $4.85.

Foreign trade of the United States for ten months ending April 30 aggregates $62,000,000 more than in a like portion of 1887-88, chiefly due to exports of cotton and provisions and to imports of coffee, sugar, wool and silk, manufactured cotton goods.

Since Jan. 1 there have been reported to Bradstreet's 296 strikes, involving 75,110 strikers against 369 strikes and 111,201 strikers in 1888 and 511 strikes and 213,217 strikers in five months of 1887.

Stocks of wheat east of the Rocky Mountains reported to this journal June 1 aggregate 27,075,624 bushels, nearly 1,900,000 bushels less than one year ago and 7,227,981 bushels less than one month ago. Indian corn stocks have increased 400,000 bushels since May 1; those of oats have decreased 113,000 bushels. Flour stocks with one item missing, appear to be about 176,000 barrels less than one month ago and about equal to those of June 1, 1888.

The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Business failures reported to Bradstreet's number 201 in the United States this week against 196 last week and 163 this week last year. Canada had 28 this week against 16 last week. The total of failures in the United States Jan. 1 to date is 6245 against 4650 in 1888.

A Treaty Honeymooner.

MONTREAL, June 7.—A disgraceful case came before Mr. Justice Wurtele this week. It appears that a young man of 21 years, in order to obtain drink, pawned a pair of trousers worth $9 for 50 cents and subsequently sold the pawn ticket for $1 to a acquaintance from whom he purchased the liquor. He afterwards sold a jersey to the saloon keeper for the same purpose, and subsequently a pair of new boots went the same way, he receiving 50 cents and an old pair in return and continued his debauch. After he had recovered from his spree, however, he realized what he had done and then took out a summons in re-vendication on the ground that when he sold the clothing he was in such a condition as not to be responsible for his acts. Mr. Justice Wurtele granted the seizure, and took occasion to severely reprimand the saloon-keeper, who was present in court.

Trampe Fire on Express Train.

BELLEVILLE, June 7.—Last night, tramps to the number of about 12, boarded the express, due here at 12.30, at Port Hope. They occupied the platform and what is called the "blind baggage," one three of them were smoking, when in some manner the platform became ignited, and being unable to put the flame out, they pulled the bell rope. This caused the train to be brought to a standstill, when they decamped. The fire was extinguished, not much damage being done. None of them were captured.

When Carved Bishop Too Soon.

NEW YORK, June 7.—In the matter of the deathof Washington Irving Bishop, the mind-reader, it is understood that the grand jury has found an indictment against the physicians who performed the autopsy. The district attorney declines either to deny or confirm the report.

Hanged Herself Shortly.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., June 6.—George Farmer and his son Will were shot last night by Mrs. Meith Corwin. The father was badly wounded and the son fatally. They were trying to gain admittance to the widow's house against her will.

Nerve Torture.

"I suffered with neuralgia and obtained no relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil. Since then I have also found it an invaluable remedy for all painful burns and cuts, rheumatism and sore throat." Mrs. F. Cameron, 197 Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ont. 2w22d

Pictou Pencillings.

Mr. Hosea F. Murray, of Pictou, N. S., writes:—"I was affected with dyspepsia and nervous debility, and tried many remedies without avail, but one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters much improved me, and two more made me a well man." 2w22d

"I have been troubled with asthma and a bad cough for years. I got nothing to help me like Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and would recommend it to others as it gives instant relief." Extract from a letter from Walter McAsley, Ventnor, Ont. 2w23d

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Cankor, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

There was a large number present at the Thanksgiving service on Saturday evening, and it was a season long to be remembered. On Sunday morning there was a number out to the Anglesea Hill Class, which is growing in interest. Still there is room for more. On Sunday evening the gospel and song service was well attended. Rev. Mr. Fotheringill's earnest gospel address will not soon be forgotten. If the young men realized more fully the benefits to be got at these services more would attend. It is hoped many more will come out. All welcome—[COM].

The Late Sad Illness.

The funeral of the late Geo. V. Walker took place Sunday afternoon under Masonic auspices. A large number of the brethren accompanied the remains to the cemetery on foot, and upon returning to the lodge room a resolution of regret at the death of their esteemed brother and of condolence with the bereaved wife and family, was passed. The pall-bearers were W. Bros. R. A. Morrow, W. Paterson, D. Bellegham, R. E. Wood, H. Rush and Bro. J. R. Stratton. The large procession of carriages testified to the high regard in which he was held by all his friends.

What's the Use?

That's a pertinent question. What's the use of paying $2.40 to go to Toronto and $2.40 to return? when you can arrange your business so that you can go up on the St. Andrew's excursion on June 20th for $2.00 out, both ways, which, to be plain, means a dollar to go up and a dollar to return, including the privilege of going up on any train on Thursday and to return by any regular train on the following day. Think it over, make a memo. of June 20th, and buy a ticket for St. Andrew's excursion from the G.P.R. ticket agents or from any member of the Society—from the president down to the latest admitted.

The Coming Rimouski Excursion.

As Jacob got the better of Esau in olden times, so in younger times does Jacob ('s Island) get the better of any other objective point for the Rimouski excursion on June 19th. You have a brief but pleasant run to Bridgenorth by rail and then you take the steamer Rosebeagle, and the "beautiful grove"—the interpretation of the steamer's name—takes you to the beautiful grove on Jacob's Island, a delightful resort surrounded with waters abounding in fish. A splendid opportunity for a day's pleasure and at the nominal cost of 75 cents; children, 40 cents. Tickets may be procured of members of the committee, for whose names and other particulars see posters.

Peterborough's Only Carving Shop.

The EXAMINER has referred in terms of praise to the excellent wood carving executed by Mr. D. J. O'Brien and now it makes the announcement with pleasure that he has opened a carving shop in the rear of his residence, 13 Union street. Here he will be prepared to do all sorts of wood carving for house and other ornamental purposes in an artistic style guaranteed to give satisfaction. Those wishing to inspect his work are invited to visit Mr. McWilliams' new residence, Water street, where ornamental wood work he has just completed, and which tells its own story in a speaking manner. With the competition in finely finished residences, it will be a satisfaction to know that we have in Mr. O'Brien a workman capable of turning out artistic wood carving in the most satisfactory style. He also does every sort of wood carving desired, on reasonable terms. 14lw

A New Manufactory.

Our city fathers are very commendably alive as to the importance of bringing new manufactories to the town, and in one case they have succeeded. Arrangements are about completed for the bringing of an important industry to town, fuller particulars of which will be forthcoming at an early date. But there are some existing industries of far greater importance. For instance, Hawley Bros.' tea store, where are kept the finest brands and varieties of tea, the latest crop, the best qualities and at the cheapest rates. Making a special line of teas, they have a special stock, and have special prices which other dealers cannot touch. Remember when you need first class teas, coffees or spices or similar goods, the best place is Hawley Bros.' tea store, George street.

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. We would strongly advise our readers to make the arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BRAMLEY, secretary of committee. dtd

The By-Law Quashed.

Mr. Justice Rose delivered judgment late on Saturday afternoon upon the application argued before him at Osgoode hall on Friday to quash the by-law recently passed by the municipal council of the town of Peterborough, after being submitted to the electors, making the duties payable for liquor licenses in the town $300, $400 and $600 for shop, tavern and saloon licenses respectively, and thus inaugurating a policy of high licenses. The motion to quash was rested upon the ground that the by-law had not been legally adopted by the electors, the votes of certain lease-holders having been rejected at the polls, and the sole question was, what lease-holders were entitled to vote? Mr. Justice Rose held that those entitled to vote on the by-law were all persons duly qualified to vote at an election for a member of the Legislative Assembly (as per Liquor License Act, chap. 194, sec. 11); and that that section of the Municipal Act (R. S. O., chap. 223, sec. 134) which enacted that no lease-holder was qualified to vote unless his lease extended for at least a year, within which time the first license fees would be paid, did not apply to a by-law of this kind. Therefore he decided that the by-law in question had not been submitted to the "electors," properly speaking, and must be quashed. And he came to this conclusion the more readily as the subject legislated upon by the Liquor License Act is rather one of morals and police regulation than of finance, and as all residents in the municipality have an interest in the question whether they be property-owners or not. The order will be with costs to the town.

The Late Hugh Bertram.

Intelligence was received in Peterborough on Saturday of the death of Mr. Hugh Bertram, father of Mr. John Bertram, ex-M.P., now of Toronto. Mr. Bertram died at the residence of his son, Mr. Peter Bertram, Dundas, on Saturday morning, and his remains will be brought to Peterborough for burial in the Little Lake Cemetery, by the Tuesday morning C.P.R. express, the funeral taking place from the station at 11.30.

The deceased gentleman was well known in Peterborough, having resided in this county for a number of years. While in Peterborough he took an active interest in everything tending to benefit the farming community, being a thoroughly practical farmer himself, and he placed his valuable old country experience at the disposal of his fellow farmers. In politics he was a staunch advocate of Liberal principles, and the efforts of his friendships are to be seen in the foremost positions taken by his sons, especially Messrs. John and George, in the political arena. His wife died a number of years since, and was buried in the Little Lake Cemetery where the husband's remains will be placed on Tuesday. Mr. Bertram leaves five sons and four daughters—John, George, Alexander, Peter, who still has his residence in Scotland, Mrs. W. A. Hall, Mrs. Anderson, formerly of Fenelon Falls, and two Misses Bertram. Mr. Bertram had lived to enter his eighty-th year, and in the course of so long a life was a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who as well as the general community, recognize the sterling qualities that brought him an honoured old age, and at his death brought the sincere regret of all who knew of him at the close of so valuable a life.

Police Court.

MONDAY, June 10.

Old Adam Dobbin was committed to gaol for one month on a charge of vagrancy.

The man who stole the trousers from Gough's store Saturday was before the magistrate this morning. After his arrest on Saturday six pairs of socks were found hidden in the rear of Reddy's hotel, where they had been secreted by the prisoner. They were stolen from P. D. Doran & Co. This morning the man gave his name as Geo. Gordon, and said his home was in St. John, N.B. He is a moulder by trade, and is "looking for work." He pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny, but said he was so drunk he did not remember anything about it. He was sent to gaol for a month. Mr. Doran left the stolen goods with the policeman, to be disposed of as they think best. Some stockingless tramp will have cause to be grateful for Mr. Doran's generosity.

A Trio of Correspondents.

Mr. Ratcliffe and Mr. McWilliams.

PETERBOROUGH, June 8, 1889.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR—In your issue of the 5th inst. appears a report of the proceedings of the School Board of Peterborough, in which are some remarks reflecting upon my professional character very seriously. Mr. McWilliams charges me with conduct which if true would forever prevent me from any longer practising MY profession here or elsewhere. I emphatically say that the statements made are untrue in every particular; and in order to publicly vindicate my character I have instructed legal proceedings to be taken against Mr. McWilliams for damages for his slanderous utterances, so that he will have an opportunity of proving their truth if he can in a court of law.

I am advised that Mr. McWilliam's statements, owing to his position as a school trustee, may be considered privileged, and if Mr. McWilliams merely shields himself under such a plea, he may prevent me from publicly vindicating my character. At all events I shall do all that the law will allow me to do, to bring this slanderer to justice.

I am, sir, truly yours,
JOHN E. RATCLIFFE.

Mr. McWilliams and Mr. Ratcliffe.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I had prepared a reply to Mr. Ratherford's letter published in your paper of Friday last, but as Mr. Belcher has taken legal action, will reserve my reply. When the proper time comes I will make my reply and anything said or done by either of these gentlemen will not prevent me from doing what I consider to be my duty to the public.

Yours truly,
J. E. McWILLIAMS.

Peterborough, 10th June, 1889.

Third Ward Representation.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—In your issue of the 7th inst. I notice a communication signed by Mr. Arthur Rutherford, challenging Mr. McWilliams to prove the statements made by him at the last meeting of the School Board.

This calls to my memory a public meeting held in Peterborough some ten or twelve years ago, when Mr. McWilliams made some charges against Mr. Rutherford as chairman of the street and bridge committee, and Mr. Rutherford challenged him to come out and contest the ward against him and leave the ratepayers to decide the question.

Mr. McWilliams accepted his challenge, and what was the result? 249 votes for Mr. McWilliams and 121 for Mr. Rutherford—rather a severe verdict, considering that Mr. Rutherford had the privilege of selecting his jurors.

It is to be hoped that the little difficulty between these gentlemen will result in another contest, and next year's council will once more be rid of Arthur's presence.

Yours truly,
THIRD WARD.

Sports and Pastimes.

Willow and Wicket.

Peterborough (Maple Leaf eleven) vs. Trinity College School, Port Hope (second eleven).

The Peterborough boys went down to Port Hope on the noon train Saturday, two short Subs were found at the School and a most enjoyable match was played. Peterborough batted first, but scored only 27, the two first wickets being lost by run-outs. Allison was the only double figure scorer, and Strike played very steadily for his runs.

Small as this total was, the boys could not equal it, 19 being the result of their innings. Turnbull's fast bowling was very hard to play, his four wickets costing only 3 runs, Hamilton having 5 for 15.

In the second innings the Maple Leafs did a little better. Strike was the only double figure scorer, while Turnbull's 9 included two rattling leg-hits for 4 and 3, and Goldsmith showed very nice form for his seven. Barker in this innings had six wickets for 5 runs.

With 46 to get to win, the boys again took the bat, but were totally at sea with Hamilton's slows, the eleven being actually dismissed for 12 runs. Hamilton had the phenomenal analysis of eight wickets for 4 runs, Turnbull having 2 for 7.

The deadness of the ground was very much against run-getting, the ball would not travel at all. What little fielding there was to do was well done, very few catches being missed.

A return match is to be played here next Saturday.

BIRTH.

WILSON.—At Peterborough, on Saturday, 8th of June, 1889, the wife of Mr. T. J. Wilson, of a son.

Whitsuntide Services at St. John's.

Eloquent Sermons by Rev. Dr. Clark, of Trinity College.

The morning services were well attended, and were of the usual character.

At the evening service there was a very large attendance. The services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rev. Dr. Clark reading the lessons and preaching the sermon.

"That the Lord God might dwell amongst them."—Psalms, xlviii., v. 16.

From the evidence found in the Old Testament, Solomon could not doubt that God dwelt among men on the earth, and we could not doubt His presence among men previous to the day of Pentecost. But there was a great difference between His revelation of Himself previous to that period and the special occasion of Pentecost, which was to be regarded as the culmination of the work of Redemption, and gave a new meaning and a new power to the Gospel of Christ. It was plain that God did not come to dwell with men first on that day. He never deserted the work of His hands, nor ceased to watch over and direct it. Everything granted spoke to us of God, and of His providence, and we must conclude that the sinfulness of men directed the course of God's providence. Men were brought to feel that they were of divine origin and that they were alienated from God. The whole history of the world pointed to His coming, converged towards Christ. The teachings and ceremonies of the Old Testament had a double purpose; they had an educational meaning, and also pointed men to better things to come. The sacrifices of the old dispensation were types of the greater sacrifice of Christ. When all these types culminated in Christ, then God came down to dwell among men as he had never done before; we had a new revelation of the Lord's tenderness towards his creatures, we felt that the love of God beat in a human heart and that the divine pity and sympathy expressed themselves in tears coursing down a human cheek. We felt that God indeed was in the world. But God had more truth to disclose. Christ had declared that he must go to the Father, and when he took his place at the right hand of the Father, this was the culmination of his great work, and the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, was sent. He was not only in the world but was as indwelling spirit. The character of men was an expression of the condition of his heart. God had dwelt in the world before the day of Pentecost. His spirit permeated. His word and ordinances, but the Holy Ghost could not be given in His Gospel fullness till Christ was glorified—His work completed. The Holy Ghost could penetrate the heart and convince it of righteousness and of a judgment to come—show the heart its sinfulness and point the way of escape. The Holy Ghost came to dwell in the heart of man, which was a sacred place. The Holy Spirit was both indwelling and universal. Christ was in a sense local; being in human form, the area of His presence was necessarily restricted. When His earthly work was completed God took Him to Himself and the Holy spirit was sent, and His presence is everywhere—in every heart—though every heart did not respond to His presence, and in all the world. The speaker went on to enlarge in eloquent and stirring terms to demonstrate the work of the Holy Spirit, and to show how our spiritual condition was to be gauged by the degree of our yielding to the guiding, teaching and strivings of the Holy Ghost. The significant festival of Whitsunday could have no significance if we had not practically accepted the Holy Ghost as the power which wrought conviction of sin—conversion—and as the power that consecrated and sanctified. No synopsis of the preacher's remarks could serve even as a suggestion of the simple, straightforward, yet eloquent and stirring nature of his discourse. His language (of a classical simplicity) and argument were so plain that he that ran might read, and was accompanied by great fervor and earnestness.

Church Chimes.

The pulpits of the town and Ashburnham Methodist churches were occupied by substitutes on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Kennedy of Frankfort, occupied the pulpit of the Charlotte street Methodist church both morning and evening. Mr. Kennedy is a young man who gives promise of becoming a successful preacher.

Rev. C. B. Kenrick took charge of the services in the South Ward Mission school Sunday evening.

In the George Street church Mr. M. Cummings and Mr. F. C. Colbeck, B. A., preached. At the Mark street church, Mr. Colbeck and Mr. Jas. Hannah occupied the pulpit. This was Mr. Hannah's first sermon in town, but it was quite an able effort.

Rev. P. Clifton Parker, pastor, preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning, and in the evening Rev. T. Fotheringill. Rev. Mr. Fotheringill leaves this week for Kingston, where he will preach for the three succeeding Sundays in the Methodist church. At the conclusion of the service Sunday night the pastor referred to the recent disaster in Pennsylvania, and drew therefrom several moral lessons.

Next Sunday will be children's day in the Baptist church. A special programme of service will be prepared.

The anniversary services of St. Paul's Church will be held next Sunday, when Dr. Parsons, of Toronto, will preach both sermons. On the following Monday evening there will be a service of song in the church, when a large choir will render specially prepared music under Mr. Parker's superintendence.

Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Dewey, of Lindsay, will preach Sunday school anniversary services in the Mark street Methodist church.

Tuesday evening the 'Prentice Boys and Orangemen will attend divine service in St. Andrew's Church, when Rev. A. Bell will preach the sermon.

At St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday morning His Lordship Bishop O'Connor administered his first confirmation in this diocese to a class of about three hundred boys and girls. The confirmation services were very impressive and interesting. In addition every one of the boys took a total abstinence pledge, to hold good till they were 21 years of age.

The singing in St. Paul's church Sunday was admirable, particularly in the evening. The anthems were well chosen and so well rendered.

Rev. W. Grant, B.D., of Toronto, conducted the services in St. Luke's church Sunday.

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

AT

TURNBULL'S

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 50c. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"

FROM THE NEW FIRM OF

H. LeBRUN & Co.

Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

a past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to favor prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices given us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BETTER FABRICS, FINER SETTLES than ever ever handled before.

Special values in FINE STRIPE OVERCOATINGS, and FINE Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the correct cut proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment is an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and talent. Besides perfect fit and first-class trimmings, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This season that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SHORT WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of HOSIERY, BORDERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SILKS, HANDKERCHIEFS, ties, to be found in any first-class establishment in this country.

BACKED UP BY A CHECK.

A MONTREALER'S PETITION TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

He Asks That the Jesuits' Acts Be Referred to the Supreme Court For an Opinion and Puts Up $5000 to Pay the Costs.

OTTAWA, June 11.—Considerable excitement was occasioned yesterday by the arrival here of Mr. Hugh Graham of Montreal, accompanied by Messrs. D. MacMaster, Q.C., R. D. McGibbon, Q.C., and R. Walwater, Q.C. The movements of the party were mysterious, but it was learned late last evening that the gentlemen named called at the Department of State and filed a petition asking for a reference of the Jesuit acts to the Supreme Court of Canada, under a section of the law constituting the court. The petition was accompanied by a certified check on the Bank of Montreal there for $5000. The petition was immediately laid before the Privy Council, which was in session yesterday afternoon. The gentlemen had also an interview with Sir John Macdonald. The following is the full text of the petition:

To His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada-in-Council:

The humble petition of Hugh Graham of the City of Montreal, journalist, respectfully represents:

1. That grave doubts have been expressed and exist regarding the legality and constitutionality of the acts of the Legislature of the Province of Quebec initialed respectively, "An Act to Incorporate the Society of Jesus" (50 Vic., Cap. 13), and "An Act Respecting the Settlement of the Jesuits' Estates" (51-52 Vic., Cap. 13).

2. That it is desirable that an opinion should be pronounced upon these acts by the highest judicial tribunal in the Dominion.

3. That your petitioner, who is a citizen of the Dominion of Canada, and a taxpayer of the Province of Quebec, acting on his own behalf and on behalf of others, is desirous that the powers conferred upon Your Excellency-in-Council by section 73 of the "Supreme and Exchequer Court Act" (Revised Statutes of Canada, chapter 135), which reads as follows: "The Governor-in-Council may refer to the Supreme Court for hearing or consideration any matter which he thinks fit to refer, and the court shall thereupon hear or consider the same and certify their opinion thereon to the Governor-in-Council," should be exercised in order that counsel may be heard by the said court upon the said questions.

4. That in order to avoid any question with respect to provision being made by Your Excellency-in-Council for the expenses incidental to such reference, your petitioner declares the willingness of himself and those associated with him to bear the necessary costs of the Government, and as an evidence of such willingness your petitioner herewith deposits his certified check on the Bank of Montreal, Ottawa, payable to the order of J. M. Courtney, Deputy Minister of Finance, for the sum of five thousand dollars ($5000).

And your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

It is not known what action was taken by the Government, but it is freely stated that a lengthy and stormy session of the Cabinet was held.

LONDON THE LESS.

A Mince of Accidents—Serious Shooting Affray at Komoka.

LONDON, June 11.—Charles Nichols, bookkeeper in the sheriff's office, narrowly escaped serious injuries yesterday. He was driving Sheriff Glass' spirited roadster when the animal got beyond his control and threw him out with terrible force on the hard road. He was picked up in an insensible condition and was subsequently taken to his home.

The steam boat in the McClary Company's works fell a distance of about 16 feet yesterday with three men on it. The only one injured was John Packham, who had his hand lacerated and was bruised and shaken in the fall. He was just recovering from injuries of a more serious character received at the fire a few months ago.

Early Sunday morning at Komoka several young men rather the worse of liquor commenced kicking the door and throwing stones at the house of a man named W. Brown when Brown made his appearance with a revolver in his hand and fired three shots at the rowdies, two of which hit one of the gang named Morrison. One caused a flesh wound and the other took effect on the forehead, destroying the left eye. Morrison is at present in a very critical condition. W. Brown runs an eating house in the city in King-street, near Rideout-street.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Returns of Chinese Immigration—A Big Claim Against the Government.

OTTAWA, June 11.—The Customs Department received yesterday the returns of Chinese immigrants arriving in the country during the month of May. The number was considerably smaller than last year. The money collected was $5075. All the new arrivals were registered at Vancouver, B.C.

Stuart Tupper of Winnipeg and Inspector Young of the Customs Department, Manitoba, arrived here yesterday on business with the Government.

Messrs. J. C. Ayer & Co. of Lowell, Mass., have entered a claim for $125,000 against the Dominion Government for damages sustained through the illegal seizure of their preparations at St. John's, Quebec, Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton several years ago.

Mr. G. W. Monk, M.L.A. for Carleton, is lying at his home very ill.

Ambitious City Notes.

HAMILTON, June 11.—The City Solicitor is of opinion that the City Council has no power to grant money to assist in getting up a summer carnival, as the resolution recently passed by that body giving the Carnival Committee $1750 will have to be rescinded.

The time for receiving the competitive plans for the Hamilton Public Library building expired yesterday at noon.

At yesterday morning's session of the Police Court another charge against Frank Rowlin for boiling beans, etc., and conducting a noxious and offensive business was heard. The evidence was about the same as given in the other cases. Further evidence will be taken in the case on Thursday.

Pretty But Unbalanced.

WINDSOR, June 10—A young French girl was found by a patrolman wandering aimlessly about the street's on Saturday evening. She was taken to Police Headquarters, where she said her name was Angeline Bilsenaux, 10 years old. On being closely questioned she said she had run away from home in Toronto and had been wandering around Detroit for four days. She is exceedingly pretty, but the police are of opinion that her mind is affected. Her father, who is said to be a well-to-do man, has been telegraphed for.

DRIFT FROM THE FLOOD.

JOHNSTOWN'S NATIONAL BANK OPENS FOR BUSINESS.

A Finder Who Lost 120 of His Congregation—Money Coming in but Still Needed—Governor Beaver Sizes up the Situation.

JOHNSTOWN, June 11.—The First National Bank has opened for business. Much trouble has been occasioned by the inability to get money here. The Cambria Iron Company will be ready to start in all departments in about two weeks, but it will take until October before the Gautier mill will be ready to run. Sixteen bodies were recovered yesterday morning and but five were identified. Rev. Father Tyrrell, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, reports that out of a congregation of 600 he has lost 112 and thinks the drowned will reach 150. The train from Pittsburg yesterday morning brought a large crew, among which were 200 firemen from Michigan, who were put at once to work on the heavy timbers above the bridge.

Keith Heaven Appeals for Aid.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., June 11.—At a meeting of the citizens yesterday, an appeal for aid was made to the people of the United States.

Money Still Needed.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Surgeon-General Hamilton, who has returned from Johnstown says that the water supply there is pure and wholesome and there is little danger of an epidemic. Dr. Hamilton says charitable people ought not to cease their contributions of money for some weeks to come. The doctor thinks the drift and the debris will be cleared up in ten days. He denied that animals are allowed to float down the river from the drift. The drift pack, he says, cannot now be well burned, and if it could it would only be to the water soaked portion and this would not release the bodies. There is no use in attempting to disinfect the drift and the only way to cure the evil is its removal.

To Clear the Streams.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—Governor Beaver returned to this city from Johnstown yesterday afternoon and held another conference with Mayor Fitler. A copy of a bond of indemnity prepared by the two gentlemen was given out. The document declares that James A. Beaver has given his bond to State Treasurer Hart in the penal sum of $1,000,000 conditioned for the payment of whatever money may be advanced by Hart for the purpose of clearing the streams and abating public nuisances which threaten the health and safety of the people caused by the destructive floods in the Conemaugh and West Branch valleys. The bond pledges each one who signs it to guarantee the payment of $6000 in case only 200 sign it or a less sum in case the bondsmen exceed that number. This guarantee is to be binding only in case the Legislature fails to make an appropriation for the work in question. Mayor Fitler says that 500 Philadelphians are ready to sign the bond. Governor Beaver thinks that the cost of the work proposed will not exceed the cost to the State of calling an extra session of the Legislature to make an appropriation which would be about $250,000. The Governor believes the Legislature at its next session will make the appropriation desired.

Chicago Will Give $200,000.

CHICAGO, June 11.—The Johnstown fund was increased to $90,587 yesterday. It will go over $100,000.

THE HORROR AT THE "Y."

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury on the Jamestown Cut Disaster.

HAMILTON, June 10.—The inquest into the cause of the railway accident at the Jamestown Cut on April 28 was concluded to-night. The verdict was:

"That the accident was caused by the breaking of the flange of the leading wheel of the engine truck, which caused the train to leave the track, and that the rate of speed at which the train was running had a great deal to do with the cause of the accident, and recommend that on all curves with a switch on a downward grade trains should not run at a greater speed than 20 miles an hour. The jury is also of the opinion that greater efforts could have been made to prevent the cremation of the twenty victims of the accident and suggests that the Government appoint a competent person to inspect all cases of accident in which there has been a loss of life before anything whatever is removed further than may be necessary to rescue the bodies."

Last fall Messrs. Quinn & Henry, barristers, Toronto, obtained an order at Osgoode Hall to compel John P. McMillan, County Crown Attorney, Orangeville, to pay over certain clients' money or be struck off the roll. The time given passed and the money demanded was not paid over. In March last the order applied for was duly granted by which Solicitor John P. McMillan would lose his gown if carried out. The parties acting for the interested clients who were trying to obtain their money gave Mr. McMillan until yesterday to pay over the funds. The order was not taken out, but yesterday morning when Mr. McMillan did not come to time it was demanded. The order was then duly issued, striking Mr. McMillan from the roll of solicitors of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, which, after the observance of some formalities, will deprive the County Crown Attorney of his robe.

A FAITHLESS WIFE.

CAPTURED BY HER HUSBAND AND POLICEMEN.

An Exciting Sunday Chase in the Queen City—Domestic Troubles of a Newly Married Couple.

TORONTO, June 11.—Mr. A. E. Cowell, a carpenter employed by Messrs. Wickenden & Hillock, who resides at No. 17 Percy avenue, lost his wife on Sunday under peculiar circumstances, that will in all probability result in a crim. con. suit of the Andrus, always providing that the information given to the undersigned turns out to be correct. Mr. Cowell says he was married about three months ago, after a short courtship, and lived happily with his wife until certain little acts on her part aroused his suspicions and he determined to watch her. Sunday morning after breakfast Mrs. Cowell announced that she was going to the house of her brother-in-law on Front-street, and when the husband offered to accompany her she [illegible] came and advised him to remain at home and have a nice quiet rest. [illegible] left him with a kiss and a smile, but [illegible] did not altogether satisfy him, [illegible] quietly slipped out after her.

Instead of going to the house of her brother-in-law, she called at Verrall's stable, where she engaged a cooper and then drove hurriedly eastward. Believing that his terrible suspicions were about to be confirmed, Mr. Colwell followed the coupe as far as Sherbourne-street, when he lost sight of it, and then he told the story to Constable Dodds, whom he met on King-street. The officer accompanied the distressed husband in his search for his unfaithful wife, and finally found the coupe driver, who stated that he had driven the woman to a certain house in Duchess-street. Cowell proceeded to this place with the constable and arrived in time to see his wife driving on to Sherbourne-street with a young man. Dodds ordered the driver to pull up his horse, but instead of doing so he lashed the animal and started it up Sherbourne and went on Queen-street at a gallop.

The husband followed on flying foot, and Dodds, who is one of the best athletes on the force, had all he could do to keep the coupe and the husband in sight. When near Jarvis-street, however, he met Constable Tripp, who was out for a drive, and after a moment's explanation Tripp turned his horse's head and galloped after the fugitives. By this time the sight of a uniformed constable running at full speed aroused the curiosity of pleasure-by and they gradually joined in the chase until there must have been 200 citizens in full cry, none of them knowing what was wrong, but all eager to be in at the finish. When near Church-street Tripp caught up with the coupe, and at once stopped the horse. In the coupe were found Mrs. Cowell and a young man named Hugh Kelly, who keeps a butcher shop at the corner of King and Sackville-streets. When the husband arrived he had just breath enough to upbraid his wife for her misconduct and then follow the coward to Mitchell's livery stable, where the second rig had been engaged.

Here another exciting scene ensued, Kelly protesting that the woman was not married to Cowell and that he had as much right to go with her as had any other man, while the husband raved and threatened and protested until the officers considered it necessary to remove him. He departed after telling his wife that he would inform her mother and other relatives, and that she was his wife no longer. Kelly's friends do not believe that he intended to elope with the woman, and they cannot understand his conduct, as he is about to be married to a most estimable young lady in the eastern section of the city.

A Conservative Meeting at Whitby.

WHITBY, June 11.—Mayor Blow chairmaned a rousing big anti-Jesuit meeting in the Town Hall here last night. Over 1000 people gathered expecting to hear Rev. D. J. Macdonnell and J. L. Hughes, but were none the less pleased with E. D. Armour's clear exposition of the legal aspect of the question and F. S. Spence's argumentation. Rev. Mr. Abraham, Presbyterian pastor here, seconded by Rev. Dr. Hare, Principal of the Ontario Ladies' College, introduced a red hot resolution condemning the act itself, more especially that the Pope's name appears in it, and protesting vehemently against the inaction of Sir John's Government in not advising the Governor-General to disallow such legislation, and bringing the severest censure upon the devoted heads of the 126 members who stood by the Government in voting down Colonel O'Brien's resolution.

THE BRAIN Under a Strain of Ill Health or Overwork. With Fatal Results.

These are many well known men confined in our Asylums who but a short time ago were prominent among our business and social circles.

Why are they there?

Drunk!

Did it come on at once?

Not at all. It was a gradual but positive growth. They overtaxed nature. The drain on their vitality, their nerve powers, their brain tissue, was too great, and they gradually but surely sank under it. The things they did to bring this end about are precisely the same things that are being done by thousands of men and women to-day. It is not necessary to name them. They all end disastrously unless checked or regulated.

Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth College, knew this fully when he began his experiments which resulted in the discovery of the wonderful Paine's Celery Compound. He realized that paresis (consumption of the brain) was our great National weakness. He knew that the brain and nervous system must be fortified to meet the great strains which modern life brings upon it. He saw that men were becoming debilitated and women weakened by the pressure and demands of life, and he sought and discovered the remedy Paine's Celery Compound, if rightly taken, will renew the brain and build up nerve tissues as fast as they become exhausted. It is not a narcotic. It contains no drugs, no nostrums. It is perfectly pure. It is absolutely harmless. The high character of its discoverer guarantees this, and the indorsement of the medical and chemical profession prove it.

THE ROBILLARD SWINDLE.

Mr. Barron Arraigns the Premier.

A Disgraceful Transaction Exposed—How Sir John Macdonald Resembles a "Kicker" and Rewards a Supporter—The Charges Proved by Official Correspondence—70 Square Miles of Valuable Timber Limits Given Away for a Song—Bought for $316 and Sold for $60,000.

(From the official Parliamentary report.)

(CONCLUDED)

Mr. BARRON—I am bound to accept the statement of the hon. member inside this house, but it is very extraordinary that Riopelle & Co., one of whom was himself, should have got this money from Francis Bros., and he (the junior member for Ottawa) should not have got anything at all. However, it is perfectly apparent that somebody made a big pull out of this, and the Indians got $316 for property which I think I have successfully proved to this house is worth $80,000 or $60,000 or $75,000. Now, who was the one who was directly responsible for this transaction? It was no less a person than the premier of this country, who was the superintendent general of Indian affairs. Scarcely was the ink dry upon the letter sent to the junior member for Ottawa saying that this was sold to him for $4 a square mile—

Sir RICHARD CARTWRIGHT—Read the letter.

Mr. BARRON—Here is the letter, addressed to H. Robillard, Esq., M.P., Ottawa, and dated 7th October, 1886:

"SIR,—I have the honor to inform you that the timber limit comprising the Whitefish lake Indian reserve has been awarded to you. The limit contains 70 square miles. The bonus is $4 per square mile, or $316; ground rent, $1 per square mile, $70; license fee, $4; total, $390."

That is signed by W. Plummer, for the deputy-minister of Indian affairs. I did not think it was necessary for me to read that letter in view of the statement made by the minister of the interior a few days ago when I asked him a question, the answer to which was, out of his own lips, that the pine timber on this reserve, 70 square miles in extent, was sold to Mr. Honore Robillard for $4 a square mile. The person who was directly responsible for that action, as I said, was the premier himself, who was then the head of this particular department which was guilty of what I consider a most outrageous transaction. Scarcely was the ink dry upon the letter which gave that property to the junior member for Ottawa, before, in the self-same year, the hon. gentleman wrote those sympathetic words regarding the Indians:

"The Indians are in the meantime not encouraged by the delay to extend their improvements, and they can by letter experience sympathize with the fact that generous help in many instances, which in years gone by, allowed them an ample means of supplying their needs, can fast be taking them, as settlement advances and the stock of the woodlands are and the advance of the locomotive rapidly the musk rodent, the fur bearing rat, deer and the coy wild fowl and berry them to regions inaccessible to those hunters who are too poor to purchase sufficient supplies to carry them so far as their wages necessitates for the chase would tempt them. Now they return to Lake Temagamingue, their home, and which was the home of their ancestors from time immemorial, disheartened from their failure in the chase, and sitting by the camp fire, as they gaze on the empty kettle, they brood over the long delay in the recognition of their just claims to their patrimony, but gratified until it will, no doubt, experience that profitable remorse, 'at knowing that the department is doing all that it can for them in the matter.'" (Laughter and cheers.)

That is signed by John A. Macdonald, and is the report of the very year in which this timber limit was sold to the junior member for Ottawa.

An HON. MEMBER—Who is John A. Macdonald?

Mr. BARRON—He was the superintendent-general of Indian affairs, and at the foot of this report he says that the department is doing all that it can for the Indians in the matter. The way in which the department does that is to sell this valuable patrimony to the junior member for Ottawa for the nominal sum. The hon. gentleman says he did not make anything out of it, and I suppose I am bound to accept that statement. What in the name of common sense did Riopelle & Co. go and buy this property for if it was not to make something out of it? Why did he first send out an application for Riopelle & Co. and then in order to give force to the application send afterwards the application in his own name, that of Honore Robillard? Why does the deputy minister of Indian affairs write to Honore Robillard giving him this property for the sum of $4 per square mile? If I was to look for a cause I would find it in the journals of the house of Toronto. The junior member for Ottawa is of French descent. We all know that in the year 1885 there was great agitation throughout the country owing to the ill-treatment of the half breeds of the Northwest. Mr. Meredith, in the Ontario legislature, thought it was his duty to bring in an amendment to the address which was brought down regarding the volunteers who went to the Northwest. He knew very well that it would be a great feather in his cap if he could only get the junior member for Ottawa, whose future ought to be and were justly with his fellow-countrymen on the banks of the Saskatchewan—if he could get that hon. gentleman to support him in his amendment to this address. The junior member for Ottawa did vote with Mr. Meredith. But there was another amendment moved by Mr. Fraser, the end of which was this:

"And this house now hopes and trusts that peace and tranquility having been fully restored it may be found consistent with the public interest to amend the recently enacted provisions of the charter of the Saskatchewan Valley and Hudson's Bay Railway Company, so as to relieve the said company from the obligation to construct the line of railway from Qu'Appelle to Prince Albert, and from Prince Albert to the Saskatchewan, and to authorize the construction of the said

CHICAGO, June 8.—John Mann, a member of Camp No. 21 of the Clan-na-Gael, was put upon the witness stand in the coroner's investigation into the manner of Dr. Cronin's death this morning. At a meeting subsequent to the murder a resolution was presented in this camp concerning the dead. Mann moved that it be tabled, remarking that "perhaps Dr. Cronin's removal was ordered by the executive committee." When called to the witness chair this morning and asked to give the name of the presiding officer of the camp he refused to do so, and by order of the coroner was taken into custody. Pending the arrival of the Sheriff's deputy, the witness gave evidence of great mental distress and finally signified his willingness to testify. He then said that the name of the presiding officer of his camp was William M. Joyce. When asked whether he would obey an order to remove any one he answered after a long pause: "No, sir."

Peter McGeehan was the next witness. He testified that he came to Chicago last February from Philadelphia; that he did not say before leaving that he was going on dangerous business for the executive. He came because he had had a row with a young fellow about a girl. Dr. Cronin came up to witness on the street once and accused him of being in the city to murder him (Cronin). Subsequently Cronin wrote the witness a note telling him to get out of the State or he would have him arrested. The witness declared that he was in Pullman on the night that Dr. Cronin was murdered. He was asked what number he took when he left Philadelphia. He replied that he did not take any number. He retained the number he previously had, which was No. 1. No. 2 was John O'Neil. No. 3 the witness did not know.

As soon as McGeehan had finished testifying and the coroner had announced that the inquest would stand adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock, McGeehan was taken to the chief's private office, where the Carlsens, Dinan and Mrs. Conklin were allowed to take a look at him. None of them, however, identified him and he was allowed to go.

GAMBLING AND WOMEN.

Two Bad Habits Ruin a Prominent Young San Francisco Politician.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—A sensation has been created here by the announcement that Morris C. Beam, secretary of the Republican county committee, is a fugitive in Europe, having left here $16,000 in notes bearing forged indorsements. Beam was a sharp young lawyer and had a large business but gambling and women ruined him. To pay his poker losses he drew notes and indorsed them with the name of his brother-in-law, Simon Ansbacher. Besides the forged notes Beam left fully $10,000 in small debts to a score of friends. Beam left with Jessie Wiers, who has blackmailed some well-known people out of large sums.

Restitution in Indiana.

NEW YORK, June 8.—A special from Indianapolis says that there are in Clay County, Indiana, over 9000 people at the verge of starvation. Throughout the striking miners and their families. There are 5000 on the rolls and additions are being made every day. Women are selling their wedding rings and other little treasures, while fathers are selling the trinkets of their children to get bread to keep them from starving. All of their furniture and more substantial belongings have been disposed of weeks ago. The miners have been out since May 1, and have been refused all sorts of offers to arbitrate and settle their differences with their operatives. For the past five years the maximum wages received by the miners has been but $6 per week.

Shipwreck and Loss of Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Advices from Auckland say the steel ship Altmore, bound from Sidney to San Francisco, struck a reef off the Fiji Islands the night of April 22. The crew attempted to land but were prevented by natives. The next day the second mate, with several passengers, including a woman and four children, and six of the crew, left in the lifeboat and cutter for the island of Savu, 100 miles distant. As they had not reached that point up to latest advices it is feared they were drowned. The captain and remainder of the crew were taken off by a schooner, except R. B. Marshall, the chief officer, who was drowned.

A Free Fight at Windsor.

WINDSOR, June 8.—Yesterday afternoon a free fight took place between Editor Pacaud of Le Progres and Denis Gauthier of the Belleau Hotel. The latter was fined for selling liquor unlawfully and claims that he paid Pacaud, some time ago, money to guarantee him from all prosecution. Pacaud was at the time Inspector for North Essex. Gauthier entered Le Progres office with blood in his eye, but the pugilists were separated without doing much damage. The case will be settled in the courts.

Feuded With Firearms.

MARION, June 8.—While James Moore and his wife were away from home the other day two of their children became interested in playing with the guns of their father. While handling one it discharged and the full charge of shot struck the younger girl in the right thigh close up to the body, tearing the limb almost completely off and smashing the hip bone. She gradually bled to death. Some of the shot entered and struck a little boy named James, aged 5, who was playing near by, in both legs below the knee. The shot was extracted and he will soon be all right.

Western Railroads.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The grand jury has found indictments against Dodsworth Bryan, Ferguson and Hoxie, who performed the autopsy on the body of Washington Irving Bishop, the mind reader, for violation of the sanitary law.

Thirteen Years for a Chinese Bride.

MILWAUKEE, June 11.—Sam Yip Jabi the Chinaman convicted of luring Minie Quick to his laundry for immoral purposes, was yesterday sentenced to prison for 13 years. Hoh Ding's case was confirmed until the July term.

Shot Himself.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Edward Odell, brother of Jesse Odell, superintendent of the Postal Telegraph Company, committed suicide yesterday by shooting at his home here. The family are very reticent about the affair.

A Reformed Soldier's Crime.

PARIS, June 11.—At Ville Evrouille, near Evreux yesterday, a reformed soldier murdered a farmer's daughter, the father and mother and a man servant.

A Spanish Worship Foundered.

MADRID, June 11.—The Spanish warship Pelayo foundered off Cape Tortugas. The crew was saved.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. B. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

DR. DORENWEND'S

GREAT GERMAN HAIR MAGIC.

The equal of this great preparation is yet to be found. It is an unfailing Restorer for grey hair—it stops all falling out of the hair—it removes all dandruff and keeps the scalp clean. On bald heads (if there are but the faintest traces of roots) the Magic will produce a fine growth. Will you try it? Or will you let your hair go, and become prematurely old? What do you say? All druggists everywhere have it for sale. Ask for it. Do n't let the druggist tell you he has something just as good —many have dead stocks of other hair tonics on hand and try to shove them off in this way.

Lost or Rent.

The remains of the late Hugh Bertram, Esq., arrived from Toronto on the 11.36 train to-day, and were interred in the Little Lake Cemetery. The large funeral cortege evidenced the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Legal and Alive.

Yesterday Mr. J. J. Turner supplied and placed in position a large Dominion flag for the Lindsay Collegiate Institute, besides putting up several awnings in that town. Mr. Turner is both loyal and alive and satisfactorily fills the orders of his customers.

An Early Meeting.

On account of the service of praise in St. Paul's church next Monday evening, it was decided upon at last night's meeting of the Y.P.S.C.E. to hold a short meeting beginning punctually at 7.30 p.m., so that the members can attend the service of praise.

Foresters' High Court.

The High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters holds its annual meeting in London to-day. The town delegates are F. J. Jamieson, R. McWhinnie, Alex. Rutherford and W. M. Green. The Lakefield delegates are Messrs. Wm. Eastland and John Clarke.

The Mined Property.

Consisting of the north one-third of lot 16, north of Edinburgh and west of George streets, 66x114 feet, will be sold by public auction on Monday, the 17th of June, on the ground. This property has a very fine unfinished brick house on it. The situation is very fine. It will be a peremptory sale. Easy terms of payment. 3d134

The Crops in October.

All the cereal crops in October are looking well. Fall wheat is heading out, and gives promise of abundant straw at any rate. The hay crop, though promising better than last year, will be light. The timothy shows very slow growth—as it touched by frost, and there is no clover to count upon. The reports of the hay crop in Asphodel are not encouraging.

The Band in the Park—Postponed.

The usual weekly band concert in Court House Park has been postponed till Friday evening on account of the 57th Battalion church parade this evening. This postponement will not be regarded as a calamity, if, in the meantime, the thermometer should get on its good behaviour and render the use of overcoats and furs, or mackintoshes and umbrellas, unnecessary.

"Hooray For Rochester!"

That's what an excited ruralist was shouting last night on the streets and he wasn't arrested for disorderly conduct either. For he had the public sympathy, for everybody is going on the cheap and delightful excursion to Rochester on the 15th—Saturday next. A delightful trip by rail and water. Tickets to be had at G.T.R. Station or Cox & Davis' ticket agency.

A Trio of Pianists.

There will be plenty of amusement in the line of pianos this week. To-day the Bemis-metro pianos taken place at Bridgenorth. To-morrow the Farmers' Institute makes place at Jubilee Point will be held. This will probably be a mammoth affair if the weather is favorable, and the "probs." will be studied anxiously by many people to-day! On Thursday the Deere pianos taken place. This will also likely attract a large crowd.

The 20th of June.

In nothing the coming convention of the Methodist fraternity the other day it is possible the date was not sufficiently impressed on the reader's mind. Tuesday, the 18th of June is the date, and in order to avoid confusion will all those who would like to accompany the Masons put it down so that it will not be forgotten? New attractions are cropping up every day, and it is just possible that the dates may get mixed up if care is not taken. Take the whole family.

The Hamilton Excess.

This is the height of the excursion season and every body and every society is on the move. But the perpetual line is only carried out at Hussey Bros' tea store where a continuous stream of excursionists from every part of the county and every street in town, to sample and buy their famous teas, comes in continuous order. Every brand and blend of tea the finest and best in the market, including choice brands of coffee spices, glassware.

A Maid and Her Hearth.

On Monday Mr. Geo. Cochrane, License Inspector, accompanied by the Chief of Police, made a raid upon a store house on George street, known as the "Green Bush," and seized a barrel of beer with spouts attached, showing it to be half empty, and on the manager of the shanty, a whiskey jug slide and a whiskey bottle glass. The articles and their owners will probably appear in the police court on Thursday.

Assembly Delegates.

The annual session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada meets on Wednesday next in St. Andrew's, west, Toronto. Following are the delegates from the Presbytery of Peterborough:—Revs. W. H. Jamieson, Ph.D., J. Carmichael, M.A., J. R. Cattle, M.A., D. A. Thompson, J. W. Mitchell, M.A., John Hay, B.D., Geo. McKay, Bdns.—W. E. Hotherspin, John Clark, G. M. Roger, Robt. Graham, Chas. Hornberg, John Carnegie, W. E. Johnston.

A Prudent Business Man.

Nearly all, if not all, the business men of Peterborough are prudent, therefore they prosper. And that business man is indeed prudent, who having a little business in Toronto, slides a pin in his calendar at 20th of June to remind him to go to Toronto on the St. Andrew's excursion. He may do his business and pick up a "snap" at the wholesale men's that will more than pay him for his expenses. Tickets both ways, good for two days, are only $2.00, only 7/10ths of a cent per mile. Make a note of it.

Peterborough Driving Park.

The following matched races will take place on Saturday, June 15th, at two o'clock p.m.:—

PACING RACE—Between Ed. Brown's and T. Pettitt's ponies, $20 a side.

TROTTING RACE—J. J. Hickle's "Favorite" and W. Whelan's "Remedy," $25 a side.

There will also be an exhibition of speed given by Mayflower with Redmond's "White Cloud" as running mate.

The admission will be 10c.; grand stand free for ladies.

J. NEWBALL,
34126 Manager.

Sporting Notes.

Friday evening next (if it doesn't rain), the first regatta of the Otonabee Canoe Club will be held on Little Lake, off Burnham's Point. The races will be interesting, and a large turn-out of members is requested.

A meeting of the Riverside Lacrosse Club is to be held Thursday evening, when the question of appointing a new secretary will come up. President Sanderson has refused to accept the resignation of Secretary Phelan, and a lively meeting is anticipated Thursday evening.

A practice game of baseball will be played on the P.A.A.A. grounds to-morrow evening between the Athletics and Association nine.

Madoc was to have played Beaverton last Friday, but lost the game by default.

A Plucky Boss.

Saturday night a young man named Davis, in charge of for an American patent bed-spring firm, stopped a runaway horse in a very plucky manner. The horse started from up George street, near Sanderson's jewellery store. There was only a woman in the buggy when the animal took fright and ran wildly down the street. The woman was, for the time being, paralyzed with fright and did not attempt to stop the horse. At the Grand Central hotel Davis saw the woman's danger and running out caught the horse by the head and succeeded in stopping it before any damage was done. The woman was weak with fright, but was soon joined by her husband, a farmer, and both drove homeward. Davis' pluchy deed was warmly applauded.

Dr. Clarke's Lecture.

The school room of St. John's church was well filled last night, when Dr. Clark delivered his lecture on the "Water Babies." Rev. J. C. Davidson presided, and before the lecturer was introduced Miss Cottingham sang "Cool and Clear," a pretty little song taken from the "Water Babies." Dr. Clark then began his lecture. The "Water Babies," he said, was a book apparently only a well-written fairy tale, but it had a deep significance and moral instruction which he would endeavor to explain. Its allegories were full of beautiful meaning, and the lecturer said his interpretation of the book had met with the entire approval of the author, Mr. Kingsley. Dr. Clark proceeded to interpret the book, and showed that apparently meaningless passages were teeming with moral instruction. He was frequently applauded, and at the close of the lecture a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. A.V.R. Young, seconded by Mr. W. D. Parker, and spoken to by Rev. Messrs. Davidson and Parker before being carried by the meeting.

Y. M. C. A. Ladies' Auxiliary.

At a representative meeting of our ladies yesterday afternoon in the parlor of the Y. M.C.A., to consider the advisability of forming a Ladies' Auxiliary. After Mr. G. M. Roger, President and General Secretary, had put before the meeting how the ladies could and did help the Association in their work for young men, it was heartily agreed to form an auxiliary, and the following ladies were elected as officers:—

President.....Mrs. H. S. Griffin
1st Vice-President.....Mrs. Fairbairn
2nd Vice-President.....Mrs. Harry Grandy
Secretary.....Miss Davidson
Treasurer.....Mrs. Braden

A committee was also nominated which was left over for adoption at an adjourned meeting to be held on Thursday afternoon next at 3.00 in same place. A kind invitation was received from Mrs. Dixon, Smith-town Hill, offering her grounds for a garden party, which was thankfully received. A committee was appointed to carry out the same, which will take place some evening next week. Final arrangements will be completed at the adjourned meeting, Thursday afternoon. All ladies are invited to attend.

News Nuggets.

—Mr. John Hayes had begun the stone-work on the new market building.

—The Board of Trade has a general meeting to-night.

—Mr. D. Montgomery, of Guelph, is spending a few days at his home here.

—The Baptist Church Y. P. C. E. Society held its monthly consecration meeting last night. There was a good attendance.

—Next Thursday will be the first night for nomination of officers at Peterborough Lodge of Oddfellows.

—The Court of Revision met last night and disposed of some 16 appeals against the assessment. An adjournment was made in order to complete the work.

—At the Charlotte street Endeavor Society meeting last night Mr. O. C. Rowes opened the subject "Encouragements in the Christian Life," which was then discussed by the Society. A business meeting was held at the close of the first meeting.

Personal.

Mr. Fred. L. McIlmoyle, who is taking a course in the Toronto Conservatory of Music, was in town to-day for a brief visit. He is studying the violin under Prof. Bowden.

Dr. Fred. Clarke, of London, Eng., paid the EXAMINER a call. He is on a visit to his brother in this vicinity, Mr. Andrew Clark, Peterborough, and Mr. Clark, of Clark & McMillan, Norwood, are brothers of Dr. Clark.

Hon. Chas. Drury, Minister of Agriculture for the Province of Ontario, will arrive in Peterborough by the C.P.R. 6 o'clock train this evening, to attend the Farmers' Institute Picnic at Jubilee Point to-morrow. During his stay in Peterborough he will be the guest of Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P.

Mr. W. H. Smith, son of Mr. H. H Smith, Winnipeg, a former prominent resident of Peterborough, recently graduated from St. John College, Winnipeg, taking the degree of B.A., with first class honors, and winning a $100 scholarship and silver medal. Mr. Smith's many friends in Peterborough will be pleased to hear of his success.

This morning Mr. Hugh Davidson started for a forty-days' tour in the North-West, including Southern Manitoba and the Western Territories. His trip is a prospecting tour, taken to see the agricultural possibilities of the great North-West. Mr. Davidson is a first class judge in agricultural matters, and any information he may gather will be reliable and trustworthy.

Young's Point.

An Old Resident Passed Away.

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Thursday last one of the oldest residents at the Point died, in the person of Mr. John Young, who has lived here about 30 years. Deceased was about 80 years of age, and leaves a widow and six children. He was a brother of Mr. Patrick Young, lockmaster, and was himself the first postmaster at the Point. He was a quiet, inoffensive old man, and well liked by the people. He was buried in Young's Point Cemetery.

County Court and General Sessions.

The Grand Jury—His Honor's Address.

PETERBOROUGH, June 11th.

The June sittings of the County Court and general sessions began at the Court House to-day.

The following gentlemen were empannelled as

THE GRAND JURY:

JOHN MCCLELLAND, Foreman;

R. E. Birdsall,	Robt. Johnston,
F. Burlee,	M. R. Kidd,
C. Blowitt,	David Mason,
John Cameron,	Chas. Moore,
Arthur Dowdney,	Chas. McCarthy,
Geo. Fitzgerald,	Arch. R. Kidd,
James Goodenough,	Charles Moore,
Henry Holcombe,	H. Payne,
Jos. Harrison,	Geo. Schneider,
Andrew Weir.

His Honor, in addressing the Grand Jury, said he was happy to inform them there were no prisoners in gaol against whom there were charges requiring the attention of the Grand Jury. There were, however, persons confined on inquiries, but there was a gratifying decrease of such inmates in the gaol. The gaol was no place for such persons, and they would not be there if the anything provided by the Ontario Government, had not been taxed beyond their capacity. He hoped that additional accommodation might be provided. Referring to the absence of criminal business for the Grand Juries, which had happened at more than one county court, His Honor said it might be asked, what was the use of calling a Grand Jury together? He pointed out that so long as the system obtained, the jury's presence was not unnecessary, for it could not be known what business might at any moment arise. His Honor referred at length to the objections urged against the Grand Jury system—the secrecy of the jury's proceedings, the changing nature of the composition of the body, and other objections. After dealing at length with the subject and advising the jurymen to study it for themselves, he discharged them to the duty of inspecting the gaol.

The bar was represented at the opening of the court by Messrs. John Burnham, R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, W. H. Moore, E. B. Stone, W. A. Stratton.

Bay of Quinte Conference.

BELLEVILLE, June 10.—At the Bridge street church Sunday morning Rev. Messrs. C. H. Coon and J. R. Lewis were ordained into the ministry.

At the conference meeting to-day considerable business was transacted.

Dr. Potts rendered a statement of the Federation fund, showing the amount subscribed to be $234,519.65, and the amount paid up $108,112.62. The number of subscribers is 3,675.

Satisfactory reports were read from Victoria University, Albert College and Alma College.

The question of the standing of the delegates to the General Conference who had been transferred from this Conference was concluded, and after a lengthy discussion Dr. Carman ruled that a man's standing as delegate to the General Conference was not affected by his being transferred from one conference to another. As the last Conference of three years ago failed to elect a third reserve delegate, the General Superintendent ruled that it was now a vacancy in the delegation, and the electoral colleges had the privilege of electing such delegate.

Mrs. Massey of Wallbridge, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interests of the Woman's Missionary Society.

The debate on the Jesuit question was then taken up on the report of the Memorial Committee, and was continued until the hour of adjournment, when the report was referred back to the committee to make some additions. It will be the first order of to-morrow.

The Electoral colleges met and elected Rev. W. P. Dyer, M.A., delegate to General Conference, in place of the late Dr. Nelles.

The Prentice Boys.

The Grand Lodge to be Opened To-night—A Sermon in St. Andrew's this Evening—List of the Delegates.

The annual meeting of the British American Prentice Boys will begin this evening. The session was to have opened to-day, but the trunk containing the books of the Grand Lodge were carried on by the train last night and cannot be returned before this evening. The session will open probably at six o'clock and adjourn in order to attend divine worship at St. Andrew's Church. There will be a church parade, which will include the Grand Lodge officers and delegates, the local brethren, the True Blues and Orangemen. The Blues' fife and drum band will lead the procession. Rev. A. Ball will preach the sermon.

It is probable an all night session will be held, in order to wind up the business by to-morrow evening.

Last night the delegates were met at the C.P.R. station by the members of Jubilee Lodge No. 7 and the fife and drum band, and escorted up street by a torchlight procession.

Most of the delegates are stopping at Roddy's hotel, where the banquet is to be held to-morrow night.

Following is a list of the Grand Lodge officers and delegates as complete as can be got. A few more are yet to arrive from Belleville and other places:

PAST GRAND MASTER—W. J. R. Neil, Kingston.

The buyers present were Messrs. Clarkson, Warrington, Bird, Flavelle, Wrighton, Fitzgerald, Cook and Hodgson.

Mr. Hodgson started the bidding with an offer of 8c. for the board; Mr. Cook 8¼c. for the board; Mr. Clarkson 8¾c. for six factories; Mr. Hodgson 8¾c. for five factories; Mr Cook 9c. for the board; Mr. Clarkson 9¼c. for three factories; Mr. Hodgson the same for three other factories; Mr. Cook 9½c. for the board. This closed the bids and all the factories heard.

Mr. Cook accepted Mr. Cook's offer.

Police Court.

TUESDAY, JUNE 11.

A couple of drunks, Eliza Glass and John Crimley, were mulcted in fines of $5 and $2 respectively.

Alfred Cossey, an ash buyer and peddler, was accused of the larceny of one of the old targets used by the Rifle Association on the old range. The evidence went to show that on the 25th of May he took the target and a piece of another to his yard and broke it up and sold it. He was sentenced to three months in gaol. Mr. R. E. Wood, Q.C.A., conducted the prosecution and Mr. W. A. [illegible]

Coldsprings.

The first anniversary of the Coldsprings Union Sunday school was celebrated on Sunday and Monday, June 2nd and 3rd. On Sunday the school was opened by an appropriate hymn, "This year for Jesus," after which [illegible] prayer. The lesson was then read by the school in concert, after which Mr. R. A. Ward briefly reviewed the history of the school. The school was then addressed by Mr. Colville, secretary of the Y.M.C.A. Peterborough, his remarks being to the children. Mr. I. Richardson, superintendent, Mr. D. Kennedy and Mr. R. J. Kidd also addressed the school.

The meeting present showed the deep interest the people take in the school.

On Monday evening the ladies of the school had an excellent supper prepared on the school lawn. The gate was opened at 7 o'clock and the people began to pour in. About 7.30 a detachment from town drove into the grounds. This consisted of Mr. Colville, Mr. B. Earle and the Y.M.C.A. Band, who kindly consented to provide the music for the evening. After satisfying the physical man all repaired to the school where an excellent programme was provided. Mr. I. Richardson occupied the chair, and proceeded with the programme as follows:—

Hymn—Behold what Love ..... The Choir
Chairman's address.
Instrumental music ..... Y.M.C.A. Band
Recitation ..... Miss H Richardson
Selection ..... Y.M.C.A. Band
Mouth Organ Solo ..... Marvin Kennedy

Selection ..... Y.M.C.A. Band
Mouth Organ Solo ..... Mr A. Hunson
Recitation—Fits James and Roderick Dhu, by E A Ward and H D Kennedy
Instrumental music ..... Y.M.C.A. Band

Mr. Colville then made a few very appropriate remarks to the parents. A vote of thanks to the Peterborough friends for their aid was moved, seconded and carried unanimously. The meeting was then closed with a hymn, "God be with you till we meet again." H. D. KENNEDY, secretary.

They Favored Reciprocity.

ST. PAUL, June 11.—The United States Senate Committee on relations with Canada met representatives of this city yesterday. The general tendency of the testimony was in favor of reciprocity with Canada. Capt. Bowen, representing several lumber companies which cut about 40,000,000 feet a year, was not in favor of free lumber. He spoke of the cheapness of labor in Canada. Lumbermen he said who came from the eastern provinces of Canada receive $22 to $26 a month in Wisconsin and Minnesota. In Canada they received only $12 to $16 per month.

Gen. E. F. Drake favored political union with Canada.

Paris News.

PARIS, June 11.—The Agrarian Congress opened here yesterday. Mr. Saunders was elected American Secretary. Henry George made an address in which he referred to land reform as the starting point of social reform.

Deputy Richard, arrested with other deputies and citizens for protesting against the action of the authorities in prohibiting a proposed Boulangist meeting at Angoulême, has been released.

Jumped the Track.

ST. LOUIS, June 11.—An Iron Mountain passenger train entering the city last night jumped the track and dashed into a building, doing considerable damage and killing John Gebhard. No passengers were hurt. Engineer Diamond was severely scalded. Frank Carr, fireman, had a leg and arm broken, and James Trainer, brakeman, was seriously injured.

Hot Weather in New York.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Yesterday was even more oppressively hot than Sunday. One adult died from heat in Brooklyn and one infant in this city. About a dozen cases of heat prostration in both cities were reported. The temperature here at 8.30 p.m. was 93.

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BRAMEN, secretary of committee. dtd

Private Residence AND GROUNDS.

PURSUANT to instructions from MRS. WILDMAN, there will be offered for sale, by public auction, the Residence and Grounds, situate on the north-east corner of Water St., and McDonnell St. in the Town of Peterborough, on Friday, the 14th day of June
1889, at 2 p.m. on the premises.

The House on the property is built of solid brick, with large two storey brick addition and brick stable.

The Lot is described as lot number one, east of Water street and north of McDonnell street, containing half an acre, more or less, and has a frontage of one hundred and ninety two feet more or less, on Water street, by a depth of one hundred and fourteen feet, more or less, on McDonnell street.

The Property is well situated, and immediately east of the George st. Methodist church.

Terms of sale—10 per cent. deposit at time of sale, and sufficient within ten days thereafter to make with the deposit one third of the purchase money, balance on mortgage at six per cent. per annum. Other terms and conditions of sale will be made known at the time of sale.

The Property will be offered en bloc and in case of no sale, will be offered in parcels. The vendor reserves the right to make one bid in each case. For further particulars apply to Messrs. Beck & Code, solicitors, 65 King street, east, Toronto, Messrs. Hatton & Wood, solicitors, Peterborough and to the undersigned.

Dated June 6, 1889.

TURNBULL'S

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 5oc. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"

FROM THE NEW FIRM OF

H. LeBRUN & Co.

Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

is past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a combination of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices give us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the first selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BROWN FABRICS, FINER STYLES than ever before handled before.

Special attention to FINE SPRING OVERCOATS, and Fine Spring and Summer SACK SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment in an adjoining we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and tailors, Boston perfect fit and first-class workmanship, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones, boys and children, has always been an specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SCHOOL WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HANDKERCHIEFS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

ANTI-JESUITS.

OPENING OF THE TORONTO CITIZENS' COMMITTEE GATHERING.

The Grand Opera House the Scene of Strong Sentiment Against the Order—Cheers for Col. O'Brien—A Mass Meeting.

TORONTO, June 12.—The anti-Jesuit convention opened at the Grand Opera House at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with 600 delegates in attendance. Principal Caven, as chairman of the Toronto Citizens' Committee, occupied the chair until the convention was formally organized.

After prayer by Rev. Dr. Hunter and the singing of "God Save the Queen," Principal Caven delivered the opening address. The keynote was struck in the words "We are met to discuss questions of great and momentous importance to the public life of this country." The "urgency" of the matter was the chairman's next topic. The Jesuit question had been introduced in Canada, and to shirk the consideration thereof would be a dereliction. Then came the broader topic—the relation of church and state, and some generous sentiment meant the Roman Catholics. "Our movement is not against that church. We vindicate religious liberty and equality to the fullest extent. All churches should be equal in the eye of the law." Nor was any injustice or bitterness entertained towards the French Canadians. The political dominance of any church, said the Principal, is a standing menace to the peace of the state and necessarily results in injustice. The true significance of the present movement is that the relations of church and state conflict. We must disclaim a desire to gain any advantage for any political party if our movement would succeed. [Applause]. If we can rise above party considerations we shall achieve a moral victory of incalculable weight.

Rev. Charles Duff, Toronto, suggested as a motto for the convention a sentence of Dr. Caven's: "I claim the liberty of speaking freely upon the whole subject of Ultramontane aggressiveness wherever it reveals itself."

Major Bond, Montreal, claimed that city was the first line of defence, against Jesuitical aggression. Said he vehemently, "We will defend to the very utmost the absolute supremacy of Queen Victoria—[cheers]—and also our civil and religious liberty."

Dr. Davidson, chairman of the Montreal Citizens' Committee, said: "Unless the Jesuits be curbed the Dominion will be in a lamentable position and there will be no peace."

Rev. P. McLeod, of British Columbia, late of Toronto, descanted on the freedom of the district beyond the Rockies from Jesuit aggression.

Rev. Mr. McLaren, North Bay, was bitter in his strictures.

Colonel O'Brien, M.P., received a flattering reception. Said he: "The most important aspect of the situation is not the constitutional but the political." He saw little difference between the two political parties in reference to Jesuitism.

Mr. James Sutherland, M.P. for North Oxford, was the first to raise a little breeze. He boldly avowed: "There are as firm supporters of civil and religious liberty who voted for allowance of the Jesuits' Estates Act as we of the '13' are." [Loud cries of "no, no."] "I am prepared irrespective of party to stand by the position I have taken."

Mr. Fraser of London said the feeling in the city was varied.

The chairman, in answer to Dr. Davidson, Q.C., said the convention was substantially an Ontario gathering, though representatives from other provinces had been invited. Personally he was in favor of a Dominion convention. The applause which followed showed that the suggestion was popular, and it is probable it will take tangible form.

Mr. Martin, Q.C., of Hamilton presided over the afternoon convention. Rev. Charles Duff started the ball by wanting a declaration of the difference between Roman Catholicism and Ultramontanism. Several delegates backed up Mr. Duff and as many opposed it. The resolution was lost.

The chairman read a resolution of sympathy from the Stationing Committee of the Toronto Conference.

Dr. Wild brought from Brantford with him fraternal greetings from the Congregational Union of Ontario and Quebec.

Mr. E. Douglas moved a resolution heartily approving of the calling of the convention. The resolution was unanimously carried.

The second resolution condemned the Jesuits' Estates Act and the right of the Pope to interfere in the affairs of Canada. The resolution was well supported and carried.

Mr. J. T. Small, Toronto, got a resolution adopted pledging a continuance of exertions to carry disallowance.

One of the chief speeches of the day was that of Principal Cavan maintaining that the line be defined between church and state. The resolution was carried.

At the evening mass meeting the Grand was packed to the dome with an interested audience made up for a large part of ladies. Ald. John McMillan President of the Toronto City Council, was the chairman, and in his own plain unvarnished yet withal effective style opened the rhetorical ball. The Rev. Dr. McVicar, of Montreal, who with strong Scotch accent, an array of unimpeachable facts, made more impressive by gleits of wit, continued his speech of the afternoon. The first point made was the opposition of Cardinal Taschereau and of Roman Catholic Bishops to the incorporation of the Jesuits and the passing of the Jesuits' Estates Act. Here he claimed the co-operation of the liberal-minded Roman Catholics in resisting Jesuit aggression. A series of grievances the Doctor next unfolded to the interested and sympathetic audience. The first was that of the subversion of funds for the higher education to sectarian purposes; next the school grievance, between $10,000 and $12,000 of Protestant money being taken for Roman Catholic education. The Council of Public Instruction, a strong Catholic body, came between the people and their representatives and prevented redress in the matter. Roman Catholics should receive their own taxes and Protestants their own. [Applause.]

Mr. John Charlton, M.P., made a very effective speech, chiefly remarkable for his lucid resume of the parliamentary history of the Jesuit aggression. Vigorously he denounced such as anachronism as a Jesuit corporation in a British colony, and cheers and laughter greeted his indictment of Mr. Mercier as liable for high treason for his share in the business.

Dr. Davidson of Montreal made a long and able speech. How the dignity of the crown has been impaired and the rights of the people been trampled on was eloquently told and the progress of this agitation and its ultimate success enlarged on.

Col. O. Brien, M.P., also gave a vigorous address.

Drowned.

POUGHKEEPSIE, June 11.—Edward Gan, aged 9 years, while playing on the string-piece of Collingwood dock here to-night, fell into the river and was drowned. The body was recovered a short time after.

AMBITIOUS CITY NOTES.

The Field Battery Off For Camp—Opening of the Wentworth County Court.

HAMILTON, June 11.—The Hamilton Field Battery left at 11 o'clock this morning for the camp at Niagara, picking up on the way down the Brantfords, Morristons, St. Catharines and Niagara Falls Companies of the Nineteenth Lincoln Battalion. The full strength of the battery was present and the corps goes out in camp in good shape.

The Grand Sessions of the Peace opened, as usual on Tuesday before Judge Muir. The first matter called, Conlon v. The City of Hamilton, a suit to recover $500 damages on account of the flooding of plaintiff's premises, was called in progress when the court rose.

At the Police Court to-day James Blair of Red Plaisters was charged with assaulting Mary Ann Fleming, his servant. Charges flashed. Owing to the police magistrate's illness the case was adjourned until Thursday.

Frank Whitehead has returned from Johnstown, Pa., where he went to inquire about the safety of his brother, Edward Whitehead, and his family. Mr. Whitehead discovered that the brother had escaped from the flood in safety. They lived in Kernville, a locality which is situated on the hills. When they saw the water coming they got on the roof of the house and the water did not reach them. Mr. Whitehead brought the brother's two children home with him.

HANGING BY CONTRACT.

A COMPANY ORGANIZED TO EXECUTE CONDEMNED CRIMINALS.

The Latest Chicago Undertaking—Getting Ready to Relieve the County Sheriffs of an Odious Duty for a Moderate Sum.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 11.—Capital is seeking new channels for investment. Articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State yesterday afternoon setting up the Great American Execution Company of the United States. It is organized under the general corporation act of Illinois and assessment is paid-up capital at $25,000. Its declared purpose is "to execute persons who are sentenced to death." The incorporators are Stephen Lowman, M. E. Chase and Jesse A. E. Hart, all of Chicago. Lowman and Chase were in partnership in that city in the retail coal business until a year ago and the firm became M. E. Chase & Company. Mr. Lowman is not in any business at present, but thinks there is an honest dollar to be made in the hanging business. The Company intends to establish agencies in each State capital, and will conduct a general retail and wholesale execution business at fixed schedule rates. It will employ only the most expert hangmen at a fixed yearly salary and [illegible] tion in States where condemned murderers are executed by the county officials. In States like Ohio (and in the future, New York), where the executioner must favor only at legally appointed seasons, the arrangements will be made with the wardens of the penitentiaries.

How They Will Do Business.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 11.—The men who yesterday filed articles of incorporation with the State Department appear to be acting in good faith, though it is possible they are seeking notoriety rather than success from executing men. I talked with the Chief of Police about the matter and he declared most emphatically that he didn't believe the Cook County officials would employ any such executioners. Each sheriff, when his successor was elected, confided as a precious secret the name and identity of the professional hangman. It would never do to employ Tom, Dick or Harry to swing convicted criminals into eternity.

M. E. Chase was found at his office on the river front. He is a man, bustling man of about medium size, and spoke with perfect frankness on the subject. "Yes, it is true," he said, "that a few of us have organized a company to conduct private executions throughout the country. We have put up our money, and are already in correspondence with many sheriffs and expert hangmen throughout the country."

"What do you expect your dividends to be?"

"I am glad you asked that question," was the quick rejoinder, "because it shows that our motives are completely misunderstood. We do not intend to earn any dividends. If we can simply maintain the integrity of our capital we shall be satisfied and shall gladly charge off to the loss account the interest thereon. No, our motives are purely philanthropic. To do good is our religion. You see, it's like this: We are all believers in capital punishment. We read our Bibles carefully and believe the law which sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed—or words to that effect. To be hanged, sir, by our company's expert executioners will be a luxury."

"What gave you the idea of this novel enterprise?"

"The recent bungling executions in Missouri," was the reply. "You must have read of course you did—the horrible accounts of the bungling strangulations of the Reid-Rosenbaum. That was shocking enough to repeal some practical reform, don't you think so? Some of the members of the company hope to secure the co-operation of the large and organized undertaking interest throughout the country. Then we shall be able to make a rate for a neat hanging, a rather more liberal execution or a complete carrying out of the law and funeral combined.

"The rates will depend much upon the distance necessary to send the executioners and the condition of the scaffold at the jail where the law is carried out. Of course we shall have a dozen or more substantially built scaffolds at central points, properly packed for prompt shipment to the nearest localities where nothings of the kind is to be had. But we shall encourage hanging by the approved method in vogue at New York, where a heavy iron weight is used to jerk apart the vertebrae of the condemned. This apparatus can be carried up anywhere, and the four hundred pound weights only will have to be shipped, the ropes, pulleys, stanchions and pinioning straps can be carried in a small grip-sack. We shall know our engagements, of course, and shall keep them. It will be a business matter with us altogether—no sentiment in dealing with crime."

"Suppose you get an application from a man for your gallows and cords who wants to commit suicide, will it be 'in the line of business' to furnish him what he wants?"

"We shall be suspicious of all applications from anybody but sheriffs, and of course we shall have all their names. No, we shall not cater solely to any one of this world."

Jacob A. S. Ifert is a large retail furniture dealer doing business across the street from Mr. Chase. "I don't know whether he sells coffins or not, but he has come to the conclusion that the present times are ripe for such an 'undertaking,' if it can be managed without conflicting with State constitutions. The idea was largely his, he admits, and he believes the American Execution Company will be able to contract with the various county authorities, whenever they have a hanging on their hands, to relieve them of the odious work for a certain sum per murderee. And the company will then do the business, under a guarantee of success, with experienced men and the best of material. This latest novel enterprise, they hope, will be warmly welcomed by the sheriffs throughout the United States, where general punishment is inflicted, and especially by Sheriff Matson, who dreads to have another wholesale execution on his hands, as he had when the Anarchists were hanged. The incorporators are anticipating a brisk demand in this special line of work in connection with the Cronin murder. When the reporter entered Mr. Ifert's private office, now the headquarters of the company, he saw a neat sign over the cashier's desk: "We study to please."

METHODISTS AT LONDON.

A Number of Reports Presented to the Conference Yesterday.

LONDON, Ont., June 11.—At the Methodist Conference to-day Rev. Wm. Briggs presented the report of the Methodist Publishing House, showing that institution to be in a flourishing condition. The premises in Kings-street have been sold for $40,000 and new premises purchased at a cost of over $100,000. The business done by this institution during the year amounts to over $200,000.

Rev. Dr. Burns presented the report of Hamilton Ladies' College, which showed the institution to be in a prosperous condition. Over a dozen young ladies would graduate this year. This was the first ladies' college established in Canada and has no debt on it.

Rev. Dr. Potts gave his report as the Secretary of the educational work, referring specially to the federation movement. London Conference has subscribed toward federation $30,128 and paid $9971. Persons outside of the church have subscribed $14,000.

EXCITED DEPUTIES.

A Lively Scene in the French Chamber—General Cable News.

PARIS, June 11.—Goblet's duel with Laguerre terminated the Government in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon in relation to the suppression of the Boulangist meeting at Angers on Sunday. He warned the Government that it was vain to attempt to terrorize the masses.

M. Constans, Minister of the Interior, said the Government had ordered a display of military force at Angers on account of the threats to receiving certain political leaders had elsewhere on the Sunday days. [Interruptions from the Right.] Demonstrations like that of Sunday were generally the work of paid agitators. At Angers [illegible] were [illegible] Boulangist agitators' departments. [illegible] were protests on the part of the Government that Laguerre and M. Lasserre were to be carried. M. Constans, continuing, said that M. de Rochefort, one of the persons charged with rioting, had caused a concurrence of police by the cutlet and injured his foot. The concurrence had only positioned his duty in carrying him and those who assisted him. The ministers then declared that the Government would stand by the law. Acceptance of such a meeting were opposed attempted.

M. Lasserre shouted: "Just try and I will blow the brains out of the first one who approaches me."

The President again called M. Lasserre to order and the M. Cassagnac d'Orsonne, who followed M. Lasserre in resuming the ministerial attack.

M. Constans said the Government had to deal with a desperate offence and not merely with isolated cases. Similar scenes to those at Angers had been enacted the same day at Lyons and Cannes and by the same political party.

SULLIVAN ARRESTED.

THE CHICAGO LAWYER IN MURDERER'S ROW.

Some Sensational Evidence Given Before the Coroner's Jury in the Cronin Mystery Yesterday—The Prisoner.

CHICAGO, June 11.—At the Cronin inquest to-day J. D. Haggerty, a railroad clerk, testified that after the trial of Dr. Cronin, Alexander Sullivan told him Cronin was a scoundrel and a menace to the Irish cause. It was the impression of witness that Sullivan was trying to express the opinion that Cronin should be ostracized. Witness was of the same opinion at that time.

Chief of Police Hubbard said of an interview he had with Woodruff, the horse thief. Hubbard asked him if he was the man who drove the trunk from the Carlson cottage. Woodruff said he was given $25 by two men the day before to do the job. At 11.30 p.m. on May 4 he seized the two men, assisted by operatives, captured them at a livery stable, and then went to the door of Dr. Cronin's cabin. Woodruff opened the door and led one man by name with a heavy trunk. The trunk came was P. O. Sullivan. When the trunk was put in the wagon Sullivan returned to the house. Woodruff with Klaus and Beggs drove to Lincoln Park. The men were followed by the prisoner of strangers in their vehicle. Reaching the manhole at 95th-street they kicked it open and threw the body into the manhole.

The chief then produced the private papers of Dr. Cronin turned over by subscriber John Conklin. Conklin identified the papers being in the handwriting of Cronin. The jury decided that the names of parties in the documents should not be made public, except those already brought into the case.

The coroner read the minority report of the Sullivan trial commenced at Philadelphia, Jan. 15, 1889, and signed by J. P. McCarthy and P. H. Cronin. The report blames Alexander Sullivan for neglecting the family of McCarthy's executed, accuses Sullivan, Boyle and Feeley for excluding C. H. McCarthy from the Boston Convention and also for excluding the delegate of the home organization. It was alleged that a report of the Boston Convention showed a deficit of $13,000 on the instance of Sullivan when there really was a balance that $111,000 was improperly spent and not accounted for by the brothers that the men sent to England on a mission were not sufficiently supplied with money and the agent of the [illegible] responsible for this, that $27,191 drawn from the treasury for "active work" was not used for that purpose by the triangle men and that the money was in the hands of the triangle's agents.

The coroner then read Dr. Cronin's notes taken at the trial. One witness testified that he was sent to England to do active work and given $4 and a steerage ticket. He came back by steerage without declination or other necessities. He went again and was told to get some one to help him. John Mooney was one of the men who was to help him. He was given $300 and when he got to England could not get more. He did not use the alias given him by the triangle, and his evidence intimates that this saved him from falling into the hands of the English authorities. He and his partner "performed four operations."

Other documents were also read. The jury did not want to hear any more witnesses and at 4.40 o'clock rested for deliberation.

At 10.25 to-night, after being out six hours the coroner's jury brought in a verdict, the features of it being a recommendation that Alexander Sullivan be held, also the three already under arrest. At 10.30 officers were despatched to Sullivan's residence to make the arrest.

Locked Up in Murderers' Row.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Alexander Sullivan was arrested to-night. He was in bed when the officers arrived at his house. He promptly arose, dressed himself and went with the officers to the jail. There he was locked up in cell No. 20 in "Murderers' Row." The prisoner's demeanor was calm throughout the entire proceedings.

THE FORESTERS AT LONDON.

Tenth Annual Sitting of the High Court of the Canadian Order.

LONDON, Ont., June 11.—The tenth annual meeting of the High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters opened this afternoon in the City Hall at 2 p.m. A large number of delegates and all the High Court officers were present.

After various committees had been appointed an address of welcome from the local brethren was read by Ed Towe, H.V.C.R., of this city, and replied to in fitting terms by the High Chief Ranger. Fraternal greetings were exchanged with the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows now in session in Toronto.

At 7 o'clock the brethren formed in procession at the City Hall and marched to Tecumseh Park headed by the band of the Seventh Fusiliers, where a display of fireworks and a concert were given.

The session will probably be concluded on Friday.

WHAT SCIENCE WILL DO.

A Soap Ticket Runs Out of a Montreal Boarding House.

MONTREAL, June 11.—It is not often that chemistry is used as a means to detect larceny, but this actually happened in a boarding house here. A young man had a great liking for the use of scented soap, but was much annoyed at frequent intervals on going to wash himself to find his soap had disappeared. He complained to the proprietor of the house, but as there were some fifty boarders in the house that gentleman, though he was willing to do his best, was powerless. The young man got tired of losing his soap and determined to put a stop to the practice. Last Friday he bought a lovely cake of soap, and carefully destined it with nitrate of silver. This has the property that in the presence of light and moisture it will turn the skin black, and the black won't come off. The cake of soap was carefully deposited on the washstand and further developments awaited. By Saturday afternoon the soap had disappeared and the young man now knew what to expect. On Sunday morning the boarders were startled by an individual rushing down stairs shouting that he must have some horrible disease. His hands were black and so was his forehead. "No disease at all," said the proprietor; "but

THE LATE PROF. PHELPS.

The above is a portrait of the late Prof. Edward R. Phelps, M.D., LL.D., of Dartmouth College. He was a strong, able man, who stood high in the literary and scientific world. It is not generally known, but it is, nevertheless, the truth, that Prof. Phelps was the discoverer of what is known to the Medical Profession and Chemists universally as Paine's Celery Compound, unquestionably one of the most valuable discoveries of this century. This remarkable compound is not a nervine, an essence, a sarsaparilla or any devised article, but a discovery, and it marks a distinct step in medical practice and the treatment of nervous complaints. It has been freely admitted by the best medical talent in the land, and also by the leading clergymen and scientists, that for curing troubles, nervous exhaustion, insomnia, debility, senility and even the dreaded and terrible Paresis, nothing has ever been discovered which reaches the disorder and restores health equal to this discovery of Prof. Phelps

Paine's Celery Compound is now being prepared in quantities, and can be procured at any reputable druggist. An attractive bunch of celery is to be found on every wrapper. It has become specially popular among professional men, mind workers, those burdened with exciting social duties and frequenters of the leading clubs.

Board of Trade.

The adjourned quarterly meeting of the Board of Trade, to receive and consider the report of the special committee to strike the standing committees, and to transact other business, was held in the council chamber Tuesday night, the vice-president, Mr. R. Bates, in the chair.

The report of the Committee was adopted as below:—

RAILWAY AND CANAL COMMITTEE—Messrs. John Carnegie, W. E. Matthews, D. Billesphem, T. Kelly, T. O Brooks, Wm. Hamilton, Jos. Stevenson, J. M. Irwin, J. L. Gower, W. J. Mason.

MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE—Messrs. W. H. Moore, W. Paterson, H. Phelan, F. H. Dobbs, A. L. Davis, H. Rush, Dr. Burnham, R. A. Morrow, A. Stevenson, F. J. Lewis.

MERCANTILE COMMITTEE—Jas. Pollie, H. S. McDonald, Robt. Fair, S. Shortly, E. G. Kingan, J. Hackett, W. J. Green, Maclaren Wilson, R. J. Lee, W. J. Sherwood.

MANUFACTURERS' COMMITTEE—Messrs. T. Cahill, Wm. Lesh, T. G. Hazlitt, J. R. Hamilton, Jas. Stevenson, Adam Hall, Jas. Kendry, W. H. Moldrum, Wm. Monroe, R. A. Morrow, J. M. Irwin, Wm. Hamilton, T. C. Brooks.

The report of the committee further recommended that the officers of the Board and the chairmen of the different committees constitute the Reception Committee on behalf of the Board.

A circular from the Board of Trade of Hamilton, relating to a Merchants' Convention to be held in Hamilton during the coming Summer Carnival, August 19 to 23 prox., was referred to the council of the Board.

Mr. J. M. IRWIN drew attention to the advisability of having a special committee to look after the prevention of the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, and on his motion, seconded by Mr. Moldrum, the functions of the Railway Committee were enlarged so as to justify the application of the charge of duties to the Committee of Railways, Canals and Water Powers.

ELECTION OF NEW MEMBERS.

The following new members were elected: P. H. Pearce, insurance agent; W. H. Hill, insurance agent; John Hall, miller, Lakefield; Robt. Hopkin, Keene; G. J. Harly, photographer; F. H. Green, photographer, and D. W. Dumble, barrister.

BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

The members of the Board of Arbitration were elected as follows:—Messrs. J. M. Irwin, W. J. Lewis, Walter Paterson, W. H. Moldrum, W. J. Mason, Thos. Kelly, Adam Hall, John Carnegie, D. W. Dumble, W. H. Moore, Geo. Hilliard, Robt. Innes.

HELPING HANDYCRAFTS.

Mr. CAHILL, brought the matter of the Ontario Pump Company to the attention of Board. He thought the sanction of the Board to the proposal would assist in the carrying of the by-law granting the annual bonus to be given as a condition of the company coming to Peterborough. The matter was referred to the Manufacturers' Committee.

Mr. LEWIS was opposed to granting bonuses of any kind.

Mr. D. W. DUMBLE thought the matter was a very proper one for the consideration of the Board. An enterprise requiring to be bolstered up with bonuses was not one to expand. Such. But in a new country, where there were no fixed manufacturing centres, there were established manufacturers looking for more suitable locations, and their question would be determined by a small bonus, and on these principles he would be in favor of the resolution proposed to be submitted to the Ontario spring rolls. He might be allowed, he said, to remark, in regard to a remark in the address presented by the council to the Governor-General, that the educational, commercial and natural advantages, were of no use, and only served as a reproach to us unless we had the push and enterprise to apply them to material. RUSH would propose, seconding Mr. Hilliard, Mr. Bates, $100,000 as the amount of the bonus by the town, and ask 4 per cent debentures at 4 per cent interest, deposit this in the local bank, which would give 4 per cent, and there would be no loss, when we found out by inquiring as otherwise that some other town was willing to give more, we could withdraw from the contract, especially as general inspection of our industries, on the part of the Board, would be necessary, and by seven would grow suitable buildings, and he should rise and give it to such a company free of rent and free of taxes for ten years. He should run on this; if any firm asked, we had given no bonus—we did have the building, which was only worth values to rent and, for another firm. With the river and canal with Lakefield this city, with a line of railway connecting with both rivers would be a wonderful development of our water powers and the town would become the Lowell of America. He, he said, would like to stand a watch power in these days, and we should see it. He had received letters from Peterborough to industrial Manufacturers would closing upon us to ought without assistance, because we should be compelled as a manufacturing centre. Unless we took some such bold step as this, we should, instead of becoming a great city, degenerate into the status of a better class city village, and be forced to see our young men, like the blood of the town, drifting away to the United States. Mr. DUMBLE concluded his elaborate and effective address again as a member of the Board—amidst loud cheers.

Mr. W. LEWIS and Mr. Wm. HAMILTON said they had built up their business without the aid of bonuses, and they objected to paying taxes to assist others.

Mr. W. H. MOLDRUM agreed with Mr. Dumble's remarks, and cited the business of Mr. Brooks, who would have remained here had the town supplied him.

Mr. T. KELLY strongly advocated a vigorous policy for the encouragement of manufacturing, and approved of Mr. Dumble's proposition. In reference to the Ontario Pump Works, it was a question of concern. They were occupied land with their works worth $200 per foot, and they wished to [illegible] do so, and Peterborough suited them.

Mr. MITCHELL suggested that the committee consider the question of bonusing existing industries if they would double their capacity.

Mr. W. H. MOORE favored widely advertising the town's advantages in the United States and Canada.

Mr. CAHILL pointed out that the proposed annual grant to the pump works would not in reality increase the taxes of anybody. The addition would not make a difference of a mill on the dollar capacity, and this would be more than [illegible] by the additional taxes from the occupying of new houses by new residents, which the works would bring here, and the expenditure of money.

The principal Mr. Cahill's suggestion was referred to the Manufacturers' Committee, to report at a meeting of the Board to be held next Tuesday night, to which date the Board adjourned.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The W. C. T. U. Annual Speech. A G. O. R. and Orangemen in Council.

TORONTO, June 12.—The Dominion W.C.T.U. held its first session yesterday at Association Hall. In the morning the Executive met to appoint committees and to arrange matters for the Convention. The afternoon session commenced with a devotional service conducted by Mrs. Cowan of Toronto. On account of the illness of the president, Mrs. Youmans, the chair was occupied by Mrs. Rutherford, vice-president for Ontario. The roll call by the recording secretary, Mrs. P. Rutherford, Toronto, showed that 57 delegates were present. The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dallas, Barrie, gave encouraging reports of the work in different provinces of Canada. Papers were read on "Prohibition" by Mrs. Sanderson, Quebec and Mrs. Symington of Napanee, Ont. Mrs. Andrews of Manitoba gave a sketch of the prohibition movement in the Northwest. During the afternoon Mrs. H. A. Stotesbury, superintendent of the Juvenile Department of the W.C.T.U. for New York State, and Miss Anna Gordon, Evanston, Ill., Miss Willard's secretary, were introduced to the convention. In the evening a reception was given to the delegates in the Metropolitan Church parlors, most of the 1000 invitations sent out being accepted. A public meeting was also held in the body of the church. Rev. Dudley Hooker was chairman. Several addresses of welcome were given, after which Miss Willard spoke of the movement; its foundation—its development—and concluded a long reports of her sister workers in all parts the world. Her plea down was prohibition by law, prohibition [illegible] and prohibition by women's ballot. Miss Willard was enthusiastically applauded at the close of her address.

Delegates by the hundred, clerical and lay, crowded the cathedral house of St. James' Cathedral yesterday. The occasion was the annual meeting of the Anglican Synod of Toronto Diocese. On the platform were: The Bishop of Toronto, in the chair; Archdeacon Boddy, the Provost of Trinity, Dr. Sheffield, Registrar of the Diocese; Dr. Hodgins and Rev. Dr. Pearson, Honorary Secretaries. It was above crowding Rev. Dr. Pearson read a report from various dioceses relative to the possibility of uniting the whole church of British North America under one constitutional jurisdiction. The Executive Committee was then opened to deal with the Toronto Rectory purpose Fund. The report of the Clergy Superannuation Trust Fund Committee was received. The receipts were: On account capital, $20,150; expenditure, on account capital, $11,932; balance on April 30, 1889, on account income, $2,644; balance overdrawn April 30, 1889, $4,662.

The Grand Lodge of the Canadian Order of Oddfellows began its annual session here yesterday. Grand Warden Gaillet of London presiding. The greater part of Monday was taken up in routine business and the appointing of standing committees. An address was given in the Horticultural Pavilion in the evening.

The Executive Committee of the Ontario and Toronto Undertakers' Association held a joint meeting in the Prince [illegible] yesterday afternoon, W. T. Gleeson, the Provincial President, in the chair, to arrange for the annual convention of the International Undertakers' Association which meets here in October. There will be about 500 delegates.

The bylaw of the city of Hamilton making a grant of $1750 for the proposed summer carnival, was yesterday quashed at Osgoode Hall and the grant therefore cannot be made.

A motion was made by Mr. Britton, Q.C., to stay proceedings and to dissolve the injunction against the authorities of the Victoria University recently continued by Chief Justice Galt. No argument was heard, enlargement being made until Friday next.

A fly young Englishman calling himself "Hon. Horace H. Spearman," has been victimizing boarding house keepers, tradesmen and his acquaintances generally. The worthless check dodge was his particular forte. Spearman has worked similar rackets in Boston and Brockville.

Yesterday afternoon boys playing in rear of 63 Deare-street found the body of a female infant lying in the lane. It was apparently born alive, and Coroner Powell had it removed to the Morgue, where an inquest will be held this evening.

I AM COMING!

CHAS. CLUTHE

The Surgical Machinest, of 118 King st. west, Toronto, will be at the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, on Friday and Saturday, 14th and 15th June.

when I will be pleased to meet all those requiring my services for the Treatment of Rupture (no matter how bad your case may be, come and I will give you relief), Club Feet, Bow Legs, Weak Legs, Spinal Diseases, and any other Deformities corrected by mechanical treatment.

Read what some of your neighbors have to say and be your own judge:—

Three Long Years in Bed with Spinal Disease.

Charles Cluthe, Esq., Toronto.

DEAR SIR—I wish to inform you how I am getting on. I am splendid now. I can walk any distance. I work all the time. My mother and I do all the housework for a large family. You know when you came to measure me I had to be held up, but after you put the instrument on I could walk through the house and the third day I could walk out. I feel that I can never thank you or say enough for you, when I think that for 3 long years I was a poor helpless girl, sometimes in bed for four months at the time, and getting worse every day. Anyone wishing further particulars refer them to me. Thanking you once more, I remain, your true friend. LATTIE GRAHAM, Peterborough.

Rupture.

DEAR SIR—I am only to inform you that the Scientific Truss you put on me last spring has been all I was recommended and more, as it has healed my Rupture, which I was troubled with for a long time, and am now able to work on account of it; but my hearing of you, I came and had you adjust the truss, and it gave me great relief at once, so I was able to work at any kind of work. I would not part with it for ten times the price if I could not get another. For further proof send them to me.

I remain, yours truly, ALEXANDER RYCKMAN, Jordan Station, Ontario.

MUNCASTER'S

CROP PROSPECTS.

Bulletin Returned of the United States Department of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The June returns of the Department of Agriculture show a slight increase in winter wheat area seeded, but the harvested may be possibly a million acres more than in the last crop, largely from Kansas and California. The condition of winter wheat still remains comparatively high, though it has fallen three points during the last month and averages 89 for the country. The area of spring wheat has apparently increased about 2 per cent. The condition of spring wheat is high, except in parts of Dakota where it has suffered from drought. The average is nearly 95 for the entire spring wheat breadth. An increase of two to three per cent. in the area of oats is reported, while condition is seven points below the normal condition of fall crops. The area of barley is about the same as last year and its average of condition 95. Rye has made no perceptible advance in area and its general average of condition is 95.

Rising Cotton.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The June report of the Department of Agriculture indicates a slight reduction in the area of cotton on the Atlantic coast and an increase west of the State of Alabama. Frosts are reported in May, some as late as the 30th, throughout the cotton belt. Conditions therefore are relatively low. The general average is 86.4. Rains on the last days of May were expected to improve the condition materially.

A Remarkable Extradition Case.

New York, June 11.—The World says the West Coast Telephone Company have received information from Santiago, Chili, that after a long fight the courts there have sanctioned the extradition of William Bushnell, alias Hansen, and he has been handed over to Detective Reilly who left New York in October, 1888. He arrested Hansen for a ten-year-old forgery of $26,000 on Butler, Sellman & Hubbard after he had succeeded under the name of Hansen in stealing $26,000 from the West Coast Telephone Company of which he was agent in Chili. The case is one of the most extraordinary extradition cases in years. There is no treaty between the United States and Chili and the prisoner is delivered as an act of courtesy to Uncle Sam. The man made many friends in Santiago. The town took sides and a duel was fought and wagers of thousands of dollars were made that he would never be brought back to New York.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, July 11.—Flour—There is only a small demand, and prices are unchanged.

Wheat—Is a little firmer. No. 1 hard is quoted at $1.00 and $1.01. No. 2 fall is held here at 96 cents, and outside on the Northern at 90 cents. No. 2 spring is quoted at 95 on the Midland.

Bran—The market is dull. Holders offer at $8.00 outside, but buyers refuse.

Barley—So little is doing that prices are merely nominal.

Oats—There is a fair demand and prices are firm. Good mixed are quoted at 31 cents.

Peas—The demand is slightly better and prices are steady at 63 cents outside.

Butter—The receipts continue large. In fact, too much roll butter is coming in, and in not bringing what it is worth, for the reason that dealers find it difficult to keep during this sort of weather. Rolls are quoted at 13 to 14 cents.

Lard—Quiet and unchanged. Americus is quoted at 9½ to 10½ cents.

Cheese—The market is quiet and prices steady at 9½ to 10 cents.

Eggs—Receipts are large and prices unchanged at 11½ cents.

Potatoes—The supply is fair with a moderate demand. Prices are firm at 30 to 35 cents.

Very little was offered on St. Lawrence Market yesterday and prices were unchanged. The receipts of hay were fair, the demand moderate and prices steady at $13 to $15. Straw sold at $10 to $11. The only grain offered was 200 bushels of barley and it sold at 46 to 50 cents.

BARLEY.

Gossage reports: Barley unchanged. No. 1 Canada held at 70c; No. 2 extra Canada at 68c. Rye—1000 bushels Canada by sample at 63c. Canal freights, 2½c to New York.

Yesterday being a holiday on the London and Liverpool markets, there are no quotations from those sources.

THE CHEESE MARKETS.

Buffalo reports: 5080 boxes of cheese made up of 170 Cloverfield, 1800 Marshfield, 1000 Springfield and 360 Johnsburg sold at 9¾. This was the entire day's business.

Little Falls reports: The cheese sales yesterday were 1871 boxes at 8, 5484 boxes at 8¼, 149 boxes on private terms, 830 boxes on commission. 630 boxes dairy sold at 8 to 8¼. Thirty-four packages of dairy and creamery butter sold at 18c.

At Fulton 1713 boxes of cheese were sold at 7⅞ to 8¼.

Utica reports: The sales of cheese yesterday at the Utica market were 760 boxes at 7⅞, 1654 boxes at 7⅞, 2020 boxes at 8, 2649 boxes at 8⅛, 2296 boxes at 8⅜, 1651 boxes on commission.

Crazed by Grief.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Rev. Charles Hudson Smith, formerly pastor of the Dorchester (Mass.) Pilgrim Congregational Church, who mysteriously disappeared April 6, was taken into custody here last night. It is stated his mind has been affected by the loss of a child.

The Largest in Corporation.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, shed dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

A Poem Prompted.

A George street poet got out his machine this morning and, oiling the crank, ground out the following classical stuff:—

[Here the machine broke hopelessly down, but from the words we could make out the intention that the St. Andrew's excursion, by C. P. R., on June 20th, is the cheapest, most comfortable, most patent, and first and foremost of the season. Tickets, good for two days, to go or come on any regular train, only $2.00, to be had from any member of the committee.]

With the privilege of staying three days for the nominal sum of $2.00. You leave the 9 o'clock G.T.R. train at Peterborough, take the steamer Norseman at Port Hope, take a stateroom, take a sleep, take a turn out and take a turn on deck at 6 o'clock, and lo, you are in Charlotte, the port of Rochester, only a step from the city. You have the whole day before you and you can either take the boat in the evening and, returning, reach Peterborough at 6 o'clock Monday morning, or you can stay till Tuesday evening. Three days visit to the most beautiful city of the United States for only $2.00. You could not ask anything better except a house for going. Tickets at the G.T.R. station or at COX & Davis' ticket agency.

Distinguished Visitors.

Hon. Chas. Drury, Ontario Minister of Agriculture, Mr. N. Awrey, M.P.P., South Wentworth, and Prof. Mills, Agricultural College, Guelph, arrived in town last evening, and this morning went down the river to the grand Farmers' Institute picnic at Jubilee Point. Last evening Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., drove the gentlemen about the town, showing them the chief objects of interest and calling their special attention to our railway facilities and exceptional water-power privileges, so that while the Board of Trade was discussing subjects connected with these, prominent public men were making personal and social acquaintance with our great natural manufacturing advantages, and transport facilities.

Sporting Events.

This evening the Athletics and Association baseball clubs play a practice match on the P.A.A.A. grounds, beginning at 6.30 o'clock.

To-morrow evening the first of the series of fortnightly races to be held under the auspices of the bicycle club during the coming season, will take place on the P.A.A.A. grounds. A good programme of sport is offered.

Friday evening the Otonabee canoe club holds its first regatta on Little Lake, off Barnham's Point. The club intends to make the regatta a success, and will follow it up with others this summer.

On Saturday there will be matched horse races on the Driving Park, which are advertised elsewhere. On the P.A.A.A. grounds there will be a cricket match, second eleven Trinity College School, Port Hope, vs. Maple Leaf eleven. At 5.15 the baseball match between the EXAMINER and Review types takes place. This will be the most blood-curdling event of the whole series, and will doubtless attract a big crowd.

Successful Peterborough Boys.

The Mechanics' Institute drawing classes, conducted by Mr. A. McCallum during the past winter, have yielded very gratifying results. The Educational Department has notified Mr. John Corkery, secretary of the Institute, that four of the pupils, who went up to the examinations conducted by Mr. J. Coyle Brown, have succeeded in obtaining certificates or diplomas, which will shortly be forwarded in due course. The following are the young gentlemen entitled to diplomas:—William Albert Smith, Primary Art Course; James Frederick Robertson, Ernest Richardson and Richard A. Gillespie, Mechanical Art Course. These are all connected with the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company's works, and their success may be cited as an illustration of the influence of surroundings in determining the bent of those associated therewith. The EXAMINER extends its congratulations and hopes the present success is but a foretaste of the success which, with the start they have received, and with industry and application, they are sure to achieve in their chosen vocation. No young mechanic, who hopes to reach, so to speak, the top of the cupola in his art, can hope to draw himself up by his hands alone; the head, and the heart, too, must co-operate.

A Sudden Death.

Tuesday evening Mr. John Crowley of Douro died very suddenly. Mr. Crowley attended the Eamismore pic-nic, and during the day was in the best of spirits. On his way home he took into his buggy Mr. Patrick Barrie, of Lakefield, whom he left at his own home. After Mr. Crowley drove away Mr. Barrie remembered that he had his pipe, and following with another gentleman overtook him about three miles from the village. They found the horse standing still in the road and Mr. Crowley lying on the roadside as he had fallen from the buggy. They tried by every means to discover signs of animation, but it was to late, the old gentleman was dead. It is supposed heart disease or paralysis, from which other members of the family had died, was the cause of his sad and sudden death. Deceased was in his 77th year. He came to this country in the year 1825, and was reared and lived his whole life upon the farm, lot 10, concession 3, Douro, which he occupied. He leaves two sons, Humphrey, who lives near the homestead, and Charles, at present in Nebraska. Deceased was highly known and as highly respected, and many were the expressions of surprise and regret at his sudden death. The funeral takes place Thursday morning at 8 o'clock to the Douro cemetery.

The Eamismore Pic-nic.

The annual pic-nic under the auspices of St. Martin's church, Eamismore, was held in Mr. Deane's grove Bridgenorth, Tuesday afternoon, and was one of the most successful ever held by the church. The morning was somewhat cloudy and threatened rain, but the "probs" were favorable and the sun came out and made the day pleasant and fine. The ladies of the parish had two large tables spread with any quantity of edibles, gotten up in the most tasty manner. About five hundred people from the surrounding country were present, including some from Lindsay and a large number from Peterborough. Doucet's orchestra supplied music and dancing was kept up without cessation all afternoon. There were also a number of games and sports to enable old and young to enjoy themselves. The young ladies, Miss Crough and Miss Scollard, who had charge of the tickets for the drawing for the watch, did remarkably well, the former disposing of $78 worth and the latter $66. The watch was presented to Miss Crough by Rev. Father O'Connell, but at her wish the watch was drawn for, Mr. P. Kennedy being the lucky winner. The handsome spread was won by a lady and the suit of boy's clothes by Rev. Father Cote. Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M.P., did the drawing and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., shook the tickets up and announced the winners. Rev. Fathers Rudkins, Cote and Lynch, of Peterborough, were present during the afternoon, and assisted in making the occasion an enjoyable one. Rev. Father O'Connell, since his removal to Eamismore, has made hosts of friends in the parish, and did his utmost to make all enjoy themselves. The receipts at the gate were large, and altogether the pic-nic was a most successful one.

Following is a list of the prize winners in the different athletic contests:—Running leap, step and jump—1st Archy Moore, 2nd John Flaherty, 3rd D. Stinson. Standing long jump—1st John Flaherty, 2nd Archy Moore, 3rd D. Stinson. Running long jump—1st Archy Moore, 2nd D. Stinson, 3rd P. Flood. Putting heavy weight—1st J. Meaken, 2nd — Brophy, 3rd Archy Moore.

Constitution of the Grand Lodge Meeting—List of the Officers Elect.

The Grand Lodge went into session last night about 6.30, Grand Master Robertson presiding. After appointing committees the lodge adjourned in order to attend service at St. Andrew's church.

Upon resuming at nine o'clock the officers were elected as follows:—

GRAND MASTER—J. S. Jackson, Toronto.
SENIOR DEPUTY GRAND MASTER—Jas. R. Gowe, Belleville.
JUNIOR DEPUTY GRAND MASTER—M. A. Jamieson, Hespeler.
GRAND TREASURER—J. Billinghurst, Toronto.
GRAND SECRETARY—R. M. Wylie, Peterborough.
ASSISTANT GRAND SECRETARY—George Mayes, Brockville.
GRAND CHAPLAIN—W. L. Bell, Toronto
GRAND DIRECTOR OF CEREMONIES—R. H. Kedwards, Belleville.
GRAND TYLER—F. McCullough, Lonsdale.
GRAND LECTURER—F. W. Eward, Kingston.
ASSOCIATE GRAND LECTURER—W. A. Mackay, Bedford Mills.

SECOND DAY.

This morning the committees resumed work at 8:30, lodge opening at 10:30.

Reports were read from the Grand Master, Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, showing the finances of the Grand Lodge to be in a highly satisfactory condition. The Secretary's report indicated that the 'Prentice Boys were rapidly growing in numbers. There were now 22 lodges in good working order, with a total membership of 642. There were 189 initiations in the last year, 14 members joined by certificate and 2 were re-instated. Kingston lodge heads the list with 140 members, No. 13 Belleville and 22 Toronto being tie with 45 each. No. 8, Deseronto, established only a few months, numbers 41, and Jubilee No. 7, Peterborough, has a membership of 36.

The collection taken up at St. Andrew's church last night, amounting to $15.15, was presented to the Protestant Home.

Resolutions of thanks were passed to Rev. A. Bell for his excellent sermon, and to the choir and board of managers of the church; also to the Orangemen, 'Prentice Boys and True Blues and their band for their kindness in attending the church parade.

A message of greeting was sent to the Ottawa Convention in Toronto.

After some other private business was transacted the Grand Lodge adjourned till afternoon.

Address to Orangemen.

Rev. A. Bell Speaks to Orangemen, 'Prentice Boys and True Blues in St. Andrew's Church.

Last night a hundred or more brethren of the different Orange societies in town and the visiting delegates to the Grand Lodge of 'Prentice Boys attended divine service in St. Andrew's Church. About eight o'clock the procession marched up George street to the church, the True Blues' fife and drum band leading, followed by the Nassau and Peterborough Orangemen, then the 57th Batt. band preceding the 'Prentice Boys and True Blues and the Grand Lodge officers and delegates. The street was lined with people watching the parade.

Arrived at the church, the brethren filled the centre seats, while the sides were occupied by a congregation of interested persons. The choir was in its place, and after opening services a sermon was preached by Rev. A. Bell, pastor. A collection was taken up in aid of the Protestant Home.

Rev. Mr. BELL took for his text, Rev, II, 25:—

"That which ye have, hold fast till I come."

These words he considered applicable to the present time. Through mistaken charity or for the sake of peace, the people to whom they were originally addressed had not risen against the evils that threatened their faith, but now the Master's message came to them that they must rise up and defend that which they had. The message called for watchfulness, courage and perseverance, a long continued strife, if necessary, until He comes. So the responsibilities which were impressed upon the men of Thyatira still lay upon the church to-day, and as Protestants the people of to-day were called upon to stand by the truth of the gospel as given them by God. Them they were to keep pure and maintain. The holding fast to these doctrines of Christ implied the candid reception of the gospel truths in their own hearts; and this means a consistent Christian life that will convince others that God reigned in their hearts. For the safe keeping of this truth all Christians are responsible. But there were other things arising out of the acceptance of this truth to be preserved in conjunction with these truths, namely, the principles of civil and religious liberty. These were the very spirit of the truth God requires us to accept, and particularly, said the speaker, of Protestantism as against Roman Catholicism, which was repressive and endeavored to hide the truth of God from the people. The cruel oppression of the church of Rome for many ages was endured by the people, he said, but at last they struck and fought for and obtained those liberties, and it was now for the Protestants to day to hold fast to that which they had. Briefly referring to the Jesuit agitation, Rev. Mr. Bell enquired what was to be done to resist the encroachments of the Roman Catholic church? He pointed out his objections to the Jesuit bill—first, because it puts into the place of citizens a society of men who are disloyal and cannot give their allegiance to the Queen on account of their oath of absolute and unlimited obedience to the Pope, and who, by reason of their intrigue, interferences with government and crime, have been expelled from different countries about 60 times. Their teachings were immoral and disloyal. They teach, he said, that one can be guilty of lying, perjury, stealing, and murder, in a particular way, and not sin. These were the men who had been incorporated and permitted to enjoy the privileges of citizens. Then this bill recognizes the sovereignty of the Pope over the Queen, thus insulting Her Majesty and every loyal citizen. The British law declares that no jurisdiction of a foreign potentate shall be permitted, yet the Premier of Quebec humbly seeks the permission of the Pope to sell property which belongs to the government. And His Holiness he pleased to grant the permission on condition that the proceeds be held at the disposal of the Holy See. Of this the Jesuits get a large sum, sufficient to establish them; and once established they will then be ready to go further. Even now they were claiming a share in all the grants of the government which recognized them. Was this insult to continue, or were the people to rise in their strength and resent it? Our liberties were assailed, he said; were we to hold them fast or let them go? He urged the matter upon his hearers and pointed out to them the application of the text.

After singing "Hold the Fort" the services were brought to a close and the brethren returned to their lodge rooms.

Police Court.

WEDNESDAY, June 12.

Con. Ryan was fined $2 for being drunk.

Richard Foster was remanded for a week on a similar charge, to give him time to sober up.

A number of Douro people, residing between the town and Nassau, were before the magistrate for allowing their cows to run at large within the town limits. They were:—T. Burke, Mrs. Geo. Firman, L. Brimbole and T. Sullivan. They were each fined $2 and costs, or $4.35 each.

Messrs. E. H. Green and A. Allen were in court charged with forestalling on the market. It was shown that Mr. Green had made his purchases before they reached the market, and he was discharged, but Mr. Allen was fined $5 and costs.

The Grand Jury's Presentment—Four Cases off the List—A Peculiar Verdict.

Four cases have been struck off the list, two of them, Dunsford vs. McWilliams and Chalmers vs. Scollard being settled out of court. The other two cases are reported below.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENT.

The Grand Jury presented the following:

ONTARIO, County of Peterboro', To wit; } The Grand Jurors of the general session of the Peace for the said county, present to your Honor as follows:

We fully appreciate your remarks anent the Grand Jury system as at present in existence in this province, and trust that it will lead to the careful consideration by those more immediately connected with the administration of justice and by the public generally. And while we are satisfied that if any better procedure can be evolved for the investigation of offences against the criminal law, the intelligence of our people will bring such influence to bear as will lead to that end; but at present we can only submit that we have not given the subject that thought that would warrant us in offering any opinion on the advisability of making any change in the system at present in existence.

We look upon the comparative freedom from crime enjoyed by this County in the past as well as at the present time as evidence of the intelligence both of the community and impartiality with which justice is administered by the courts of criminal jurisdiction in this county.

We would offer your Honor our congratulations upon your continued good health, and express the hope that you may long occupy your present position among the judicial, of which we are all so justly proud.

We have examined the gaol and premises therewith connected and can only reiterate what has been said by grand juries from almost time immemorial, that the care and order shown reflects great credit upon those who have charge of the jail.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. MCCLELLAND, Foreman.

COONEY VS. HAIR.

Benjamin Cooney owned 500 acres of land in Otonabee, and rented it to a young man named Evans Hair, for a term of three years, the agreement being that Hair should keep up the fences, not to remove any of the straw, to manure fallow and seed to clover the hill field, and leave in meadow at the end of the term what had been in meadow when he entered the farm. The lease expired April 6th, 1889, and the rent was paid. Cooney claimed that Hair had not performed the different agreements, and demanded $200 damages. According to the evidence Hair admitted before this action was begun, that he had taken off the straw, for which he offered to pay and leave Mr. Cooney's claim to the arbitration of the neighbors. This Mr. Cooney refused to [illegible] suit. At [illegible] broker[illegible]

JACKSON ET AL VS. HULL.

This was an action brought by Messrs. Jackson & Co., piano makers, against Mr. Robert Hull, blacksmith, to recover the sum of $150, the price of a piano which the plaintiffs alleged they sold and delivered to the defendant on the 1st day of April last. The defendant contended that he did not agree to buy the piano and that he only took it on trial, to be tested by a competent person, and if it was a good one he would agree to buy it. The jury rendered a verdict for defendants with costs. Mr. John Burnham for plaintiffs, and Mr. W. A. Stratton and Mr. R. R. Hall for the defendant.

A Labourer Among Labourers.

Geo. Boskin, of the Algoma and North West Gospel and Colportage Mission directed to labourers in that district, is in Peterborough in the further interests of the work. There have been supplied in the district during the past year, 1,600 Scriptures and Scriptural books in fourteen languages, large quantities of religious tracts, etc., distributed, and many religious services conducted in camps and school houses. Scriptural primers have been and are published in several languages and other work of the kind is in progress. To meet the various costs of the work the missionary appeals for renewed help, thanking the friends for $21.55 received last year.

CLEVELAND'S
SUPERIOR
THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and uniformly successful in use, and it always affords wholesome, delicious and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by [illegible] government and State chemists, Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans. Not [illegible]

"Bless the Baby"

How oft you say it, and yet haven't you failed to "bless" it with a proper perambulator—a carriage that will permit of its securing the benefits of the sun and air, so necessary to its health and comfort?

If you have delayed, don't delay any longer.

If you are blessed with a wee small heir or heiress, you want to do your duty in ministering to the wants of the little one.

ROUTLEY'S is, and always has been, headquarters for Baby Carriages and other wheeled rigs for children. All he has to do is to show his styles and makes, and name his prices, and they sell themselves.

AT

TURNBULL'S

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 50c. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"

FROM THE NEW FIRM OF

H. LeBRUN & Co.

Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

in past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BETTER FABRICS, FINER STYLES than were ever handled before.

Special values in Fine SPRING OVERCOATS, and Fine Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department stocked to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment in an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and tailors. Besides perfect fit and first-class tailoring, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS' CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to suit from than they could find elsewhere.

This season finds us now showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S REEFERS, SHORT WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HANDKERCHIEFS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

A QUEBEC SKIPPER ARRESTED AT MONTREAL.

The Circumstances Between by Which He is Alleged to Have Defrauded the Customs Out of $2000.

MONTREAL, June 13.—Criminal proceedings were begun in the Police Court this afternoon against Theodule Blouin of Quebec, master of the schooner Flying Scud, at the instance of the customs officers for alleged systematic frauds against the customs both. Blouin is alleged has been in the habit of buying a cargo of American domestic clearing, of dutiable proof, at Boston, thence going to St. Pierre-Miquelon, an island under the French Government and taking a cargo thence there on paying duty on only a small quantity of the cargo; thence to Magdalen Isles in the Gulf of St. Lawrence where another schooner, alleged to be the J. Fraser, of which Blouin's brother is master, would take the cargo of spirits in mid-water and dispose of it at different ports in the St. Lawrence. The Flying Scud would then take a cargo of timber and proceed to Quebec or Montreal with it, never paying duty on its original cargo. Blouin was arrested and his vessel seized. The customs claim $2000 duty.

FROM THE PRAIRIE CITY.

The Hon. Lord Brassey—Chief, P. Q. Down on Speculators.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 13.—The land sales of the Canadian Pacific Railway at present amount to $[illegible] acres per day. The company has instructed all agents that nothing less than $5 an acre will be considered for any of their lands. Speculators have rushed out to the southwestern part of the province with the intention of grabbing the best lands and the company has deemed it advisable to freeze them out by raising the price. It is understood that special terms will be made with purchasers who show that they intend to cultivate their land.

The City Council has ordered obscene advertising bills of Lily Clay's show to be torn down.

The 91st Battalion has been reorganized with companies at St. James, Kildonan, Selkirk, Springfield, Stonewall and Woodlands. It will be unable to put in the annual drill this year.

Allan's brewery at Moosejaw has been seized for infraction of the Inland Revenue Act.

Governor Schultz and the City Council intend leaving the settlement of the tax suit to arbitration.

A domestic in the employment of J. A. M. Aikens, during the absence of her employers, had been running grocery, liquor, dry goods and other accounts, which were charged to Mrs. Aikens, the whole amounting to several hundred dollars.

REFORM AND SOCIALISM.

They will Look Across at the International Labor Congress in Paris.

PARIS, June 13.—It looks as though the International Labor Congress in session at the Central Hotel is going to have as big a tussle with the Socialists as the first convention of the labor party had in Syracuse three years ago. Many of Socialists have come here with well defined ideas of what they want and full of determination to fight for it. The leading Socialists members of the German Reichstag, including Bebel and Liebknecht, will be here before the session closes. The German Social Democrats express great regret that the Danish semi-free adhere to their resolution not to send representatives to the congress, because the German Socialists have expressed their entire approval of the program of their Danish brothers and would have seconded them on all points.

Monsieur George is the conspicuous figure of the convention, and his time is taken up nearly all day by French newspaper interviewers and local labor leaders.

In his address Charles Lonquet, the Chairman, said that although he and many of his friends differed from Mr. George in points of detail, he, Lonquet, in the name of the enthusiastic admirers; that the land question was the most important social problem of the nineteenth century, and that George had done as much as anybody toward bringing it to the fore. M. Lonquet also gave a welcome to Mr. Firth, the head of the London County Council.

Mr. Firth, in reply, expressed the belief that the governments of the two shores would become a united bond never to be broken, and eulogized Mr. George, whose great qualities, he said, must extort admiration even from those who disagreed with him.

Mr. George said that the end which they had in view was that of peace, justice, emancipation of the world, and the recognition of the rights of man and of citizens. He congratulated London on the County Council and said it was perhaps the most important movement of modern times. Turning to Mr. Firth, Mr. George proceeded as follows: "There is one thing which the two Republics have in common, that is the peasant proprietors. It has been said their existence as a class would ever be a stumbling block to land reform in the two countries. I have never believed that, because I have never believed in the stupidity of men in the dominance of self interest. The highest force is not self-interest, but sympathy. Those who took a leading part in the land agitation in America and who gave most money to the party fund were the very people who, seeing to gain nothing, said to themselves the vessel in its present condition was a mass of parasites. Wherever we have been, the farmers of the United States have been won over to our side." In conclusion Mr. George said he looked forward to the day when man's greatest bond will be that he is a citizen of the world, instead of, as now, a mere state.

Stanley not Slain.

LISBON, June 13.—A letter received here from Ururi, on the southeastern shore of the Victoria Nyanza, dated Dec. 2, reports the arrival there of Henry M. Stanley with a number of invalid members of his force. The letter says that Stanley had sustained heavy losses, a large number of his men having died from disease or famine. The explorer had defeated and left Emin Pasha at Unyoro on the new boundary shore of the lake.

A Terrible Tragedy.

LEMANOT, N. H., June 12.—A horrible murder was committed near Meriden yesterday. Landon Freeman, with an axe, killed his mother, Mrs. Daniel Freeman, and also John Morgan. The murderer took to the woods but has been captured.

The scene of the tragedy is a three story frame house occupied by Mrs. Orville Freeman, aged 62, and her son Landon, aged 30, who carried on a farm. Landon has been subject to insane spells and at times has been obliged to be watched. His brother Fred. stayed with him on Friday and Saturday night, but being unable to leave his own work secured John Morgan of Meriden to care for Landon. It is apparent that the three retired at usual, Freeman's insanity not being considered of such a violent nature as to warrant a night watch. During the night Landon left his own room, on the second floor, and went down stairs where he occupied a bed lounge. Early in the morning he rose, got an axe, entered Morgan's room and struck him two terrible blows, nearly severing his head from his body, and evidently killing him instantly. It would seem that Mrs. Freeman must have overheard and discovered the murder, for partly dressed, through the kitchen. He overtook her on the way leaving the kitchen, and gave her a blow on the neck from behind with the axe, nearly severing the head.

Freeman then left the house, and walked eastward through the woods to Orville Eaton's house, a distance of two miles, arriving about 5 o'clock. Mr. Eaton got him to bed, and left on an errand to inform Freeman's brother of Landon's unfortunate. During his absence Landon met Mr. Eaton of his dead. Sheriff Hutchinson was summoned and arrested Freeman. The latter showed the sheriff the axe covered with blood and hair which he had thrown down about twenty rods from the house. There is little doubt that Freeman was insane when he committed the murders.

The coroner's jury at Meriden rendered a verdict against young Freeman, who will be taken to jail at Newport if not previously declared insane. He will be tried in September. In his own statement he claimed to have killed his mother at the request of his father, who had been dead for some years.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR ALL.

THAT WAS THE RESULT OF THE ANTI-JESUIT CONVENTION.

A Provincial Association Formed to Oppose the Citizens' Committee—Nothing Now a Foregone Conclusion.

TORONTO, June 13.—The Citizens' Committee yesterday was transformed into an Equal Rights Association for the Province of Ontario. This, too, is only preliminary to a permanent development into a Dominion one, if possible. That was the chief work of the anti-Jesuit Convention which closed yesterday. The attendance of delegates was larger than on the opening day. Nearly $50 additional credentials were presented yesterday, making a total of over 600 present. The platform of the new organization was fully discussed and ultimately adopted; an executive council of 20 members representative of all Ontario districts was appointed; a petition to the Governor-General for disallowance was signed by Principal Caven on behalf of the convention, a deputation of which will visit Sir Hector Langevin on the question. Mayor Taylor of London was the athletic and at times long-suffering chairman.

At the morning session the resolution intended that English should be the language of the public schools of Ontario, that every teacher should be able to teach English, and especially deprecating the existence of separate schools, was discussed by Professor Ashton of Alma College, St. Thomas, Rev. Dr. Stevens of Kingston and Principal Grant, and passed.

Mr. James L. Hughes moved a resolution recording the approval of the convention of the national system of free education and the right of every ratepayer to be a supporter of the public schools. Rev. Mr. Cuthbertson of Woodstock and others were in favor of abolishing separate schools root and branch, but Principal Caven interposed with a reminder of the guarantee of confederation and the resolution as originally proposed was adopted.

Mr. Cassells, ex-M.L.A. of Peterboro, moved a resolution at the afternoon sitting, the gist of which was: "We will not aid in returning to Parliament or the Legislature any candidate who will not pledge himself to support the principles of this convention." Rev. Dr. Wild, in his characteristic style, seconded the motion. [illegible] he satisfied, politicians who trouble to Rome for power he despised. Injustice was done to Protestants, who are the great majority of Canada's people. The [illegible] 188 members did not represent Protestants or Reformers or Conservatives, but only the Jesuit Order. At the next election there must be no discrimination between Whig and Tory. If such there be it will kill us. Dr. Hunter and others supported the resolution, which was carried.

Rev. Mr. Courtice, Wesleyan, got a resolution through without speeches, establishing a new association to give effect to the views of the convention.

Rev. Dr. Laidlaw of Hamilton followed his Methodist brother's example and was equally successful. His motion endorsed the action of the Citizens' Committee, and urged active propaganda and extensive petitioning.

It was moved by Mr. Murray of Hamilton and seconded by Mr. Alex. Russell:

That the chairman and secretary sign on behalf of this convention and of each individual member a petition to His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada for the [illegible] of the Jesuit Estates Act, and that [illegible] petition, together with all other petitions or like character, be presented in person by the chairman and such large and influential deputation as the council may direct.

Carried unanimously.

The Legal Committee's report was adopted as follows:

1. We have carefully considered the opinion received by the Citizens' Committee of Toronto from the Honorable George Irvine, Q.C., of Quebec as to the possibility of testing the constitutionality of the Jesuit Estates Act, and we would recommend that in conjunction with the Citizens' Committee of Montreal further advice be taken as to what means, if any, exist of testing its constitutionality by action or other proceeding.

2. We would strongly urge petitioners in respecting petitions to the Governor-General for the disallowance of the Act until the 1st of August next, unless it shall have been otherwise disallowed.

3. In the event of petitions not being obtained upon said petitions or otherwise before the said 8th day of August, we recommend that the Governor-General be petitioned to refer the question of the constitutionality of the said Act and also [illegible] the Jesuits to the Supreme Court, and that in framing the special case and in the argument thereof the petitioners and parties interested should be represented by counsel selected by them.

4. The Protestant minority of the Province of Quebec having petitioned the Governor-General-in-Council by way of appeal against said Jesuits' Act under the British North American Act we tender our cordial sympathy with and approve of their action in that respect.

5. Failing relief by any of the aforesaid means we recommend that petitions be presented direct to Her Majesty the Queen.

The report of the Organization Committee was read by John T. Small, chairman of the committee. Its salient features are:

There shall be organized an association to be called the Equal Rights Association of Ontario. Branches shall be established in every township, village, town, city or part thereof in the province. Each branch shall have a chairman, a secretary and treasurer and an executive committee, and shall send delegates to the District Council. These district councils shall have headquarters at county towns or other equally convenient places. Each District Council shall appoint delegates to the Provincial Council, which shall be the grand governing body and shall meet as often as shall be deemed expedient by its Executive Committee. This Executive Committee shall be elected by the Provincial Council and shall consist of thirty members, of whom seven shall be a quorum. The object of the association shall be the furtherance of the principles laid down in the resolutions adopted at the convention.

The report concluded by a suggestion that an similar lines there should be formed an Equal Rights Association for the whole Dominion.

The following were elected the Provincial Council:

Principal Caven, Rev. R. J. Macdonnell, Dr. W. J. Hunter, Rev. A. C. Courtice, A.M. Smith, Rev. Dr. Wild, Robert Newman, Dr. S. R. Bethel, H. A. E. Kent, Principal Sheraton, A. Fraser, J. L. Hughes, J. J. Maclaren, H. O'Brien, Mayor Taylor, London, S. C. Duncan Clarke, George May, John Carnegie, Dalton McCarthy, Q.C., M.P., John Charlton, M.P., Colonel O'Brien, M.P., Rev. W. F. Wilson, Rev Elmore Harris, W. Houston, W. J. Macdonell, Rev. J. Langtry, George H. Bertram, Rev. Dr. Rowland, J. E. Macdonald, T. Bengough, B.A., Armour, W. W. Fitzgerald, D. L. Maclaren, John Gaskin, John S. McClelland, Mayor Beaubien, Hampden, Mayor Leonard, Guelph, William McCreary, Dr. McMullen, Dr. Yeomans, Cobourg, E. Martin, W. Murray, Dr. Emory, Dr. Rupert, Dr. Lavell, W. F. Bunting, Toronto, George Stewart, Ottawa, G. F. Ferguson, Millbrook; John Milne and Principal Austin.

Principal Caven was elected chairman, Mr. J. L. Macdonald vice-chairman, Mr. S. C. Duncan Clark treasurer, Mr. E. Douglas Armour secretary.

Summing up the work of the convention Principal Caven said: "The blood of the Dominion is up. I trust by God's grace we shall not let this matter drop, but maintain constantly and always the great principles of civil and religious freedom upon which we challenge the approbation of mankind."

The convention closed with the singing of "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow."

The Foresters.

LONDON, Ont., June 12.—The High Court of Foresters reassembled this morning at 9 o'clock, the High Chief Ranger in the chair. A number of new delegates were admitted. The reports of the various committees were then received and adopted, after which the nomination of officers took place.

In the afternoon after routine the various reports to be presented were taken up. Rev. W. F. Hudson of Chicago, High Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters for the State of Illinois, was introduced and welcomed.

QUEBEC, June 13.—The Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company's steamer Montreal and the tug Two Brothers collided at 5 p.m. at Point au Pizon, a few miles up the river. The tug capsized and sank. It is reported that Miss Wheeler, daughter of Mr. A. Wheeler, late surveyor, who was on board of the tug, was drowned.

HURLED DOWN TO DEATH

THE TERRIBLE RAILWAY ACCIDENT IN IRELAND.

Ghastly Scenes at the Wreck Near Armagh —The Deaths of Twelve Victims Further Reported Since the Accident.

DUBLIN, June 13.—An accident unparalleled in the railway history of Ireland, by which 12 persons were killed and many wounded, occurred near Armagh today. An excursion party of 1000 Methodist Sunday School children, their teachers and relatives left Armagh this morning in two trains. The accident occurred at a point where the engine had to ascend a grade on a track fifty feet high. The first train ascended the grade without trouble. The second train attempted to run through the level track but before they reached it the [illegible] connection with an ordinary train from Armagh, according to a good rule of speed. The [illegible] cars were completely wrecked.

The scene which ensued was harrowing. Hosts of volunteers were soon at hand and the dead and wounded were taken from the wreck and carried down the bank. Medical aid was called for and a special train from Belfast brought to the scene twenty surgeons from that city and a number of medical men from other places between Belfast and Armagh.

The accident has cast a gloom over Armagh. All the shops were closed this afternoon and the people are in general mourning.

The engineer, fireman and guard of the train and the train despatcher were arrested and before a magistrate and were remanded on the charge of being responsible for the accident.

The [illegible] of the [illegible] train was inadequate. While the second train was ascending the incline the engineer remarked to the fireman: "I am afraid we can't do it." The following train was commencing the ascent when the engineer saw the runaway cars. Shutting off steam and reversing the lever the engineer and fireman jumped from the engine, shouting to the passengers to do likewise. The latter, however, not hearing the cries, did not obey. No one was injured on that train.

The engine was hurled 60 feet down an embankment. The carriage that ran into the engine was shattered to splinters and fragments of dress, umbrellas, etc., were scattered hundreds of yards. A dozen carriages were found beneath the wreck in a [illegible] condition. Some of the occupants of the runaway cars tried to escape but the doors were locked. The first part of the train started back in pursuit of the runaway cars and the passengers saw the collision at a distance of 200 yards.

A car driver named Hughes who visited the scene of the disaster was so horrified at the sight that he died on the spot. His corpse was taken to Armagh in his own car.

Another account says the engineer of the second train finding his engine powerless to pull the train up the steep grade unlatched several cars with the object of taking the front portion of the train to the next station and returning for the remainder. Heavy timber were placed behind the wheels of the detached cars to prevent them from slipping but the locomotive on resuming gave the entire train a shunt that displaced the stones. The detached cars began to slip down the grade, their speed gradually increasing until they attained a frightful velocity. After running four miles they [illegible] with terrific force into the [illegible] train about 1½ miles from Armagh.

The shrieks of the children were horrible. The bodies of the victims were arranged in rows as soon as recovered. Many were mangled beyond recognition. There is scarcely a family in Armagh that has not some sad dead.

A private of the Irish Fusiliers before the collision jumped on the footplate of one of the cars and dropped four children to the ground. He then offered to assist others to escape but his offer was refused. In many cases whole families were killed. Crowds visited the scene, and the air was rent with lamentations.

Lake Dillon on the Cronin Verdict—Sullivan Asserts Innocence.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Lake Dillon left for Philadelphia this afternoon. He stated he would be back in a few days and would work harder than ever in bringing Cronin's murderers to justice. He said the success of the Cronin jury will hurt the Clan-na-Gael but that body will be reorganized and some objectionable features will be eliminated.

Sullivan says he is not guilty of the crime with which he is charged, and he has had no connection with the murder of Cronin.

The 'Prentice Boys.

Close of the Annual Grand Lodge Meeting—A Farewell Banquet to the Retiring Officers.

The Grand Lodge of 'Prentice Boys assembled Wednesday afternoon, and transacted a large amount of business at a private sitting. The constitution and by-laws were revised and the reports of committees received.

After some discussion upon the Jubilee question, the following resolution was proceeded:

Moved by Bro. T. B. Unsley, seconded by Bro. J. Abbott, and resolved,

That the members of the Grand Lodge of 'Prentice Boys of British America, during the session of the Parliament of Canada, considering the passage of the Jesuits' Estates Bill, and so strongly endorse the action of Col. Gilmor's motion, that this bill be withdrawn from the House, and that the Grand Master of this Grand Lodge be requested to forward a copy of this resolution to the Grand Lodge of Ireland.

All further business having been disposed of, the Grand Lodge proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year, with the following result:

Grand Master—Richards, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Secretary—Bro. Wyth, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Treasurer—Bro. Hall, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Chaplain—Rev. Bro. Ellis, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Director of Ceremonies—Bro. Hall, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Auditors—Bros. Hall and Unsley, re-elected by acclamation.

Grand Master Richards presented all the retiring members of the Grand Lodge of Canada with a handsome gold medal, suitably engraved, as a token of the esteem and confidence in which they are held by the members of the Grand Lodge of 'Prentice Boys of British America.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned.

THE BANQUET.

The Grand Lodge proceedings were brought to a pleasant conclusion by a supper at Reddy's hotel, tendered to the Grand Lodge delegates by the local 'Prentice Boys. About fifty brothers of the Order sat down to the tables and partook of the substantial repast provided by Mr. Reddy. The dining hall was nicely decorated with flags and banners.

Mr. M. A. Jamieson presided, and after a most introductory speech announced the first toast to the Queen, which being duly honored was followed by a song from Bro. John Flannery, "I'm a man you don't meet every day."

Then the Governor-General was toasted, and Bro. F. Billings responded to a call for a song with "The Irish Chieftainship."

To the toast of "The Grand Lodge of 'Prentice Boys of British America" Grand Master J. S. Jackson, of Toronto, replied first. He thanked the brethren of Peterborough for the kind reception tendered the Grand Lodge. He was pleased to see so many Worshipful Sons around the festive board, which went to show that the Order was composed of capable and well-behaved young men. Bro. W. J. Ansell, of Kingston, Past Grand Master, said he had belonged to the Order for 10 years, and he was proud of being a member of a Society which had struck upon first principles and principles. He thought the younger men in the Association should take a greater part in the Grand Lodge proceedings. Should he not be present at future meetings of the Grand Lodge his good wishes would be with them. He congratulated Bro. Jackson upon his elevation to the position of Grand Master, and hoped the delegates adieu.

Bro. Flannery then entertained another song.

The next toast was to the "Volunteers," to which Sergeant Ketcheson, Belleville, and Sergeant Hillingshurst, of Toronto (a North-West hero) responded. The former lauded the Peterborough boys as the best to be found anywhere, and the latter spoke more particularly of the volunteers. Both gentlemen referred to the member of Roman Catholics in the Canadian militia, which they considered a mistake. Bro. Hudson, of Toronto, said he had been a member both of the Royal Grenadiers and Queen's Own, and was proud of it.

Bro. Billings rendered another solo.

To "Our Sister Societies," Bro. L. W. Ball, of Toronto, responded. He said he represented five different societies, and this was the fourth Grand Lodge meeting he had attended this year. He spoke gratefully of the Orange Order and Black Chapters, which he considered anyone might feel proud of being a member. Bro. J. Jamieson, of the Ideal True Blues, also spoke.

Bro. Flannery sang an Irish farewell song.

The press was next toasted, and Bro. Abbott responded with a humorous song.

The ladies were toasted, to which Past Grand Master Robertson and Bro. Abbott and Hudson ably responded, and said the occasion of attending the Peterborough brethren for their kind reception and entertainment.

The vice-chairman, Grand President Jackson, proposed a toast to the chairman and to the members of Jubilee Lodge No. 7 Provincial Bro. Wyth, Mitchell, Harris, and Bro. M. A. Jamieson the chairman, replied briefly. Bro. Flannery contributed quite a speech, hoping that the Grand Lodge meeting would meet again in Peterborough. He thanked the Provincial Boys in behalf of the members of the Jubilee Lodge for having the means of introducing him to the Roman Catholics and pulling the Pope down off his falsely constructed throne. The Trenton Boys talked of bringing about true liberty of conscience and privilege among all classes.

Bro. Billings added another song.

Bro. Hudson, Recording Secretary of Jubilee Lodge, said Bro. S. B. Wyth, Grand Secretary, spoke a few words expressive of their belief that the 'Prentice Boys would become a power in Peterborough and a lodge second to none in the province.

The band and anthem were toasted, and Bro. Geo. Ellis, of Toronto, proposed a ballot Provincial toast, which met with hearty approval.

Bro. Hanley sang a song and Bro. Stinson, Deputy Master of Jubilee Lodge 7, spoke a few happy words.

Bros. Billings and Hanley sang a duet, and were followed by Bro. Flannery with "The Rose of Tralee," and Bro. Billings with a last solo.

A farewell toast, "Happy to Meet, Sorry to Part," with the singing of the National Anthem, brought the proceedings to a close. Cheers were also given for the visiting delegates, the Peterborough brethren, Col. O'Brien and the reporters.

A well-known English actress is angry because a manufacturer of false teeth has placarded his town with pictures representing her "before and after" taking a set of his famous teeth. The "before" portrait is the one which makes her angry.

Women in the West End of London go about armed with small squirt-guns filled with dirty water, with which they slyly soil the coats or dresses of women they pass. Then they meet the persons, and, with elaborate bows, beg pardon for calling attention to the fact that the dress or coat is splashed, and offer to wipe it off with a clean white apron. Nine times out of ten the trick brings a generous tip.

The Bond Between Horses and Slaves.

In the editorial rooms of the Constitution not many days ago a curious scene was enacted. A negro, gray but still vigorous, came to see the editor for his young master. He seemed disappointed, and there were tears in the eyes of both of them when the reading took place. From the negro there was a "God bless you, honey; I love you the same as ever I" and from the other: "Uncle Remus, I never forget you!" There was positively nothing that the old negro could ask here denied him, and the young man he called his master, but all he asked was a street-car ticket to go out and see the young man's mother. He was merely a visitor, but old associations made the visit a happy one. Little children whom he had never seen sang songs of the old plantation to him, and when he left the gathered behind him up the street and called blessings on his head, and as he took his ticket from the driver he said: "Dat's de best day I ever had since I was free." Atlanta Constitution.

George's Suggestion.

"George," said the beautiful girl, as the bloomers shook each other over her shoulder during their last dance, "I've been thinking of something for our wedding next week. There will be one piece representing a wedding party of six persons, the figures all life-size. The florist says they will be perfect, but he thinks the bride ought to be holding an emblem of some kind—an anchor, or a cactus, or a book. Can you think of something appropriate, George?"

"An emblem to go with the six figures?"

"Yes."

"How would a dollar mark do?" suggested George, with a suspicious cough.

A box of Ayer's Pills has saved many a life of children. When a remedy does such benefit to be within reach, people are liable to neglect slight ailments and, of course, if serious illness follows they have to suffer the consequences. "A stitch in time saves nine."

Fiction Fruitfulness.

Mr. Hosea F. Murray, of Fiction, N. S., writes:—"I was affected with dyspepsia and nervous debility, and tried many remedies without avail, but one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters much improved me, and two more made me a well man." 2w22d

Given Instant Relief.

"I have been troubled with asthma and a bad cough for years. I got nothing to help me like Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and would recommend it to others as it gives instant relief." Extract from a letter from Walter McAuley, Vertner, Ont. 2w22d

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

GREAT GERMAN

HAIR MAGIC.

The equal of this great preparation is yet to be found. It is an unfailing Restorer for grey hair—it stops all falling out of the hair—it removes all dandruff and keeps the scalp clean. On bald heads (if there are but the faintest traces of roots) the Magic will produce a fine growth. Will you try it? Or will you let your hair go, and become prematurely old? What do you say? All druggists every where have it for sale. Ask for it. Do n't let the druggist tell you he has something just as good—many have dead stock of other hair tonics on hand and try to shove them off in this way. See that each bottle bears seal and signature

The public is reminded of the auction sale of the Mrs. Wildman residential property, corner of McDonnel and Water streets, opposite the George Street Methodist Church, to-morrow at two p.m. A very fine property and a very desirable one for purchase.

Guelph's Demonstration.

The EXAMINER has received an invitation and badge for a band and firemen's tourna. ment to be held in Guelph on June 19 and 20, at which some $2,000 are to be given in prizes. There will be band competitions and concerts, firemen's contests, athletic sports, fireworks, etc. Very low railway rates have been secured over the G.T.R. and C.P.R. lines.

Baptist Sunday School Excursion and Picnic.

The three Baptist Sunday schools of the town will run an excursion to Jacob's Island on Pidgeon lake, July 9th, via the Peterborough and Chemong Railroad and the steamer "Dominion" and palace barge "Fergus," of Lindsay. Y. M. C. A. Notes.

A meeting of great importance to all members of the association will be held this Thursday evening at 8 p.m. Mr. G. M. Roger, President in the chair, and short addresses will be given during the evening by Messrs George Fuller, Leeds, England, and J. J. Wright of Queen's University, Kingston. All who are interested in work, for young men are welcome. The meeting promises to be both profitable and interesting.

Police Proceedings.

On Saturday Mrs. Blackhart, who lives near Keene, lost a purse containing $15 and a gold ring in Corten's store. A boy was seen picking it up, and he had better restore it and save trouble.

Last Saturday a gold watch and chain were stolen from the vest pocket of Mr. H. D. Brush, Veterinary Dentist, at Cavanagh's hotel. The watch was an Elgin open face, with the owner's name inscribed on the inside case. The chain was of rolled plate, and had attached to it a charm in the shape of a horses' head.

Looking After His Contract.

The Empire says:—Mr. W. H. Law, of the Peterborough Central Bridge Works, is in town in reference to his tender for steel pipes for the Toronto water works. His tender for one dimension of pipes is the lowest, but a United States firm, by adding to to the form on which tenders were invited a stipulation that unless it got the whole job it would not supply the piping, for which its price was lower, brings the lump offer a trifle under the Canadian. The council and its committee are now considering whether or not they will act upon this change of their conditions.

On the Square.

Be "on the square" for this time at least, and join the Masonic excursion on June 19th. Low rates and perfect arrangements. You have a brief but pleasant run to Bridgenorth by rail and then you take the steamer Rambouge, and the "beautiful grove"—the interpretation of the steamer's name—takes you to the beautiful grove on Jacob's Island, a delightful resort surrounded with waters abounding in fish. A splendid opportunity for a day's pleasure and at the nominal cost of 75 cents; children, 40 cents. Tickets may be procured of members of the committee, for whom names and other particulars are posted.

Engagement.

The many friends of Councillor J. D. Ruttle will congratulate him upon his marriage to Miss Cass, late head milliner at Hall, Innes & Co's. Both young people have a large circle of friends in town, who will tender them their best wishes for a happy and prosperous life. A Bobinette dangling type of the wedding:—"Mr. John D. Ruttle, of Peterboro, and Miss Wide Cass, daughter of Mr. Cardinal Cass, of this city, were married in the Tabernacle, Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Geo. H. Copeland, pastor, assisted by the Rev. C. H. Cass, cousin of the bride. A large number of invited guests were present. The happy couple went west by the evening train.

"For a long time I had no appetite, was troubled at night, and very much debilitated. After taking two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my stomach and appetite returned, and my health was completely restored."—D. M. Fisher, Oswego, N.Y.

Masonic Lecture.

There was a good attendance of Masons at the lecture last night by Mr. J. Ross Robertson, of Toronto, under the auspices of Corinthian lodge. Keene and Lakefield lodges were also represented by a number of brethren. Mr. H. C. Rogers filled the Master's chair during the evening. The lecture dealt with the history of the craft in Canada, and was full of interest to Masons. After the lecture refreshments were served and a pleasant evening spent.

Only One Day More.

There is only one clear day more till the Rochester excursion is to be thought of. Make no delay in buying your tickets. Get your tickets to-day, and have to-morrow and Saturday for to get ready for the 9 o'clock G.T.R. train, which starts you on this excursion. Three dollars pays the fare both ways. You land in Charlotte on Sunday morning, and you can return either on Sunday night reaching Peterborough at 8 a.m. or you can stay in Rochester till Tuesday evening. Don't forget this excursion only $3 for three days pleasure.

Another New Yacht.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. H. Calcutt's new yacht, the "Daisy," was successfully launched, and on Wednesday did some work towing barges for the picnic. As soon as the "Daisy" is completed she will be used for passenger traffic. Her carrying capacity will be 50 passengers. The "Daisy" was built during the winter by Mr. John Stephenson, and finished by Mr. W. A. Stansberg, who does the work of Mr. Calcutt's boatbuilding. She is 50 feet over all, with 10 feet beam, and has an 8-horse power engine. The "Daisy" is a very pretty model, and will be an unquestionable acquisition to Commodore Calcutt's little fleet of steamers.

Peterborough Driving Park.

The following matched races will take place on Saturday, June 15th, at two o'clock p.m.:—

PACING RACE—Between Ed. Brown's and T. Postitt's pacers, $50 a side.

TROTTING RACE—J. J. Biskie's "Favorite" and W. Whelan's "Remedy," $25 a side.

There will also be an exhibition of speed given by Mayflower with Redmond's "White Cloud" as running mate.

The admission will be 10c.; grand stand free for ladies.

A Significant Sum.

Observe that $2 is the price of a ticket to take the parties on the long or short voyage of matrimony, but, at the same time, remember that $2 takes you on the delightful journey—the St. Andrew's excursion—and, what is more, returns you safe, sound and unscarred, which is more than can be said of the matrimonial excursion in all cases. On June 20th $2 takes you on the journey to Toronto (and back again), and gives an opportunity for seeing all the sights of the city, the parks, the island, the public buildings, art museums, etc., etc. You can go on the twentieth on any regular train and can return the same day or on any regular train the day following. The St. Andrew's excursion, by C. P. R., with its luxurious coaches and quick time. To Toronto and back for only $2—seven-tenths of a cent per mile. Tickets now on sale in stores and from members of the committee.

Is Marriage a Failure?

The question is repeatedly asked and urged—"Is marriage a failure"? Marriage is certainly a failure in those households where Hawley Bros'. prime teas are not regularly used. The irritation excited by drinking weak, tasteless decoctions called tea, is absolutely absent where the fine teas sold by Hawley Bros. are used. They make a specialty of fine teas, do an immense trade, buy in large quantities and therefore at low figures. Thus the customer gets the finest brands and blends of the freshest, most fragrant teas, at the lowest prices. The characteristics of Hawley Bros'. teas are strength, fine flavour and cheapness of price. Those wishing the choicest teas should remember that Hawley Bros'. is the place, and also that what is said about teas applies to their coffees, and remember also that Hawley Bros'. is the place to get bargains in glassware. dw

A Hundred Dollar Matter.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—Mr. Rutherford sends a letter to your paper in which he offers Mr. McWilliams $100 to prove that he ever received any favor from Mr. Belcher. I am glad to see he has some pangs of conscience over that particular $100, but I feel confident Mr. McWilliams would not take the money for doing what he considers his duty, and am also certain that the gentleman, who gave him that particular $100, would not now accept of it, if offered back. So that Mr. Rutherford will be like Judas Iscariot with his thirty pieces of silver—he cannot get any person to take the money. Perhaps he had better offer it to some charitable institution, but before doing so had better add about 6 years and 4 months back interest, as that he has been like the man mentioned in the parable of the talents, who only received the one talent and buried it.

JUSTICE.

Toronto, June 11th, 1889.

Ashburnham Brevities.

The Rev. G. Warren is at Toronto this week attending the Synod of the diocese. Messrs. Jno. Burnham, S. C. Rogers and R. Meade are the lay representatives.

Mr. W. J. Rombough and family left Wednesday morning for Toronto. Mr. Rombough has secured the position of manager of a large planing factory in that city. He has been a resident of Ashburnham and Peterborough for over twenty years, and his many friends and acquaintances in town will be sorry to hear of his removal.

The brick is being placed on the ground for the new tank on the corner of Elizabeth and Mark streets, and work will be commenced on it at once.

Voting on the by-law to issue debentures for $4360 for the purpose of erecting a new town hall, will take place on Tuesday, July 2nd. It is expected the payment of the debenture will not be any burden to the ratepayers as the route will pay the amount to be raised each year.

Mr. John Burnham is erecting a new fence along his property on John street.

News Nuggets.

—The Douro pic-nic is being held to-day. Quite a number of people went out from town.

—A young man named Holland received an ugly tear from a bicycle last night. His scalp was cut an inch in length and he received other cuts and bruises besides.

—Fifteen gallons of beer, half a keg of lager and a jug of whiskey were emptied out on the market square this forenoon. This was the liquor confiscated by the police on their search of the "stone front."

—The committee of management of the Peterborough Protestant Home desire to express their sincere thanks to the Prentice Boys for the donation of $25.15, being the amount of the collection for St. Andrew's Church on June 11th.

Personal.

Mr. A. H. Reinhold, of the Mail, is in town representing that paper.

Mr. John Tebbs left yesterday for the Northwest, where he will remain for about a year. He has relatives in the Prince River district.

Shoulders Ray Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand lacrosse match, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BRADLEY, secretary of committee.

Jubilee Point Picnic.

A Great Day for the Farmers—An Enormous Attendance — Admirable Speeches—A Fine Boy's Solid Pleasure —The Farmers' Creep a Green One.

"A splendid success" describes exactly the Farmers' Institutes picnic on Wednesday, and that is the sentiment of all who had the pleasure of attending it. And there were about or over a round three thousand present, got and from the four quarters of the heavens, of which Jubilee Point is the centre. Jubilee never had so large a crowd and the extent of the gathering is more to be [illegible], when it is borne in mind that all who were there had to come by water. Every available craft, from a dug-out or punt to a steam boat was impressed into the carrying service. About 1.30 the various crafts arrived from the east and lake ports, from up the river and from nearer points.

The Peterborough contingent left town at 8.45 by Mr. Calcutt's steamer and palace barge. Well loaded to start with, the passenger list received fresh accessions at every landing place, and at half-past ten about five hundred passengers mingled with the crowds from Hastings, Gore's Landing and other points.

THE PETERBOROUGH FLEET

took down the distinguished visitors, the special boats of the day, and not the least important to the youngsters, Dorsett's orchestra, which furnished music for dancing on the palace barge, which amusement was indulged in without stint the whole journey—both ways.

At the picnic grounds there was the usual scene of enjoyment. The beautiful grove at the point never presented a more animated appearance, and never echoed to the sounds of more enjoyment to the square inch, and never before had so many square inches in concentration at the same time. The immense crowd separated into family groups, and the clatter of knife and fork and crockery indicated that the culinary department of the picnic was by no means neglected. Those who had not brought provender with them found abundance at the hotel. There were many hurried meals amongst the younger portion—the dancing pavilion, whose floor was kept warm with the pulsating feet of the dancers, was a greater attraction.

About a quarter after three the crowd gathered round the platform erected for the speakers, and Mr. F. Birdsall, occupying the chair, presided over

THE INTELLECTUAL FEAST.

Letters of regret were read from Hon. John Carling, Agriculture Minister; John Dryden, M.P.P., South Ontario, and Prof. Saunders, of the Dominion Experimental farm, Ottawa.

The first speaker was

HON. C. A. DRURY, Minister of Agriculture. He expressed the great pleasure it afforded him to meet so many farmers present for the purposes of enjoyment and recreation, and was glad to see that Farmers' Institutes had developed so wide an interest, as the large gathering of the day indicated. He went on to show what great benefits these institutes were, how they brought farmers into personal contact, strengthened social sentiments, lead to exchange of practical ideas and in every way contributed to forming a bond of union between the members of the greatest and most important interest of Province. It was very important that there should be union amongst farmers. In his personal capacity he had for years striven to promote the interests of the farmers, make them more self-reliant and progressive, more intent on their own interests, more interested in their own calling. In his official capacity he would do all he could to carry out the same line of action. Hon. Mr. Drury's address was necessarily brief, his presence in Toronto on official business was required, and he retired from the gathering, took boat for Gore's Landing, and was driven to Cobourg en route for Toronto.

Mr. N. AWREY, M.P.P., of South Wentworth, was the next speaker. He went largely into statistics to show the magnitude and showing that while farmers represented seven-tenths of the wealth of the country, the influence they wielded was not in the same proportion. He indicated how farmers, by a study of their calling, by co-operation and other means, could wield that influence in the community which their position entitled them to exert. Mr. Awrey is a pleasing speaker and a clever and active young man who has made his impress upon public matters. He is a credit, not only to the great representative body of which he is a member, but to the constituency which has the honor of being so well represented.

PROF. MILLS, of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, proceeded to show the importance of that institution and the great benefit it was giving to the farmers of Ontario. Farmers' sons were, by its medium, educated in a manner to fit them for their calling. The importance of a special education for farmers' sons was now no longer denied. That farmer who, to a well trained mind, stored with facts bearing upon his calling, added an industrious and practical application of them, would succeed where others failed. Prof. Mills showed that his heart was in the work and that the institution in which he was an instructor, had in it the elements of a GREAT BENEFIT TO THE FARMIN GCOMMUNITY.

While Prof. Mills was speaking the hour of five o'clock approached and the many whistles for the homeward voyage sounded. Among those present also though the time did not admit of their making addresses, were T. Blezard, M.P.P., J. R. Stratton, M. P.P., and John Lang, M.P.

The homeward journey of the Peterborough party began at five o'clock, and at two o'clock the arrival at home was made in safety with a feeling of unanimity that the general enjoyment. A strong word of praise is due Mr. Calcutt and his employees for the diligent and courteous exertions made to secure the comfort, convenience and pleasure of every passenger.

Altogether the first great union Farmers' Institute picnic can unanimously be voted a "splendid success." The committee of management went at their work with a will and individual members of the institutes heartily co-operated with them, and they have reason to be proud of the success which attended their efforts. One of the chief elements of success in affairs of this kind is good management, and everybody will agree that that was not wanting.

The Late Hugh Bertram.

Intelligence was received in Peterborough on Saturday of the death of Mr. Hugh Bertram, father of Mr. John Bertram, ex-M.P., now of Toronto. Mr. Bertram died at his own residence, Dundas, on Saturday morning, and his remains were brought to Peterborough for burial in the Little Lake Cemetery, by the Tuesday morning C.P.R. express, the funeral taking place from the station at 11.30.

The large funeral cortege evidenced the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The deceased gentleman was well known in Peterborough, having resided in this county for a number of years. While in Peterborough he took an active interest in everything tending to benefit the farming community, being a thoroughly practical farmer himself, and he placed his valuable old country experience at the disposal of his fellow farmers. In politics he was a staunch advocate of Liberal principles, and the efforts of his teachings [illegible] as put forward position taken by his sons, especially Messrs. John and George, in the political arena. His wife died a number of years since, and was buried in the Little Lake cemetery where the husband's remains will be placed on Tuesday. Mr. Bertram leaves five sons and four daughters—John, George, Alexander, Peter and Hugh (who still has his residence in Scotland) Mrs. W. A. Hall, Mrs. Anderson, formerly of Fenelon Falls, and two Misses Bertram. Mr. Bertram had lived to enter his eightieth year, and in the course of so long a life was a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who, as well as the general community, recognize the sterling qualities that brought him an honored old age, and at his death brought the sincere regret of all who knew of him at the close of so valuable a life.

County Court and General Sessions.

Continuation of the Report of the June Sittings—Shoolbine Discharged—Shenwood vs. Fair.

Yesterday afternoon the case of Queen vs. Shoolbine came up for trial. The prisoner was charged with breaking into Mr. Harry Clarke's house on Pigeon Lake and stealing a quantity of household material. The case has been through the Assizes, and the particulars are well known. The case for the prosecution was based mainly upon admissions made by the prisoner to constables and detectives, it was claimed, under improper inducements, and they could not therefore be received by the court. His Honor did not call upon the defence for any evidence in rebuttal, and directed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty. Mr. E. F. Wood, C. C.A., conducted the prosecution and Mr. John Burnham defended the prisoner.

SHERWOOD VS. FAIR.

Mrs. Agnes Sherwood, of North Monaghan brought an action against Mr. Wm. Fair, of North Monaghan, farmer, to recover the sum of $120.00, for a mare, which the plaintiff said she entrusted to the defendant for the purpose of being used by the defendant in tending a stallion during the season of 1888 upon the terms that the defendant should feed and properly care for the mare, and should at the close of the horse season of 1888 return the mare to the plaintiff in good order, and in foal to the defendant's horse. The defendant did not return the mare, and alleged by way of defence, that she died from colic, through no negligence nor want of care nor improper treatment on his part. The plaintiff alleged that the defendant sent the mare out and beyond the scope of the agreement of the parties, and that the defendant's servant, Mr. John Montgomery, drove the mare to Bridgenorth, which drive induced the sickness, from which, through the negligent treatment of the defendant, the mare died. The jury found that the defendant got the mare from the plaintiff to be used only for the purpose of leading the stallion; that the mare did not die from the negligence, want of care and improper treatment of the defendant; that the mare was worth $50, and that the drive to Bridgenorth by Mr. Montgomery was out and beyond the scope of the agreement of the parties; but that it was not the cause which induced the sickness from which the mare died. The jury disagreed on the question whether or not the mare was to be taken by the defendant at the plaintiff's risk. On the findings of the jury His Honor directed formal judgment to be entered for the plaintiff for $50 and costs, with leave to the defendant to move in term to have the judgment reversed, or apply for a new trial. Mr. E. B. [illegible] for plaintiff; Mr. W. A. Stratton and [illegible] for the defendant.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, June 13.

Willie Harrison, a twelve year old boy, was accused of stealing a jack-knife from Mr. Sidney Slade, who is working at the new Nicholls hospital building. The hospital has been broken into the last two nights by some one. Young Harrison was given a lecture by the magistrate and discharged with a warning.

Mr. R. R. Hamilton was charged with a violation of the License Act. His case was enlarged till Monday next.

Geo. Henry, proprietor of the "Stone Front," was convicted of a violation of the License Act. The other day it will be remembered his premises were searched and a barrel of beer, a keg of lager and some whiskey were found in the bar. Witnesses were sworn as to Henry's purchasing of the liquor, and Henry himself was allowed to give testimony. He stated that the liquor was drunk by his family and boarders at meals, and such transient guests as come in for dinner. The magistrate held that Henry was convicted on his own evidence, as the beer was sold as much as the victuals were. He held it was incompatible with Henry's business to have such a large quantity of liquor on his premises. The defendant was fined $50 and costs, to be paid forthwith, or imprisonment. Mr. G. M. Roger conducted the prosecution in the absence of the town solicitor.

Sports and Pastimes.

To-night's Bicycle Meet.

This evening the bicycle club will hold sports on the P.A.A.A. grounds. There will be four bicycle races and two foot races, for which valuable medals are offered. The competition in each race will be keen, as the local club possesses some fliers of no common mettle. The races will begin about seven o'clock. If the weather is favorable no doubt there will be a large attendance to encourage the club and at the same time be entertained by tests of endurance and speed.

Bouncing Manufacturers.

There is a great deal of talk about inducing manufacturers to come to town by giving them bonuses. But there is one well-known manufacturer who is not bonus hunting; on the contrary, he is looking for somebody to benefit. That is Bellegheen, the furniture king. Every time he sells an article of furniture—a bedroom set or parlour suite—he gives the customer a bonus in the shape of cheap goods and first class value, that is a bonus compared to the prices and quality furniture can generally be got for. He is doing his best for the public. He keeps a huge stock in great variety and sells at prices that cannot be touched, quality considered. Anybody wanting first class furniture should steer straight for Bellegheen's, the harbour of refuge for all those perplexed by waves of doubt as to where to get the best and cheapest furniture.

TURNBULL'S

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 50c. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"
FROM THE NEW FIRM OF
H. LeBRUN & Co.
Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

a past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly close point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BETTER FASHION, FIFTH SUITED than were ever handled before.

Special values in FINE SPRING OVERCOATS, and FINE SPRING and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

THE THIRST FOR BLOOD.

AN EPIDEMIC OF MURDER, SUICIDE AND LYNCH LAW.

Five Persons Killed by a Revengeful Lobster—Six Widows Manufactured by Chippewa Indians—A Horse Knife Used.

PARIS, June 13.—A farmer named Harris, his wife and daughter and two other persons have been murdered by a laborer named Shepard at Tonkawa. His motive for killing them is unknown.

Murtagh's Violent Temper.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 13.—Seth Murtagh, a tenant farmer, yesterday shot and killed his wife. He then unsuccessfully attempted to kill his son's wife. The murderer afterwards swallowed a large dose of arsenic and died. Murtagh was 58 and his wife 53. Murtagh had a violent temper.

Boss Blind.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Joseph Boss last evening shot his step-daughter, Mrs. A. Schweitzer, and cut his own throat. Both died. He was considered insane. Mrs. Schweitzer may recover.

Stamped Himself in His Stars.

ROCHESTER, June 13.—Michael Armstrong, aged farmer living three miles east of Honeoye Falls, hanged himself in his barn Wednesday afternoon. He made out a will and ordered for the dead and is believed that it was due to temporary insanity.

Suicide in the Tombs.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Camille Bernard, awaiting trial for the murder of Bernard Reservich, committed suicide yesterday in his cell. He hanged himself with a piece of rope taken from his bed.

A Stove Rowtie Knife Used.

STE. ANNE DES PLAINES, Que., June 13.—Hosh Pelletier, and George Audry, two young men of this city, fought a duel with knives on Tuesday night. Pelletier was killed in the encounter. He was stabbed to the heart and his jugular vein severed. Audry received a fearful cut in the side and one in the leg. He was carried home from the battle ground and told his friends to inform the sheriff that he was ready to give himself up.

An Ardent Lover.

BOWLING GREEN, O., June 13.—Frank Simms was arrested Tuesday night on a charge of attempting to blow up Miss Wm. Whitehouse's house with dynamite. He was put in jail, where he committed suicide by hanging with a pair of suspenders. Mrs. Williamson is applying for a divorce from her husband, and James had been trying to get her to promise to marry him as soon as she got a divorce. She believed Double Suicide.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 13.—Friday night Clayden, James Devine and Charles Hall attempted to rob the house of James Fearnley, a wealthy resident and was shot through the lung and dangerously but not fatally wounded. Devine of Lemay was also seriously wounded. The murderers were arrested in New Albany and transferred to Corydon. At 1.15 this morning 200 men took Devine and Tennison out of jail, dragged them to a bridge west of the town and hanged them.

Lynched.

HELENWOOD, Tenn., June 13.—Last night a mob broke into the jail here, took out Lloyd and Reynolds, the double murderers, and hanged them.

Massacred by Indians.

ST. PAUL, June 13.—The Governor has been advised from Mova, Minn., that the Chippewa Indians at Mille, Lons Lake, have massacred six whites, all inoffensive Swedes. The cause is unknown.

STRUNG HIM UP TWICE.

Burmese Brutal Method to Compel a Suspected Thief to Confess.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 14.—News reached here yesterday from Jefferson County of the attempted lynching of Charles Larkins, suspected of theft. Larkins was working for a farmer who lives in the neighborhood of McLouth, and was accused of stealing a gold watch and ring. The farmer told the neighbors of his suspicions and it was determined to hang Larkins until he confessed. He declared his innocence, but was jerked into the air and then let down. He was given another chance and again suspended.

When finally cut down he was thought to be dead. After two hours' work he was resuscitated and taken to a farmer's house, where he now lies unconscious. The participants in the lynching, who are all known, are in a fearful state lest Larkins should die.

Love for His Neighbor's Wife Cost Him $500.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 14.—There is much excitement throughout Roane County over the murder of Joseph Smith, a son of Rev. Jonathan Smith, a Baptist clergyman, who is known to almost everyone in the state. The murdered man had boarded with John Cummins, and it is said that he so completely won the affections of Mrs. Cummins, a young and handsome woman, that she refused to live any longer with her husband, Smith was found with a rifle ball through his heart on the road near Spencer, the county seat, and it is supposed that Cummins lay in ambush for him and killed him. Cummins has been arrested.

The Stone Bridge Roberts Fired.

JOHNSTOWN, June 13.—The people are making heroic efforts to clean out their houses. Two hundred merchants met General Hastings to-day and were assured they would be re-established in business on long credit by Pittsburg and Philadelphia wholesalers. It was decided to make every effort to secure resumption of business. The American Relief Association, which aims to assist the communities in distress or calamity of any nature, was formed here a few days ago by prominent Pennsylvania and Ohio gentlemen. Adjutant-General Axline of Ohio was elected president. Nineteen bodies were recovered to-day. The mass at the stone bridge was fired this afternoon and to-night is burning furiously. With it is destroyed all hope of recovering the bodies that are certainly there entombed.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—Governor Beaver has abandoned the idea of using $1,000,000 out of the State Treasury to clean up Johnstown, and will borrow the money from banks here.

THE CRONIN TRAGEDY.

Governor Hill Refuses to Grant the Extradition of Kunze and McDonald.

CHICAGO, June 13.—The Grand Jury Friday continued its investigation of the Cronin murder. Mr. and Mrs. Conklin, the Carlsons and Pat Dinan were examined. The testimony strengthened the case against John J. Moroney, now under arrest in New York.

The signature of Thomas Desmond, the Irish Nationalist of San Francisco, in McCoy's Hotel register here was to-day compared with the handwriting in a letter signed "Frank Williams" written to the Carlsons from a point in Indiana in relation to the rest of the package in which Cronin was killed. The resemblance between them is said to be very marked. Chief of Police Hubbard admitted to-day that he had two men in Kansas City watching Michael Boland, the Recorder of Police of that city and former member of the notorious triangle.

"Are you going to arrest Boland?" the chief was asked.

"They will depend upon the action of the Grand Jury," replied the chief evasively. It is said that the State's Attorney expects an affidavit against Boland and the others and is in Kansas City ready to ask Boland when it is received.

The refusal of Governor Hill of New York to grant the application for the extradition of Kunze and McDonald to Illinois officers has created quite a sensation in official circles here. Governor Hill's chief reasons for refusal being that the application was not accompanied by an indictment. The Governor will not endorse upon the ground that to do so might encourage a popular impression that indictment against Kunze and McDonald

Runaway Girls Aloft.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Thomas Desmond is here and claims to have lived here since May 31. He offered to surrender to the police here to-day but the officers had no difficulty in arresting him. Desmond claims that he and McDonald came to New York on the day of Cronin's disappearance, visited Mr. Dalrymple, Cronin's friend and a well known lawyer, consulted him and went to Detroit.

The Habeas Corpus Writs.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Arguments in up to-day in the Supreme Court to-morrow before Judge Barrett on writs of habeas corpus in behalf of Kunze and McDonald, who are charged with complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin.

Where Signed the Report.

LONDON, June 13.—It is learned that the Glen-na-Gael camp to-day signed the report of its committee on the Cronin case. Jas. Jennings, of Brooklyn, P. A. O'Neill, of Chicago, and Chas. Cleary, of Jersey City, were the committee.

THE TORONTO BUDGET.

THREE CHURCH GATHERINGS IN THE QUEEN CITY.

Reverend Wells Reverenced—A Missing Jeweler Turns Up—A Constable Who Was Too Handy With His "Gun."

TORONTO, June 14.—Business was the predominant feature of the first day's sessions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The attendance of ministerial and lay commissioners was large. Devotion and routine sum up the morning's work, despatch of preliminary business the afternoon's, glowing accounts of home mission work and fraternal greetings to Anglicans and Methodists the evening's total. That interminable Jarvis grounds of course came to the fore in the way of "overtures" and "references" from synods and presbyteries. The thorny subject was, however, postponed till this morning, and instead of dealing with a subject which had already been thrashed out at the Citizens' Committee Convention, the commissioners betook themselves across the way to the tasteful rooms and beautiful grounds of Government House, where music and floral charms, to say nothing of choice refreshments, made glad a couple of hours on a hot June afternoon. Ministers of the Crown, representatives of bench and bar, church and state, and the elite of Toronto's citizens joined their Presbyterian brethren and welcomed them to the Queen City. So cordially and most felicitously did the Mortons-Governor and his charming daughter, Miss Marjorie Campbell.

The Toronto Conference of the Methodist Church opened its sixth annual session in the Broadway Tabernacle on College-street and Spadina-avenue, yesterday. There were two ballots for president, and on the second Rev. Hugh Johnston was elected, getting 127 votes to Rev. Dr. Stone's 93. General Superintendent Carman delivered a ringing address, dealing chiefly with the Jesuit question. Rev. T. W. Jeffery's character, among others, unanimously passed the conference amid hearty applause.

At the third day's session of the Anglican Synod delegates were elected to the Provincial Synod and an Executive Committee elected. This is the jubilee year of the diocese of Toronto, the first Bishop having been consecrated in 1839. A special collection is to be taken up in connection with the commemorative services in October, the funds to be applied towards the building of St. Alban's Cathedral. The afternoon was mainly occupied with various committee reports.

Yesterday's session of the W. C. T. U. was devoted to the "Y's." Papers on "Kitchen Gardens," "Cooking Schools," "Flower Missions," "Temperance" and "Juvenile Work" were read. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Wild, Wm. Goodeham and Acting Mayor MacMillan of Toronto, and Rev. D. McKay of Woodstock. The latter expressed himself as proud of having 285 members in his church, not one of whom would think of voting against prohibition.

Yesterday Mr. Richard Scorr, jr., the King-street tailor, an old citizen of Toronto, was married to the widow of the late C. C. Walker. The bride is 67 and the groom 82, yet they set out for New York to spend the honeymoon like young birds. The bride is the eldest sister of Mr. William Gooderham and has a handsome income.

Up to last midnight the friends of William Sloan, a jeweler of Milton, were anxious as to his whereabouts. He left for Toronto on June 5 with a large sum of money to meet liabilities in the city. On June 6 he was around among the city jewelers and had a lot of goods shipped to Milton. The last trace of him up to the hour named was in the Esplanade at 6.30 on last Saturday morning. His friends feared foul play but the police found him in the Little York Hotel in a comatose condition, almost penniless and with the appearance of having had a very good time.

William R. Dickson, a G.T.R. yard constable, is a prisoner in St. Alban's Ward station charged with shooting with intent to kill Brakeman John McLachlan of the C.P.R. Dickson boarded a C. P. R. train from the west yesterday morning at Parkdale as it was being shunted down to the Union Station. In accordance with orders Conductor Hamilton told him to leave the train. Refusing, the conductor attempted to eject him forcibly and McLachlan, coming to his assistance, received a shot in the left shoulder, which may result in his death. Dickson was overpowered after a brief struggle and handed over to the police. He has been very handy with his revolver ever since he has been in the employ of the G.T.R. On more than one occasion he has shot at newsboys, and once at the Union Station hackmen had to overpower him and take his revolver away when he was flourishing it and threatening to shoot a bootblack whom he fancied was jeering him.

The Master-in-Ordinary at Osgoode Hall yesterday fixed the amount of remuneration of Archibald Campbell, as interim liquidator of the Central Bank, at $2250. He will also draw his share of percentage on collections made by Messrs. Howland and Goodeham and himself, while he was liquidator.

At the Ancient Capital.

QUEBEC, June 14.—Mr. C. Fitzpatrick, Crown Prosecutor, and Sergeant Harper have gone to Portland for the extradition of the two Peeliss who broke jail at Beauce some time ago.

A family of six persons named Deschamps of this city were all poisoned Wednesday morning shortly after breakfast by drinking cream cream in their coffee which was skimmed off milk that contained Paris green. The latter leaked out of a paint pot directly over a bowl of milk during the night. Dr. Falardeau was immediately sent for and on arrival administered an emetic. The family are doing well.

Divers were all yesterday endeavoring to recover the body of Miss Wheeler who went down on the tug L. N. G. Wednesday afternoon but so far without success.

An Unnatural Father

ORILLIA, June 14.—John Hughes of the Lake shore, was arrested Wednesday, charged with criminally assaulting his daughter, aged 16 years. About two weeks ago Hughes and the daughter were left alone, the other members of the family being away, when he left his bed and came to the girl's room. She had to fly from the house and did not return till June 6, when he again assaulted her but fortunately was interrupted by some members of the family coming home. Justices Armstrong and Quinn sent him to Barrie jail to stand his trial.

Accidental Gun Play.

HAMILTON, June 14.—Mrs. Lawrence, who was injured in a runaway accident yesterday is still unconscious. She is very low and her recovery is doubtful.

The new hall for the city hall tower arrived this morning. It weighs 2,000 pounds, cost $300 and the foundry is behind and three days delay. Chiefs Stark and Cahill went to Oshawa to-day to meet the bell.

Oshawa, June 14, 1889.
Police Court.
Before Dr. Hall, J. P. Mackintosh was fined $5 and $3.50 each for the offence of drunkenness. Constable Cameron for driving through a funeral procession. The charge was laid by the undertaker and the appeal was to have been heard at the present session of general sessions but it was not entered, and to-day the constable was condemned and the fine paid.

In the course of the court this morning the presence of Mr. Deane Bentley of Manchester, England, was an unpleasant surprise. Mr. Bentley was on professional business of the court and his coming was reported. Mr. Bentley is said to be a very able man in his profession and to weigh the testimony. One of the witnesses was also present and all witnesses except Mr. W. H. Hoyle of Cobourg and Mr. James Gilchrist of Toronto, had their expenses paid in favor of Mr. Glendining and on motion of Mr. Hoyle the examination was made final.

Gas Beyond His Depth.

LONDON, Ont., June 14.—Yesterday afternoon while Michael Driscoll, yardman in the employ of the Grand Trunk, and a brakeman named Kinsella were bathing in the river, near Woodland Cemetery, the former got beyond his depth and was drowned. The body was recovered early in the evening.

Two Hamilton Weddings.

HAMILTON, June 13.—Ernest Alexander, the well-known rower, was married here evening to Miss Jessie Edgar, youngest daughter of Mrs. Edgar.

The wedding of Wm. W. Foster and Miss Morgan, daughter of George Morgan, Strathcona, took place this morning.

THE ARMAGH DISASTER DUE TO OBSOLETE APPLIANCES.

How the Runaway Coaches Were Boarded From the Tender and the Engineer Pulled Into a Standing Head.

DUBLIN, June 13.—The grand 11 Assizes opened at Armagh this morning. The address to the grand jury dwelt upon the terrible railway disaster and the grand jurors in addition to paying the usual respect to the memory of the dead, passed a resolution of sympathy with the relatives of the deceased.

The coroner of the district went from Armagh to the scene of the accident and held an inquest on the bodies of the victims. The jury was composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Thomas Cochrane, foreman; Robert Cochrane, Robert Wilson, Robert Hall, Thomas Johnston, Margaret Mackenzie, Catherine Cooney, Jane Thompson, John Hughes, Charles Neill, Minnie Edwards, David Edwards, Samuel Cleland, Margaret Pentecost, Margaret Stevenson, Mary Conway, Joseph McCann, Mr. Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell, and John Mitchell, their son; John Agnew, Sarah and Louisa Mitchell, Mary Wilson, Margaret Gibson, Mary Orr, Jane Orr, Minnie Murdock, Henry Jamieson and Mary Jamieson his wife; Mrs. Joseph McCann, Mrs. Neill, Mary Anderson, Sarah Carroll, James Clelland, Robert Clelland, Wilhelmina Johnston, Mr. Reilly, Margaret McNeilly, W. Nayler, Helen Watt, Mary Ann Burke, Albert H. Robinson, Kathleen Agnes, Eugene Simpson, Bruce Logue, Isabella Moorhead, Martha Macfarland, Bessy Gilmore, Matilda Robinson, Sarah Susie Lindsay, Agnes Porter, W. Crozier, John Mahon, Thomas Henderson and others not yet identified.

A Benefit Fund Started.

DUBLIN, June 13.—Subscriptions for the benefit of the railway employes of the railway disaster near Armagh are being received.

Three Powerful Advisers.

LONDON, June 13.—Russia, Germany and Austria have sent an identical note of advice to Servia urging moderation. This advice the three powers have given in points of love of Monarch but also in politics and social development, has ever been known in the United Kingdom, strolling the quarters of The Hague attending, in which also 74 princes were down to dinner.

The occupier of the garden beds from Armagh to Dundalk, now running there upon him in the engine to be expected with more vehemence than the wind sometimes was driven at the rate of fifty miles an hour. A man who was sitting on the balcony close by saw the collision, and, without waiting to see more, dashed away to Armagh and returned with a company of soldiers from the barracks there. These came provided with stretchers and, under the direction of the coroner, began to take the dead on the ground to another part, and soon went to extricating the living and the dead from the wreck.

The number of the dead of the second coaches is to be furnished from the train in order that they forward a part trains as yet to be ascertained. It is asserted that they were deliberately uncoupled by a train hand when it was found that the engine would not pull the entire train any further, and was drawn off the line. Some thoughts to be level. It is quite likely that the coaches were uncoupled and left to stand on what was supposed to be level ground. There must have been a grade somewhere, however, to set the train in motion, slowly at first, and then with every load of progress, the grade increasing, slowly at first, and then with every load of progress, the grade increasing, slowly at first, and then with every load of progress, the grade increasing, slowly at first, and then with every load of progress, the grade increased.

However this may be, there is no doubt of the disaster is primarily due to the obsolete appliances, the brakes being the old-fashioned hand brakes with worn links.

The Irish Victims.

DUBLIN, June 13.—One more victim of the Armagh railroad disaster has died, making 4 deaths in all.

LIST OF THOSE KILLED.

Several of the Victims, However, Are Not Yet Identified.

DUBLIN, June 13.—The following is a corrected list of the killed in the Armagh railway disaster:

All branches of the Conservatory are benefitted by this vigorous policy on the part of the Directors. The leading pupils in the vocal, piano and organ departments are in constant demand for concert and church engagements.

The most recent, and yet one of the most important, undertakings which the Conservatory has entered into, is the establishment of a Residence for Lady Students, and the Directors are comfortably accommodating an audience of 1,500. For the purpose for which this building is now used it is admirably adapted, and it will be the most complete in Canada.

To the parents of students who have hitherto been deterred from sending their children to the Conservatory on account of the distance from their homes, the advantages of the "Cottage" from inspiring lessons and companionship and taking part in Festivals upon a really complete concert, in an institution fitted in its capacity to that of a large private family, will immediately suggest itself as almost equivalent to the advantages of a home education, with the additional benefit of the tuition of the Conservatory Faculty.

It may be added that the Conservatory has been favored with the patronage of Lord Stanley, Lord Aberdeen, Sir Alexander Campbell, Sir Leonard Tilley, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir John Macdonald, Sir Oliver Mowat, Sir Wm. Howland, Sir Adam Wilson, Hon. Edward Blake, Hon. Edward Farrer, Hon. G. W. Allan, Hon. Chancellor Boyd, Hon. Chancellor Spragge, Hon. Chancellor Hagarty and Mr. Justice Rose; the Governor-General's Morgan Cottage—together with the Board of Directors whose personnel was of the highest and most desirable character—and Hon. Mr. Edward Fisher as Musical Director, have given important prestige to the Institution, which could not be otherwise than very gratifying to the friends of the Conservatory.

The Calendar for 1889-90 will be published in a few days, and will be mailed to any address on application to the Secretary, Mr. Edward Fisher, at the Conservatory of Music, Toronto.

Toronto, June 13.—At a meeting of Wesleyan Methodists at Stanstead, Friday night, the Jesuit Act was condemned by almost unanimous resolutions.

Musical Education in Canada.

Musical Education in this country is making rapid strides, and nothing testifies more strongly to the fact of this statement than the Toronto Conservatory of Music, since its opening has grown.

The institution started with many points in its favor, and Professor, Hon. G. W. Allan, president of the Mendelssohn Society; Vice-Presidents, Hon. Chancellor Boyd and Mr. George Gooderham; the Musical Director, Mr. Edward Fisher, an Honorary Degree conferred upon him by Trinity University, together with a Board of Directors whose personnel was of the highest and most desirable character—and finally Mr. Edward Fisher as Musical Director, made an important acquisition to the Institution, which could not be otherwise than very gratifying to the friends of the Conservatory.

If calendar of the Board of Directors that a full course of study in all branches of music will be provided for the coming year, and that the Conservatory will be conducted in accordance with the highest principles of the art, which will not only be a benefit to the students who would contribute a teaching staff of the highest degree of excellence which can be procured, but also to the community at large, for the influence of the Toronto Conservatory of Music will extend throughout the Dominion.

TROUBLE OVER A RIGHT OF WAY.

Settlement in Custody of Citizens Committee—The Difficulties Ended Quietly.

Ingersoll, Ont., June 13.—Considerable excitement was caused this morning when it was learned that the Grand Trunk were preparing to build a new line of track on an old disused right of way through the centre of the village, which was abandoned when the present line was built. The old line was originally laid through the village, but when the Grand Trunk purchased the road they built a new line around the village, leaving the old line to be used as a right of way by the Ingersoll Electric Railway Company, which has been using it for a number of years. The Grand Trunk claim that the old line was abandoned by the Railway Commissioners, which would of course, give the company the right to do as they pleased with the property. In the meantime, however, the citizens, fearing the electric railway would be interfered with, and that the Grand Trunk would not build a new line, appointed a committee to wait on the Grand Trunk officials and ascertain what their intentions were. The committee waited on Mr. Hickson, general manager, and Mr. Brown, superintendent, and found that the Grand Trunk had no intention of interfering with the electric railway, but that they intended to build a new line around the village, which would relieve the village of the necessity of maintaining the old line. The committee, after receiving the assurance that the Grand Trunk would not interfere with the electric railway, withdrew, and the matter is now settled.

FELL OVERBOARD.

Lord A. P. Cecil Drowned near Adolphustown—Well Known in Canada.

Kingston, June 13.—Lord A. P. Cecil was drowned last night near Adolphustown. He was crossing in a skiff from Adolphustown to an island opposite, where he had his camp. His tall breathing form he stepped up in the bows to free it, when a squall struck him and he fell overboard. He attempted to swim to his boat but having an overcoat on he failed. He was only a few yards from shore when the squall struck him. His body was recovered this afternoon and taken to Napanee to be an inquest.

Brief Sketch of the Deceased.

Toronto, June 14.—Lord Albert Percy Cecil was the third son of the Marquis of Exeter and a cousin to the Marquis of Salisbury. He came to Canada about 1861. He was about 48 years of age, unmarried and had no relatives in Canada.

His Lordship was well known in Toronto and in fact throughout Canada and the United States. Being one of the leading circles of the Old Country and when he responded as the guest and vocalist of the evening he was received with applause and encores. He was a member of the Church of England and was an earnest worker in that body and was a constant supporter of the Sunday school. He was deeply read in the Bible and was considered a powerful exponent of the doctrines of the Church of England. For some time past there has been a feeling on the part of our prominent men that the Grand Trunk would not be satisfied with the present terminus of the road in this city, but would extend it to the Esplanade. Should this be the case it would necessitate the removal of the present railway interlocker cabin, which would seriously interfere with the traffic and delay the trains. It is also said that the Grand Trunk would, if possible, secure the ownership of the street railway, and to the supporters of all bills of arrangement made whereby cars should cross the railway track without permitting any of the latter's property. By the Grand Trunk's obtaining legal or otherwise the street railway has the only sympathy of both towns.

FIRES OF A DAY.

A Big Blaze in an Iowa Town—Losses in Ontario.

Gananoque, Ja., June 12.—Frost & Co.'s premises, the Reporter office, Matthews' office, Dalton Bros.' and Hall's warehouses, Chamberlain's produce and Jones & Co.'s agricultural implement house were burned to-day.

A Fisherton Factory Burned.

Fisherton, June 12.—This morning about 2 o'clock fire was discovered in the engine room of Fisherton Woollen Works, Yarntyre & Fairbank proprietors. The fire had made a headway that it was impossible to do anything and everything was destroyed with the exception of two new lumber wagons. The building was a frame one, two storeys high, with a roof of new wagon timber, etc. The loss will be from $15,000 to $16,000. Insured for $6000 as follows: $2500 in the Phœnix, $1500 in the Caledonia, $1000 in the Manchester.

A Steam at Napanee.

Napanee, June 12.—About 2 o'clock this morning fire did $700 damage to the planing shop of the Napanee Cornice Works. Fully insured.

Winnipegitis' Weary Output.

Minneapolis, June 12.—The Northwestern Miller says the total output of flour last week was 136,365 barrels, against 98,160 the week before and 132,365 the corresponding time in 1888. It expects the output next week to be 150,000 barrels. Shipments continue heavy, and there is a considerable increase in the volume of orders for flour. Prices have been quite irregular. The Bradstreet's report for the week says 85,170 barrels against 78,450 for the preceding week. There were 894,000 bushels of wheat received for the week ending June 11. Shipments were: wheat 294,826 bushels, flour 105,518 barrels, reduced 39,855 barrels.

Ambitious City Notes.

Hamilton, June 12.—Only two bills were returned by the Grand Jury before they were dismissed this morning. One indictment charged Patterson man against Frank Rowlin and one against William Power Duggan for bigamy.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary E. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. B. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Luxuriant Growths of Hair are seen on the heads of all who use DR. DORENWEND'S

GREAT GERMAN HAIR MAGIC.

The equal of this great preparation is yet to be found. It is an unfailing Restorer for grey hair—it stops all falling out of the hair—it removes all dandruff and keeps the scalp clean. On bald heads (if there are but the faintest traces of roots) the Magic will produce a fine growth. Will you try it? Or will you let your hair go, and become prematurely old? What do you say? All druggists everywhere have it for sale. Ask for it. Do n't let the druggist tell you he has something just as good—many have dead stock of other hair tonics on hand and try to shove them off in this way. See that each bottle bears a red A. DORENWEND signature.

Englishmen Celebrating.

The Sons of England will formally open their new hall on Hunter street on Coronation day, 20th inst. The occasion will be celebrated with all due pomp, the proceedings covering the afternoon and evening. A feature of the entertainment will be the characterization of old-time "beefeaters," who will attend in full raggery." On the 1st of July the S.O.E. will run an excursion to Jacob's Island.

The Route to Rochester.

Remember the excursion to the Flower City of the United States on Saturday, (to-morrow evening). Take the 9 o'clock train for Port Hope, then cross in the steamer Norseman. You can either stay over Sunday in Rochester and return home by 8 o'clock Monday morning, or stay in the city till Tuesday. All of this for only $2. Tickets to be had at Cox & Davis' ticket agency or at the G.T.R. station.

Lord Cecil Drowned.

Lord A. P. Cecil, the evangelist, was drowned about four o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Bay of Quinte, near Adolphustown, about six miles east of Picton. An account of the accident and short sketch of the deceased are given in our telegraphic columns. Lord Cecil was well known in Peterborough, and was generally respected and esteemed as an earnest Christian worker and humble follower of God. His sad death will be deeply regretted.

The Breach of Promise Suit Again.

The following case came up at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, yesterday:

HAYWOOD VS. JAMIESON.—E. B. Edwards (Peterborough), for plaintiff, moved to set aside non-suit entered by MacMahon, J., at the trial at Peterborough of an action for breach of promise of marriage, in which the defence set up was that the plaintiff had consented the defendant from his promise. W. M. Douglas, for the plaintiff, showed cause. Reserved.

A New Club Proposed.

Next Monday evening a meeting of the Y.M.C.A. and Ætna lacrosse clubs of last year will be held in the Central Park, for re-organization under the old names of the Crotus, a junior club which flourished a number of years ago. The Y.M.C.A. and Ætna teams comprise some good lacrosse talent last year, and amalgamated they cannot but form a strong club. All members of these teams or any new ones who wish to join the Crotus are requested to meet in the Central Park next Monday evening.

"Yes, I Shall Want Four Tickets."

Said a George street merchant when asked if he wanted tickets for the St. Andrew's Excursion on Thursday, June 20th. "Keep three for me—one for myself—I wouldn't miss it on any account, and one for my wife and one for her mother," said a professional gentleman. Thistle do as a sample. That's the way the talk goes through and all classes. Everybody is talking about St. Andrew's excursion, June the 20th. Think of privileges like these; to buy a return ticket for only $2.00; to leave on the 4.30 a.m. train, the 7 a.m. train or the 5.30 p.m. train on Thursday, and stay over in the Queen City till the last train on Friday, 21st.

Business College Notes:

Mr. Fred Waite, of Harwood, who has been attending the Cobourg Collegiate Institute for the past year, entered the Peterborough Business College to-day to take a course in finance.

Mr. J. K. Hunter, who took a course in the College a short time ago, is now in the responsible position of book-keeper of the Bank Saginaw, Mich., Business University. This speaks volumes for the kind of instruction received at the Peterborough Business College. The course is so practical and thorough that success is sure to follow.

Mr. D. McAbe, of Ashburnham, has re-entered the responsible position of correspondency secretary in the law office of Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor. He is a graduate of the Peterborough Business College.

Routes Inland and Extravagant.

These are the objective points of the Masonic excursion on June 18th. Everything the Masons undertake is, to quote Scripture without irreverence, "done decently and in order." The most complete arrangements have been made for the comfort of passengers on this occasion. Refreshments will be provided on the palace barge Paterson, and an orchestra will furnish music for the entertainment of passengers. And as cheap too. Only 75 cents for the round trip—children 40 cents. Excursion leaves at a reasonable hour, at 8.30. Remember you may either go to Jessop's Island or go on to Rubeygeon for dinner—that is, those who do not take luncheon with them. Remember Tuesday next, June 18th, the date of the Masonic excursion.

A Nobby Wagon.

Messrs. Elliott & Tierney have placed on the road one of the nobbiest delivery wagons ever seen in town. It was built specially by Fitzgerald & Stenger for the delivery of O'Keefe & Co's famous lager, for which they are agents in Peterborough. It is a covered van, and the painting and workmanship are first class. The lettering was done by Watson & Son, and reflects the highest credit upon them. The rig will be driven by a horse fitted out with handsome gold-mounted harness. This will be one of the nobbiest equipages in town, and a handsome testimonial to the enterprise and progress of the live business firm of Elliott & Tierney. The waggon will be in use to-morrow for the first time.

An Unfortunate Accident.

Mr. Richard Cavenagh, son of Mr. T. Cavenagh, of the Balmoral, met with a most distressing accident last night, by which he nearly lost his left foot. He had been practising baseball on the commons at "the diamond," and just as the boys were leaving the grounds the C.P.R. express came along. It stopped as usual before crossing the diamond, and "Dick," in attempting to board it to get a ride to the station after the train had begun to move, missed his step and his foot was crushed beneath the wheels. He was at once taken home, and Dr. King summoned. It was feared he would lose his whole foot, but it is not probable any more than the toes will have to be amputated. This is serious enough, however, and Dick's many friends will deeply sympathize with him in his painful experience. He is doing well under the best surgical attendance.

A Road Full of Curves.

An engineer from the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway, who ran over the Grand Junction branch one day recently, says the Campbellford Herald, declared he could not see one-quarter of a mile ahead of his engine at any part of the line between Belleville and Campbellford. While this picture of it is overdrawn, it certainly has as many curves and grades as any railroad covering the same distance on the continent of America. The Grand Junction is a standing monument of the folly of a foolish pack of engineers and builders, who seemed to have preferred curves to straight lines, as many places can be pointed out where the cost of construction would have been less had a straight course been pursued instead of the sharp and ugly curves. The Grand Trunk Railway Company are straightening some of the crooked places and putting the road in a condition equal to that of the main line.

The Deseronto Picnic.

It took place Thursday, and was a splendid success. There was a very large attendance, and the weather being all that could be desired of course the picnic was a happy success. A large number went out from Peterborough, while others flocked in from all parts of the parish and beyond its borders. The usual attractions were provided. There were elegant dinners provided by the ladies, plenty of room for dancing to music by Prof. Doucet's orchestra, athletic sports, etc. Everyone appeared to be in a happy humor, and nothing occurred to mar the harmony and pleasure of the occasion. Rev. Father Keilty was ubiquitous and indefatigable in his efforts to make everyone comfortable and enjoy themselves. There were quite a number of the clergy present, among them Rev. Fathers Lynch, Murray, Conway, Redkins and Cote. The sports were run off by Dr. Bronson, the races being won as follows:—100 yards—1st A. Moore, 2nd M. Collins. Hop, step and jump—1st M. Collins, 2nd P. J. Moloney, 3rd A. Moore. Running long jump—1st Collins, 2nd Moloney. Putting stone—1st Moloney, 2nd Collins, 3rd Moore. Standing jump—1st Collins, 2nd Moloney. Police Court.

FRIDAY, June 14.

Geo. Henry, who was convicted yesterday of a violation of the License Act, has been put in gaol.

John Carlisle and Jas. Martin were up for alleged violations of the cow by-law. The former was charged with allowing his horse to run at large, and the latter for permitting his cow to roam without restraint. Both were discharged, the complaint not being proven.

Mary Howson, the young woman who not long ago attempted to throw herself under a train at the G. T. R. station, was this morning sent to gaol as a lunatic. Her conduct of late has become worse and this morning the chief arrested her. He had a long chase up the railway track after the unfortunate woman, who saw him coming and resolutely tried to evade him.

Baptist Sunday School Excursion and Picnic.

The three Baptist Sunday schools of the town will run an excursion to Jacob's Island on Fifteen Isles, July 9th, via the Peterborough and Chemong Railroad and the steamer "Dominion" and palace barge "Paragon," of Lindsay. Return tickets from Peterborough, adults 60 cents, children 30 cents; from Bridgenorth, adults 30 cents, children 15 cents. The Y.M.C.A. band will be in attendance. 6d136w

A VICTORY OVER VICTORIA

Peterborough Wins Again.

This afternoon Mr. E. B. Edwards received the following telegram from his agents in Ottawa, Messrs. Stewart & Cryster.

"VICTORIA VS. PETERBOROUGH. Appeal dismissed with costs. Judgment unanimous."

It will be recollected that the County of Victoria has been beaten step by step by the County of Peterborough, in the various courts. Briefly, the origin and history of the case may be given as follows. The matter first arose from the application of the County Council of Victoria to the County Council of Peterborough to assume a share of the costs of repairing and maintaining the Bobcaygeon bridge—not a boundary bridge. The council, of course, refused to entertain the proposition, and Victoria then applied to the Attorney-General of Ontario, but he declined to interfere, and referred Victoria to the courts. The case was first tried at the Lindsay Assizes in Sept., 1887, before Judge Robinson, the result of the trial being a decision in favor of Victoria. Peterborough then carried the case to the Court of Appeal, with the result of a unanimous decision in favor of Peterborough's contention. Victoria in due course appealed to the Supreme Court Ottawa, and the case was argued on the second of April, Hon. Edward Blake, Q. C., Charles Moss, Q.C., and Adam Hudspeth, Q.C., appearing on behalf of Victoria, and Christopher Robertson, Q.C., and E. B. Edwards for Peterborough. The last resort in the Dominion having failed her, Victoria can take no further step without stopping across the ocean and laying the Bobcaygeon bridge at the feet of the throne. This decision is an important one; it places upon Victoria not only the repairs to but the future maintenance of the Bob bridge, and saves Peterborough from applications from other neighboring counties which have bridges of their own in the vicinity of the boundary line which they would be glad to have this county help maintain.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Ladies Auxiliary met yesterday with a full attendance. Mrs. H. S. Griffin presided. The following ladies were appointed a committee of management;—Mesdames Dr. Goldsmith, Dr. Bell, J. R. Stratton, G. A. Smith, J. C. Turnbull, J. C. Brown, —, Mewry; Misses Sanderson and Grundy.

Committees were appointed to carry out arrangements for a garden party at Mrs. Dixon's, Smithtown hill, on Friday evening 21st. No pains will be spared to make it one of the events of the season, specially. We are satisfied the public will do all in their power, both by their kind co-operation and presence, to make it a grand success. The Y.M.C.A. band will furnish music and other attractions are promised.

Last night was a red letter night for the association; a large number of the active members met for conference. Mr. G. M. Roger presided and in a forcible way laid before the members the need of more devoted efforts on the part of all to make our work the success it should be in our midst. Mr. J. W. Bennet, chairman Finance committee, gave us the budget speech Mr. Theron Gibson, treasurer Toronto Association, who was present, was asked to speak on the financial aspect of our work, which he did in a practical manner and answered many enquiries how best to raise the means to carry on the work. The result will, no doubt, be we shall move on and make a thorough canvass of the town, and we are satisfied if our people would only stop and think what an influence for good the Association is among our young men, we feel sure there will be no lack of funds to carry on this great and good work.

Mr. George Fuller, London, Eng., gave a splendid address on personal effort in Christian work, which was much enjoyed by all and will bear fruit in more consecrated effort in the future.

Mr. I. Richardson, Chairman of Devotional Committee, Thomas Tebb, Reception Committee, and Robert Hunter, Invitation Committee, spoke on the great joy there was in the service, and in the future to do more to reach our fellows and live our motto, "Christ for young men and young men for Christ." The meeting was then closed, all feeling much encouraged and refreshed by having been present.

County Court and General Sessions.

Drawing to a Close—Two More Cases Left.

JACKSON VS. THE TORONTO REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT CO.—This was an action for illegal distress, the dispute being as to the amount of rent agreed upon. Mr. Jackson, the plaintiff, occupies the building on the corner of Aylmer and Simcoe streets, and maintained that he had agreed to pay $200 a year, while the Company claimed the rent was to be $250. It was a verbal agreement, no writings being drawn. The defendants distrained for $82.50, three months' rent, refusing plaintiff's tender of $50. The jury held that the amount of rent agreed upon was $200 a year. Defendants' counsel, however, in taking the case to appeal on the ground that no connection was shown between the bailiff and the Company in the matter of the distress. Jno. Burnham for plaintiff; Sawers & Stone for defendant.

BROWN VS. ROSS.—Faxton Brown, of Dummer, sued David Ross, of Warsaw, for damages for false imprisonment. It will be remembered that at a late court Brown was tried on a charge of fraud preferred by Ross, who claimed that the prisoner had disposed of some articles while under seizure. He was dismissed and brought this action. No evidence for the defence was called for, His Honor taking the case out of the jury's hands and dismissing it, holding that Ross had sufficient justification in having Brown imprisoned. A counter-claim entered by Ross, for the value of a waggon and cow said to have been wrongfully sold by Brown, was adjusted at $60. W. H. Moore for plaintiff; Hatton & Wood for defendant.

This concluded the list of jury cases. There still remains two non-jury cases to be tried.

Norwood

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A visit to the large hub and bent stuff factory of Messrs. Finlay & Son in this village shows that remarkable progress is being made by the proprietors of this prosperous and constantly enlarging industry. For years it has been the principal manufactory in the village, and is becoming more so every day, thanks to the enterprise and business energy of the Messrs. Finlay. A large new addition is being made to the present premises. It has been decided to branch out into the manufacture of wheels, and for that purpose an extension is being made to the north end, 60x35 feet, three and a half storys high. The wheels to be made are to be finished ready for use. On one corner of this new building a tower tank is to be built for fire protection purposes. It will hold 100 barrels of water and will be connected with all parts of the works by pipes, thus giving ample protection against fire. Not long ago a new store-house was built on the west side of the street. It is in L shaped, 140x40 feet in size and two stories high.

These evidences of the prosperity of the business are creditable to the Messrs. Finlay and gratifying to the villagers. The number of hands employed has been nearly doubled in the last two years, and by the first of August, when the new departure of wheel-making will be begun, there will have to be still further additions to the staff. Mr. Wm. Finlay is in Quebec and Mr. John Finlay, the senior member, is in western Canada, in the interests of the business. Their trade is rapidly growing, for which we all have reason to be gratified.

Sports and Pastimes.

The Bicycle Races Last Night—A Successful Beginning to the Series—Sporting Events To-day and To-morrow.

The first of the series of bicycle meets was held last night on the P.A.A.A. grounds. There was not a very large crowd in attendance, but the evening was fine and the races interesting, so that altogether the meet was a success. It is intended to hold three races every two weeks in future. Handsome and valuable medals, donated by Messrs. D. W. Dinnick, E. B. Rogers and A. Gibson, are offered for competition, a race having to be won three times before the medal becomes the property of the winner.

The Y.M.C.A. band was present last evening and contributed music. This was the first appearance of the band on the street, and a great many people were surprised at the good showing they made. They do not number many pieces, but their playing is creditable indeed.

Mr. E. B. Rogers was starter of the races. The events were all keenly contested, and an interested crowd of sports inside the track were busy making up "pools" and becoming quite excited as their favorites gained or lost.

In the green race there were three starters, W. Morgan, J. Dolan and Jas. McGill. The latter unfortunately tumbled at the outset as the result of a bad start, and was out of the race. Morgan won quite easily.

The mile race also had three competitors, A. Gibson, F. Might and Frank Matthews. The latter dropped out after the first round, not being in condition, and Gibson and Might had a close race, Gibson winning by a short distance.

A hundred-yards foot race brought out two contestants, D. Davidson and J. Connal the former winning the race.

In the two-mile race Gibson, Might and Matthews entered, Matthews again dropped out after a couple of rounds, leaving the other two to finish. Gibson won this race also.

Considerable interest centered in the two-mile handicap from the number that entered. These were McGill, Morgan, Dorsee, Dolan, Carr and Meredith. At the finish there were only two in the contest, McGill winning handily from Morgan.

This concluded the programme and the crowd dispersed. Another meet is to be held in two weeks.

NOTES.

This evening the Otonabee canoe club holds its first regatta of the season on Little Lake. The races are single and double canoe, an upset race and perhaps a sailing race. Both the latter are conditional upon weather and wind. Spectators can view the proceedings off Burnham's Point.

To-morrow Mr. John Newhall will provide a matinee at the Driving Park. Matched races are to take place for stated purses. The races have been advertised in the EXAMINER.

To-morrow at eleven o'clock a return cricket match between the second eleven of the Peterborough cricket club and Trinity College School, Port Hope, will begin on the P.A.A.A. grounds.

At 5.15 to-morrow afternoon the EXAMINER and Review typos will meet in deadly combat on the diamond of the Association grounds. The cricket match will be over by that time, thus giving the ball players plenty of room to spread themselves. This will be the game of the season par excellence.

Lacrosse.

A well attended meeting of the Riversides was held last night, President Sanderson in the chair. Mr. C. J. Phelan tendered his resignation as Secretary, but he was persuaded to continue in office. Mr. Phelan plainly stated to the boys that he would not act unless there was a change made. So far this year it has been almost impossible to get some of the team out for practice. Six or seven of them practised diligently, but the remainder would come on the field in a match totally out of condition. It was this lack of practice that lost the game to Norwood, and as the Riversides have a match with Beaverton on July 1st they must practise more or defeat is certain. With practise the Riversides can stay with any team in the district, and the boys must realize that they cannot get along without it. Mr. Jos Bagley was appointed Assistant Captain last night, and it is hoped a successful effort will be made to get the men out for regular practice.

Next Wednesday evening a practice match will be played between teams captained by Joe Bagley and F. Pakenham.

HIGH WATER.

Owing to the large amount of rain which has fallen of late, the water in the river and lakes is very high—over a foot higher than at any date this spring and it is still going up.

STILL IMPROVEMENTS.

The manager of the steamer Cruiser seems determined to leave nothing undone to keep up the popularity of that favorite steamer. He is now having a deck or awning placed the whole length of the boat, which when completed will add greatly to the comfort of the passengers and enable them to enjoy the scenery and lake breeze sheltered from the sun and sparks, though young ladies are inclined to think protection from sparks indicates unnecessary solicitude.

Well up in the Front.

L. Potvin, pastry cook and confectioner, No. 509 George street, has engaged the services of a first class baker who has had a long experience in Toronto. Special attention given to getting up wedding cakes and fine pastry. If you want a good article give Potvin a call. Daily supplies of bread, cakes, buns and tarts. Icecream in bulk or by the dish during the season. 6eod

Is Marriage a Failure?

The question is repeatedly asked and urged—"Is marriage a failure"? Marriage is certainly a failure in those households where Hawley Bros'. prime teas are not regularly used. The irritation excited by drinking weak, tasteless decoctions called tea, is absolutely absent where the fine teas sold by Hawley Bros. are used. They make a specialty of fine teas, do an immense trade, buy in large quantities and therefore at low figures. Thus the customer gets the finest brands and blends of the freshest, most fragrant teas, at the lowest prices. The characteristics of Hawley Bros'. teas are strength, fine flavour and cheapness of price. Those wishing the choicest teas should remember that Hawley Bros'. is the place, and also that what is said about teas applies to their coffees, and remember also that Hawley Bros'. is the place to get bargains in glassware. dw

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand lacrosse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BRAMER, secretary of committee. dtd

Choice, Fresh and Cheap.

Another supply of choice, fresh and cheap groceries, provisions, etc., with a few special lines of teas at unusually low prices now being received and offered for sale at R. H. Grant's grocery and provision store, corner Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Also fresh butter and eggs, with apples, potatoes and other farmers' produce always on hand, which will be sold at the lowest market prices and delivered to any part of the town. tudw

News Nuggets.

—One of the incidents peculiar to the Port Hope court of revision was the request of a ratepayer to have his assessment raised—instead of lowered.

—Port Hope board of trade has accepted the invitation of the Hamilton board to send delegates to the merchants' convention in the Ambitious City during the summer carnival—August 19-23.

—Members of the joint Oddfellows committee are reminded of the meeting this evening at 7.30 in Otonabee lodge rooms, for the purpose of selecting a date for Decoration Day.

—The stores of T. Fraser, hardware, and Richardson Bros., general, Norwood, were broken into on Wednesday morning and a large quantity of goods stolen. All the stolen goods were recovered except about $10 or $12 worth.

—The C. P. R. has issued a neat and complete pamphlet, profusely illustrated, giving full information as to attractions and rates of the summer tours possible over the numberless ramifications of their well equipped and luxuriously couched line. A copy of this pamphlet to be had on application to any agent of the company or by sending a two cent stamp to W. R. Callaway, district passenger agent, 118 King street, Toronto.

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 50c. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"
FROM THE NEW FIRM OF
H. LeBRUN & Co.
Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

a past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the best cutting linen, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORNE SUITS, BEAVER FABRICS, FINER SUITS then were ever handled before.

Special values in FINE SPRING OVERCOATS, and FINE Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest ... is an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and tailors. Besides perfect fit and first-class trimmings, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S REEFERS, SCHOOL WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HABERDASHERS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

THE TORONTO BUDGET.

A BUSY DAY IN THE PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Jesuit Question Referred to a Committee—The Anglican Synod Finishes Its Labors—The Methodist Conference.

TORONTO, June 13.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church yesterday referred the overtures and reference touching the Jesuits' Estates Act to the committee: Principal King, Drs. MacVicar, Cavan, Fervent Laing, Moore and Robertson, J. Hay, M. W. Mowat, W. A. McKay and D. J. Macdonnell, ministers; Hon. A. Morris, Hon. D. Laird, Hon. A. Vidal, Robert Leavis, Hill, Campbell, George Hay, James Brandfoot, R. Brodie, George Hoddey, elders. Then home mission work was discussed, a resolution of gratitude for work done being passed. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in the consideration of the report of the Committee on Statistics, lucidly submitted by Rev. Dr. Torrance. The following extracts are of interest:

In the synod of Toronto and Kingston there are 154 churches and stations, a decrease of 10. Presbytery of Kingston shows a decrease of 12; Peterboro a decrease of 1; Whitby of 1; Orangeville of 2, Barrie of 3, and Owen Sound of 1; total 21. Lindsay gives an increase of 1; Toronto of 1; while the Presbyterian of Saugeen and Guelph remain the same.

In the synod of the Hamilton and London there are 218 such churches and stations, a decrease of 16. Three presbyteries give the same number for each of the years namely, Huron, Maitland and Bruce. London shows an increase of 4, while Hamilton shows a decrease of 6. Paris of 3; Chatham of 16; Stratford of 1, and Sarnia of 1. The total decrease in these 10 in 5 Presbyteries, against which is to be set an increase in 1 Presbytery of 4, three remaining the same.

In the synod of Toronto and Kingston there are now 120 mission stations, an increase of 123 the preceding year, with 1 Woman's Foreign Missionary Society showing the large increase of 32, most of these being in the Presbytery of Toronto, which has risen from 26 to 35.

In the synod of Hamilton and London there has been an increase from 117 to 123 in missionary associations, and from 114 to 120 in Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, figures which speak well for the missionary spirit in the bounds.

The total income for 1888 was $1,000,720, showing an increase of $815.67.

An overture was read from the Presbytery of San Paulo, Brazil, hoping that the General Assembly would take an interest in the evangelization of that great country. The Moderator intimated that it would be injudicious for the Presbyterian church in Canada, burdened as it is with so much work, to undertake any additional in Brazil. Upon the reception of the report of the Hymnal Committee an overture was read from the Montreal and Ottawa Synod asking for a revision and enlargement of the book. Dr. Campbell supported the overture. He, however, protested against the introduction of objectionable hymns, especially as to their literary character and jingle-jangle music. It was not necessary to have the tunes of Moody and Sankey—[laughter]—tunes and songs learned in early years to the neglect of the solemn hymns and psalms sung in Presbyterian churches. [Applause.] Mr. Gibson of Ottawa took the diametrically opposite view. His gravamen was that the present hymns are not adapted to the Sunday school lessons. With pathos he lamented the absence of such hymns as "Scatter Seeds of Kindness," "Jesus of Nazareth Passeth By," "There is a Green Hill Far Away," and others in Sankey's collection. Ultimately the report was adopted and the committee requested to continue its labors with a view to revision and enlargement. Foreign missions was the subject of the evening meeting. After the reading of an encouraging report and energetic speeches by Mr. Charlton, M.P., Rev. M. Falconer of Nova Scotia, and Rev. Mr. Wilkie, an Indian missionary now on furlough, three undergraduates of Montreal College, who are being sent out to Honan, delivered addresses, and the enthusiastic proceedings terminated.

At the Methodist Conference yesterday Rev. Dr. Potts made his report as secretary of the Education Society and Federation movement. The subscriptions for Federation up to June 1 were $264,519.62, of which $106,112.62 has been paid. There are 3675 subscribers to the fund, which is made up as follows:

Conference.	Subscribed.	Paid.
Toronto	$131,679 31	$73,139 49
London	29,125 00	3,871 00
Guelph	22,804 99	3,705 69
Bay of Quinte	8,382 25	3,056 99
Montreal	4,098 66	1,887 61
Manitoba and Northwest	221 00	71 00
British Columbia	5 00	2 50

Dr. Potts further said that he has a separate account of money received from people outside the Methodist Church, such as Vice-Chancellor Mulock, M.P., Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, Hon. Oliver Mowat, Sir John Macdonald, Hon. Edward Blake. It amounts to $14,935, of which $12,645 is paid up. A resolution regretting the injunction suit was carried. Rev. C. O. Johnston, who got into trouble in Hamilton last year when a church court tried him upon a charge of falsehood and who resigned his membership in the Niagara Conference, wrote applying to be admitted to the Toronto Conference. The matter will be reported upon by a committee. Quite a discussion took place on the application of Rev. Mr. Kemp of Oshawa, Reformed Episcopal minister, to be received into the Methodist Church as an ordained minister of the church upon his ordination in the Reformed Episcopal. On motion of Rev Dr. Stafford the application was granted.

The Anglican Synod concluded its annual meeting yesterday. The discussion of the morning was on a communication from the Dominion Temperance Alliance asking the synod to appoint delegates to their conference. Rev. Dr. Curry said the synod were not prohibitionists and never would be. He moved that the communication be acknowledged. The motion carried. A motion to distribute the surplus accruing from the Toronto Rectory Fund equally among all the incumbents entitled to a share was carried, as was also one condemning the raising of money for church purposes by other means than direct offerings. The anti-Jesuit resolution, the main feature of which is to test the act in the courts, was also put through.

Miss Willard presided at yesterday morning's session of the W. C. T. U. The question of whether the time between the conventions should be lengthened was brought up. It was decided, however, after some discussion that it be annually as heretofore, and the next place of meeting be Montreal. The afternoon session was occupied by the election of these officers:

Honorary President—Mrs. Youmans.
President—Mrs. Judge Foster, Knowlton, Que.
Vice-President—Mrs. Judge Steadman, Fredericton, N. B.
Corresponding Secretary—Miss Tilley, Toronto.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. P. Rutherford, Toronto (re elected).
Treasurer—Mrs. Cunningham, Victoria, B. C.

It was resolved that this W.C.T.U. be affiliated with the World's Union. The appointment of fraternal delegates to the World's W. C. T. U. convention to be held in London, Eng., next May, and also to the National W. C. T. U. to meet at Chicago, was referred to the officers of the Dominion Union.

GLADSTONE ON CHURCH DISESTABLISHMENT.

The Eminent Trusty Signed But the Home Rule Bill Will Prevail Until the High English and Mighty U.S. Senate Ratify.

LONDON, June 14.—Gladstone has at last made a speech in the course of his southwestern tour, which even his friends in the London Home Rule press praise. Cornwall's enthusiasm has aroused him, and at St. Austell he spoke on a subject which profoundly interests the English people. He spoke on disestablishment. The cumbrous word came up in English politics all the questions which lie at the root of the connection between church and state. It cannot be said that Gladstone, though he spoke on it, spoke out. He is still before everything a churchman—an English churchman. He is prepared to disestablish the church in Scotland and almost prepared to disestablish it in Wales. He is not prepared to do the same thing in England. The reason is the same in all three cases. He would divorce church from state in Scotland, because the people of Scotland are ready. He is almost ready in Wales, because the Welsh are almost ready. He is not ready in England, because, in his curious phrase, "the most sanguine among you would not presume to say that there has yet been in England a distinct pronouncement of the national voice upon the subject of disestablishment."

"Oh, yes," retorted Gladstone's opponents, "votes are to be had by suing for disestablishment in Scotland and Wales; they are not to be had in England." So in England he still keeps on the fence. Perhaps the best reply to that view may be found in the following sentence of Gladstone, which I quote both as a reply and because they denote the high water mark in his mind on this momentous issue.

"Naturally," said Gladstone, "as my time of life such a subject is placed beyond all possibility—all reasonable possibility—of contact with myself. If it ever comes, it will come to a prepared people. It will come without the bitterness which, unfortunately, has too much marked our recent conflict on the subject of Irish privileges. It will come, I think, to the great religious community which will have learned before that time to disavow all selfish dependence upon the temporal and secular arms; which will know that the establishment is one thing and that the church is another thing, and which will have ample means, undoubtedly, if the spirit be not wanting to provide, to fill up whatever void might be caused by the withdrawal of the support from national property which the church may now be considered to receive." That is all.

"He meant state churchmen," remarked one of these candid friends whom I referred to above, "will probably read this oracular deliverance with feelings of profound thankfulness that Gladstone is in his eighteenth year." I know they do so read it and what is more they plainly express their thankfulness. They accuse Gladstone of allowing his passion for Home Rule to control his affection for the Church of England. They complain that he is willing to subject the church to the dominion of the majority for the time being, and that his only care is to postpone the crash till after that time. If he has roused enthusiasm in Cornwall by declarations against the church, he has roused deep resentment among churchmen all over England. From a political point of view, this last is less important, since all these people were already his strongest adversaries. They would probably like nothing better than to fight for union of church and state and union of England and Ireland on the same platform and at the same time.

G. W. SMALLEY.

The Samoan Treaty Signed.
BERLIN, June 14.—The Samoan treaty was signed by all the members of the Conference to-day.

America having abandoned her principal objections to the agreement previously arrived at the plenipotentiaries have only to make unessential modifications in the wording of the draft of the Samoan treaty. The draft guarantees an autonomous administration of the islands under the joint control of Germany and America, England acting as arbitrator in the event of differences arising. The Samoans are to elect their own king and viceroy and are to be represented in a senate composed of the principal chiefs and in chambers elected by the people. Samoa is to have the right of levying duties of every kind. The treaty also stipulates that the Germans shall receive a money indemnity for their losses. A special court will be appointed to deal with the land question. The Americans made their adhesion conditional upon the ratification of the treaty by the United States Senate. The status quo will therefore obtain in Samoa until December. Mr. Phelps will carry the treaty to Washington.

WASHINGTON RATIFIED.
WASHINGTON, June 14.—The announcement that the Samoan treaty or agreement had been ratified was made at the Cabinet meeting by Secretary Blaine and it was agreed that it was eminently satisfactory to our Government in its present shape.

Three Strikes.
LONDON, June 14.—The employes of the Belgian Red Star Steamship Company have gone on strike.

VIENNA, June 14.—Eleven thousand textile workers at Brunn have struck for an increase in wages.

PARIS, June 14.—Twelve hundred cabmen who were not among the strikers yesterday to-day resolved to make the strike general.

The Servian Question.
VIENNA, June 14.—The Neue Freie Presse in an article attacking Mr. Ristics, one of the Servian regents, declares that his copqueting with Russia after the Czar's recent toast to the Prince of Montenegro is treason against the present Servian dynasty, because the Czar favors Prince Nicolas or Prince Karageorgevics.

The Fremdenblatt says: "No power will remain an onlooker should the Servian Liberals attempt to execute their bombastic programme. All attempts to jeopardize the situation will be met with strong measures. The Powers will not allow guarantees of peace to be made a plaything of political caprices."

The Posther Lloyd says: "The German displeasure at the Czar's toast is greater than the press showed. As no power intends to attack Russia the steady increase of Russia's armaments must be for offensive purposes. Nobody is likely to furnish an overt fox with means to injure one's self; therefore Russian financial operations in Berlin may be regarded as ended. Germany has apparently decided to be a foe to a foe and a friend to a friend in financial as well as in political matters."

Three Georgia Executions.
RAINSBRIDGE, Ga., June 14.—Alex. Henderson (colored) was hanged here to-day for the murder of Amos Jackson and his daughter, also colored. Henderson killed Jackson out of jealously and drowned the girl because she witnessed the crime. A large crowd was present.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., June 14.—Will Dibell (colored) was hanged here to-day for the murder of a negro named Long. His body was turned over to a physician, to whom he had sold it.

LUMPKIN, Ga., June 14.—John Pickett, a negro aged 19, was hanged here to-day for the murder of an old negro and his wife. Two thousand persons witnessed the execution.

Why the Kearsarge Was Sent to Hayti.
NEW YORK, June 14.—If the rumor current at the Brooklyn Navy Yard this morning was correct, the reason for the man-of-war Kearsarge being suddenly ordered to Hayti is that a Clyde steamer has been seized there by the Haytians, but by which party was not stated. The rumor was to the effect that the steamer had been seized but afterwards had been given up.

The Spanish Cortes Opened.
MADRID, June 14.—Premier Segasta opened the Cortes to-day. Senor Posada Herrera was elected President of the Chamber of Deputies.

Petitioning to Hayti.
NEW ORLEANS, June 14.—A gentleman who has just arrived from Brazil says considerable ebullition prevails there against the Emperor among the people of Rio Janeiro. Rumors are also current that a petition is being circulated in Brazil asking the Government of Hayti to annex Brazil to that country.

NERVED BY WHISKY.

AN UNKNOWN WOMAN LEAPS INTO NIAGARA RIVER.

She Is Swept Over the American Falls—Her Body Recovered—All that Remains Except Her Name.

NIAGARA FALLS, ONT., June 14.—About 5.30 this afternoon a well dressed lady walked deliberately out on the rustic steps that lead down to the Niagara river, just above the first gate of Prospect Park immediately above the American Falls and jumping her arms over her head leaped into the rushing waters that took her a few seconds to reveal the body over the American Falls. She hardly was discovered above the first rapids, and afterwards by the river people, floating down with the current. Dr. Underwood, coroner of Drummondville.

The description of the suicide is as follows: large, dark complexioned woman about 40 years of age, weighing about 170 pounds, large features. All the clothing excepting a pair of black pumps, dark stockings and linen had been stripped off of the body. The woman came from Buffalo on the 5.10 train this afternoon and went direct to the park and took her life.

At the place where the woman leaped into the river one found a black silk parasol with white wood handle, white handkerchief, large piece of black material embroidered with black silk, a small thin glass and a large [illegible] flask that had recently contained whisky.

IN SULLIVAN'S PRISON.

Judge Tuley Decides Which He Must Be a Guest of Next.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Judge Tuley [illegible] reading his decision on Sullivan's application for a writ of habeas corpus, shortly before 4 o'clock in the afternoon of a great crowd. This crowd, Judge Tuley [illegible] after point without reading the theory of Sullivan. At 4.30 o'clock Judge Tuley announced that Sullivan was released on $20,000 bail.

Suicide of a Clan-na-Gael Leader.
INDIANAPOLIS, June 14.—Patrick A. Ward, President of the Irish-American Republican Club, and the most prominent Clan-na-Gael man in the city, committed suicide at the supper table this evening by taking poison. The news spread rapidly, and a large crowd gathered around the house. Ward swallowed quantity of potassium and died instantly. Ward was active in the last Presidential campaign and was a candidate for a Federal office. The murder of Dr. Cronin worried him greatly, as he feared it would prevent him from getting the office.

Boland's Theory.
KANSAS CITY, June 14.—Michael Boland, Recorder of Kansas City, whose name has been connected with those of other members of the Clan-na-Gael with the Cronin murder, expressed the opinion last night that Cronin was murdered by members of the Clan-na-Gael, but declared his belief that neither the order as a body nor any of its leaders or most prominent members was responsible. He thought some of the more ignorant members cheered in the belief that Cronin was a spy and killed him in a mistaken idea that they were doing the order a service.

Who Desmond Is.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Thomas Desmond, mentioned as being wanted for complicity in the Cronin murder, was a prominent figure here during the Sand Lot agitation. Through Dennis Kearney's influence he was elected sheriff. Desmond gained notoriety in 1877 as one of the crew of the Catalapta, fitted out in England to rescue Fenian prisoners in Australia.

SUPREME COURT CASES.

Judgments Delivered in a Number of Important Cases Yesterday.

OTTAWA, June 14.—The Supreme Court met this morning to deliver judgments. The first case taken up was that of Higgins v. Walkem. This was a suit arising out of an article which appeared in The Colonist newspaper, Victoria, B.C., insinuating that Mr. Walkem (now Judge Walkem and then Attorney-General for the Province) had an interest in the construction of the graving dock contract, which was carried on as a public work. In the court below the plaintiff was awarded $2000 damages and costs, on which judgment defendant appealed to the Supreme Court. To-day judgment was given for a new trial without costs, unless the plaintiff (Judge Walkem) accepts before two months the damages to the extent of $200. Chief Justice Ritchie, however, differed from the other justices in so far as he considered that the consent of the defendant, as well as the plaintiff, would be necessary to assessing damages at $600.

The case of Miller v. Stephenson, a dispute in regard to the transfer of promissory notes for the purchase of cats—an appeal from the Supreme Court of New Brunswick—was dismissed with costs.

THAT TERRIBLE PARRING.

THE BRAIN Under a Microscope
In Healthy Condition. With Paresis Lesions.

Worst me many will known man conduct in our Asylums who but a short time ago were prominent among our business and social circles.

Why are they there?

Paresis!

Did it come on at once?

Not at all. It was a gradual but positive growth. They overtaxed nature. The delicate gray cells, their nerve powers, their brain tissue, was too great, and they gradually but surely went under it. The things they did to bring this sad end about are precisely the same things that are being done by thousands of men and women to-day. It is not necessary to name them. They all end in impaired powers checked or completed.

Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth College, knows this fully when he began his experiments which resulted in the discovery of the wonderful Paine's Celery Compound. He realized that speedy compensation of the brain was our great National weakness. He knew that the brain and nerve system must be fortified to meet the great strains which modern life brings upon it. He saw that men were becoming debilitated and women weakened by the pressure and demands of life, and he sought and discovered the remedy Paine's Celery Compound, if rightly taken, will renew the brain and build up nerve tissues as fast as they become exhausted. It is not a narcotic. It contains no drugs, no opiates. It is perfectly pure. It is absolutely harmless. The high character of its discoverer guarantees this, and the indorsement of the noblest and chemical professions prove it.

The Daily Examiner.

SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1889.

THE loss of life by the Armagh Railway collision is now 74—the exact number who went down to death when the Tay bridge collapsed about ten years ago.

IN his recent speeches in Montreal and Toronto Sir John Macdonald hinted that he will prorogue after the consummation of the Dominion as soon as possible after the next census is taken, with the view of "living the Grits" and stifling public opinion. What a brave and high toned programme, remarks the Ottawa Free Press. But let the Tory chief do his work. He will find that no gerrymandering bill will be allowed to pass through the House of Commons before the expiration of the present parliament. The Opposition members of the House of Commons now number eighty-five, and their numerical strength is likely to be increased during the next two years. If Sir John attempts to hold a session in 1892 for the purpose of gerrymandering the constituencies he will find a large contract before him.

THE Tories of Cardwell are long-suffering and loyal to a degree. While some of the people of Ontario are and have been cowardly, and honestly, in many cases, exciting themselves over the Jesuit Estates question, the hard-shell Tories of Cardwell (and there is where the genuine article is kept) are taking the matter very philosophically. They are willing at this great crisis "to suppress their feelings"—for fear of embarrassing the Dominion Government. For genuine, downright, slavish, fish-spittle subserviency to party at the expense of consistency with their professions, it is difficult to find anything to surpass the following resolution, adopted by the Cardwell Conservative Association a few days ago:

Moved by John Wallace, J.P., of Castledegg, seconded by Robert Wilson, J.P., of Mono: That, whereas there is at present an agitation, evidently serious, which, to some extent, has its origin in the Governor-General-in-Council allowing an Act recently passed by the Quebec Legislature, to wit, the Jesuit Bill, and whereas it has been made manifest by the vote of the recent session of the Parliament of Canada that the Governor-General-in-Council could not constitutionally do otherwise than that which his Excellency did, viz., assenting to said Act; and whereas, at a meeting held in this city of Toronto on the 24th inst., the Right Hon. Sir John Macdonald, in these same conditions, stated, in reference to the subject, that there was no power in the Dominion but the Quebec Legislature which could repeal the Jesuits' Estates Act; and it would not do so, and that he had not the slightest objection that those opposed to it take it to the highest court and to the foot of the throne, and his Government would put no obstacles in the way; and whereas, we on Conservative supports our feelings, although we have certain objections that any party or community, by whatever name it may be designated, should have any special privileges from the consideration, particularly when such have an injurious tendency, and wherein the matter is to be decided by the highest courts; therefore be it resolved, that we, the members of this constituency here assembled, agree to wait and abide by such decision.

Presbyterian Home Missions.

At the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of Canada, in Toronto, the report on Home Mission was presented. Of the Presbytery of Peterborough, the report says: Regular services have been maintained in Harvey and Havelock throughout the past year, with a manifest increase of interests as shown by a large attendance and more liberal contributions. Cavan and Hastings have had a fair share of prosperity, but a vacant service is needful in order to their consolidation. Haliburton, on the withdrawal of Robertson's Settlement, with which it was formerly joined, opened a supply for Sundays during the summer by a congregation interested in its contribution. An ordained missionary has now been engaged, who will have charge of the entire field, including Haliburton, Minden, Robertson's and Wood's Settlements.

The following is from the financial statement of the Mission Fund:—Peterborough—Four missions received aid to the amount of $668. The missions have increased their contributions. Some particulars exists against the Augmentation scheme, and many unwilling congregations do not contribute to it at all. It has received a great blessing in the vacant congregations.

Is Marriage a Failure?

The question is repeatedly asked and urged—"Is marriage a failure"? Marriage is certainly a failure in those households where Having Busy, pains can are sub regularly used. The irritation caused by dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and biliousness is absolutely almost where the first trial sold by Hagyard, Yarn, are used. Hagy makes a specialty of the best, do an immense trade, buy in large quantities and therefore at low figures. Thus the customer gets the finest brands and blends of the finest, most fragrant teas, at the lowest prices. The unsurpassed qualities of Hawley Bros' teas are strength, fine flavour and cheapness of price. Those visiting the city should call and see Hawley Bros'. In the place to get bargains in groceries. dw

Many Children.

"My son is 35, and, for twenty years I have suffered from kidney complaint, rheumatism and bone bunk, and would have been dead women if it had not been for Burdock Blood Bitters, of which four bottles restored me to health and strength." Miss Maggie Hunley, Half Island Cove, N.S. 2w152

THE TWO SIR JOHNS.

Said Not to Agree about Referring the Jesuit Question to the Supreme Court.

MONTREAL, June 14.—The Star's Ottawa special says: Up to 10 o'clock this (Thursday) morning the Government had not given their reply to the petition asking for a reference of the Jesuit question to the Supreme Court. Two consultations have been held to discuss the matter. A majority of the Cabinet favor the granting of the petition on the grounds that it would satisfy all parties. Sir John, supported by Mr. Thompson, is the declared foe of the Supreme Court—it should be sent there. The principal difficulty is in getting the Minister of Justice to agree to sending it to the Supreme Court after giving his advice to the Cabinet when it was before the House. It is educated that the Minister of Justice believes in the wisest thing to place it before the Court, but objects to give a self-imposed humiliation in allowing the Government to do so.

It is felt very keenly by the Government that if they should refuse the petition they will be self convicted of having refused the only settlement that can possibly satisfy the public. Sir John says he is willing to take any amount of political risk in the matter. The whole affair has resolved itself into the question whether Sir John is to control the Minister of Justice or the Minister of Justice is to control Sir John.

The gravity of the situation is rightly estimated by the Cabinet Ministers with the very first in their confidence. It is to come up for discussion again to-day and it is quite a forced reply may go to the petitioners by to-night's mail. If it is decided to grant the petition a special session of the Supreme Court will be immediately called.

Minister's Medal.

MONTREAL, June 14.—A medal has been struck in honor of Mr. Mercier, bearing the words:

Hommage rare Hon. Mon Honorable Premier of the act for the confirmation of the Jesuits' Estates.

BUSY BURGLARS.

A Gang Working the Aristocratic City With Little Success—Nine Shoplifters in Five.

HAMILTON, June 14.—The new steel steamer Medjeska arrived here shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. She fully keeps out all that has been said about her. The Medjeska encountered some dirty weather in the 17 days' voyage from Glasgow to Montreal, but behaved well. It is not likely that the new steamer will start out on the Toronto route until Monday.

About 1.30 o'clock this morning Mrs. William Vint was awakened by a noise in her room, and looking around saw a man ransacking the place. She called to her brother-in-law and the intruder left hurriedly, getting out of the house by the window. The burglar's booty was only 50 cents.

Two men attempted to break into the residence of Mr. Colin Campbell, in Macnab street, early this morning, but on the appearance of Mr. Campbell on the front window they made off.

Mr. John S. Hendrie's residence, No. 69 James-street south, was broken into last night and some articles were carried away. Simon Kelly, brother of Ald. Jonah, died at his residence, 73 Hess-street, last night. He had been sick for or two months.

Mrs. Tubb, 121 Emerald-street south, reported to the police that her husband, a man 58 years old, left home yesterday morning and had not returned up to-date. Tubb has been in the asylum, and it is feared that his mind has become deranged again.

FINED $5 EACH.

The End of the Celebrated Hamilton Constabulary Case.

HAMILTON, June 14.—The well-known case was up, in which D. R. Gibson, W. Mitchell and Wm. Littlejohn were charged by, and Edgar Bannerman the private prosecutor, and which grew out of the labor troubles of the spring of 1888, was finally disposed of this morning by Judge Snider. The defendants were members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union and supported a resolution passed by that body to the effect that no member of the union should be allowed under $20 penalty to work on any city work so long as one Bannecombe, a non-union man, was in the city's employ. The defendants were convicted of conspiracy and took an appeal, the conviction being affirmed at Osgoode Hall last winter. Judge Snider in rendering judgment said: "I look upon such an offence as of a very serious nature. It is the right of every man under our law to earn an honest livelihood by his labor. You were striving to deprive him of that right and were doing so in a manner which has no justification or excuse whatever." The defendants were fined $5 each, the judge stating that he inflicted a light fine as an example rather than a punishment.

Officers of the High Court C. O. F.

LONDON, Ont., June 14.—The following officers of the High Court of Canadian Foresters were elected to-day: H.C.R., E. Ryan, London; H.V.C.R., George Sinclair, Hamilton; H. Secretary, Thomas White, Brantford; H. Treasurer, John Nesbitt, Wingham; H. Secretary, D. H. Kennedy, Montreal; H. Chaplain, Rev. Joseph Williamson, Exeter; H. J. Woodward, Benjamin Roberts, Toronto; H.C. Woodward, J. E. Gain, Brantford; H.J. Beatty, Robert Kemp, Listowel; H.J. Beatty, John Carpenter, Chatham; Ch. Med. Ed., D. B. Stevens, Watford; Asst. Med. Officer, Dr. V. Emery, Hamilton. Executive Board—A. M. McIntyre, London, and R. Kidney, Toronto. Bros. Past Chief Ranger Long and Past Chief Ranger Elliott were elected as delegates to the High Court Meeting of Independent Order of Foresters which meets in Ottawa next February. The High Court adjourned en masse in Hamilton next June.

Infanticide in Essex.

TILBURY CENTRE, June 14.—The body of a female infant a few hours old, wrapped in an apron, the strings of which were tied tightly around its throat and with a handkerchief tied over its mouth, were found on the farm of James Rose, in the township of Tilbury East, on Wednesday. The coroner's jury which investigated the case brought in a verdict of wilful murder against Annie Reid, who was arrested on the evidence of her sister, Mrs. George Rose, on the 10th concession, Tilbury West, and committed to jail for trial.

Six-Storey Hotel Crushed.

AUSTIN, Tex., June 14.—Last evening at Givens' store, 30 miles southeast of here, Constable Wilson (colored) undertook to arrest a white man, whom he charged with horse stock. The men resisted and a general fight ensued between blacks and whites in which the constable and his friends, fifteen in number were used deadly. Four whites were killed, three negroes were killed, while at least a dozen were wounded. Some are probably fatally hurt.

The Miller Boom Disastrous.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 14.—General Superintendent Fred Smith has announced his resignation as Pillsbury, Washburn & Co.'s flouring mill, which will be operated here in a crippled condition. The machinery at Minneapolis mills is damaged to the extent of $100,000 and the mills are temporarily shutdown.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED

The Most Agonizing, Itching, Burning and Bleeding Eczema Cured.

Eczema in its worst Stages. A New Body From Head to Foot. Hair Gone. Nearly Everything Gone. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies for $5.

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and then through the recommendation of one of the doctors I procured the Cuticura Remedies. The first application gave me relief. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete new scalp. After trying everything, I heard of your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, I THOROUGHLY cured of the use of about $5. I should say he without a CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house. I find them essential to my every-day comfort. Send FREE my only skin and scalp specialists.

A Most Wonderful Cure.

I have had a most wonderful cure of skin disease (Eczema). For five years I have suffered with this disease. I had it on my face, arms and hands for over two years. I tried almost all kinds of medicine and doctors, but got no relief. The doctor told my sister was incurable. I saw your advertisement, and concluded to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES; and before I had used one bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box of CUTICURA and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, I had two bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and I am entirely cured. Those who think the above exaggerated may come and see for themselves.

Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink to win the fly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some for health, some very bad,
But never each reveals.

Yet all maintain the proverb true:

A Serviceable Dog.

While visiting at Mr. John A. Fowler's, North Monaghan, I beheld, for the first time, his dog engaged in the work of churning. The sight inspired me to the muse.

Patient, as you I stood and gaze;
You well deserve my highest praise.
Sad for your beauty nor your form,
Sad for the work you do perform.
What need to dog, as model, good,
When you are worthy of your food.
Plain country maidens to one hour
This wedding beard needs all your power.
Churning, trembling upward, not one step,
Trying in vain to reach the top;
The more your treadboard quicker turns,
Just so much you work the churn.
Your sharp dog's stomach, your quickest friend,
Is all required to keep up speed:
Your upward course, your steadfast gridge,
The longer you remain and more odes.
Of your dog's many mental supplies
Only the hankers the butter rise.
Will you deserve her food and shelter,
If make misery of pain you cause her dream.
Each dog, I think each observing day
Will near reason—well it may.
Excepting that beard so round it drive's,
While naughty beasts' dogs are hunting squirrels.
Dog's sense and play you proudly spurn.
Your chief delight to worry the churn.
If ever not to dogs and men a friend
Be sure of some terrible day beard.
Will many growers, kitty and your hound,
All feed you well on meat and bread.
If your cousins kindness, wondrous power,
Deprive her from many a tedious hour
With thickening speed that beard you turn,
Rebuking the dasher in the churn,
A beam of joy darts from your eye
When you behold the butter rise

Long may you eat a hearty meal,
With will and strength to turn that wheel,
And when you slumber with the dead
A marble stone shall deck your head.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The continued rains have caused farmers, owners of low lands, to be somewhat anxious about their crops, but prospects are still good.

A large number attend Peterborough market every Wednesday and Saturday from these parts, and more of our citizens intend removing there.

Dr. Thompson is renovating his drug store, and when completed it will be one of the best shops in the Midland districts.

The laying of the corner stone of the Presbyterian church, Friday, June 21, 1889, promises to attract large crowds. Prominent clergymen from Toronto, Peterborough and other places will be present. Admission to tea and entertainment, 25c.

Norwood

All the places of business in Norwood are to be closed at 7 p.m. every evening in future, Wednesday and Saturday evenings excepted.

On Saturday evening of last week Miss Lillie Begley, organist of the R. C. Church here, was made the recipient, by the choir, of a handsome fruit dish and a complimentary address. Miss Begley in a very neat reply warmly thanked the choir and wished them every success in the future. Father Conway was present and made some very appropriate remarks, in which he referred to Miss Begley's well-merited treatment at the hands of the choir, and also commended them for their kind recognition of her services.

A runaway occurred here Tuesday morning, by which Wm. Howson, a former resident, lost four miles south of this place, lost a valuable team of horses. He drove to the grist mill and left them tied while he went to transact some business. The animals became frightened at a passing train on the C. P. R. and broke loose. They ran for a short distance along with the train and then plunged into a pond, where they were both drowned.

Havelock.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A NEW CIRCUIT.—A new and independent circuit has been formed by uniting West Seymour mission with Havelock appointment. It makes four nice churches on the appointment within a drive of about six miles. Every body seems pleased with the union and we hope the best of goodwill will prevail in the new relations in which we stand to each other. The minister is to reside in Havelock.

MONUMENT PICNIC.—On June 21st a monster picnic will be held in Havelock in Mathison's beautiful grove, just north of the station, under the auspices of Havelock lodge, A.O.U.W., No. 208, and no pains will be spared by the very efficient committee to have an enjoyable time. Norwood band will be in attendance to furnish music. There will be a competition between four ladies representing Peterborough, Norwood, Tweed and Havelock, for a silver cake basket at 5c. a vote. A competition between members of the lodges in above name places for a meerschaum pipe, at 5c. a vote. Dinner from 12 till 2 o'clock. Special railway rates have been secured.

NEARING COMPLETION.—The Presbyterian church is now nearing completion and ere long the dedication services will be held. The church is going to look very beautiful when completed and the people and Mr. Madill deserve credit for the way God has prospered them in the good work.

CORNER STONE TO BE LAID.—On June 21st, the corner stone will be laid of the pretty stone church of the Church of England, being erected here. It will be laid after dinner so that the pic-nic pleasure seekers will have a chance of witnessing the ceremony of laying the corner stone as it is quite close to the ground.

Gentlemen with Bald Heads.

What remarks as a rule attend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is not his fault but his misfortune. There is not alone this annoyance, but a person with the scalp unprotected is more liable to diseases of the head. When a gentleman loses his hair he should take immediate steps to have it replaced with an artificial coverings. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is slow about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Duroveraud, of Toronto, will be at Phelan's Hotel on June 20 and 21, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, which are just the things required. The least you can do is to call and examine the articles whether you buy one or not. Physicians endorse them and you cannot afford to be without one. dw

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special sports for firemen, athletic sports, grand lacrosse match, &c., closing the day's In the evening, the "Fun in Office" will be prominently illustrated by the real live artists, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. H. BEEMER, secretary of committee.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Horses and Hay.

The old song has it that "the farmer feeds us all," but the fact is that the farmer doesn't always feed his horse well, or it would never have made a bolt for a load of hay as it did this morning. The load was passing up Water street, when a farmer's horse, shambling alongside the walk, made a dash for the hay as if it were an unconsidered luxury, and secured several good mouthfuls before its owner could back it into place. It was rather a suggestive incident.

To-night at 9 O'clock.

To-night at nine o'clock the Rochester excursion train starts from the Midland G.T.R. station, Charlotte street. It is not too late for those who have neglected to get tickets and make preparations. If you wish, spend only Sunday in Rochester and get back to town Monday morning at 8 o'clock, or you may stay till Tuesday afternoon. And all for only $3 the round trip. Get your tickets at once. You must have another such chance this summer.

Ashburnham Police Court.

Zimri Blodgett charged Andrew Davidson with feloniously taking sand. Both are farmers living in Smith. It seems that Mr. Blodgett got a sleigh tongue from Mr. Davidson, and agreed to deliver some posts for it. This he failed to do, and one day, it was alleged, he told Mr. Davidson he could have what sand he wanted off his premises in an equivalent. The latter drew away a couple of loads when this charge was preferred and tried before Mr. John Wood, J.P. The plaintiff and his two sons stated that Davidson had asked for the sand, but it was refused. Jas. Telford, a disinterested witness, testified to having heard Blodgett tell the defendant he could have all he wanted. There the case rested, the magistrate reserving judgment. Mr. G. W. Ratton appeared for the plaintiff.

Through the Telephone.

"Hello!"
"Yes!"
"Is that you, Sheriff?"
"Yes; what can I do for you?"
"Is there lots of accommodation for all the people I hear are going to the Masonic Excursion next Tuesday; I want to go and take one or two with me and hope I'm not too late for tickets."
"It's just this way. There is ample accommodation guaranteed for 500 persons, big and little. But I'd advise you to lose as little time as possible—the tickets are being eagerly sought for, but I don't think the demand will exceed our guarantee. By all means take in this excursion it is going to be one of the best ever ran from the town. The route is entirely new and has many advantages over any other. Is that all, well, good-bye, then.
"Thanks; good-bye.

"Songs of the Great Dominion."

This is the title of a beautifully printed and bound 12-mo volume of Canadian national poems, issued from the press of Walter Scott, the great London publisher. These poems are described by the compiler and editor of the volume, William Dowe Lighthall, M. A., Montreal, as "voices from the forests and waters, the settlements and cities of Canada." The poems selected are arranged in nine sections under the headings of, "The Imperial Spirit; The New Nationality; The (inevitable) Indian; The Voyageur and Habitant; Settlement Life; Sports and Free Life; The Spirit of Canadian History; Places and Seasons. Among the contributors are well known names, Chas. G. D. Roberts, Charles Sangster, Alex. McLachlan, Frechette, Fidilis, Seranne, Isabella Valancey Crawford, Charles Mair, J. D. Edgar, T. D. McGee, Lighthall, Wye Smith and a host of other charming Canadian ballard and song writers. The work is a splendid compilation and its printing and binding correspond to the valuable character of its contents. For sale at the Peterborough Bookstore, at $1.25.

The Regatta.

The regatta under the auspices of the Otonabee Canoe Club last night was not as successful as it should have been. The evening was fine and there was a good attendance, but either through excessive modesty or from fear of defeat no one appeared anxious to enter the races. The single canoe and upset races fell through by default, but a close and exciting double canoe contest took place between Messrs. Shaw and Strickland and a couple of sturdy rivermen. The latter won by a single length. The others claimed a foul, but it is a question whether such decision was not a mere accident. Afterwards the large flotilla of canoes attended itself to the "Eva," and their occupants were entertained by an impromptu musical programme by the young men on the yacht. The lake presented a lively appearance just before dark with the fifty or more canoes and three steam yachts flitting about. It is to be hoped the next regatta will be more successful.

Toronto has been the meeting place of three important church courts this week—the Anglican Synod of the Toronto Diocese, the Presbyterian general assembly and the Toronto Methodist Conference.

The two latter are still in session. The Synod has adjourned and there were several important events in connection with it.

The most radical change made was the adoption of the canon, permitting the incumbency of a rector of a parish to lapse at the end of five years, instead of being perpetual. That is, it permits the people and the Bishop in conjunction, at the end of that period, to continue the rectorship or make a change, as the interests concerned may require.

Another matter of importance, to this parish, especially, was the defeat of the proposal to seize upon the revenues of the Crown rectories, merge them into a common fund, and dole out a little to each parish in the diocese according to seniority of rectors.

A pleasing incident of the closing day of the synod was the cordial, not say, enthusiastic, manner in which the delegation from the general assembly was received by the synod. This incident has a bearing on the possibility of organic Christian union, which is not lessened by the fact that the English and Methodist churches, in drifting from present moorings, are in reality approaching nearer each other. The recent changes in the nature of the rector's office is an decided an approach to the itinerant system of the Methodist church as the practical adoption of the extension of a minister's term by the latter church is an approach to a return to the Anglican system of life incumbencies.

THE PULSE OF TRADE.

Bradstreet's View of Crop Prospects—Sugar Goes Up and Coffee Down.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's continue to report only a moderately favorable condition of general trade. Our low preliminary estimate of $45,000,000 loss of property by the floods in four states is more likely to be reduced than otherwise. The wheat crop prospect has not improved since June 1, but the outlook for cotton is rather better since the Louisiana drouth has been broken.

Numerous inquiries have induced Bradstreet's to examine the "anti-trust" legislation of Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and it is found that such legislation is not, as has been widely and erroneously published, directed against mercantile contracts generally, but is aimed against contracts or combinations designed to limit or control production and prices.

While sugar prices continue to advance, having gained ⅛ to 7-16 cents, this week on smaller visible stocks, unfavorable crop reports, firmer cables and pronounced activity for refined, interest now centres on what we are to receive and where it is to come from. Refiners' stocks are greatly depleted and the outlook is for a demand for unusually large supplies with a dearth of them in sight. Sugar Trust certificates have advanced from $85.50 in March to $110, with higher figures in prospect. Large coffee crop reports and light distributive and speculative demand again depressed the staple, the decline being about 1 cent.

The Government cereal crop report tended to depress prices, being interpreted as very favorable, but later weather and crop reports, backed by speculative influences, served to advance wheat on the week 1½c to 2c. Indian corn has been lower after an advance on light deliveries, but shows a gain of 5-8c. Rye is up 1-2c on better export demand. All Australian wheat exports have ceased, supplies on hand being needed at home. San Francisco wires that inquiries for wheat are received from Montevideo, that 60,000,000 bushels have been shipped to Rio Janeiro and that the total of wheat stocks in California June 1 was only 3,467,253 bushels, indicating that only 600,000 bushels will be carried over July 1.

The Drop in Coffee.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The announcement of a big decline in the Havre market caused a decline in coffee here to-day of 70 to 73 points; 132,000 bags changed hands—the largest day's sales in many months.

The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Business failures reported to Bradstreet number 195 in the United States this week, against 201 last week and 212 this week last year; Canada 20 this week against 25 last week. The total of failures in the United States Jan. 1 to date is 5446, against 4871 in 1888.

Forest Fires in Crop States.

EAU CLAIRE, Minn., June 14.—Forest fires raged yesterday along the Iron Range Railroad in every direction. Everything is as dry as tinder. The Ashland report from Ely says that the fire reached there at the noon hour and destroyed one-fourth the village. Many buildings have been destroyed and much damage done to railroad property.

SYRACUSE, Wis., June 13.—A terrible fire is sweeping the forests south and west of here, and unless the weather soon changes the town will be destroyed. Already over 2000,000 worth of pine has been destroyed.

Brainerd, June 13.—Forest fires, fanned by a high wind, are raging in the vicinity of Brainerd, Minnesota, and Crow Wing, Cass and Aitkin counties. Many settlers have been burned out and driven from their homes, and the loss of standing timber will be very heavy. The fire is now within two miles of the city limits, and the people are fighting it with all the force they can command. Many families have left the city, and the greatest excitement prevails.

In My Hair all right?

How often do we hear one lady ask this question of another. Invariably these ladies who are constantly worrying about their hair, do not wear any kind of hair goods, but possibly a switch. Now, consider this, ladies: Would it not pay you to get a nice becoming style of Front-piece, Bang or Wave, made of fine, curled or waved human hair, and be sure it is always right? Then you would not require to ask "Is my hair all right?" Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, has made the manufacture of hair goods a life study, and amongst his many pieces every lady will find something to suit her. You have all heard of the professor, though, perhaps, you have never interested yourself enough to call on him during his former visits. Do so now. He will be at Phelan's Hotel on Friday and Saturday, June 28th and 29th, and will bring with him his big stock of all kinds of hair goods. He will be pleased to show you his various styles. See his advertisement in another column. dw

IS YOUR BAKING POWDER PURE?

Do its Manufacturers Publish all the Ingredients Used?

IS IT FREE FROM AMMONIA?

As is well known, ammonia is unhealthful in food, and dries up the bread material.

Protection to consumers of food compounds lies in their ability to choose those made from healthful substances. Unless manufacturers publish just what their baking powder is made of, do not use their goods, but buy instead

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER.

This powder is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, and strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, with a little wheat flour to preserve it. This is attested by the official analyses of Government and State chemists, and physicians, and chemists of Boards of Health throughout the country.

AT

TURNBULL'S

Having just bought a large lot of fine untrimmed hats at a clearing price, we are in a position to give great Bargains in Millinery. 170 new styles to select from, no two alike. See one of our windows. Your choice for 75c.

If you have not looked closely you have no clear notion how more than commonly good our $15, $16, $18 suits for men are. Lining and trimmings excellent, sewing and finishing perfect. Men who are shrewd judges, and hard to please, pronounce our tailor as near perfection in a fit as possible.

While we were writing a shipment of boys' clothing has arrived to fill up the gaps in that department. They are good goods, and the patterns are excellent. Mothers call and see them.

Opened out a fresh lot of muslin skirting embroideries, full width, from 50c. to $1.25 a yard. Also a lot of white lawns, from 10c. to 20c. These goods should and are going out fast.

We can show you a linen huck towel 20x40 inches, full of substance and in every way worth 20c. The price is 15c. Good barnsley crashes at 10c. and 12½c. a yard. We do towels and towellings right, as we import them direct from where they are made.

Several fresh lines of children's hosiery just put in stock. Space would not allow us to enumerate them. We have everything desirable in ribbed and plain, low and better grades.

Our parasol stock is large and varied. We aim at keeping everything called for and do not allow ourselves to be undersold.

Heavy sales in the Dress Goods department have left us a lot of good remnants which we are clearing out at remnant prices. Remnants of prints, tweeds, etc., laid out and sold at great reductions.

"A Spring Message"

FROM THE NEW FIRM OF

H. LeBRUN & Co.

Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

a past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices given us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BETTER FABRICS, FINER STYLES than ever were handled before.

Special values in Fine STEIZE OVERCOATS, and Fine Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment in an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and tailors. Besides perfect fit and first-class tailoring, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SHIRT WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough making the latest styles and best makes in their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HANDKERCHIEFS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

THE CHICAGO CONFESSOR.

WOODRUFF ECLIPSES ALL HIS PREVIOUS EFFORTS.

He Proves the Only True Story of Mr. Cronin's Murder Is to the Bar of a Superior—Alexander Sullivan Implicated.

CHICAGO, June 16.—All previous "confessions" of Woodruff, the horse-thief indicted for complicity in the Cronin tragedy, were eclipsed this morning in an entirely new story from him published in an extra edition of The Times. He contradicts and discredits every other "statement" heretofore attributed to him and now appears in the role of an ex-member of the Canadian militia, claiming he was trusted by Cronin's alleged murderers because he furnished Fenian spies with valuable information during one of the Fenian raids into Canada.

Woodruff says he arrived in Chicago March 20, and obtained work from a gardener in Southport-avenue, not far from the Carlson cottage. After three or four days' work for the gardener Woodruff was taken sick. His narrative says:

"With the intention of going to the county hospital I drifted into P. O. Sullivan's place. I made up my mind that he was a Fenian and reminded him of certain scenes during the Fenian raid into Canada. I went over during that raid as a volunteer in the Twenty-fourth Kent Battalion, whose headquarters were at Chatham. We went as far as Niagara. At that time I was assigned to the adjutant's department and gave to scores Fenian spies who came to our camp such points as I learned while in that place. That was my first connection with the Clan-na-Gael. P. O. Sullivan told me he would get me some work if possible. From there I came down and went to work at Dean's livery stable."

Woodruff tells that he met Detective Coughlin soon afterward and had a drink with him, conveying the impression that Coughlin knew Woodruff to be a thief and Woodruff believed the detective to be a "fence." While walking together they met P. O. Sullivan, the lessman. Sullivan mentioned Woodruff's request for employment and Coughlin quizzed Woodruff that a man in his line should want "work." Woodruff persisted that he was laboring for his board and clothes at the livery stable. Coughlin and Sullivan went off together. "That was about the 2nd of April," continued Woodruff. Melville arrived in Chicago about this time (this is the first mentioned of Melville in the "confession"). I know this because a day or two afterward I was over on the South Side and went into the "Our" saloon kept by Sol Van Praag. I went into a back room and saw Melville and Coughlin drinking together. This was in the evening. I knew Melville, as I had met him in California. He was a great friend of Desmond and Sandlot Kearney during their labor troubles there. After taking several drinks together Coughlin left us, saying he had an engagement.

Melville and Woodruff, so the latter says, made the rounds of the disreputable houses in the neighborhood for an hour or more and then Melville took leave, saying that he was stopping at McCoy's Hotel. Woodruff complained of being "broke" and Melville gave him two or three dollars saying: "I want to see you again." Two days afterward Woodruff attempted to see Melville at McCoy's and looked over the register and made inquiries of the clerk, but did not press to see Melville, not wishing to create suspicion.

"Going north," Woodruff continued, "I met MacDougall near [illegible] western depot and Coughlin was with him (this is the first mention of MacDougall). As I came up Coughlin said: 'Good, he is just the man I want to see.' Murray to MacDougall: 'Are you acquainted?' I replied: 'I guess I ought to know Mac.' MacDougall said: 'That will do. My name is Williams.' I laughed and said: "A rose by any other name would probably be as sweet.' I had known MacDougall as a rough-and-ready spirit and an old worker for the Clan-na-Gael, although during the intermediate time he had worked as a blacksmith. Coughlin and MacDougall had quite a talk while I waited. After a talk which I did not hear Coughlin left, saying he had some business. As soon as Coughlin was out of sight Williams said to me:

"'Come on.' In a saloon subsequently Williams said, so the story goes: 'How are you fixed?' I said: 'I am nearly busted.' He said: "Why don't you go down and see Alexander Sullivan,' and I said I was not prepared to be sent to Europe. Williams, looking me squarely in the face, said it would not be necessary for me to be sent out of town in this case."

The pair proceeded, Woodruff declares, to 117 Clark-street where the furniture of the Carlson cottage was first stored. Woodruff says he demanded to know what he would have to do. Williams replied: "You need not know anything about it. It is a deal and you will not be implicated." Looking me straight in the face he asked: "Are you one of them still?" He referred to my helping the Fenians at the time of the Canada raid. I replied: "I am as much as ever I was, if I am paid for it." This was about April 26. On leaving Williams again urged him to go over and see Alexander Sullivan. Woodruff's narrative proceeds:

"I went to Dean's barn and thought the matter over and then returned and applied at Alexander Sullivan's. He was not in his office, but going out I met him in the hall before I reached the elevator. I said: 'Mr. Sullivan, MacDougall sent me over to see you.' Mr. Sullivan said: 'MacDougall! Oh, you mean William, don't you?' 'Yes, I guess so. He wanted me to go over and have a talk with you.' Alexander Sullivan replied: 'I have nothing to say, I have never met you before.' 'Well,' I said, 'I think I have met you before, although I have grown out of your recollection since I came from Canada. I have but lately returned from California.' Sullivan repeated his previous answer. I told him I was looking for a job and Williams had recommended me to him. He said he had no work for anybody. Afterwards he asked, 'What kind of work would you like?' I said: 'Anything in God's world, if there is any money in it.' He looked at me sharply and replied, 'If I have anything for you I'll let Mr. Williams know of it,' and walked away without even saying good-by. I met Williams an hour afterward going out of his room in Clark-street. We took a grip car and came over on the North Side. I told him I had seen Sullivan, and that the latter came pretty near telling me to go to hell, without doing it."

Soon after this they met Sullivan on the street. He took Williams on one side and handed him money saying: "Now pay that rent." Sullivan told Woodruff he must not take offence at his manner the previous day, as he was very busy and had a great many applications for jobs. The Wednesday before the murder Woodruff met Coughlin, who asked him to take a note to Williams. This note was in cipher the same as had been used by the Fenians when Woodruff was at Niagara.

Woodruff says it read: "Going up to P. O. Sullivan's."

The remainder of Woodruff's confession deals mainly with the night of the murder. Coughlin, so Woodruff alleges, paid him $225 to bring to Lincoln-avenue from Dean's livery stable a conveyance in which a trunk could be carried. Near Ashland and Lincoln-avenues Melville and one O'Shea, alias Mike Macdougall, joined Woodruff. The latter says this man was a machinist or blacksmith from Philadelphia. They drove to the Carlson cottage, reaching there about 2 a.m. The two men went in and soon after P. O. Sullivan, Melville and Williams came out of the door carrying a trunk, which they placed in the wagon.

Here follows a new version of the ride with the trunk and the disposal of the body in the sewer. Woodruff now says the intention was to have the trunk sunk in Lake Michigan off Lincoln Park, but thinking they were pursued the plan was abandoned.

Woodruff claims Cronin's instruments were probably buried or thrown in the lake by Melville and Williams when they left to engage in the woods for a short time at Edgewater. He does not know what disposition was made of the clothing.

Woodruff concludes with an assertion that he was recently approached by a man [illegible] who offered to [illegible]

[illegible] that this lawyer told him to keep [illegible] silent, as Alexander Sullivan's attorney would work in unison and one of Sullivan's gentlemen had agreed to pay for Woodruff's defence. The climax of the whole confession is an assertion by Woodruff that all his previous alleged "confessions" are bogus and that this is "the first and only statement I have made since my arrest," the intimation being that the other confessions were given circulation by interested persons to create the impression that he (Woodruff) was a liar.

Woodruff when seen at the jail this afternoon was preparing what he said would be a still more sensational confession. He examined the confession printed to-day and altered it in many important particulars. He admitted that he was only only 16 years old but insisted he took active part in the Fenian rebellion, which he says occurred in 1872. There are several gross errors in the dates he has given.

The only evidence that the police placed any reliance on in Woodruff's last confession is the fact that Lieut. Schuettler and his men went to the foot of Desplaines-avenue this afternoon and searched in the sand for Dr. Cronin's medicine case which Woodruff says was concealed there by Williams and Melville. The officers dug up an acre of ground along the beach but found nothing.

Fitzgerald "Speaks Out."

CHICAGO, June 16.—P. W. Dunne of Pekin, Ill., formerly of Chicago, received to-day a letter in response to a request "for the President of the Irish National League of America to speak out publicly." Mr. Dunne declares to be the person who originated the charges against Alexander Sullivan as far back as 1882. The letter is as follows:

LINCOLN, Neb., June 14.

P. W. DUNNE, Esq.—DEAR SIR: The members of the Irish National Land League of America are law-abiding citizens of the United States and hold murder in as much abhorrence as any other element of the community can possibly do. Honest men are not necessitated to protect honesty and the league has no need to present its sorrow of murder. None but those whom guilt is father to the thought would for an instant couple the name of the Irish National League of America with crime of any kind, much less with the detestable tragedy of which your city has been the theatre. There is therefore no necessity for remarks or apologies of any kind from the Irish National League of America in connection with the murder of Dr. Cronin. A foul crime has been committed, the laws of the country have been outraged, and it is the duty of the officers of the law to find out and punish the criminals.

Yours faithfully,

JOHN FITZGERALD,
President Irish National League of America.

THE ALIEN CONTRACT LAW.

ITS ENFORCEMENT ON THE CANADIAN BORDER.

Blaine Would Like the Intercourse of Labor Undisturbed. But Allison's Assistant Says he Has No Option.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Some time ago the British Minister made an informal complaint to the Secretary of State in regard to the operation of the Act of Congress prohibiting the importation and immigration of foreigners and aliens under contract to perform labor in the United States, especially so far as concerns the Canadian border. The Secretary of State referred the matter to the Secretary of the Treasury, saying that the "Canadian authorities hope that some arrangement may be made whereby the law may not be enforced if possible, to the end that the old friendly feeling of intercourse and interchange of labor shall be allowed to remain undisturbed," and requesting such a reply as he might informally present to the British minister. Acting Secretary Batcheller replied to the Secretary of State to-day as follows:

"In reply, I respectfully invite your attention to the amendment to the Alien Contract Law contained in the Deficiency Bill approved Oct. 19, 1888, a copy of which is printed in the enclosed circular dated Nov. 21, 1888, which amendment you will see applies not only to immigrants of the prohibited classes arriving by vessels, but also to immigrants who may have entered this country within a period of one year from an adjoining country. This act, as you will see from the enclosed circular, was construed as imposing on the Secretary of the Treasury the duty of enforcing the provisions of the acts referred to and it has not been supposed that it was the intention of Congress to give the secretary discretionary power to suspend the operation of the laws in any case. I enclose copies of several opinions which have been given during the administration of the acts in question. It is obvious that as the laws now stand it is incumbent upon the executive officers to enforce them and that such considerations as those presented in your letter, however forcible and reasonable, should be addressed to the law-making power."

FIRE AT MILE END.

The Bushnell Oil Refinery Burnt—A $60,000 Blaze.

MONTREAL, June 16.—An extensive fire broke out at Mile End this evening through the upsetting of a coal oil lamp at the Bushnell Oil Refinery. The fire spread with great rapidity and soon covered fifteen acres. The refinery being alongside the track the fire caused considerable havoc with cars, telegraph poles and track; about ten cars were destroyed as well as the entire works. Nothing was saved except a stock of empty parasols. The oil company suffers probably to the extent of $60,000.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Miss Sarah Reome, aged 24 of Brooklyn, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. David Reome, aged 28, of Toronto, Canada, while engaged in sketching on the track of the Manhattan Beach Railway, near the Colonial Hotel, Coney Island, this afternoon, were struck by a train coming from the Sheepshead Bay race track. Miss Reome escaped with a fractured ankle and severe internal injuries, but Mrs. Reome was instantly killed.

Preferred Death to Bonds.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., June 15.—Dr. F. B. Norris, who recently located at Little Current, Ont., is missing, and it is believed has committed suicide, as a valise with articles of clothing, letters, etc., has been found. Dr. Norris was the victim of an inordinate appetite for liquor. He established a good practice at 321 Elk-street, Buffalo, N.Y., in 1887, but his great failing obliged him to relinquish it, and he later moved to 436 Main-street, occupying room No. 1 as an office. He did not make a success there and was obliged to call on his brother, who holds a government position in Washington, for assistance. He then moved to Hamilton, Ont., but the thirst for strong drink pursued him and finally landed him a prostrating physician at Little Current in the back woods of the Northwest and for a time he was perfectly straight, but just as his wife was preparing to join him he began to drink again and in a short time was a common sot. That is the last known of him. The finding of his clothing is the only tidings of the doctor which has come to light, but the general impression is that the doctor's body will come to the surface in a few days and that sooner than confront the disgraceful career which seemed inevitable he preferred the alternative of self-murder.

The Byrnesites at Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, June 15.—Maj. Phillips Byrnesites have had Johnstown in a state of nervous terror all day, and this evening General Manager John Fulton of the Cambria Iron Company dictated a forcible protest to Governor Beaver, stating that the mills and offices of the company were being ruined by the blacks, that Adjt.-Gen. Hastings had paid no attention to two requests for his discontinuance, and that the State would be held responsible for any further damage done. The message was filed in the telegraph office with instructions that it be put upon the wire as soon as another blank was filed. In the meantime Adjt.-Gen. Hastings had gained communication with Maj. Phillips and an order for dissolution of the blacking went into effect.

GERMANY WARNED TO PREPARE FOR THE INEVITABLE.

[illegible] Enmity over Russian Encroachments —The Struggle in Servia—A Prospect of Bloody Times for Turkey.

BERLIN, June 15.—The statement that M. Persiani, the Russian Minister to Bulgaria, had proposed a Russo-Servian occupation caused excitement here. The receipt of semi-official telegrams from Belgrade to-night declaring the story entirely false tended to restore confidence. Events in the Balkan [illegible] mature so rapidly as it was feared they would. That alarm is felt [illegible] evidenced by the renewal of official press attacks upon Russian cruelty during the past week, which resulted unfavorably upon German securities. The Russian Minister of Finance was negotiating with leading bankers, including the Discounto-Gesellschaft, in relation to the conversion of certain private Russian railways. The North German Gazette pointedly referred to the proposed operation as illegal, and even the Liberal Deutsche Zeitung warned German investors to unload Russian stocks as speedily as possible in readiness for the inevitable life and death struggle between Russia and Germany. The latter power is expected to deliver an ultimatum to Russia in consequence of the latter's refusal to express sorrow on the legality of the proposed conversion, but it is felt that the Government would not have expressed German sympathy in so many [illegible] words, even if [illegible] had Bulmer called. A successful result would have been hailed as the illegality of the conversion.

The Servian Government has refused to renew the commercial treaty with Austria-Hungary, which expires in 1892. Everything indicates that the Russian party in Belgrade, confident of its ascendancy, is working to effect some definite step, which, if it [illegible] to coherence can only end in precipitating a war or in a peaceable partition of the Servian states between Austria and Russia.

The Servian Situation.

LONDON, June 15.—In speaking of the Servian news published to-day, an attache of the Foreign Office who has just returned from Belgrade says: "All is calm in Servia now as a very excited and uneasy state at the present moment, and the Government will be fortunate if they have nothing more serious than an occasional riot to deal with. The Servians are governed by a boy king who is 12 years old, and a Regency composed of M. Ristics and two generals of somewhat doubtful reputation. M. Ristics is the only Servian who has an European reputation, and is no doubt a very able man. He wants Servia to follow an independent line, and to be the headsman neither of Russia nor Austria. The report that he is negotiating with Russia and opinion on such other like matters is largely manufactured in Vienna, where one and all the correspondents appear to be in the pocket of the Austrian Foreign Office, and we all know by this time what these attacks on M. Ristics really mean. Ristics' great authority will undoubtedly be used to keep Servia in safe and prudent courses. The fall of the other two regents is extremely likely to be one of the events of the near future, but it will not drag him down also."

Lively Times Ahead in Edinburgh.

LONDON, June 15.—There is every prospect of lively times in Edinburgh. Mr. Parnell, against the opinion of some of his best friends, has accepted the freedom of his city, voted by the Town Council, in spite of what is known to be a powerful, and is presumed to be an overwhelming, opposition in the city itself. He has named July 20 as the day when he will go to Edinburgh. The Lord Provost has declined to take part in the proceedings, and those who know Edinburgh and the temper of the Scottish people say that in these circumstances Mr. Parnell's reception will be very mixed. There will be demonstrations against him, as well as for him; and as feeling runs high on both sides, blows may be exchanged before the day is over.

The Superiority of English Engineering.

LONDON, June 15.—The American engineers reached their predestined goal this week and were duly dined in Guildhall on Thursday evening. Their reception, everywhere friendly, became most cordial in the city. They have, or their spokesmen have, lectured the English by pretty large admissions of superiority of English engineering to American. These declarations were repeated at the Guildhall and were repeatedly cheered.

A General Decline in Prices.

LONDON, June 16.—On the Stock Exchange prices continued to decline during the week. American securities showed some recovery at the close. On the Continental bourses business was stagnant and prices declined.

The Railroad Wreck at Armagh.

DUBLIN, June 15.—At Armagh to-day four employes of the excursion train which was wrecked on Wednesday with such fatal results were arraigned in court and charged with felonious killing. The prisoners are McGrath the engineer, Parkinson the fireman, Moorehead the guard, and Elliott the traffic manager's clerk. The magistrate discharged Parkinson. A passenger of the train testified that when the train was stopped on the grade Moorehead placed a stone under a wheel of the last carriage and uncoupled a number of carriages. The detached portion immediately descended the grade at a rapid rate. The doors of all the cars were locked. The court adjourned. McGrath and Moorehead were released on bail.

THE LATE PROF. PHELPS.

The above is a portrait of the late Prof. Edward B. Phelps, M.D., LL.D., of Dartmouth College. He was a strong, able man, who stood high in the literary and scientific worlds. It is not generally known, but it is, nevertheless, the truth, that Prof. Phelps was the discoverer of what is known to the Medical Profession and Chemists universally as Paine's Celery Compound, unquestionably one of the most valuable discoveries of this century. This remarkable compound is not a nervine, an essence, a sarsaparilla or any devised article, but a discovery, and it marks a distinct step in medical practice and the science of disease and medicine. It has been freely admitted by the best medical talent in the land, and also by the leading chemists and scientists, that for nerve troubles, nervous exhaustion, insomnia, debility, senility and even the dreaded and terrible Paresis, nothing has ever been discovered which reaches the disorder and restores health equal to this discovery of Prof. Phelps

Paine's Celery Compound is now being prepared in quantities, and can be procured at any reputable druggist. An attractive bunch of celery is to be found on every wrapper. It has become specially popular among professional men, mind workers, fallen brotherhood with exciting social duties and frequenters of the leading clubs.

Separate Schools—Three Lies Nailed.

Has the Mowat Government Power to Coerce Roman Catholics in Ontario to Send their Children to Separate Schools?—They Have Not—The Law Plainly Stated.

(From the Toronto Globe, June 15th.)

In another column Mr. Arthur A. Forbes, of Shefford, P.Q., charges the Reverend Alexander Campbell, secretary of the Evangelical Alliance, with having asserted that that "the Ontario government had passed an act compelling all Roman Catholics in this province to send their children to the separate schools." If Mr. Campbell were guilty of that statement our correspondent did well to challenge proof in the spot. We should like to believe that Mr. Forbes did not correctly exhibit the reverend gentleman's words, for it would be distressing to believe that a Presbyterian minister in high standing could utter a wholly groundless and demonstrable falsehood. Let us assume that he did not, but that somebody else did, make the assertion that Mr. Forbes challenged. This leaves us free to observe that the assertion is to be "prove as a mountain, open, palpable." There are on the registers of the Ontario public and separate schools 468,212 children. Roman Catholics are about one-sixth of Ontario's population. If there were a law compelling all Roman Catholic children to attend separate schools, the pupils at those schools would number 82,902. But the separate schools actually have but 30,073 pupils. This alone destroys the assertion imputed to the Rev. Alexander Campbell.

But our correspondent inquires whether the provincial legislature has passed an act which, "by any twisting of words, could by any possible fair means be construed as having that meaning or effect." No, there is not one particle of foundation in any Ontario act for the statement in question. On the contrary, the school laws of Ontario not only leave Roman Catholics free to choose between public and separate schools, but go on the assumption that all Roman Catholic ratepayers are supporters of public schools, and so be taxed as such unless they have given notice in writing that they wish to support separate schools. We will now put our valued correspondent in a position to prove this against any opponent. Section 40 of the separate school acts provides that:—

"Every person paying rates, whether as proprietor or tenant, who by himself or his agent, on or before the fifth day of March in any year, gives to the clerk of the municipality notice in writing that he is a Roman Catholic, and a supporter of a separate school situated in the municipality, or in a municipality contiguous thereto, shall be exempted from the payment of all rates imposed for the support of public schools, and of public school libraries, or for the purchase of land or erection of buildings for public school purposes, within the city, town, incorporated village or section in which he resides, for the then current year, and every subsequent year thereafter, while he continues a supporter of a separate school; and the notice shall not be required to be renewed annually."

The effect of this is that no municipal clerk can legally class as a separate school supporter any Roman Catholic ratepayer who has not given the required notice in writing.

It is contended by some "No Popery" zealots that the Roman Catholic ratepayer should be compelled to renew annually his notice in writing that he wishes to support a separate school. Our correspondent and all honest men will see that this would be unjust. A ratepayer may be away from home, or laid up with sickness, or forgetful, or for some way be prevented from renewing the notice annually. Why should he be required to do so when the law provides, by section 47 of the Separate School Act, that "Any Roman Catholic who may desire to withdraw his support from a separate school shall give notice in writing to the clerk of the municipality before the second Wednesday in January in any year; otherwise he shall be deemed a supporter of the school."

Our correspondent may find it hard to believe that there are in Ontario men crazy enough to allege that this provision is "a concession to Rome." But such is the fact. In a frenzy of bigotry they allege that the provision enables the priest to discover and blacklist the ratepayer who proposes to take his children away from the public school. It must be plain to the meanest understanding, (1) that the transfer of the children from a separate to a public school would instantly be known to the resident priest; (2) that the priest can wield the spiritual arm just as effectually against the ratepayer whether he sends his children away from the separate school with or without giving written notice; (3) that any Roman Catholic independent enough to defy the priest by sending his children to a public school will be independent enough to give written notice of his intending; (4) that every document which can be [illegible] to the ratepayer should be in order that he may have warrant to defy the threatening to the list of public school supporters a ratepayer who has, by written notice, taken himself out of separate schools.

Now we come to a clause by which certain "No Popery" members give some color to their assertion that Roman Catholic ratepayers are treated as prima facie supporters of separate schools. It is section 41 of the separate school act:—

(1) "It shall be necessary to enter every municipality shall in the assessment roll set down the religion of the persons assessed, distinguishing them Protestants and Roman Catholics, and whether supporters of public or separate schools; but in doing so no such person shall be debarred from his rights with the rights of public school trustees under the public schools act.

(2) The assessor shall accept the statement of, or made on behalf of, any ratepayer, that he is a Roman Catholic, or contrary proof, such evidence for placing such person on the proper column of the assessment roll for separate school supporters, or if the assessor knows personally any ratepayer to be a Roman Catholic this also shall be sufficient for placing him on such last mentioned column.

(3) The court of revision shall try and determine all complaints in regard to persons in those particulars alleged to be wrongfully placed upon or omitted from the roll (as the case may be), and any person so complaining, or any ratepayer of the municipality, may give notice in writing to the clerk of the municipality of such complaint, and the provisions of the assessment act, in reference to giving notice of complaints against the assessment roll and proceedings for the trial thereof, shall likewise apply to all complaints under this section of this act."

The assertion of some "No Popery" men is, in effect, that clause 2 of this section should be read without reference to clauses 1 and 3, without reference to section 40 of the act and without reference to section 40, which reads:—

"The clerk of every municipality, in annually making out the collectors' roll, shall place collumn therein, as that under the head of "School Rates," the public school rate may be distinguished from the separate school rate, and also under "Special Rate for School Sites" shall distinguish between public and separate school purposes, and the proceeds of any such rate shall be kept distinguished by the collector and accounted for accordingly."

Now, when clause 2, section 41, is read alone, it appears to authorize the insertion of all Roman Catholics as separate school supporters. But in fact it merely authorizes the official, the assessor, to treat the Roman Catholicism of a ratepayer as prima facie evidence that he is a separate school supporter. The use of the words "prima facie evidence" signifies clearly that the evidence is not to be regarded as final. Clause 3, of section 41, provides for a revision of the assessors' roll, and section 40 shows that the clerk of the municipality must make a new roll for the collector. Now, if no objection be taken at the court of revision to the ranking of any ratepayer as a Roman Catholic as a separate school supporter, the municipal clerk may think himself authorized to enter that ranking in the collectors' roll. Also if no proceeds on this assumption he overlooks section 40, which requires him to have an assent in writing from every Roman Catholic before rating him for taxes in separate schools. The case and substance of the law clearly is, that the municipal clerk cannot legally place any Roman Catholic on the collectors' roll as a separate school supporter unless that Roman Catholic has given written notice that he wishes to be so rated, and if the municipal clerk presumes the assessors' classification to be final he may be compelled at the court of revision to rate as public school supporters all Roman Catholic ratepayers who have not given notice in writing under section 40. The Attorney General says this is the law. The Minister of Education says so. The Act, in our opinion, is clear on the point. If the "No Popery" men sincerely differ from our view, why have they not tested the question practically by challenging the separate school lists before some court of revision? The Globe will demand such changes as may be necessary to make the law what we say it now is, if any one can produce evidence that the Attorney-General is wrong in his legal opinion.

DEATH OF MR. WM. DAVIS

The Well-Known Ottawa Contractor Passes Away at a Ripe Old Age.

OTTAWA, June 16.—One of Ottawa's prominent citizens, Mr. William Davis, the well-known contractor, died to-day at his residence in Rideau-street, in the seventy-second year of his age. Mr. Davis was head of the firm of Davis & Sons, who are at present building several sections of the Carnwall Canal. He came to Canada from Tipperary, Ireland, nearly fifty years ago and was employed by H. H. Killaly of the Board of Works on the upper Ottawa improvements, including the Trent, Otawa River, Lachine, St. Maurice, Chambly and other canals. In 1854 he built portions of the Welland Canal. He lived in Montreal for fourteen years, removing to Ottawa about thirty years ago, where he constructed the St. Louis dam and was foreman of improvements at Government House. Subsequent to that he constructed works at Chaudiere, Lachine, Montreal and other points.

About five weeks ago he was prostrated by a complication of diseases, passing away peacefully surrounded by his wife, three sons and five daughters. The lamented gentleman was highly regarded throughout the community, where he had amassed considerable wealth and was at all times a generous benefactor. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

ONE YEAR IN JAIL.

Sr. J. C. Bright of Chatham Convicted of Criminal Malpractice.

CHATHAM, June 15.—At the General Sessions Thursday, Dr. James Cook Bright of this place was convicted of the crime of furnishing a noxious drug to a young girl named Clara Douglas. Detective T. Wanoa worked up the evidence for the Crown and Professor Ellis analyzed the medicine which was given to the girl. Bright, who was acquitted once before when tried on a similar charge, was sentenced to one year in jail.

Detective Wanoa is following up the M.D.s who do anything crooked, and having them brought before the counsel so that their names will be struck off the roll. For some time it has been the practice of a lot of quacks from the other side to come to Canada, representing themselves as a great medical association by having a doctor who is registered in Canada as one of them and under cover of his diploma commencing operations. Dr. McKeown's conviction here a few days ago has probably put an end to this scheme.

A SUICIDE IN CAMP.

John Alderson of the 45th Batt. Drowns Himself in the Niagara River.

NIAGARA, Ont., June 16.—John Alderson of No. 1 Co., 20th Batt., Simcoe, was found dead this morning on the shore of the river above Paradise Grove. He had left the camp Saturday morning in a disconsolated state; he did not turn up during the day and a party was detailed to search for him. His remains were brought into town this forenoon by some of his comrades and placed in a room in the Court House, where they will remain until the coroner from Port Dalhousie arrives. It is feared the poor fellow committed suicide by drowning and that his body had washed ashore, as he was partly dressed.

BYAM'S Improved "Common Sense" SASH BALANCE. LOCKS AND LIFTS.

The only practical substitute for weights ever invented. Can be put in all old or new windows. Balances when in position, so evidently out of sight. No cutting of sash or frame required in putting in weights. No mortising, boring or mixing of the sash, as the Patent Lock on Top Sash does all that is required. Keeps the sash balanced at any point you may put it at, so that a window can be opened from the bottom and top at the same time. Can be used when it is required to open the top sash only. Can be removed from the frame in a moment for cleaning or repairing broken glass. Can be used when it is required to open the top sash only. Can be used when it is required to open the top sash only. No unsightly cord running point of side of frame. No mortising of sash or pressing together to prevent it. No sticking of weights or pulleys when sash is raised or lowered. No sticking of weights in frame. No cords to rot off, wear out and break. No cellar windows to become flustered by standing in one position for many years. No heavy coil spring or delicate mechanism to break, wear out or get out of order. Its simplicity of construction and operation is the wonder of all.

MUNCASTER'S

GREEN FODDERS.

Prof. Thomas Shaw of the Ontario Ag. Instructional College, on Their Growth

The attention of the farmers of the Dominion has never been sufficiently drawn to the great advantages that flow from the growth of an abundant supply of green food for the stock of the farm. In this climate of short and oftentimes dry summers and of stern winters, which forever forbid the successful growth of permanent pastures of the European order and of the European plan, it will doubtless prove in the future the great reliance of the farmer who is bent upon maintaining the fertility of his land, through the best of all sources, stock-keeping. Some of its advantages are:

1. It affords a saving in land to the extent of enabling the farmer with but 50 acres to raise more beef, mutton, milk, butter or cheese than the one with 100 acres, who pays no attention to the growth of green fodders.

2. It effects a great saving in fences, one of the largest items of outlay on a farm.

3. It secures a marked saving in food, and in animal muscle, in their not having to search for it.

4. It increases the quantity and quality of the manure to the extent of at least one-half of all that is made during the pasturing season.

5. Its effects upon the health and condition of the animals are beneficial, since the supply of food is uniform and sufficient, and they are free from annoyance, worry and exposure.

6. It greatly increases the quantity and quality of the milk, butter and beef produced.

7. It very much enhances, in the aggregate, the fertility of the soil.

8. It is largely obviates the necessity of summer fallowing, through its antagonism to weed growth.

9. It would prove a boon to the cotter, whose one cow must needs pasture on the highway.

10. In conjunction with the silo it provides green food for the stock all the year, hence every farmer in the Province alive to his own best interests will grow a greater or smaller proportion of green fodders every year.

The only objections that can be urged against it, are:

1. That lack of exercise will impair the health of the stock, an objection that will be answered in a succeeding bulletin.

2. The extra labor involved, which, however, is abundantly compensated by the increased returns.

The following are some of the principal fodder crops best adapted to Ontario conditions.

1. Winter rye, best sown early in September; 2 bushels to the acre; cut before the blossom appears, and fed, if practicable, in connection with red clover.

2. Red clover, yielding two cuttings per year, and cut until the time of blossoming.

3. Orchard grass, which may be grown with clover and cut at same periods.

4. Lucerne, yielding two or more cuttings a year, and when brought safely through the first winter yields a bountiful crop for years. It is best adapted to well drained rich loams inclining to a sandy texture. It is not relished by the stock so highly as clover.

5. Timothy and Mammoth clover make an excellent green feed, the combination being complementary to each other in their constituents, and ripening at the same time.

6. Alsike clover and timothy grown together answer equally well. By commencing to cut when the first blossoms appear, this crop may be fed for three or four weeks.

7. Oats and peas, oats and vetches or tares, or oats, peas and vetches, come next, sown mixed, at the rate of say 1½ bushel oats, ½ bushel peas and ½ bushel vetches to the acre, and at successive intervals of say 10 days apart. They make the best ration when the grain is in the milk, left feeding may commence when they first head out.

8. Common millet. Many farmers grow and Italian millet are all needed as green fodders. They may be sown from May 1st to 1st July, ½ to 1 bushel seed per acre, and should be cut before or in early blossom for milling.

9. Corn is the most valuable of all green crops for soiling purposes. It should be planted in drills for summer soiling at the rate of from ½ to 1 bushel of seed to the acre, from 24th May to 10th June. It may be sown with the grain drill, from 30 to 36 inches apart, and suitable harrowing after planting and thorough cultivating are of much importance. Feeding may commence when the corn is formed in the ear.

The Resort Courtroom.

Prompt and effective was the action of a thin, keen-eyed woman whom I saw in the millinery department of a big store. Spinster was written all over her face, and a defiance of age was noticeable in the material and cut of her wardrobe. She informed a saleswoman her Easter bonnet must be bought then and there. She was too tired of shopping to go a step farther. The willing but inconsiderate clerk took down a bonnet of sober character, with the remark: "This I think will please you; it is very suitable for a middle-aged lady." The spinster quietly requested her to put the bonnet on her own head, which the unsuspecting woman, herself of an uncertain age, promptly did. Then, looking her full in the face, the irate and ancient maiden severely said: "If fits you perfectly, perfectly; you were right, it is just the bonnet for a middle-aged person." The saleswoman hit her lip and removed the bonnet in speechless chagrin. She knew her want of tact had lost her a customer. The Easter bonnet was bought for elsewhere.—New York Ledger.

Stanley's Tribute to the Bible.

We have Professor Stanley's own testimony not only that he is an agnostic, but that he is the author of the term. It is therefore especially interesting to hear what he has to say about the Bible. "I have always been in favor," says the professor, "of teaching ethnology in the school (though without theology; but I must confess that I have been no less seriously perplexed to know by what practical measures the religious feeling, which in the essential basis of conduct, was to be kept up, in the present utterly chaotic state of opinion on these matters, without the use of the Bible. The Pagan moralists took life and color; and even the noble study, Marcus Aldenham, is too high and refined for an ordinary child. Take the Bible, everywhere, under the reverend determination either that its contents are dictated, and there still remains in this old literature a vast fund of historical beauty and grandeur. By the study of what other book would children be so much humanized? If Bible reading is not accompanied by comment on inspiration, I do not believe there is any thing for grown children to take more pleasure."—London Public Opinion.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by constipation, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

By Taking

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

The Military Camp.

The military camp for this district begins at Gananoque to-morrow, the 18th. "C" troop of the 3rd Regiment of Cavalry and the Peterborough wing of the Durham Field Battery leave on the early Grand Trunk train in the morning for Port Hope, where they will join the respective corps before proceeding to camp. The cavalry troop will meet at the drill shed about half past five for the distribution of saddlery, etc., and will ride to the station. The Battery will assemble at the station. The cavalry troop will muster about 40 strong, Col. R. C. Rogers in command, with Capt. Stapleton, (quartermaster) veterinary Surgeon Stephenson, and Lieuts. H. W. Kent and D'Arcy Strickland. The right (Peterborough) division of the Battery will number about 25 men, under Lieut. Hughes.

Matrimonial.

This morning, June 17th, even at the early hour of seven o'clock there was quite a numerous attendance at St. John's church attracted by one of those ever interesting events—a wedding. The occasion was the marriage of Mr. Reginald Drayton, of Gore's Landing, son of Rev. P. T. Drayton, of Bramshaw, Devon, England, to Miss Agnes, third daughter of Mr. John Rubidge, son of the late Captain Rubidge, R.N. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. G. Davidson, curate-in-charge of St. John's. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Maggie Rubidge, and Mr. Wilbert Harris, of Gore's Landing, assisted the bridegroom. After the ceremony the newly wedded couple took the 8.30 G.T.R. express north, attended with the favorable and good wishes of their numerous friends. They will spend the honeymoon period in visiting the pioneer resorts of the north, and will return to take residence at Gore's Landing. The best wishes of a very wide circle of friends for a future of happiness, follow Mr. and Mrs. Drayton.

SUNDAY IN THE CHURCHES

Events of Special Importance in Church Circles.

St. Paul's Anniversary — The Baptist Sunday School Day—Church Affairs.

On Sunday the anniversary of St. Paul's Church was celebrated. Special sermons were preached morning and evening by Rev. Dr. Parsons, one of Toronto's leading divines, whose lucid explanations and earnest eloquence made his lengthy addresses appear brief enough to the large and interested congregations. In the evening there were a large number present from St. Andrew's Church, in which the usual services were withdrawn to allow the congregation to attend St. Paul's. The proceeds of the collection were devoted to the reduction of the church debt.

The music, too, was most appropriately selected and well rendered at both services. In connection with this anniversary a service of praise is to be held in the church to-night, at which Mr. J. S. Parker, organist, and the choir will present a choice programme of sacred vocal and instrumental music.

At the morning service Dr. Parsons spoke on the subject of "Righteousness," taking for his text Phillipians iii, 9: "And be found in Him, not having mine own righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." In the evening his text was from John xx. 31:—"But these are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the son of God; and that believing ye might have life through His name. The reverend speaker urged his hearers to read the Bible with the Holy Spirit in their hearts, that they might be able to see Christ speaking to them in all the holy writings. His address was particularly to believers, whom he exhorted to be "believing" believers in the truest sense of the word. Unbelieving believers were blocks on the wheels of the chariot of grace, said, Dr. Parsons asserted, did more to prevent the spread of religion than Satan himself. He dwelt upon the several points in the text and pointed out the duty of believers.

THE BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Sunday was the anniversary of the Baptist church Sunday school, and the occasion was celebrated by a special children's service in the morning. The pupils of the school occupied the front seats. Rev. P. C. Parker, pastor, and Mr. E. Duff, Superintendent, conducted the service, which consisted of Bible reading, singing, and a short address by the pastor. The children read passages from the Bible in concert, led by Mr. Duff, while the infant class, conducted by Miss Gilmour and Miss Ella Stratton, rendered several sacred Kindergarten songs.

Rev. Mr. Parker delivered a short address from Proverbs iii, 6:—

In all thy ways acknowledge Him and he shall direct thy paths.

Rev. Mr. Parker impressed upon the children the value of Solomon's advice, that if we acknowledge God, and only when we do so, will He direct our paths. To acknowledge God was to confess Him, to remember His presence with us at all times, and live according to the text:—"Thou God seest me." And we should also acknowledge God's promise to direct our paths, a promise which many forget in their times of trouble, while others, ready enough to cry unto Him in adversity, do not recognize Him in their seasons of prosperity. God should be acknowledged at all times and he could direct our paths.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Rev. Mr. Walker, of Kingston, who has offered himself for missionary work and been appointed to India, is expected to preach in the Baptist church next Sunday.

At the George street church Sunday morning Rev. M. L. Pearson took for his text the passage:—"And Peter said, I go fishing; and they said, we will go also." The text, in view of the fact that the close season for fishing had expired just the day before, struck at least one member of the congregation as being highly appropriate.

The Tuesday evening class of the Charlotte Street Church will meet in the school room at the usual hour, 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

In the absence of Rev. S. J. Sharey, the pastor, Rev. E. F. Torrance preached in the Charlotte Street Church Sunday morning, and Rev. G. H. Davis in the evening.

The Peterborough Association of the Baptist Church meets in Belleville June 25th and 26th. The delegates from this district are: Rev. P. Clifton Parker, Peterborough; Rev. J. B. Huff, Smith; Rev. W. Poer, Norwood; Rev. T. J. Bennett, Lakefield. Lay delegates—Deacon Curtis, M. R. Kidd, W. E. Matthews, Peterborough; Thos. Shields, Dummer; Deacon Garbutt, Lakefield; Thos. Bell, Selwyn. The women will also hold a special meeting, at which important work will be taken up. Among those to be present are Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Turnbull and Mrs. Aldridge, Peterborough; Mrs. Poer, Norwood; Mrs. Bennett, Lakefield.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

At the Saturday evening meeting for men Mr. Geo. Fuller gave an earnest address from the words "Looking unto Jesus." All felt its power and we are sure of good results in our work.

A profitable time was enjoyed at the beginners' Bible class Sunday morning.

We had the pleasure and profit of having with us at our gospel and song service last night, Rev. Dr. Parsons, Toronto, and Mr. Fuller, who addressed a large number of young men. Rev. Dr. Parsons gave us a very practical and pointed talk on the need of living Christ and making Him the attractive power in our work for young men; as far as we honored Christ so far would our work be a permanent success. Mr. Fuller followed with a short, telling appeal to all to accept Christ now. We are sure we shall have fruit from these messages from the Master.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet to-morrow (Tuesday) at 3 p.m. in the parlor to make final arrangements for the garden party, to be held on Friday evening at Mrs. Dixon's. A large attendance is requested.

Mr. T. S. Cole, Travelling Secretary, will be in town to-morrow on Association business.

—Mr. R. Brown, of the Commercial House, has imported a novel as well as a practical ornament. It is an automatic Hamilton bulldozer, which moves and sings with lifelike reality.

Committed for Trial.

It will be recollected that the coroner's jury, which investigated the cause of the death of Mr. Scott, brother of Mrs. John Fraser, 326 Downie street, who, as reported in the EXAMINER, was killed by a stone thrown by one Atkinson, committed the latter of the guilt of the assault. The friends, dissatisfied with the verdict, re-opened the case with the result that Atkinson has been committed to stand his trial, for the killing of Scott, at the fall assizes.

The Canadian Agency.

Mr. A. V. R. Young has received official notification that his appointment to the U. S. Consular agency in Peterborough by the late Democratic government, has been confirmed by the present Republican administration. Mr. Young is to be congratulated upon this assurance of the complete satisfaction with which he is filling the position.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

A Number of Sporting Events on Saturday.

The Second Eleven of the Cricket Club Win a Doubtful Victory—The Review Printers Downed at Baseball—Races at the Driving Park.

The return match between the second eleven of the Trinity College School and Peterborough cricket clubs was played Saturday, and the home team were virtually defeated, though nominally winning the match on the result of the first innings. Play ceased at 5.30, according to agreement, as the grounds had to be vacated for the ball game. The school boys were greatly annoyed at thus being deprived of the victory which certainly appeared inevitable had the match been finished.

The Peterborough eleven did not show up very well. Their bowling and fielding, in the second innings particularly, was decidedly poor, though at the last good form was displayed by Hamilton and Goldsmith. Strike also got a good score. Hon Ron took bowling honors in the first innings. In the second innings of the visiting eleven four wickets went down for two runs, and six for fourteen. The Maple Leafs very considerately allowed the remainder to run up the score to 78. They appeared to be "rattled," and could not protect their wickets successfully in the second innings.

Following is the score:—

Examiner Excelsior.

Our Typos Get the Big End of a 41 Score—The "Review" Men Outplayed at Every Point.

Ah there, Review! How about baseball? What about rubber balls, composition bats and leather-hunting now, eh?

The tremendous struggle between the EXAMINER and Review printers came off Saturday afternoon in the presence of an immense multitude of people. There must have been at least 75 spectators of the game. And still the country is safe. From about half past five to half past seven the rather one-sided battle was waged, and in spite of all predictions the ball wasn't lost in the next township nor the umpire killed. The result is very gratifying—to us. The Review employes may be able to sling type, but they lack the supreme qualification of being able to play ball. Most of them displayed a fondness for strikes—thereby showing that they were good union men—and nearly all the runs they scored were on errors. They were outplayed at every point. The EXAMINER sluggers cracked the ball almost every time it came within their reach, but their opponents' fielding was so "dizzy" that there was no danger of being put out except by accident. The EXAMINER battery did its work splendidly, and quite a number were struck out. The two reporters were in the pitcher's box for their respective teams. The Review nine hadn't a man who was able to stand up behind the bat and catch, and in this way they were handicapped also.

F. J. Turnbull umpired part of the game and Dr. Brennan the remainder. Time was called when both sides came to the mutual agreement that they were tired and had had enough. The score (without counting errors) is as follows:

Races at the Driving Park.

Saturday afternoon a couple of matched races were run at the Driving Park under Mr. John Newhall's management. There was a small crowd in attendance.

The first event was a matched farmers' race, $25 a side, between W. Whelan's "Remedy" and J. Bibbs's "Favorite." "Remedy" won the first, third and fourths heats, "Favorite" taking the second only, the race thus going to Whelan's horse.

The pacing race between R. Brown's "Maud B" and T. Pettitt's "Jerry," for $50 a side was won by the latter in three straight heats after an exciting contest. Time, 3.05, 3.03, 3.02.

The judges were Messrs. Croft, McNeil and Foy.

Lacrosse.

Following is the personnel of the teams of the Riverside lacrosse club which are to play a practice match on Riverside Park, on Wednesday evening, beginning at seven o'clock sharp:—

NOTES.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. and Æsculapius clubs are reminded of the meeting this evening in Central Park for the resuscitation of the old "Cruise." A good turn-out is desired.

This evening the Association and Ashburnham ball teams have a practice match on the P.A.A.A. grounds.

The Line Opened.

The Chemong Lake line was opened for traffic to-day. The Belleville trains are made to supply this service also. Trains leave Peterborough for Chemong at 8.30 and 5.30. It is the intention of the Grand Trunk Company to shortly establish a steam line between Chemong and Bridgenorth. The line will doubtless do a good business, several passengers leaving this morning for Bobcaygeon, taking the boat at Chemong after leaving the train.

"My father, at about the age of fifty, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor, the hair began coming, and, in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—P. J. Collins, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Excursion to Lindsay.

The steamer Cruiser will run a cheap excursion from Lakefield to Lindsay and return, on Tuesday, 25th June, boat to leave the wharf at 8 a. m. Return fare, $1.00; single fare, 75c. For information apply to any of the agents, or S. HEDGEWORTH, manager, Lakefield. d1289d

A Word in Season.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Please allow me, through your columns, to state to all who contemplate going to Toronto by the St. Andrew's excursion on Thursday, the 20th inst., that it would be a favour if as many as possible were provided with tickets not later than the evening before. Those who cannot decide about going until the morning of the excursion can, of course, be provided with tickets by the committee at the C. P. R. station. Indications are that the excursion will be well patronized by our townspeople, and all along the line, and to avoid hurry and delay at the last moment some of the committee will canvass the town during the week with tickets.

Respectfully yours,
CHAS. CAMERON,
President.

Police Court.

MONDAY, June 17.

Pat. Dwyer, of Bobcaygeon, was found driving aimlessly about the streets about three o'clock Sunday morning by the police, and taken in charge. He was fined $2.

The liquor case against R. R. Hamilton was further enlarged till to-morrow.

An assault case of an assinine origin was settled by the plaintiff withdrawing his charge and paying the costs. On the day of the Examiners picnic one of the young men while dancing had his legs kicked out from under him by a companion, and he received a tumble. The two parties came to an amicable settlement without the adjudication of the magistrate.

Well up in the Front.

L. Potvin, pastry cook and confectioner, No. 500 George street, has secured the services of a first class baker who has had a long experience in Toronto. Special attention given to getting up wedding cakes and fine pastry. If you want a good article give Potvin a call. Daily supplies of bread, cakes, buns and tarts. Ice cream in bulk or by the dish during the season. 6ood

Is Marriage a Failure?

The question is repeatedly asked and urged—"Is marriage a failure"? Marriage is certainly a failure in those households where Hawley Bros'. prime teas are not regularly used. The irritation excited by drinking weak, tasteless decoctions called tea, is absolutely absent where the fine teas sold by Hawley Bros. are used. They make a specialty of fine teas, do an immense trade, buy in large quantities and therefore at low figures. Thus the customer gets the finest brands and blends of the freshest, most fragrant teas, at the lowest prices. The characteristics of Hawley Bros'. teas are strength, fine flavour and cheapness of price. Those wishing the choicest teas should remember that Hawley Bros'. is the place, and also that what is said about teas applies to their coffees, and remember also that Hawley Bros'. is the place to get bargains in glassware. dw

Baptist Sunday School Excursion and Picnic.

The three Baptist Sunday schools of the town will run an excursion to Jacob's Island on Pidgeon lake, July 9th, via the Peterborough and Chemong Railroad and the steamer "Dominion" and palace barge "Paragon," of Lindsay. Return tickets from Peterborough, adults 60 cents, children 30 cents; from Bridgenorth, adults 30 cents, children 15 cents. The Y.M.C.A. band will be in attendance. 6d136w

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices, is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

"A Spring Message"
FROM THE NEW FIRM OF
H. LeBRUN & Co.
Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

a past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices given us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fleet selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MOSE SUITS, BETTER FABRICS, FINER SUITS than were ever handled before.

Special values in Fine STRIPE OVERCOATS, and Fine Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department crowded to overflowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment in an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and tailors. Besides perfect fit and first-class workmanship, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SKIRT WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HANDKERCHIEFS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

THE "HERETICS'" APPEAL.

SINLESS PERFECTION DISCUSSED BY PRESBYTERIANS.

The General Assembly Grapples With the Galt Heresy Case—The Methodist Conference—Toronto Topics.

TORONTO, June 18.—The appeal of William Henry, David Caldwell, James K. Cranston, John D. Cranston, Alexander R. Cranston, Lizzie Morton and Mrs. Alexander Kay, against the action of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston in dismissing their appeal against the decision of the Guelph Presbytery in sustaining the action and decision of the session of Knox Church, Galt, occupied the General Assembly nearly all of yesterday. Many interested parties from Galt and Guelph were present. The appeal is in reference to what is known as "The Galt Heresy" as to sinless perfection of believers on earth. The minutes of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston were read. They declared "that the doctrinal position of the appellants is not in harmony with the subordinate standards of the Presbyterian Church and the Word of God, and that as the appellants declare that they are determined to teach the doctrinal views they at present hold, until convinced that they are mistaken, the synod resolves that the action of the Presbytery of Guelph be sustained."

James K. Cranston, John D. Cranston and Mrs. Kay were heard in their own behalf, the first named defending their belief as progressive sanctification and Mrs. Kay stating: "I find that I have the victory of sin, and that with a pure, clean heart, possessed by the Holy Ghost, I can take even a tongue-threatening without restatement." Rev. Alexander Jackson of Galt Presbyterian Church gave an exhaustive resume of the case, tracing its development for four years. Dr. Middlemiss, the representative of Guelph Presbytery, said that the brethren and sisters were not excommunicated. All they desired to prevent was the dissemination of a dangerous doctrine. Rev. Dr. McLaren, representing the synods of Toronto and Kingston, followed and the debate was adjourned until to-day. The other business transacted yesterday was the choice of Ottawa for next year's meeting of the General Assembly, the appointment of the committee to draft loyal addresses to the Queen and the Governor-General, and the consideration and discussion of the report of the French evangelization in Canada.

Yesterday morning at the Methodist Conference held at the Broadway Tabernacle the report from the Statistical Committee was presented. It showed that there were 196 ministers in active service in the Toronto Conference. There was a complete membership of 34,691, an increase of 1693 over last year. The increase in ministers' stipends was $7000. There are 77 circuits in the conference paying less than $600 per annum; 53 circuits pay less than $500 and 26 less than $400. Rev. Dr. Eby, a returned Japan missionary, contradicted any impression which might exist that the followers of Buddha were falling off. In Tokio a $600,000 temple had been dedicated to Buddha; in Yedda, at a cost well nigh fabulous, a temple had been erected to Buddha. All of which went to show the necessity for mission work in Japan. A deputation from the Presbyterian General Assembly was introduced and fraternal sentiments expressed. In the afternoon the delegates visited the Whitby Ladies' College.

Three boys, ranging in aged from 8 to 10, appeared before the Police Magistrate yesterday charged with breaking into the cigar store, 167 Queen-street west on Sunday afternoon and stealing cigars and cigarettes. Rom was sent to the Reformatory for three years. Willis to jail for five days. O'Brien was discharged. George S. Nelson, proprietor of the Model Lodging House in Lombard-street, and his wife were convicted of keeping a house of ill-fame. They were each fined $100 or six months' imprisonment.

Divorce Facilities in England.

LONDON, June 17.—The prospects of the bill which Mr. Hunter, M.P., has introduced into the House of Commons as regards additional facilities for divorce on the part of women do not seem to wear a very cheery look. Mr. Hunter proposes that a woman should be entitled to petition for a dissolution of marriage on the grounds of her husband's adultery or of his desertion without reasonable cause for four years, instead of, as at present, adultery and desertion or cruelty combined. There are no doubt arguments on the side of Mr. Hunter's proposal, and strong arguments too. It is feared, however, that his bill will have but a poor chance in the struggle with so many other arrears of legislation.

Ambitious City Boys.

HAMILTON, June 17.—The test of a vote out of pumps at the beach commenced to-day at 11.30. Mr. Worswick of Guelph and Mr. Reid of this city are in charge. The test will consist of forty-eight hours' straight away run, and six hours' pumping over the standpipe.

James Palmer, a Newark (N.J.) attorney, was married this afternoon to Miss Lizzie Wilson, youngest daughter of John Wilson, Rev. Dr. Laidlaw officiating.

George and Peter Williams (colored), father and son, were arrested early this morning while carrying a number of recently killed chickens. They subsequently admitted stealing the fowls from a farmer named Hughes.

Refused to Interfere.

LONDON, June 17.—Home Secretary Matthews, to whom a petition signed by many thousands of workmen was recently addressed praying for the release of George Harrison, now serving a five-year term of imprisonment for complicity in the Trafalgar-square riots, has given his decision refusing to interfere with the sentence.

The Brandon Conservatory.

BRANDON, June 17.—The fates now in progress here are in celebration of the Centenary of the Royal House of Saxony. It is the Albertine branch of the ruling House of Wettin, which counts amongst this eldest reigning families in Europe. Early in the 12th century it gave an Emperor to Germany.

WITH CASH AND A PISTOL.

PAYMASTER DAVID MAY MADE A BOLD DASH FOR EUROPE.

He Fell Among Other Thieves in Montreal—Betrayed to the Police He Resists Arrest But is Overpowered and Jailed.

MONTREAL, June 17.—Detective Arcand of the Montreal police force made a clever arrest on Saturday afternoon. He was on duty at the Grand Trunk depot in the morning when the New York train came in and noticed among the passengers a young man looking right and left as if he was afraid of being spotted. Arcand thought this suspicious, so he made up his mind to follow up his movements. The young man proceeded to the Balmoral Hotel, where he registered as James Knox, New York. He deposited his valise and received a check for it. Then he went to another hotel near the Dalhousie-square depot, where he registered his name as Edwards. Returning to the central part of the city by by-streets, still followed by Arcand, he went to Mose's pawn shop, in Notre Dame-street, and bought a revolver. Then he went to the office of the Beaver line and purchased a ticket for Europe. Detective Arcand thought he was intending to commit suicide.

The young man, whose name is David May, went down on board the Lake Winnipeg, where Arcand accosted him. After some conversation he gave himself away and said he was a book clerk of Messrs. Amos Dotterer & Son, brick-makers, of Point Breeze, N.J., which is about ten miles from Philadelphia, where he made off with about $40000 of his employers' money, which he, as paymaster, had drawn on Friday to pay the hands. He begged for mercy and for the love of God to let him go, as there was $10000 at the control office if they would let him off and say nothing. On being searched $3400 was found on his person. Chief Hughes at once telegraphed to the Chief of Police, Philadelphia, about the matter and the following reply was received:

"Hold David May; charge, bringing stolen money into the Dominion. George Dotterer, his employer, from whom he stole between three and four thousand dollars, will leave by first train, accompanied by Detective Murray, for your city to prosecute him. Take charge of all money and effects."

While Detective Arcand was with May on board the Lake Winnipeg, Detective Kellert came up on the same cars. It is stated that May, after leaving the Balmoral, went to a saloon in Griffintown, where he got into conversation with three well known thieves, who speedily found out that he was an absconder with a large amount of money in his possession. They so worked upon his fears that he consented to give them $25 each if they would secure him from arrest until he could leave for Europe, for which place he had bought a ticket. They took him to the C.P.R. hotel, near Dalhousie-square station, where they left him, he registering under the name of James Edwards, Quebec. Growing suspicions of his protectors' good intentions he asked the proprietor of the hotel if he knew where he could buy a revolver. This and the man's nervous behavior aroused the landlord's suspicions and he called in Detective Arcand, who could see nothing wrong in his behavior. He then left the hotel.

The thieves returned, and finding their prey had escaped them, they went to Detective Kellert and told him that there was an American absconder in town with a large amount of money. Kellert found him on board the Lake Winnipeg with Arcand, as already stated. It was after a considerable struggle, in which the revolver played a prominent part, that they were able to take him to the Central station. There was a rumor that the amount of defalcation was $21,000, but the telegram received from Philadelphia places it at between $3000 and $4000, and that amount is undoubtedly correct.

Detective Kellert went to the Balmoral hotel yesterday and searched May's valise, when he found $15.75 therein, together with a new suit of clothes and a quantity of shirts, collars, cuffs, ties, etc., which May had bought preparatory to his projected ocean voyage. May stated, after he was arrested, that when he arrived here on Saturday morning he was on the point of going back, and he would have done so had he thought his creditors would not have proceeded criminally against him. Upon reflecting, however, that they might put him into jail, he finally decided to go to England, and after getting back what he had spent, to make a restitution of the whole amount.

HE HAD TO DISGORGE.

A Hotel Cook Robs his Chef of $1000 and is Tracked to Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 17.—Mr. Hoey, who runs the famous Holloway cottages at Long Branch, has an English chef who by dint of hard carving had amassed the sum of $1000. One of his sub cooks got the $1000 within easy reach and suddenly discovered that Montreal was a nice city to live in. While on his way here he passed through New York, and meeting there a mutual friend of his and the chef's they put in a good time together, the cook paying the bills. A few days afterwards, the mutual friend learned of the disappearance of the chef's $1000. He immediately surmised where it had gone, and also remembered seeing among the cook's possessions a railway ticket for Montreal. He informed the chef of his knowledge of the cook's whereabouts, and, aided by a letter of introduction from Inspector Byrnes of New York, to Mr. Woodruff of the Balmoral Hotel, they came on to Montreal. Mr. Woodruff called on Detective Trompe, and the trio scoured the town with no success. Finally the chef and his friend discovered the cook in Notre Dame-street, and the friend immediately seized him by the throat. The cook pleaded for mercy and offered to turn over what remained of his spoils, some $400, if they would let him go free. The offer was accepted, and the chef and his friend left for New York four hours after his arrival.

BURNT TO DEATH.

An Intoxicated Housemaker Accidentally Sets Fire to Himself.

MONTREAL, June 17.—E. C. Morris, aged 64 years, was found burnt to death in a closet on St. Maurice-street this morning. It is supposed that he had some matches in his pocket, and as he was intoxicated at the time he accidentally set fire to himself.

In the Court of Queen's Bench this morning Judge Church sentenced William Quelch, the Yankee thief, for stealing a watch in Victoria-square, to five years in the penitentiary, and James W. Morgenat, the confidence man, who was also charged with forgery, to seven years.

C. J. Doherty, Q.C., moved for arrest of judgment on behalf of John Hennessy, found guilty of indecent assault on Melina Roberts, on the ground that one of the jurors got through a window and went home during trial. Judge Church fixed the case for Wednesday, and in the meantime the juror Clark has admitted going home.

Sir Wemyss Going Abroad.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Erastus Wiman will find it impossible to fulfil his engagement to speak at the farmers' demonstration at the Canadian Chautauqua on Dominion Day. Important business affairs will necessitate his departure for England on June 27. John Charlton, M.P., and Hon. Wm. McDougall have been requested by Mr. Wiman to speak in his place.

CRONIN'S GORY CLOTHES.

SAID TO HAVE BEEN SENT ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

It Was the Plan to Have the Doctor's Body Found in London—An Important Arrest in Winnipeg—The Prisoner's Story.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Dr. Cronin's blood-stained clothes are probably in London, Eng. They were shipped, it is claimed, from Chicago to London and consigned to some unknown conspirator on the other side of the Atlantic. This remarkable statement was made to the police yesterday by a man who claims to have full knowledge of what he is talking about. According to this unknown informant, Dr. Cronin's clothes were taken from his dead body and placed in a box, which had been provided for the purpose. In this box were placed all the clothes worn by the doctor at the time of his death, his watch and chain, and, in fact, every article of wearing apparel found on his person. This box was expressed to a man in New York city, and by him sent to London. It was first sent to New York as a precautionary measure in the event that any question should arise or any attempt be made to trace the clothes outside of Chicago.

In a few weeks at an opportune moment, Dr. Cronin's body was to have been found on the banks of the Thames River, England. The body which was to have been found would have been in an advanced state of decomposition. In every material particular this body would have corresponded exactly with that of P. H. Cronin, who suddenly disappeared from Chicago on the night of May 4, 1889, who was in Toronto a few days later, and who several days after that arrived in London. Upon him personal papers were to be found which would have revealed the motive of a murder and branded him as a British spy and Irish traitor. Such was to have been the denouement of the Cronin mystery.

The Winnipeg Arrest.

WINNIPEG, June 17.—An important arrest was made last night by the Winnipeg police in the person of Martin Burke, alias Cooper, alias Delaney, who is supposed to be one of the principals in the Cronin murder. Burke posted suspiciously in getting on a Canadian Pacific Railway train, which led to his arrest. He had a ticket to Liverpool. On arriving at the police station he was completely rattled and made contradictory statements. The Chicago officials look upon it as an important arrest and have wired the police here not to release Burke on any account. Burke says he will fight extradition and has secured legal advice.

WHAT BURKE SAYS.

The Prisoner Interviewed in His Cell—Dr. Cronin's Last in His Veins.

WINNIPEG, June 17.—Martin Burke, the man arrested here last night for complicity in the Cronin murder, was seen in his cell to-night by a representative of the United Press. He is an athletic looking fellow and has a scar on the front part and left side of his head. His face expresses great determination and he looks like a fellow with sufficient nerve to assist in carrying out the details of the foul deed of which he is suspected.

In reply to questions he gave his name as Martin Burke and said he was from Chicago and on his way to the Old Country. On it being pointed out to him that this was not the way to the Old Country Burke seemed confused and after some hesitation said he was just taking a look around before going. He further stated he had left Ireland four years ago, proceeding straight to Chicago, where he was employed by the corporation. He knew Cronin to see him, but was not personally acquainted with him.

Burke further stated that he was not a member of the Clan-na-Gael and would claim British protection and refuse to go back with the Chicago officers.

Burke in purchasing a ticket to Liverpool gave his name as W. J. Cooper. He does not look like an innocent man who was outraged over his arrest, but takes it as a matter of course. He arrived here on Saturday night and put up at a second class hotel. He did not register.

In his valise was found a felt hat supposed to have belonged to Dr. Cronin. The name inside the hat appeared to be blotted out with the aid of chemicals. The chief of police sought to restore the letters and characters to correspond with Cronin's name which was clearly distinguished. The prisoner admitted this afternoon that he has a brother in Chicago, so that there is now little doubt he is one of the famous Williams Brothers.

Burke's solicitor, in response to a question, said the intention was to re-assist to the bitter end any efforts to extradite the prisoner. The Chicago officer is expected to arrive at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Said to be Williams.

CHICAGO, June 17.—It is stated by the police that the man arrested at Winnipeg yesterday is Williams who rented the Carlson cottage and had the furniture moved from No. 117 Clark-street to the cottage.

Fitzgerald Talks.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 17.—John Fitzgerald, president of the Irish National League of America, said last evening regarding the Cronin murder: "Has it been absolutely proved that Cronin is dead at all? Many persons are not satisfied with the identification as sworn to at the coroner's inquest. There was abundant room for doubt. But, admitting the murder, it seems evident, even from the wild evidence given at the inquest and furnished by the newspapers, that the Clan-na-Gael as a body had nothing to do with Cronin's death or disappearance. The charge against Alexander Sullivan, especially in the murder has not a single fact to sustain it. I have not the slightest doubt of Mr. Sullivan's complete exoneration. Unless some good and sufficient reason can be adduced that will in some degree explain why any Irishman should imbrue his hands in the blood of Dr. Cronin, the theory that he was murdered by men in the pay of the English secret service is as plausible as any." Mr. Fitzgerald suggested that if the English secret agents committed the crime, the object was to create a public outcry against Irish sympathizing and to damage the whole Irish movement. Mr. Fitzgerald said that the Tory scheme to destroy the National League would prove a failure.

FLOOD AND CYCLONE.

Kansas, Indiana and Virginia Suffer Severely from Wind and Rain.

ST. LOUIS, June 17.—[illegible] the Kansas wind and ra[illegible]ave, fifteen miles east of Fort Scott, on the Wichita and Western Railway, was swept away and two women and four children were drowned. Uniontown, which is a place of 600 inhabitants, is in the midst of a thickly settled country, and it is feared the loss of life is even heavier than reported. All the wires are down and nothing can be learned definitely.

In Fort Scott, Lamb & Mead's ice dam burst, causing the water in Buck Run to rise at the rate of three feet an hour, carrying away several houses and the bridge across Sixth-street. The part of Fort Scott known as Belltown is entirely under water. Several bridges were washed out, and trains were stopped on both sides of Fort Scott. The Kansas, Nebraska and Dakota track is under water for nine miles east. The Missouri road is badly damaged for about 15,000 feet, ten miles north of Fort Scott. All the night in the bottom in Buck Fort Scott spread out. At last accounts the water had stopped rising, and if no more rains falls it will rapidly subside.

An Indiana Cyclone.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 17.—A cyclone passed through this town yesterday afternoon, tearing down trees and unroofing houses along its path. Loss $50,000.

Hail Storm in West Virginia.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., June 17.—A heavy storm passed over the southwestern part of Berkeley county last evening. A pile of wind three feet great damage was followed by a terrible thunder storm. This was followed by a heavy hail storm, that added greatly to the damage. The hail stones fell in some places three or four inches deep. Crops and trees were injured. Live stock was badly bruised and in many instances animals were killed. Several persons and boys were visited by the storm.

FATHER CROTTY'S CHURCH CLOSED.

Preparations for the Shah of Persia's Reception in England.

LONDON, June 17.—In his church at Knockrea, Ireland, yesterday, Father Crotty announced to his congregation, amid a crowded house, that the church has been closed by the order of Bishop O'Dwyer. This course is taken on account of the persistency with which Father Crotty's former worshippers now boycott him. For several weeks past the only attendant at the services has been William Ryan, who is himself the subject of a merciless boycott, and is always seated alone in the great gallery of the church, while the police who were sent to protect him marched to and fro in the aisles.

Getting Ready for the Shah.

LONDON, June 17.—Three Irish lords have been ordered to Skeerness on July 1 to attend the Shah of Persia on his arrival. He is to be received with royal honors and great preparations are in progress for the event.

A Sensation in London Clubdom.

LONDON, June 17.—The committee of London clubdom is a-tarring slip by the engraver of The Illustrated London News in drawing pictures of the Venerian. Twenty-five dollars cannot buy a copy tonight. In London newspapers are scurrying all over town calling back copies from all the newsagents. In all reckoned circles the affair has been stopped by telegraph. But the copies sent off by the American mail left before the blunder was discovered.

Her Head Still Missing.

LONDON, June 17.—The police for the past week have been searching for the undiscovered portions of the remains of the Fisher woman. They dragged the Thames at Battersea Park and had with them the dog that rendered valuable service in finding those portions of the remains that were discovered in Whitehall. The week's search has not been rewarded with the head of the unfortunate woman is still missing.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, June 18.—The heart of the careful housekeeper, who is already beginning to think of the approaching fruit-canning season, will grow heavy when she learns that the price of sugar has again gone up. There is a strong probability that the market has gone up to stay up for at least a year. Prices advanced ¼ of a cent on Saturday. Three causes have combined to produce the very rapid advance of the market during the past few weeks. They are: The small stocks, the great increase in the consumption and the existence in Europe of a syndicate which has got hold of a large quantity of best sugar.

Flour—Trade is very dull and prices are purely nominal.

Wheat—The market continues strong and prices firm, with little movement. No. 2 spring is held on the Midland at 96 cents. No. 1 hard is unchanged at $1.08 and $1.09.

Barley—Nothing doing. Buyers offer 53 cents for No. 2.

Oats—Quiet. Good mixed are quoted at 30½ and 31c. on track.

Peas—Quiet and steady. At outside points 53c. is offered.

Bran—The market is steadier, but little is doing. Quotations are $10 to $10.50 on track.

Butter—The demand is moderate with less liberal receipts. Choice rolls sold at 13 and 14 cents.

Cheese—Receipts are improving and prices remain unchanged at 9 to 10 cents.

Lard—There is a moderate trade. Canadian pails sold at 11 and 11½c. and American at 10 and 10½c.

Eggs—There is a fair trade doing, with prices steady at 11½ cents.

Potatoes—The demand is about equal to the supply, and prices continue steady at 35 to 40c. on track and 50c. out of store.

St. Lawrence market was dull yesterday morning. Very little was offered and there was no change in prices. Receipts of hay were small, and prices steady at $13 to $15. No straw was offered.

On the street one load of barley sold at 50 cents. On call 55 cents was bid for No. 2 red.

Oswego reports: Barley quiet and unchanged. No. 1 Canadian held at 70c. No. 2 extra held at 60c.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports: Floating cargoes—Wheat and corn nil. Cargoes on passage—Wheat firmer, held higher; corn steady. Mark Lane—English wheat firmer, foreign tarn dearer; corn steady; flour firm. French country markets steadier. Liverpool—Spot wheat dull; corn fair inquiry. No. 1 Cal. 6s 9 1-2d; No. 2 Cal. 6s 9 1-2d; both 1-2d dearer. Weather in England fine. English farmers' deliveries of wheat during past week 41,765 qrs.; average price 28s 6d was 28s 9d. India shipments of wheat during past week—to U.K. 40,000 qrs.; to continent nil.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports: Wheat, quiet; demand, poor; holders offer moderately. Corn, steady; fair demand. Spring wheat, 7s 1-2d and 7s 11-2d; red winter, 6s 4 1-2d and 6s 5d; No. 1 Cal., 6s 9d and 6s 10d. Corn, 5s 8½d. Peas, 6s 4d. Pork, 62s. Lard, 34s 9d. Bacon, long and short cleared, 31s and 32s 6d. Tallow, 26s. Cheese, white and colored, 47s.

THE CHEESE MARKETS.

Utica reports: There was considerable activity in the cheese markets yesterday and better prices were realized in consequence of the improvement at New York and

The Daily Examiner.

TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1889.

Mr. Rutherford's Statement Contradicted.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—My attention has been directed to an assertion made by Mr. Thos. Rutherford, at a meeting of the public School Board, as reported in your issue of the 5th inst. Mr. Rutherford is reported to have said that "the Roman Catholics followed out this principle (giving contracts only to Roman Catholics) and if it hadn't been that Mr. A. Rutherford had been so much below the others on the St. Joseph's Hospital contract it would not have got it. The other contractors would have been given a preference of $500, if they had combined against him."

I am very much surprised indeed that Mr. Thos. Rutherford should make so unfounded a charge, and one so well calculated to disturb the harmony so happily existing between all classes and creeds, and those with widely differing views. He is certainly the last man from whom such a charge might be expected by those against whom it has been made.

Now, sir, the facts are: That of all the public buildings erected in town by the Roman Catholics, the work was invariably awarded to the lowest tenderer, without regard to his creed or nationality. In the case of the St. Joseph's hospital, the contract was cheerfully and promptly awarded to Mr. Arthur Rutherford, who, I believe, is a full cousin of Mr. Thos. Rutherford's, his being the lowest tender, and the excavation and foundation of the stone for same were let in the same way to Protestants. A few years ago the work of building a Separate school-house in the South Ward was done by the same gentleman.

The present Convent was also built by a Protestant contractor, and the plastering of the Catholic church was done by Mr. Whitelaw. The other public or quasi public buildings that appear to my mind just now recently erected by Roman Catholics, are the City Hotel block, erected by Messrs. Garvey and Dolan and buildings erected by Mr. Edward Phelan in connection with his hotel, and would you be surprised to learn that the redoubtable Thomas himself had the superintendence or the contract of all these buildings? The architect in all cases was also a Protestant.

Now, Sir, when you consider that for all these jobs there were Catholic competitors, and that it would be a very easy matter for the parties named to find as competent a man, to say the least, as Mr. Thomas Rutherford, it will be readily admitted by all fair minded people that the assertion made by him was entirely groundless, and that he, above all others, had no reason to make it.

So far as objecting to giving the contract to Mr. Rogers is concerned, I have nothing to say, but that the Board is palpably right in not giving an important contract to a person with whom they would be very likely to have trouble, but to put it on the ground of religion is very absurd, as Mr. Rogers is not Catholic enough to support the Separate Schools or Protestant enough to support the Nicholls hospital, his sole evidently being to get off with paying as little as he possibly can to the municipal or charitable institutions, whether Protestant or Catholic matters not.

Thanking you for your valuable space,

I am, yours, &c.,

Young's Point.

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Saturday last a drive of 12,000 pieces belonging to the Strickland Company, was cut loose, and in eight hours the last stick passed over the dam. This is a specially rapid trip, as the foreman, Mr. S. Bourne, was assisted by only nine men.

The gentleman's drive of 70,000 logs, mixed with another drive belonging to the Rathbun Company, have reached Clear Lake narrows, and will arrive here in few days, where they will be sorted. H. Rogers, boss.

The pathmasters of this district have their men at work and the roads have been greatly improved. The Bethlah road is being opened up to the shore of Clear Lake.

The river is higher than it has been during any other time this spring, and the mills are shut down in consequence. The boys would like to obtain permission to fish during the last few days of the close season.

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense embracing of features, a firemen's parade, special grants for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live articles, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BEAMISH, secretary of committee. dtf

Gentlemen with Bald Heads.

What remarks as a rule attend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is just the fault but his misfortune. There is not always this consequence, but a person with his scalp unprotected is more liable to diseases of the head. What a gentleman loses his hair he should take immediate steps to have it replaced with an artificial covering. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is slow about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Dartmouth, of Toronto, will be at Parker's Hotel on June 25 and 26, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, while in one hour the things required. The least you can do is to call and examine the article whether you buy or not. Reputation enhances these and you cannot afford to be without one. dw

Separate Schools—Three Lies Nailed.

Did the Mowat Government Pass an Act Compelling all Roman Catholics in Ontario to send their Children to Separate Schools?—They Did Not—The Law Plainly Stated.

(From the Toronto Globe, June 4th.)

But some may say that the law is not clearly enough expressed. We think it is. Surely it would be absurd to clasp and change the wording of acts merely because some meddlesome and some grievance-hunters allege, without offering any proof, that acts do not mean what they seem very clearly to signify.

Again, it may be said that clause 2 of section 43 might well be changed so as to bestow an appearance of treating Roman Catholics as probably separate school supporters. We do not think that the suggested change would do either harm or good, but there is a constitutional reason for maintaining the provision that a list treating Roman Catholics as prima facie separate school supporters should be sent in to the clerk of the municipality. Under the law which existed at confederation the separate school trustees were authorized to furnish such a list. For convenience sake the duty has been thrown on the assessor, and the letter and spirit of the B.N.A. act forbid the changing of the school laws in a manner detrimental, or even apparently detrimental, to the separate schools. The relegation to the assessor, who is commonly a Protestant, of a task formerly required of the separate school trustee has in no wise changed the law, which is now the very same law that has prevailed ever since Dr. Ryerson's time.

In order that Mr. Forbes may obtain complete understanding of the recklessness in statement manifested by some who have lost either their wits or their regard for truth in excitement over the "No Popery" cry, we will now give two more instances. At the Barrie district meeting of the Methodist church last week only two representatives voted against an anti-Jesuit Estates act resolution which concluded thus:—

"And, further, that we condemn the special encouragement given to the French language in many of the public schools of this province, and all legislation that aids the Romish church in separating her people from the public schools, then the clause is a gross falsehood, disgraceful to every man who concurred in it either ignorantly or with knowledge of the facts. Hon. G. W. Ross, who found in existence when he took office the system which Dr. Ryerson had established, and under which the teaching of English was not compulsory in French school districts, has effected such reforms that English is taught in every school in Ontario. There are 5,500 schools in the province. In 5,023 of these no instruction is given in any language but English. In 112 instruction is given partly in French, and in 14 instruction is given partly in German. Only two teachers out of 7,594 are reported by the inspectors, after a strict examination, as inefficient in teaching English, and one of these is assistant to a teacher expert in our language. If the Barrie Methodist meeting had been fair they would have warmly commended Mr. Ross for the great reform his energy has brought about in this matter. By condemning legislation that "aids the Romish church in separating her people from the public schools," the Barrie meeting either condemned the B. N. A. act and its fathers, or instructed what is false against the Ontario government.

One more instance for Mr. Forbes. J. L. Hughes, Secretary of the Orange Grand Lodge of B.N.A., which could not muster up pluck last week to demand the disallowance of the Jesuit Estates Act, said the other day at a public meeting:—

"The Ministry of Education is to be congratulated upon having ordered for use in the common schools a series of readings from the Old and New Testaments, together with a brief form of prayer. The objections to the introduction of the Bible in the schools raised by laymen and by not a few ministers are hardly worthy of great weight. The difficulties raised in this connection are such as Christians of every denomination have ever agreed to accept at the plain Word of God. * * * The work has been prepared with the greatest care and cannot fail to command itself to parents."

We will conclude with a few words to the many sensible, moderate, well-informed, honest and patriotic men who give to the anti-Jesuit Estate Act agitation the large degree of strength and respectability which it possesses. We make them to observe that concerning Rome, natural ignorance by reason of absence from it, and knowledge by reason of study, are both of Dr. J. L. Hughes are being spread abroad in the name of anti-Jesuitism and Protestantism. We ask them to consider well whether the whole agitation will not be brought into disrepute and get into failure if numbers be not found to dissociate the public to discriminate between just complaints against the Ultramontane influence and contemptible cries that have no foundation at all.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and,

By Taking

three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

Something of a Tale.

Some like to read a tale, some to hear a tale, but those who wish to see a tail, "as is a tail," should visit the studio of Elcome, the taxidermist, who is "setting up" for Mr. R. C. Strickland, Lakefield, a peacock's tail with a height of five feet six inches and a spread of nine feet. Very seldom has a chance the expanse of vanity and feather-headed, or rather feather-tailed, display adorned the terminal territory of a peacock's vertebral column.

You've heard it, thought of it, now try it, and prove that M. R. Kidd sells No. 1 groceries at lowest prices. dw

The Keen of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. Ask for it. dw

Baptist Sunday School Excursion and Picnic.

The three Baptist Sunday schools of the town will run an excursion to Jacob's Island on Pidgeon lake, July 9th, via the Peterborough and Chemong Railroad and the steamer "Dominion" and palace barge "Paragon," of Lindsay. Return tickets from Peterborough, adults 60 cents, children 30 cents; from Bridgenorth, adults 30 cents, children 15 cents. The Y.M.C.A. band will be in attendance. 6d130w

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The General-Secretary returns thanks for three handsome bouquets of flowers from Misses Aldridge and Hutchison and Mrs. J. Reden, for the Y.M.C.A. parlor.

The following speaks for itself:—

The International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations, 40 East Twenty-third street, New York City, addresses the following:—

June 6th, 1889.

To Young Men's Christian Associations.—

In the terrible disaster at Johnstown, Penn., the Young Men's Christian Association of that city lost everything. Two of its directors are among the missing. No assistance for at least a year can be expected from the citizens of Johnstown. Not less than $3,000 is needed by the Association at once, so that it may open rooms, meet its obligations, and continue its work. The General Secretary, Mr. S. L. Herbert, also lost everything he had.

The Committee is persuaded that the Associations of the country will gladly render this financial assistance which the terribly demoralized condition of affairs makes so indispensable.

Cyrus Bradford, Chairman

Richard C. Morse, General Secretary.

The General Secretary has already received $200 towards this worthy object. If there are citizens who would like to contribute the same will be thankfully received and acknowledged up to Saturday 22nd inst. and forwarded to the proper parties.

The Devotional Prayer Meeting Committee will meet as usual at 8 p.m. in the rooms.

The Service of Praise.

A Fine Musical Service in St. Paul's Church—A Select and Well Rendered Programme Presented.

The Service of Praise in St. Paul's Church last night, on the occasion of the anniversary of the church, did not attract a very large audience, for some reason or other. A carefully prepared programme was presented under Mr. J. C. Parker's conductorship. The anthems were sung by a choir of 35 voices, well balanced in all the parts, and every number was well rendered indeed. The chorus comprised members of St. Paul's and other church choirs, who have been diligently rehearsing for this service. Mr. W. H. Dingle, organist of the George street church, executed three organ solos in an artistic and skilful manner. The soloists were Mrs. Main, Mrs. Jones, Miss Hall, Miss Cameron and Mr. Alfred Parker, of Toronto, uncle of Mr. J. S. Parker. All the singers did their best to please and succeeded in leaving a favorable impression on the audience.

Following is the programme complete as rendered:

Anthem—"Send Out Thy Light".....Gounod
Organ solo—"The Harmonious Blacksmith".....Handel
Mr. Dingle.
Sacred Song—"Jubilate".....Cousens
Miss Hall.
{Recit.—"Who will Rise Up".....Whitfield
{Aria—"The Wicked One like the Troubled Waters".....Whitfield
Mr. Alfred Parker.
{Recit.—"He was Cast Off".....Handel
{Aria—"But Thou Didst not Leave".....Handel

Mrs. Jones.
Sacred song—"King David's Lament".....White
Miss Hall.
Sacred song—"Now the Shades".....Durand
Mrs. Main.
Vesper hymn.....Beethoven

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

Great credit is due Mr. J. S. Parker, the musical director, for his indefatigable efforts to provide a high-class moral musical entertainment for the public. Mr. Parker is himself an accomplished and enthusiastic musician, whose whole delight is in training the large choir of which he is the head and who is always anxious to assist in or manage musical services such as that of Monday night. He played all the accompaniments in his well-known happy style, and he can take the lion's share of the credit for the success of the service of praise.

A silver collection was taken up at the door to assist in reducing the debt on the church.

An Evening Entertainment.

The young people's entertainment in the Charlotte street church last evening was a decided success. The audience, no doubt on account of counter attractions, was not what the entertainment merited. The programme was divided into two parts, refreshments being served during intermission.

PART I.

Opening Hymn—Blest be the tie that binds.....
Selection.....Y.M.C.A. Band
Song—some one's tapping at the Garden Gate.
[Miss Ostrom.
Chorus—I am Wandering down .....Y.M.C.A.

TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices,is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

"A Spring Message"

FROM THE NEW FIRM OF

H. LeBRUN & Co.

Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

a past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BETTER FASHION, FINER SUITS, than were ever handled before.

Special values in Fine STRIPE OVERCOATS, and Fine Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine dressers in search of new, neat and nobby OVERCOATINGS, SUITINGS or TROUSERINGS will find this department well crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment in an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and tailors. Besides perfect fit and first-class trimmings, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SHIRT WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of PETERBOROUGH desiring the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortment of NECKWEAR, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, GLOVES, SHIRTS, HANDKERCHIEFS, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

THE GALT HERESY.

AGAIN CONSIDERED BY THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Some Puzzling Questions—The Examination Conducted—A Majority of 15 Decide Not To Refer the Case to a Committee.

TORONTO, June 19.—The Galt heresy case again monopolized nearly the whole of the General Assembly's time yesterday. Rev. Dr. McMullen, ex-moderator, presided owing to Principal Grant being a party to the case through his connection with the Synod of Toronto and Kingston. The appellants were present, the chief of whom, J. D. Cranston, was subsequently put through the stove in regard to his perfectionist belief, especially as to the point that believers may rise and some of the appellants had risen to the point that for longer or shorter time they had no consciousness of actual sin and hence no need of confession to God. Rev. Dr. Warden thought it scarcely fair to ask the individuals their opinion. It was the duty of the court to keep to the answers in the record. These were formally read, after which Rev. S. Bruce asked if the consciousness of the applicants was considered by them as the ultimate ground of evidence of the condition of freedom from sin in God's sight. Mrs. Kay essayed to answer the question by analogies, but did not get time to say much, when J. K. Cranston answered that the consciousness was not the sole guide but rather the Holy Ghost indwelling. Simplifying his answer Mr. Cranston said that consciousness was not the highest guide. Principal Forrest moved that the parties be removed from the bar and the Assembly proceed to consider the case. Dr. Cochrane rose to put a question which he had deferred and which would go far to settle the question. It is something in connection with our catechism, he said. "Can believer be made perfect in holiness before the hour of death?" Mr. Cranston: "There is a sense in which he cannot. It is the perfecting of holiness, the growing in Christ and being transformed from one degree of grace to another even by the grace of God." At the afternoon session Dr. Laing said the court must proceed to judgment. Before submitting a motion to that effect he, too, analyzed the reasons of the appeal and endorsed the respective actions of synod, presbytery and kirk session. The appellants, he contended, are not excommunicated, but under suspension, under discipline. "These brothers and sisters are offending against us; they will not submit to admonition. Still I think there is something hopeful in the statements made by these appellants. They state that they are willing to learn; that there are truths in the Bible that puzzle them." Then pathetically he hoped these erring brethren would renounce their error and be received back in the Presbyterian fold, which they were so loth, he said, to leave. Dr. Laing concluded by moving that the appeal be dismissed, and that the appellants be affectionately besought to respect the judgment and wisdom of the court. Chief Justice Taylor of Manitoba seconded the motion. Quivering with emotion, and with much animation, Dr. Ure of Goderich moved an amendment (which, however, was later treated as a separate motion) that the whole question be referred to a committee to report before the close of the General Assembly. He objected to the Assembly acting on purely "legal" ground. He was in favor of grace more than law. "We ought," he enunciated with vigor, "to take a broad, generous, Christian view of every case that comes before us. ["Hear, hear."] We, as Presbyterians, are substantially in accord with the principles the appellants hold." ["Hear, hear, no, no."] Dr. Laidlaw of Hamilton seconded the motion, alleging that by dismissing the appeal the General Assembly would place itself in a position before the world in which they would be misunderstood on a matter of vital importance to the welfare of the church. ["Hear, hear."] With pathos he said: "This Assembly could not engage in nobler work than in giving evidence to the world that it considers the interest of even an individual brother or sister." Amid considerable excitement the matter was put to the vote. All members of the Galt session, the Guelph Presbytery and the Synod of Toronto and Kingston abstained from voting. The vote was: "Yeas" 75, "nays" 90. The Moderator announced that the question will consequently not be sent to a committee, and that Dr. Laing's motion endorsing the action of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston will be open for discussion to-day.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Two Noted Crooks Arrested—Importans Meeting of Federal Bank Shareholders.

TORONTO, June 19.—Detectives Davis and Alf. Caddy made two important arrests in Queen-street west last night. The men are held on suspicion of larceny, but one of them, Dick Harris, has a record as a burglar second to none in Canada or the States. He has done time in Kingston and other penal institutions. His companion gave the name of Arthur Sheehy of St. Louis and on him was found a wicked looking English bulldog revolver, loaded and ready for business. As the officers seized Sheehy he made an attempt to draw it, and afterwards on the way to headquarters told his captors if he had seen them half a minute before they caught them he would have put holes through them.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the defunct Federal Bank yesterday it was decided by a majority of 5066 to push to a conclusion the suit against Mr. Samuel Nordheimer for the recovery of large sums of money lost by the bank in respect of certain transactions with the Commercial Loan and Stock Company, of which Mr. Nordheimer while a director of the bank was also a member.

At the Methodist Conference yesterday a large number of reports were presented and discussed.

Senator Hoar on the Canadian Question.

WORCESTER, June 19.—Senator Hoar has reached here after his Western trip with the Senate Committee on Trade Relations with Canada. He expresses himself as much impressed with the possibilities of the West as shown by the testimony of its leading men, who, he said, were mostly manufacturing and business men. He said that the impressions that the fortifications at Esquimalt were a menace to the United States were unfounded, as the inland has not the natural advantages necessary to make it a formidable fortification. He was satisfied that the ties of affection between Canada and the United States are a guarantee of peace. He sharply criticised the custom of many newspapers in printing alleged interviews which had never been actually held.

Shot Her Swetheart.

SARNIA, Miss., June 18.—John Williams was shot on Sunday at Emery Church, 10 miles from here, by Mrs. Hattie Campbell. The shooting occurred immediately after the religious services. Williams died on Monday. The provocation for the killing was the charge by Williams that he had criminal intercourse with Mrs. Campbell several months ago, upon which statement a bill for divorce is pending.

A Bigamist Punished.

HAMILTON, June 18.—At the General Sessions to-day Jeremiah Power Duggan was placed on trial charged with bigamy. The prosecution showed that he married his first wife, a Miss Clark, in Dunnville, in May, 1874. This wife he deserted in Toronto about six years ago. In 1886 he married Mary Brady of Waterdown. This wife he deserted about one year ago, leaving her with two children, the youngest of whom is now 20 months old. Both wives were runaway. The jury found Duggan guilty, and he was sentenced to 18 months in the Central Prison.

David Manner, dairyman, died suddenly yesterday from rupture of a blood vessel in the brain.

Mrs. Margaret Brass, who was injured by a fall a year ago from which she never recovered, died this morning, epilepsy being the immediate cause.

The Orangemen of the Hamilton district will hold their annual celebration in Toronto on July 12.

A $200,000 Fire at Jersey City.

JERSEY CITY, June 18.—W. H. Conliffe's sandpaper works and Booker (& Boyer's syrup factory were burned out Tuesday. Booker's factory works destroyed here to-night. Conliffe's loss is $150,000, loss on the refinery $250,000, Brown's loss $50,000. A large number of men are thrown out of work.

THE CRONIN MYSTERY.

MANY WITNESSES BEFORE THE GRAND JURY YESTERDAY.

Singularly Devoid of Information—The Court Orders Certain Telegrams Between the Suspects to be Produced.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Fifteen or twenty witnesses were before the Grand Jury yesterday forenoon, but the greater number were singularly devoid of information. Several employes of Iceman P. O. Sullivan knew nothing of Sullivan's intimacy with Cronin and Woodruff. Other witnesses testified to the intimacy between Coughlin and Sullivan. The Carlsens were given another chance to identify in the picture of Burke the man Williams who rented the cottage. They did not appear any more certain of his identity than yesterday and the jury was loth to return an indictment against Burke without additional evidence. Chief Hubbard appeared before the jury and urged the prompt indictment of Burke. Henry Seltenberg, Alexander Sullivan's clerk, knew nothing of Coughlin's calls at the lawyer's office. Thomas Given testified that he knew Burke during the latter's residence here, but had no knowledge of his intimacy with Sullivan, Coughlin or any other of the suspected persons. Miss McCormick stated she was at Sullivan's house the night of the murder. The last man got up about 10 o'clock or later to admit a couple of employes who had spent the evening in Lake View. This is corroborated by the testimony of two of the last men. Frank T. Johnston, formerly confidential clerk of J. T. Lester & Co., brokers, testified regarding fortunate speculations of Alexander Sullivan, and is alleged to have substantiated the story that Sullivan made him a munificent present. Father Dorney gave particulars of P. W. Deane's charge of embezzlement against Sullivan and Dorney's investigation of this charge. Father Dorney stated that after a full investigation of Sullivan's affairs he pronounced Deane's charge groundless. Attempts to get information about Clan-na-Gael affairs from Father Dorney and others were futile

The Day's Sensation.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The sensational incident of the Cronin Grand Jury proceedings this morning was the refusal of Wm. E. Bell of the Western Union Telegraph Company to obey an order of the jury to produce messages of manner between Alexander Sullivan, Dan Coughlin, P. O. Sullivan, John J. Maroney and G. W. Melville. Mr. Bell maintained that it was against the rules of the company to produce such messages and that the statutes of the State impose a fine of $5000 upon a telegraph company for divulging the contents of any personal or business message passing over its lines. After all attempts to induce the witness to obey had failed the jury headed by State's Attorney Longenecker repaired to Judge Shepherd's room and appealed to His Honor to issue an order directing the witness to answer under pain of contempt and commitment. After argument the court ordered Bell to produce the telegrams.

Maurice Morris, a friend of Dr. Cronin, was before the jury and told how the doctor had frequently stated he had incurred the enmity of certain persons high in authority in Irish societies and that he had fears for his life.

William Mulcahy, the suspect, was elected with the jury for nearly an hour, and those who heard his story became convinced he had no connection with the crime.

Strong Evidence Against Burke.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Chief of Police Hubbard, speaking to-day of the arrest of Martin Burke in Winnipeg, said: We have a good deal more evidence against Burke than has been published. The identification of his photograph is not nearly all. Burke was frequently heard to say Dr. Cronin ought to be removed. There is not a shadow of doubt in my mind that Martin Burke helped to kill Cronin. Whether the Winnipeg man is to be caught is not certain, but there is not much doubt about it. It is stated that a friend of Burke has "squealed" and will accompany the officers with the requisition to Winnipeg.

Remanded Until Saturday.

WINNIPEG, June 18.—Martin Burke, who is in custody here for complicity in the murder of Cronin, was remanded to-day till Saturday, Chicago officials being expected here Thursday to identify him. Burke admits living in Chicago and says he knew Cronin by sight but is very uncommunicative. No papers were found on him and the same on his liners, as well as the name on the sweatband of the hat found in his valise, is carefully obliterated.

The Niagara Falls Waterworks Bylaw.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 18.—The bylaw voted on to-day to bond the town for $77,000 to construct and maintain an efficient waterworks system was carried by 96 majority. This is the fourth time in two years this bylaw has been before the ratepayers.

Prohibition Snowed Under.

BUFFALO, June 18.—Despatches from Pennsylvania to-night indicate the defeat of the prohibition constitutional amendment by about 200,000.

Another Drop in Coffee.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The activity and excitement at the Coffee Exchange continued to-day in view of the decline in Havre and Hamburg. There was a drop of 65 points on the day's sales of 143,750 bags.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Rosebud Wins the Suburban Handicap at Sheepshead Bay.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The great struggle for the Suburban Handicap at Sheepshead Bay yesterday was witnessed by 20,000 people. A. Belmont's Racoland with "Snapper" Garrison up won in 2.09 4-5. Terra Cotta 2nd, Gorge 3rd. Six others ran. The betting was 3 to 5 against Racoland.

Fratts Jaundiced.

LONDON, June 19.—Fratts, the caveman, is jaundiced. He still exercises for the coming race for the diamond sculls at Henley, but his chances of winning have diminished. The only other foreign competitor, Deering of Hamburg, will withdraw.

The Titania-Katrina Race.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The first of the races arranged between the yachts Titania and Katrina ended to-day ingloriously for the latter, shortly after the start she gave up the race. The Titania covered the 24 mile course in 4 hours 23 seconds and thus won. Each race is for a cup worth $500. The wind was strong and the sea heavy. The next race will be sailed on Thursday.

An Orphan Girl Abducted.

NEW HAVEN, June 19.—The village of Woodmont is stirred over an abduction case. Last week a 14-year-old orphan girl by the name of Sadie Bing was taken from the home of a Woodmont family which had befriended her and carried off. The child had from March last made the house of Andrew Gilbert her home. Mr. Gilbert found her one cold night on the railroad track. The child said she had run away from Norwalk from the home of Lawyer J. A. Gray, by whom she had been shamefully treated. She was then on the road to Boston, and intended to visit the entire distance. Mr. Gilbert persuaded Sadie to stay with him over night, which she did. When morning came she was loath to go away, and weeks and months still found her at Mr. Gilbert's house, where she lived as one of the family. On Tuesday Lawyer Gray and a man whom he introduced as a Sheriff called at the Gilbert house. He demanded the child. When Sadie saw the lawyer she grew frantic, and on her knees begged Mr. Gilbert not to allow her to be torn away. The supposed Sheriff, however, defied

The Best Spring Medicine.

"In the spring of 1888 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with no mind a feeling, and wanted what I could hardly get around. I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I am thoroughly convinced it benefited me and I intend using it in the spring." Miss E.A. Bell, Bridgewater, Va.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 1889.

HON. OLIVER MOWAT is off for a trip to England. The "little tyrant" has fully earned a holiday, but Ontario and her interests will not be altogether absent from his mind while he is across the sea.

THE Joliet (Illinois, U.S.) Press and People says the Joliet rolling mills subscribed $25,000 to Mr. Quay's campaign fund last year. Recently the company made a 12 per cent. reduction in the wages of its employes, by which, says the Press and People, "they will recoup $15,000 of that sum." So the fellows who are getting "practically the sole benefit of the tariff laws," are very generously making the workmen pay their campaign contributions.

It is reported from Ottawa that Mr. Chabot A. Fridham, of Melbourne, who is now in the capital, has not much faith in the possibilities of trade between Canada and Australia. How is it possible, asks the Hamilton Times, to carry on trade with Australia or any other country while the Dominion Government every year adds to the difficulties of those who desire to exchange products with foreign countries? Our present rulers at Ottawa take the insane ground that foreign trade can be built up by exporting only. They practically prohibit imports, and imagine that we can sell to foreigners if we do not buy from them. The way to encourage foreign trade—the only legitimate way—is to encourage imports. We may rest assured that the foreigner will use to it that he receives pay for what he sells to us.

Wheat Prospects.

Speculators, the American Cultivator, of Boston, points out, are remorselessly hammering away at the price of wheat, urging the promise of a large crop as a reason for making it cheaper. In Canada, more particularly Ontario, we have the unique proposition of the millers, who by means of combination undertake to force down the price of wheat until the farmers from sheer exasperation will "rise in their might" and compel the powers that be at Ottawa to clap on high enough duty to exclude American flour for the benefit of the millers aforesaid. How workable this scheme is and how the long-suffering farmer will receive it remains to be seen. As to the question of crop prospects, in Ontario they are still bright, though a spell of unfavourable weather may yet arise to reduce the yield. On another point the American Cultivator says:—

"Both the visible and invisible supply of wheat are now much below what they were five years ago, while the other countries to which the world depends for wheat had much fuller crops than now. The Australian, Indian and South American wheat crops this year are all much smaller than in 1884. The whole world will call on us for more wheat than it has in any recent year, and we can get better prices than have been paid if we only ask for them."

The Cultivator holds that in competition with India to the production of cheap wheat the American farmer has won the day, and concludes with the following hopeful paragraph on the present outlook from a dollar and-cent standpoint:

There is no apparent danger from any quarter of new and cheap supplies of wheat, coming under our supply and forcing it down to a lower level. The farmers of this country will, after harvest hold in their granaries the available wheat for supplying the old world's markets. They are entitled to a good price for this wheat, which if they have not been unfortunate in having a bad crop, should pay them for their labor and time given in producing it and some profit besides. That is the natural position of a farmer with a good crop of anything. There is no reason this year why farmers should not get a paying price for their wheat unless they are induced into selling by the talk of speculators anxious to buy the crop low and make the profit themselves. It is never wise to hold grain for prices greatly above the cost of production. When the owner of a crop of any kind is offered a paying price it is risky to refuse it. For several years the growers of wheat have been obliged to sell at less than cost, but if they do so this year we think they will make a mistake.

"My father, at about the age of fifty, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor, his hair began coming, and, in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—F. J. Collins, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Is Blustrage a Failure?

The question is repeatedly raised and urged—Is Blustrage a failure? Merchants is constantly a-failure in these hemispheres where Hawley Bros', prime teas are not regularly used. The invigorator created by drinking such luscious decoctions called tea, is altogether absent where the fine teas sold by Hawley Bros. are used. They make a specialty of fine teas, do an immense trade, buy in large quantities and therefore at low figures. Then the customers get the finest brands and blends of the freshest, most fragrant teas, at the lowest prices. The characteristics of Hawley Bros', teas are strength, fine flavour and cheapness of price. These principles of the above firm should remember. Hawley Bros', is the place and also that what is said about teas applies to their coffees, and remember also that Hawley Bros' is the place to get bargains in glassware. dw

Keene.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The annual picnic of the Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday schools will leave the Keene wharf per steamer Seabeam and yachts some on Friday, June 21st, at 9 o'clock, and proceed to Idyl Wild, where a joyful time is expected. Come all, and join the children in their merry-making.

One of our citizens pulled up a stalk of rye measuring 7 feet 2 inches in length. Beat that if you can.

Mr. Jos. Gregstock, of Keene, has gone to Gainsborough to join the cavalry. He will be quite soldierly-looking when he returns, we expect.

Fish are very numerous in the river and lake at present.

The fourth anniversary services of the Keene Presbyterian church will be held on Sunday, June 23rd. Rev. Adam Bell, of St. Andrew's Church, Peterborough, will preach in the morning at half past ten, and in the evening at half past six. Collection in aid of building fund.

The Masons of Keene intend holding their annual picnic on Monday next.

Benefort.

From Our Own Correspondent.

All vegetation is blooming luxuriously in a way not known for years.

There's been some idiots talk about the bridge not sufficient to venture, an opinion, or to decide just how or where we were going to get across.

The principal street leading southward has been considerably improved, and building to the acute supervision of the overseer.

There were a number of disappointments in crossing the point bridge on Sundays, it has been customary to open the swing on Sundays occasionally to allow steamers to pass through, and this time it once found quite difficult to close it. Perhaps it wasn't made for Sunday use. Query, were the steamers made to run on Sunday?

The Sunday school excursion on the 5th was again quite a success. The little steamer "Beaver," however showed that the whole success depends to some extent on each party. This time the whole success seemed to depend on a little steel key near the rear of the boat. This little article seemed to be a part of her anatomy, and for the time being many anxious little ones and a few bigger ones too, were apparently disappointed. She failed to reach the turning point in the river in the morning but full arrangements were at once made to make up all deficiencies in next day, which, being bright and clear, gave full enjoyment of the trip.

Never Rote on His Own Horse.

They tell a story of a man who lost a fond mare for fast horses. A year or two ago he had one that was said to be a "flyer," and marvellous stories were told about what she had done, and was capable of doing. But an intimate friend noticed that the owner of the wonderful beast never staked any money on him.

"Why don't you back her for a good round sum if she can do what you claim she can?" he asked. "That would prove that you had confidence in her but as it is—"

"See here, my friend," said the other, with a twinkle in his eye, "don't you know me well enough to know that I'm too modest to bet on my own nag, especially when I find some that she can't come out ahead?"

When a man knows he can accomplish what he undertakes he doesn't feel too modest to say so. When Dr. Pierce put his Favorite Prescription before the public as a certain remedy for all female diseases with "satisfaction guaranteed or money returned" on every bottle of it, it proved that he had confidence in the preparation. He felt sure of the merits, and the testimony of thousands of women who have been cured by it of "weakness," "irregularities," and all the disagreeing diseases from which their sex suffers so much, proves that his faith was well founded.

Gentleman with Bald Heads.

What remarks as a rule attend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is not his fault but his misfortune. There is not alone this annoyance, but a person with the scalp unprotected is more liable to diseases of the head. When a gentleman loses his hair he should take immediate steps to have it replaced with an artificial covering. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is slow about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Duranwood, of Toronto, will be at Phelan's Hotel on June 25 and 26, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, which are just the things required. The least you can do is to call and examine the articles whether you buy one or not. Physicians endorse them and you cannot afford to be without one.

The Most Agonizing, Itching, Burning and Bleeding Eczemas Cured.

Remains in the worst Stages. A New Cure From Head to Foot. Hair Gone. Doctors and Hospitals Fail. Tried Everything. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies for $5.

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in the worst stage. I tried different doctors and four hospitals in this city, all to no purpose. The doctors said I could live but a short time. The top of my head to the sole of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving a complete raw sore. After trying everything else, I used a set of your Cuticura Remedies, and after taking [illegible] of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, I feel myself cured at the cost of about $5. I would not be without the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, and I think they are the best blood purifiers in the world.

ISAAC H. GERMAN, Watertown, N. Y.

A Most Wonderful Cure.

I have had a most wonderful cure of salt rheum (Eczema). For two years I have suffered with this disease. I had it on my face, arms and hands for over two years. I tried almost all kinds of remedies, and was one half the time under the doctor's care, but was not cured. Seeing your advertisement, and concluded to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES; and I am thankful to say I am entirely cured. After using CUTICURA and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and five bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I feel I am entirely cured. Those who think my case incurable may come and see me for themselves.

TO BUILD UP JOHNSTOWN.

Portable Houses to be put Up for the Sufferers and Shanty Stores for Business.

JOHNSTOWN, June 17.—A largely increased force of men was at work in the ruins yesterday, and many more are coming in from every direction. Gen. Hastings says about 6,500 men are now at work. Hundreds of blasts of dynamite are heard at short intervals, and a noticeable improvement is being made on the debris above the stone bridge.

The Relief Committee have decided to erect 100 portable houses to shelter the survivors as soon as the buildings can be received from Chicago. The houses will be 16 x 27 feet, and will be large enough to accommodate six persons each. Each house will be furnished with a stove and utensils, six chairs, two beds and bedsteads, two spring mattresses, one pair pillows, two pairs of sheets for each bed, woollen blankets, a bureau, a table and tableware to supply it. In fact a family will be given everything necessary to go to housekeeping and told to go ahead and paddle their own canoe. The object is to start the town on toward a rise from the ruins, but as the town is yet in chaos, it is impossible to make permanent arrangements. The grade of the town may be raised. If a man cannot find his own ground now, he can set his house up anywhere, and move it on to his land when it is found under the debris. If the houses give satisfaction the committee will not stop at buying 1000 of them and building up the town. In direct conjunction with this move at building up the ruined city Gen. Hastings has purchased an immense quantity of lumber, and will next Tuesday begin building shanty stores for those who will set up in business again. Over 100 have already made application.

Arrangements are now being made for the erection of a lock-up, which Baroness Burdett says will be filled as soon as constructed with persons who have been filling their houses with valuables from the wreckage. Many citizens who have hitherto been considered honest are known to have secured wrecked houses and carried off valuables by the scantful. As soon as Burgess can get him clothes straightened out he says he will issue a search warrant, and every house that is suspected of containing booty will be ripped wrong side up.

A meeting of citizens was held at Alma Hall yesterday afternoon to protest against the further use of the heavy dynamite blasts. The blasts used heretofore have been five pounds, but smaller blasts were advised, and Gen. Hastings has accepted the wish of the meeting and only 25-pound blasts are being put off.

Three members of the Fourteenth Regiment were arrested at Cambria City recently, charged with insulting women. They were locked up. The citizens of the place are burning with indignation and many threats of lynching are made.

The report of Commissioner-General Speight to Gen. Hastings shows that 28,615 people were fed by the commissary department yesterday.

KILLED BY HER HUSBAND'S KICK.

A New York Hill Climber—Fifteen Hours of Quarrel.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Another fortunate (?) husband, using nothing but French shoes, disposed of his better half yesterday in the painful death of a refined little woman named Mrs. Isabella Jane Galloway. If there is any truth in the stories of neighbors her death was the result of her husband's "Bill Sikes" form of brutality. For nearly 15 years Mrs. Galloway had spoken of the inhuman treatment she received at the hands of her husband. As recently as Sunday, June 9, he went home intoxicated, so Mrs. Galloway had told the housekeeper, Mrs. Leonard, and after quarrelling with her about some trivial affair kicked her in the back. A week before this she was going to tell Mrs. Leonard, as had struck her with a soda water bottle. Mrs. Galloway at the time was very ill, and after the kicking was compelled to take to bed. On the following night her baby passed prematurely into the world only to be hurriedly buried, for it was dead. The housekeeper did all a kind woman could do for another, and Dr. Musgrove of No. 67 Monroe-street, was in attendance that night. When Dr. Musgrove visited her next morning she was beyond any physician's aid, and decided, despite his efforts to save her, shortly before noon.

Dr. Musgrove informed the police of the woman's serious condition at 9 o'clock, and they at once notified the coroner's office—the call being before she expired—in order that an autopsy might be performed on behalf of the husband. Coroner Levy was too busy holding an inquest to go. He was told the necessity of the case, but he determined to let it stand over for Coroner Schultz. The latter did not hurry in the least to the bedside of the dying woman, and as a consequence she expired before his arrival and no authoritative statement was obtained. Coroner Schultz then did the only thing left for him to do and he ordered the husband's arrest. Galloway, however, could not be found. It is thought that he went to Philadelphia or Boston when he recognized the precarious condition of his martyred wife.

Before marrying Galloway his wife, who came here from Dublin, supported herself by teaching music. She then resided with her mother, who kept a boarding house in Pearl-street. It was here that she met Galloway. She was, until prevented by her husband, a member of the choir in the Methodist Church, where she played the organ. Besides two children, a girl aged seven and a boy of five, she has left one brother-in-law, a sister, Mrs. Sarah Masterson of No. 126 East 106th-street.

Mrs. Galloway, during her fifteen years of married infelicity, had eight children, six of which she told the housekeeper were born dead owing to the ill-treatment she received from her husband.

Detective Leary has been detailed to hunt up Galloway.

Death of a Very Fat Man.

BATAVIA, N.Y., June 18.—John Lowen, the phenomenal fat man, who weighed 540 pounds, died at his home here yesterday from corpulence. He was born in England and was 49 years old. He was a blacksmith and worked at his trade up to about three years ago. At that time he weighed but little more than 300 pounds, but began rapidly gaining in flesh at the rate of about five pounds per week until he became a veritable mountain of fat. Everything known to medical science was tried in his case, but it baffled the skill of the best physicians.

Determined to Die If It Cost Election.

CHICAGO, June 18.—August Swanson, a builder, 30 years old, got married three weeks ago. Drank deeply until yesterday morning and was blissfully full with poison. Swanson spent the night drinking with a friend named Mickey Duffy. They went home in the morning to the stable where Swanson worked and there the latter took the poison. Duffy was about to seek medical aid for his friend, but Swanson drew a revolver and threatened to kill him if he did so. The suicide kept his friend covered with the revolver until the poison had rendered remedy impossible.

The benefits of vaseline cannot easily be exhausted, if, at the same time, the blood is taken, cleansed and vitalized by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A good appetite, fresh vigor, and buoyant spirits attend the use of this wonderful medicine.

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand lacrosse match, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. R. BRAMLE, secretary of committee. 4td

Have You Neuralgia?

If you are suffering the agonies of neuralgia and have failed to get a remedy that will afford relief, we want you to try Polson's Nerviline. No remedy in the market has given anything like the same degree of satisfaction. Its action on nerve pain is simply marvellous, and as it is put up in 10 cent sample bottles, no great expense is involved in giving it a trial. Polson's Nervilline is the most pleasant, powerful and certain pain remedy in the world. Sold by all dealers in medicines 10 and 25c. a bottle. 6dw25

Many Troubles.

"My age is 58, and for twenty years I have suffered from kidney complaint, rheumatism and heart bank, and would have been a dead woman if it had not been for Burdock Blood Bitters, of which two bottles restored me to health and strength." Miss Maggie Hamsby, Half Island Cove, N.S. 2w23d

Pimples Prohibited.

Mr. Hanna F. Murray, of Pictou, N. S., writes:—"I was effected with dyspepsia and nervous debility, and tried many remedies without avail, but one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters much improved me, and two more made me a well man." 2w23d

Given Instant Relief.

"I have been troubled with asthma and a bad cough for years. I got nothing to help me like Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and would recommend it to others as it gives instant relief." Extract from a letter from Walter McAuley, Ventnor, Ont. 2w23d

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and,

By Taking

three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

County Grangemen.

The County Orange Lodge held a meeting last night at Lakefield, Mr. Alex. Hamilton, County Master, presiding. There was a large attendance and the meeting was a lively one. The principal business was the discussion of the Jesuit question and the passing of several strong resolutions.

The Johnstown Relief.

This evening a special meeting of the Peterborough branch of the R. B. A. will be held in the library of the Murray street school, where the Association will in future hold all its meetings. The object of to-night's meeting is for the purpose of raising funds for a sister branch, St. Columbs, No. 123, in Johnstown, Penn., whose lodge rooms were destroyed in the recent flood. A full attendance is requested.

Crossley and Hunter at Exeter

An Exeter, Ont., despatch states that the revivalists, Crossley and Hunter, are engaged at present in the town of Exeter. Their services are held in the largest church in the town, which is filled to the doors. Already about three hundred have presented themselves as inquirers after salvation. It is the greatest religious awakening that has ever visited Exeter, and forms the chief subject for conversation among all classes of people in the community. The revivalists expect to continue their work there for another week from last Sunday.

Peterborough in Rochester.

An excursionist just returned from Rochester tells of the number of Peterborough people who are in business over there. Mr. Wm. Lennox, an old Peterborough boy, and Mr. Robt. Walton, son of Mr. Jas. Walton, are partners in a grocery, fruit and bottling business. Mr. Macdonald, a son of Mr. Bernard Macdonald, and Mr. Maguire, two former employes in Dolan's store, have good situations in Rochester. Mr. Adolphus Faechler and son have a saloon and restaurant. Mr. Geo. Leonard, late in the County Clerk's office, is with Pooley, the lawyer, formerly of Cobourg. Mr. Leonard has not yet begun practice on his own account, as the laws of the State prevent it until he has been a resident there for one year. Mr. Abram Ball and wife, the latter a sister of Mr. Jas. Griffin, are also prospering. Mr. Tom. McNaughton, formerly with Mr. Kelly, and Mr. Ted Flaherty, a late partner with G. C. Clark in the goods furnishing business, have good positions. Edg. Perry, John Boyd and others were also seen.

Is My Hair Right?

How often do we hear one lady ask this question of another. Invariably these ladies who are constantly worrying about their hair, do not wear any kind of hair goods, but possibly a switch. Now, consider this, then: Would it not pay you to get a nice, becoming style of Front-piece, Banz or Wave, made of fine, curled or waved human hair, and be sure it is always right? Then you would not require to ask "Is my hair all right?" Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, has made the manufacture of hair goods a life study, and amongst his many pieces every lady will find something to suit her. You have all heard of the professor, though, perhaps, you have never interested yourself enough to call on him during his former visits. Do so now. He will be at Phalen's Hotel on Friday and Saturday, June 28th and 29th, and will bring with him his big stock of all kinds of hair goods. He will be pleased to show you his various styles. See his advertisement in another column. dw

Arrested for Theft.

Last evening a lad named Walter Whitfield, who has lately been employed in the G. N. W. Telegraph Co.'s office, was arrested and locked up on a charge of theft. An older brother, who is now in Hespeler, was also arrested by the police of that town on the strength of a telegram from Chief Rossi, who will bring the prisoner back to Peterborough to-night. The younger Whitfield was this morning remanded till to-morrow. The two boys are accused of the theft of about nine watches and seven or eight chains from the jewelry store of Mr. Geo. W. Wyatt. The robbery took place on the night of Friday, June 7th. In the interests of justice the newspapers were requested to say nothing about it at the time. On the night in question about ten o'clock patrolman Gordon found the door of Mr. Wyatt's store open and a broken key in the lock. Mr. Wyatt was notified, and on investigation it was found that the shop had been burglarized to the extent mentioned above. No clue was had to the theft and the police decided to play a waiting game. The alleged culprits have now been captured and the greater part of the booty recovered. It is said another young lad is also implicated in the theft. The case will probably come up for trial to-morrow.

Hymeneal.

Dawson—Dixon.

This afternoon at two o'clock the nuptials of Mr. Geo. Dawson and Miss Maggie Dixon were celebrated at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. H. Dixon, "Bellevue Park." The marriage had been the subject of conversation in social circles for some time. Both young people were so well and favourably known in Peterborough that a great deal of interest was aroused over the approaching event. However, it was a very quiet wedding, only the most intimate relatives and friends of the contracting parties being present. Rev. E. F. Torrance officiated and pronounced the word which made the handsome and happy young couple man and wife. The bridesmaids were Miss Lilly Dixon, sister of the bride, and Miss Sophie Cameron. Mr. A. E. Thompson was groomsman, and Mr. W. G. Dixon acted as master of ceremonies and gave the bride away. After the ceremony an elaborate dejeuner was partaken of. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson leave on the 5.50 train this evening for Chicago, their home.

That they will be wished a hearty God-speed and unlimited happiness in the future goes without saying. Though but few guests were invited to the wedding, the number of handsome presents which poured in upon the fortunate bride amply testified to the esteem in which she was held. Her lively and cheerful disposition and uniform amiability, with her many other accomplishments, won her many warm friends. Mr. Dawson is also well known as a young man of exemplary living, industrious habits and moral character, attributes which will enable him to progress and prosper in the world.

The EXAMINER begs to add its best wishes for the future good of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

A large and interesting meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary was held yesterday. On the invitation of the president, Mr. T. S. Cole addressed the ladies on the subject: "How they have and can do a great work to reach young men." Organization was completed and final arrangements made for a garden party to be held on Friday evening at Mrs. M. Dixon's, Smithstown Hill. Every effort is being made to make it the most enjoyable event of the season. It is very gratifying to see such united work being accomplished by the ladies of all the churches. It means practical Christian union to see members of all our denominations working so harmoniously together to make this a great success. All kinds of the choicest refreshments, including strawberries (first of the season), ice cream, &c., &c., will be provided. The Y. M. C. A. band will furnish choice music. The grounds will be illuminated with Chinese lanterns, &c. Admission, 10c. 'Buses will leave the rooms, corner of George and Brock streets, every 15 minutes from 7 p.m.; fare, 5c. The committee would esteem it a favour if ladies desirous of sending provisions will kindly send the same to Mrs. Dixon's, or to the Y. M. C. A. rooms not later than four p.m. on Friday. All the proceeds go towards the furnishing fund.

Last evening the Finance and Devotional committees met. There was a large attendance and a large amount of business transacted. Mr. J. W. Bennet, the indefatigable chairman of the Finance Committee, feels his hands are being strengthened by an earnest band of workers who are now rallying around him, who mean business and are determined, by the liberal support which we are sure they are going to receive, to place the Association in the position all Christian work should be in and "have no mean anything."

Mr. I. Richardson, chairman of Devotional Committee, has been greatly cheered and encouraged by the increasing numbers and interest in our religious meetings, which shows our work is beginning to bear fruit among our young men. Other meetings are being arranged for and on August 1st a gathering for Bible study and recreation will be held at Stony Lake. An invitation is to be extended to Associations and any in this neighbourhood who would like to attend. Mr. Cole has consented to take charge, which assures its success. Mr. Cole was present last night and gave a very helpful talk to the committee, and told of the work and labors at the International Convention at Philadelphia in May.—[Com.

The Masonic Excursion.

A Delightful Trip—The Impressions of One of the Excursionists Fully Related.

Peterborough and Chemong Lake are at last connected by rail! What rejoicings are revived of the various schemes that have been concocted and fought over in the past for tapping this beautiful section of the County of Peterborough with the iron horse! But at last the connecting link has become an accomplished fact, and now the whole chain of lakes of which Chemong forms a part is open for exploration by excursionists from Peterborough. Besides this there is, of course, an immense commercial advantage in having the rich back country open to our merchants. But this is aside from the subject.

On Tuesday was held the inaugural excursion over the new branch of the G.T.R. to Chemong Lake, under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of Peterborough. The brethren of the square and compass are somewhat elated over the fact that they had the privilege of running the opening excursion over this extension, and those of our citizens who participated with them in the enjoyment of the trip, are quite willing to accord them all the credit that their pleasant and successful management of the excursion entitles them to.

The weather, upon which so much depended, was all that the most sanguine holiday-seeker could wish for. At 8.30 o'clock over two hundred excursionists boarded the special train, and after a delightful run of nine miles through the beautiful farms and valleys of Smith, reached the terminus of the new extension at 9 o'clock. Here the steamer "Beaubcoage" and palace barge "Palmes," of the T.V.N. Co.'s line were lying awaiting the party. The novelty of the new connection here by boat and rail was the theme of general conversation. Both steamer and barge had on their holiday attire, and were decorated with flags and pennants fore and aft, and from almost every rope, guy and mast fluttered in the breeze some bit of bunting. The sail up Chemong, Bushhorn and Pigeon Lakes was a delightful experience to all on board. The barge which carried the excursionists is well adapted for such occasions, being commodious, clean, comfortable and convenient for the purpose. Everyone seemed to participate in the pleasures of the trip, and animated conversation and unreserved sociability prevailed. Prof. Doucet's orchestra was on board and delighted the party with inspiriting music all day. Jacob's Island was called at but none of the excursionists desired to land, preferring to enjoy the full sail to Bobcaygeon. The island, however, is a picturesque green spot, not too thickly wooded, with smooth, clean sward sloping down to the lake, consisting of one hundred acres, and would be a pretty place for holding a large pic-nic. At Oak Orchard, Mr. R. E. Wood and family, accompanied by a number of intimate friends, were landed and spent the day in their lovely summer resort.

Bobcaygeon was reached at 12.45. Dinner was the first thing to be attended to, and the hotels were soon packed with eager guests, who threatened to leave very little on the bill of fare that they would not sample. After dinner a pleasant hour was spent around the romantic village, until the steamer's whistle announced the return hour had arrived. At three o'clock the party were "all aboard" again, and enjoyed a repetition of the delightful sail homeward, arriving at Chemong about 6 o'clock, and at the G.T.R. station here at 7 15.

The Masonic committee were indefatigable in their attention to the excursionists during the day. The purser and boat hands also discharged their duties courteously. Everything passed off pleasantly, and everybody was specially well pleased with the fraternity for the opportunity afforded by them of spending a holiday so agreeably and on the square.

"Pro Bono Publico" and Mr. Bogue.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR.—My attention has been called to a letter in your issue of 15th inst., signed "Pro bono Publico." I am not surprised that the writer is so much ashamed of his production that he failed to put his name to it. Insofar as his letter referred to me it is a malicious lying statement, and is only in keeping with other statements manufactured in the same quarter, as you will see by the enclosed letter, which was written by the late Bishop Jamot shortly before his death. If I had not given satisfaction during my two years work on St. Peter's Cathedral, a conscientious and pious man like the late lamented Bishop, would not have recommended me, as he did, to those of another diocese. I have only to state that during all the time I worked for him then, there never was the least word of difference between us, and unto his death I had the honor of counting him my best friend. I have no doubt that several other gentlemen I have worked for had equal satisfaction with me. I can, with confidence, refer my would-be friend, "Pro Bono Publico," to Messrs. W. H. Law, T. G. Hazlitt, J. B. McWilliams, Andrew Douglass and others, to numerous to mention, that I have done work for, who will speak just as highly of me and my work as the late Bishop Jamot did.

But now my would-be tradesers cannot do equal work with me. I have done more good work in five years around Peterborough than they have been able to do in a life-time. In my business transactions I never stop to inquire what any man's creed or nationality may be. Perhaps your correspondent is one of those who feed at the public crib and has the country at large paying his taxes, otherwise he would not be so liberal. However, I believe were he to come out under his own name the public would discover that my record would stand favourable comparison in every respect. His statements respecting me would, if true, be very injurious, and I challenge him to prove them, over his own signature.

Yours truly,
JAMES BOGUE.

The following is the letter referred to in the above communication:

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL,
Peterborough, 3rd April, 1889.
Diocese of Peterborough, Canada.

RT. REV. Monsignor Farrelly, V.G., Belleville:

RT. REV. MONSEIGNOR,—I have much pleasure to introduce to you Mr. James Bogue, of Peterborough, he having first superintended and afterwards taken complete charge of the stonework of St. Peter's Cathedral. The work he has done is first class. Should you see your way to give the work to Mr. Bogue, I do not think that you would ever regret it. Wishing you good success in your undertaking, I am, Very Rev. Father Farrelly,
Sincerely yours,
† JOHN FRANCIS JAMOT.

THE MURDER OF CAPT. DAWSON.

Dr. Mellow Indicted, and the Trial Set Down for Monday Next.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 18.—In the Court of General Sessions yesterday, Judge Kershaw presiding, the Grand Jury returned a true bill against Dr. T. B. McDow for the murder of Capt. F. W. Dawson in March last. McDow was arraigned, and pleaded not guilty. Next Monday, June 24, was fixed for his trial. McDow is represented by ex-Judge Magrath and Asher D. Cohen; the State by Solicitor Jervey, who will probably have assistant counsel. McDow appeared in court in a new suit of clothes, clean shaven, and, though looking a little haggard by reason of long confinement in jail, was cool and collected.

The regularity of the drawing of the petit jury having been called in question, a motion was made to challenge the whole array of jurors on the ground that the requirements of the statute with reference to the drawing of jurors had not been strictly complied with by the Jury Commissioners. The irregularity complained of was that the jury box had not been shaken up prior to unlocking the box. Two affidavits to this effect were submitted, but Judge Kershaw refused the motion, holding that the act had been substantially complied with. This motion was made in a case of barratry and larceny, but is mentioned here because the jury so in attendance will be the jury that will try McDow. There are fourteen negroes on the panel; the largest number drawn on any one jury for years. The McDow case is exciting great interest, and will probably continue a greater part of next week.

County Council.

Second Day's Doings—Address in Reply to the Warden's Speech.

Council met in session at 10.30 a.m. All the members present.

After routine, Mr. Burnham presented the report of the committee on the Warden's address as follows:—

The special committee on THE WARDEN'S ADDRESS
beg leave to report as follows:—

(1) Your committee congratulate the county and province on the bright prospects of a splendid harvest this year. It is to be hoped that the anticipations of the Warden will be completely realized.

(2) Your committee approve of the action of the Warden in temporarily filling the office of jail surgeon, made vacant by the absence of Dr. Kimmid.

(3) Your committee congratulate the county upon the settlement of the Hague estate claim, at Lakefield, in an amicable manner, without proceeding to law.

(4) Your committee commend the action of the Warden with reference to the Pigeon Creek bridge, and advise this council to adhere to the position, hereafter, taken and upheld by them.

(5) Your committee congratulate the county that the renewed effort of the county of Northumberland, to get such legislation as would foist upon this county the expense of joining in maintaining the Trent Bridge, has failed.

(6) Your Committee are pleased to note that the decision of the Supreme Court in the action of Victoria County against this County has been given favourably to the contention of this council.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
JOHN BURNHAM,
Chairman.

County Council Chamber, Peterborough, June 19th, 1889.

The report was adopted.

A communication was read from Mr. W. Matthews, Havelock giving the council an invitation to attend the A. O. U. W. pic-nic on June 21st. Received

A communication was received from Charles J. Posey, Secretary Irondale Bancroft and Ottawa Railway, pointing out how the extension of the railway would open up the northern part of the county and asking that the council consider the matter of giving assistance.

The Crops of the County.

During the presence of the county councillors in town, the EXAMINER secured their report respecting the crop prospects at the middle of the season of growth and the result is given below:

ASPHODEL.—The general appearance of the crops is promising. Fall wheat, however, will not be an average crop; on low lands it is hopeless. Spring crops generally are excellent, peas particularly so, and roots are full of promise, especially potatoes—the bug is present but not in as full force as last year. The hay crop will be light. The old meadows are thin, for in spite of the abundant rain the growth has not been satisfactory; there are no new meadows to speak of.

BELMONT AND METHUEN.—The fall wheat in these townships shows only fair promise. According to present prospects the crop will not reach the average. But the spring crops indicate, with a favorable season, a great crop. Peas are quoted as especially promising. Potatoes also show excellent growth, and the ravages of the bug are not as bad as in former years. The cold wet weather has hindered their reproduction. Hay is a light crop. There is no new meadow worth mentioning, and the old meadows will give a light yield.

BURLEIGH, ANSTRUTHER AND CHANDOS.—The fall wheat in these townships is promising. A good acreage was sown, and if the weather is favorable, the crop will be an average one. The spring crops generally are looking well, but on some ground—high, dry knolls—the cutworm has done his work. However, the present indications point to a good all-round crop of spring grain. Roots and potatoes promise well—there are no bugs as yet. Fruit has promise of fair yield. There was no damage by frost to speak of. Hay will be a light crop.

DUMMER.—The fall wheat is not turning out as well as could be expected. It is patchy and uneven in heading out; will hardly be an average crop. Spring grain good, barley, peas and oats promise splendid yield; outworn slightly at work. Hay, light crop, and pasture disappointing. Fruit is fair, and there is promise of a good crop of wild fruits.

DUMMER.—The fall wheat—fair crop—partly winter killed, will be probably an average crop. Spring grain good, except on low land. Hay is a light crop, no clover at all. Potatoes good on high land. Fruit is fair, small fruits good, though there was some damage done to apples by a frost on May 20th.

ENNISMORE.—An average crop of fall wheat will be realized. Spring crops have not made so good a showing in ten years past. Hay is nothing to boast of, and there are no new meadows. Potatoes are fine; an occasional field is injured by the wet. Fruit is nothing to boast of. Altogether the crop prospects of this township are promising.

GALWAY AND CAVENDISH.—Fall wheat, what little sown, promises well. Spring grains indicate a good yield. Hay is also good, and there is also promise of a good yield of wild fruits.

HARVEY.—Fall wheat, though winter killed in spots, promises to be an average crop. Spring grains are all good. Hay is a poor crop—clover winter killed, and timothy affected with frost. Potatoes fair. The outlook for fruits is good. Altogether the promise is good.

NORTH MONAGHAN.—Fall wheat a fair crop, the growth however is unequal; will hardly be up to the average; low lands a failure. Spring crops generally promise well—barley and spring wheat especially. Potatoes might be a better crop—a good deal of damage done by frost; some fields had to be replanted. Hay light and pasture only fair. Fruits good, especially apples and plums.

OTONABEE.—Fall wheat looks well throughout the township; will probably be an average crop. Spring crops promise excellently, though low lands suffer from wet. Roots and potatoes promise well. Fruits are all right; the frost inflicted only slight if any injury, except perhaps on grapes. Apples are good. Corn is not injured as much as might have been thought of by wet weather.

SMITH.—There are good indications for fall wheat, it will according to present promises be an average crop. All spring crops are good, with of course the exception of low lying lands. Roots promise well. Potatoes are good. Hay is light and will not be up to the average. Fruits are in general good, apples promise fairly. Not much damage was done by frost.

The above forecasts are all of course subject to the coming weather, which if unfavourable will change the whole tenor of the crop prospects.

MARRIED.

DAWSON—DIXON.—At the residence of the bride's mother, "Bellevue Park," Peterborough, on Wednesday, June 19th, 1889, by Rev. E. F Torrance, George Dawson to Maggie, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Dixon.

TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices, is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

"A Spring Message"
FROM THE NEW FIRM OF
H. LeBRUN & Co.
Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

in past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses in the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

Meese Suits, Beever Fabrics, Fine Suitings that were ever handled before.

Special values in Fine Spring Overcoats, and Fine Spring and Summer Suits. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

MERCHANT TAILORING.

"For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Fine drawers in search of new, neat and nobby Overcoatings, Suitings or Trouserings will find this department crowded to over-flowing with cloth from all countries. To select from the largest assortment in an advantage we offer to our customers, backed up by the skill of experienced cutters and tailors. Besides perfect fit and first-class workmanship, we guarantee absolutely first-class workmanship.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a speciality with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of Boys' and Children's Suits, Boys' and Children's Blouses, Shirt Waists, Pants, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money, as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit this department at once. We offer the finest, best selected and largest assortments of Neckwear, Hosiery, Underwear, Gloves, Shirts, Handkerchiefs, etc., to be found in any First-class establishment in this country.

CONSPIRACY AND MURDER

BURKE INDICTED BY THE CRONIN GRAND JURY.

A Bitter Arraignment of the Clan-na-Gael—The President of the Patriotic Order Sons of America on Foreigners.

CHICAGO, June 19.—At noon to-day the Cronin grand jury returned an indictment against Martin Burke, alias Martin Delaney, alias Frank Williams—now in custody at Winnipeg. The indictment contains two counts: one for murder and one for conspiracy with Coughlin, P. O. Sullivan and Woodruff for the purpose of committing murder.

A New Suspect.

CHICAGO, June 19.—An entirely new Cronin suspect is being hunted for to-night. His name is Michael Cooney, known as "The Fox," because of a swift he used to sing. Cooney and Burke, it is claimed, recently fuelled Dennis Rohl on Clan-na-Gael row. Cooney is a bricklayer and came from Ireland only a few years ago. Little hope is entertained of the immediate arrest of Cooney. State's Attorney Longenecker believes it to be inferred that he has two witnesses who will swear Cooney and Burke slept in the Carlson cottage several days prior to the tragedy and were seen leaving the cottage on the fatal night. Both are said to have gone to a saloon and drank heavily.

The States in a Bad Way.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The thirteenth annual national camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America began its sessions in this city yesterday morning. In considering his annual report President Smith of Chicago spoke as follows:

A few more bayonettes rotes and Cronin murders, instituted by organized bodies of foreigners, who have been permitted to become citizens of this free America, and who have shown their gratitude by sending messengers, loaded with dynamite, back to their native country for the purpose of destroying innocent men and children, and who have so fouly murdered their members when they failed to carry out their hellish plans, and there will not be in our western country lamp posts, telegraph and telephone poles enough to hang the miscreants.

I ask you is there room in this country for societies like the Clan-na-Gael that are not in harmony with and are injurious to American institutions; that are dangerous to the American order, disloyal to American government, destructive to American principles, repugnant to American ideas and disgusting to all Americans who have any sense of justice, any regard for consistency and any respect for the sanctity of human life? Or have we room for secret, irresponsible bodies of foreigners, who conspire to commit wholesale murder and then betray their trusts that they themselves may have more money to spend for their own personal benefits?

One-third of our entire population is of foreign birth or parentage. Alien flags and foreign emblems float from our public buildings, emblazon our streets and head processions of the people. We are cursed with all kinds of foreign non-American issues. Vast un-American organizations are held together by issues of foreign birth for the purpose of perpetuating foreign sentiments and corrupting the ideals of our fathers. Anarchy and the destruction of all laws are openly advocated, the right to enforce discipline and the principles of some of these orders are claimed by secret conclaves even to the extent of taking human life.

The Deadly Beam Saw.

RICHMOND, Que., June 20.—A young unmarried man named Fenton met with a serious and probably fatal accident at Windsor mills yesterday afternoon in the steam saw mill owned by Mr. Joseph Bedard of this place. The unfortunate man got caught in the machinery and drawn under the big saw, which entered his side, and both arms were cut off above the elbows. He was a new hand, having only entered the mill Tuesday. He is not expected to survive many hours.

Hanged the Wrong Man.

PORT HURON, June 19.—The police authorities here have now pretty well tied down to the conviction that Martin, who was hanged by the lynchers, had nothing to do with the assault upon Mrs. Gillis. His appearance and dress did not agree with the description given by Mrs. Gillis, whereas her account perfectly described another tramp arrested on suspicion, but afterwards let go. The only evidence against Martin was Mrs. Gillis's statement when she saw him, that he was the man; but Mrs. Gillis was then in no state to give evidence about anything.

Increased Flour Output.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 19.—The Northwestern Miller says: The aggregate flour output last week was 113,700 barrels, against 106,180 the week before and 111,400 for the corresponding time in 1888. There have been quite liberal sales of flour during the past week, some firms reporting orders equal to double their output. The sales seem to have been made largely at old prices and apparently the trade is not taking the flour very freely at the 20 to 25 cents advance asked. The direct exports for the week were 34,600 barrels, against 35,170 for the preceding week.

Methodist Secession Colgate University.

UTICA, N.Y., June 19.—At the Madison University to-day James Colgate laid the corner-stone of the new Colgate library building; of which he is the donor. The building will cost over $150,000. In recognition of the gifts of James and Samuel Colgate to the university it was unanimously decided to-day by the trustees to change the name of the institution to Colgate University. The university has a new theological hall and is now well equipped.

Following Bellamy's Idea.

RALEIGH, N.C., June 19.—A test was made yesterday on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad of a process recently invented by Bayles Cade, of this country, for telegraphing to and from moving trains. The current is maintained by means of a drag attached to the car and which slides over a set of wires laid along the track. Messages were received from the offices at Raleigh and Greensboro while the train was running at the rate of thirty miles an hour.

Ambitious City Notes.

HAMILTON, June 19.—W. B. Griner, glassblower, and his 14-year-old son Willie were poisoned Monday by eating corned beef and were for some hours in a critical condition, but both have nearly recovered.

The first of the three tests of the pumps at the beach was concluded to-day. So far the tests have been satisfactory.

The late Staff-Sergt. Woodhouse was buried with military honors this afternoon.

Hotel Stables Burned.

MAXWELL, June 20.—Tuesday night the sheds and stables belonging to the hotel in this place were destroyed by fire. They were owned by R. Brown of Singhampton and rented by E. Linley; loss about $700. Linley also lost a cutter, harness and other articles worth about $100. A valuable horse narrowly escaped being burnt. No insurance. Origin of fire unknown.

Yellow Fever in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Dr. R. W. H. Duncan, surgeon of the Pacific mail steamer Colon, has been taken ill with symptoms of yellow fever. He is now quarantined on the upper floor of his residence in Brooklyn.

Where Will He Borrow the Money?

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The United States Minister at Constantinople reports that the Sultan has donated £300 for the Pennsylvania flood sufferers.

Lenten Sermon.

OTTAWA, June 19.—A mass meeting of Orangemen for the Ottawa district will be held here to-morrow night to take into consideration the report of the Grand Lodge meeting at Goderich. It is understood that a resolution will be passed in favor of incorporation, which will likely be brought up at the next sitting of Parliament.

Sir John Macdonald will leave for River du Loup about July 1. Cabinet meetings are held daily, so as to get the work disposed of before that time.

Two Stranded Vessels.

DULUTH, Minn., June 19.—A tug and steamship wreckage combination left here for Castle Danger, 6 miles below Two Harbors. More will go down to-night. The steamer City of Cleveland, which is reported a total loss, is in bad shape and full of water. She is insured and is valued at $160,000. The schooner John Martin, also stranded, was not so badly damaged. She is valued for insurance at $65,000. The boats were coal laden for Duluth.

East York Conservatives.

UNIONVILLE, June 19.—The quarterly meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association of East York was held at the Queen's Hotel here to-day. There was a fair attendance. It was decided to hold a convention at East Toronto on June 29 for the purpose of nominating a candidate in the Conservative interest for the coming local election.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

GALT'S SEVEN "HERETICS" EXCOMMUNICATED.

How They Regard the Sentence—The Union Question—Sabbath Education—Sabbath Observance.

TORONTO, June 20.—The Galt "heresy" case again came before the General Assembly for consideration yesterday. The clerk read Dr. Laing's motion summarily dismissing the appeal. Permission was then given Mr. J. D. Cameron to make a statement, which he did as follows:

On behalf of the appellants we desire to state that, as far as our intention could make it possible, we have been loyal members of our church, and have endeavored to labor for its prosperity, and are quite willing to abide by any decision that may be arrived at in the interests of peace and harmony and the prosperity of the church, provided the decision does not rob us of our joy in God, through the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us, and the privilege to testify to others the glad news of gospel truth. It was mentioned yesterday that it might be advisable to allow us to retain our membership in the church of our choice, but to endure us from bodies connected. As touching this point we have to say that we have no inclination at this time to request being allowed to remain members in the Sabbath school or in the congregational prayer meetings. But we would like to understand what our privileges would be were we allowed to retain our position with our charges. Would we be deprived of the privilege of reading a scripture lesson, taking part in prayer or testimony? What latitude would be given us? If permitted to take part in any of the exercises at any meeting, we will in the future, as in the past, acknowledge the authority of the chair, and should we pay anything which might not be considered by such authority to be in harmony with the church, as held by our church, it would be a simple matter for him to check us, and we would quietly resume our seats. We cannot see what money could be gained by not allowing us to retain all the privileges of church membership.

Rev. Dr. Cochrane, seconded by Mr. Walter Paul of Montreal, moved an amendment to Dr. Laing's motion. It contained the decision of the courts, but recommended that assessors be appointed to confer with the session of Knox church with a view of reinstating the appellants in the privileges they had lost, trusting that the latter would desist from propounding their peculiar views.

The amendment was lost on a division of 116 to 28.

Dr. Laing's motion was next carried on a division of 128 to 7, and the appellants and members of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston stood up while the sentences of the court was read to the heretics.

Mr. J. D. Cameron, on behalf of the appellants, then read the following statement, which had been prepared in anticipation of the adverse vote:

On behalf of the appellants permit me to say, now that the case has been decided against us in the various courts of our Church, and no further appeal being possible, that it must be very apparent to those who have been watching this case that the decision which has been arrived at has been based on the records, meaning by that the answers given before the session of Knox church, Galt, at the inquisitorial trial, where we were practically confined to "yes" and "no" answers, as has since been admitted by members of that court. We cannot help but think that injustice has been done us by the majority of this assembly. Our views we have stated fully, and fondly agreed with Drs. Ure, Laidlaw, Duval, King and others, in a broad, generous, Christian view of the case would be taken, as we, as Presbyterians, are substantially in accord with the principles and doctrines of our Church. However, we bow to the decision of the highest court of our Church, believing as we all do that God's hand is in everything. In the future, as in the past, we shall, as far as our intentions can make it possible, be loyal adherents, as in the past we have endeavored to be loyal members of our Church.

The committee appointed to deal with the overtures from other bodies respecting the Jesuits Estates Act brought in a report. The Act was protested against as a reservation of the Pope's authority and as invasion, consequently, of the Queen's supremacy, and because of the dangerous influences exerted by the Jesuit order. The highest legal advice should be sought as to the most effectual way of checking Ultramontane aggressions. The appointing of a standing committee having to do with all that makes for the preservation of Protestantism and civil and religious liberty was recommended.

The report of the Temperance Committee led to an animated discussion. Dr. Laing attacked the text book on temperance issued by the Education Department, because circumstances was not put on the highest ground as a sin against God but as a sin against the body.

One of the resolutions urged the church to take "the fullest advantage of each and every prohibitory feature of the license acts." This was an apple of discord, several commissioners vociferously asserting that the license system is wrong in every respect and it is a sin to license evil. The ex-Moderator: "The license system includes the principle of prohibition. Have you no sympathy with prohibition? [Applause.] You by license prohibit 499 out of every 500 going into this trade."

Dr. King made an analogy between liquor licenses and prostitution. Both were evils which the assembly should condemn and not in any wise recognize.

Senator Vidal thundered his anathemas against the licensing of what he termed a fearful evil. He felt fool of Dr. Kellogg for his statement of the previous day that the license system is a good thing. This brought the doctor to his feet to explain that he meant [illegible] was, seeing that prohibition is not attainable, the best way of dealing with the liquor traffic.

Another of the resolutions recorded appreciation of temperance societies and bands of hope in connection with congregations. To this Rev. Dr. Thompson of Sarnia and one or two others offered strenuous opposition. He would have no lower plank than true Christian teaching. Said the doctor: "When I join a temperance society I am putting on lower ground." ["Hear, hear."] He had no band of hope in connection with his church and would never brook such a thing. On a division there were only 15 supporters of his view. Nothing discussed the portly doctor returned to the attack as a later stage when the question for the churches to answer on the subject next year were submitted. In this forlorn hope of leaving out mention of bands of hope he had a score of supporters. With verbal alterations the nine recommendations of the committee on the synod issue passed.

The Book of Forms was adopted, ordered to be published, the committee thanked, and $600 voted Dr. Laing for his services. A slight breeze occurred before this was accomplished. Dr. McCurdy threw a bombshell amongst the commissioners by asserting that "hundreds of persons are admitted to the Presbyterian ministry who are not sufficiently educated to properly expound the Word of God." The Galt "heresy" be cited as an example, but was promptly called to order. Dr. McVicar, with warmth, denied the [illegible] parchment from his 30 years' experience. Laughter greeted his assertion that many of those examined were better educated and more competent for ministerial work than the examiners.

NO ESCAPE FROM SING SING.

Two Convicts Cut Through Walls and Doors To Be Executed.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Two convicts made a futile attempt to escape from Sing Sing shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. James Montgomery, aged 40, a native of Ireland, occupied cell No. 205, on the first gallery, and Charles H. Cummings, aged 26, native born, was in No. 202, adjoining him.

Cummings had been allowed the liberty of the gallery by the keeper, and taking advantage of this opportunity he sawed the iron stanchion that fastened the door of his cell in such a way that he could not readily be detected. This allowed him to leave his cell at pleasure. Between the cells the two convicts sawed out a block of the hard granite which weighed 400 pounds.

The work must have occupied several weeks' time. During the day their operations were concealed with blankets. When all was ready Montgomery passed out into the gallery, while Cummings remained to watch. Montgomery would then lower to the ground floor and had half sawed through the heavy iron bars covering a window when he was discovered by Keeper Dennis Keenan. The men made no resistance and simply told the keepers that they were tired of prison life. The tools that the men used in their effort to escape consisted of table knives, files and a hammer.

Montgomery, who is a thematist, was sentenced March 26, 1887, to a term of three years for burglary in the third degree by Judge Gildersleeve. He made a former attempt to escape and was caught a mile from the prison. Cummings was sentenced for a term of twenty years March 19, 1888, for felonious assault. He was superintendent of the tool factory. Montgomery will have his entire commutation time and Cummings three years and ten months. The two men were transferred from the first to the second tier of cells.

The Derby Smash.

PRESCOTT, June 19.—The second section of train No. 7 went on the Pan-Handle railroad was wrecked this afternoon while passing New Cumberland Junction, two miles east of Steubenville. Two persons were killed outright and eight injured, four of them seriously. The killed are J. H. Pegan and E. E. Reichert, postal clerks.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

GALT'S SEVEN "HERETICS" EXCOMMUNICATED.

How They Regard the Sentence—The Union Question—Sabbath Education—Sabbath Observance.

TORONTO, June 20.—The Galt "heresy" case again came before the General Assembly for consideration yesterday. The clerk read Dr. Laing's motion summarily dismissing the appeal. Permission was then given Mr. J. D. Cameron to make a statement, which he did as follows:

On behalf of the appellants we desire to state that, as far as our intention could make it possible, we have been loyal members of our church, and have endeavored to labor for its prosperity, and are quite willing to abide by any decision that may be arrived at in the interests of peace and harmony and the prosperity of the church, provided the decision does not rob us of our joy in God, through the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us, and the privilege to testify to others the glad news of gospel truth. It was mentioned yesterday that it might be advisable to allow us to retain our membership in the church of our choice, but to endure us from bodies connected. As touching this point we have to say that we have no inclination at this time to request being allowed to remain members in the Sabbath school or in the congregational prayer meetings. But we would like to understand what our privileges would be were we allowed to retain our position with our charges. Would we be deprived of the privilege of reading a scripture lesson, taking part in prayer or testimony? What latitude would be given us? If permitted to take part in any of the exercises at any meeting, we will in the future, as in the past, acknowledge the authority of the chair, and should we pay anything which might not be considered by such authority to be in harmony with the church, as held by our church, it would be a simple matter for him to check us, and we would quietly resume our seats. We cannot see what money could be gained by not allowing us to retain all the privileges of church membership.

Rev. Dr. Cochrane, seconded by Mr. Walter Paul of Montreal, moved an amendment to Dr. Laing's motion. It contained the decision of the courts, but recommended that assessors be appointed to confer with the session of Knox church with a view of reinstating the appellants in the privileges they had lost, trusting that the latter would desist from propounding their peculiar views.

The amendment was lost on a division of 116 to 28.

Dr. Laing's motion was next carried on a division of 128 to 7, and the appellants and members of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston stood up while the sentences of the court was read to the heretics.

Mr. J. D. Cameron, on behalf of the appellants, then read the following statement, which had been prepared in anticipation of the adverse vote:

On behalf of the appellants permit me to say, now that the case has been decided against us in the various courts of our Church, and no further appeal being possible, that it must be very apparent to those who have been watching this case that the decision which has been arrived at has been based on the records, meaning by that the answers given before the session of Knox church, Galt, at the inquisitorial trial, where we were practically confined to "yes" and "no" answers, as has since been admitted by members of that court. Paine's Celery Compound

Strengthens and builds up the old, and gives new vitality, health and vigor to the whole system. It is the discovery of Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M.D., LL.D., of Dartmouth College.

A Perfect Tonic and Invigorator, it GIVES NEW LIFE.

"I am sure it saved me much here which ordinary medicines failed to reach. I was all run down, and Paine's Celery Compound, in a very short time, built me up and made me strong and well. I am nearly seventy years of age, and I do not think I ever felt so well and strong before. I recommend it to all my friends."
E. Hyde, Cleveland, Tenn.

Paine's Celery Compound is of unequaled value to women. It overcomes all irregularities in female health, and dissipates those terrible diseases which make life a burden. It is the only medicine that can be relied upon in all cases of female weakness.

A Temperate View of the Jesuit Agitation.

To the Editor of the Examiner :—

DEAR SIR,—I am a temperate man in all things, and at this time I am particularly struck with a temperate view of the Jesuit agitation, as expressed by Rev. Wm. I. Shaw, of Montreal, in the following letter, which is clipped from the Montreal Witness of June 19th, which I send you for re-publication, in the name of JUSTICE.

Peterborough, June 19th.

REV. SHAW'S VIEWS ON THE JESUITS' ESTATES QUESTION.

To the Editor of the Witness :—

SIR,—At the recent session of the Montreal Conference I happened, unexpectedly, to become a little conspicuous in being exception to some parts of the anti-Jesuit resolutions there embodied. In consequence I have been questioned since on the subject by many friends, both here and in the West. May I be permitted, therefore, succinctly to state some of the views which compelled me reluctantly to dissent from my brethren. I do not state these dogmatically, or with any legal authority, but simply as my own thinkings upon the subject, and explaining the position which I took.

1. I do not see how the Federal Government could do otherwise, on constitutional grounds, than allow the Jesuits' Estates Act.

2. I believe petitions to the Governor-General are useless, and equally so are petitions to the Queen. The expression some time ago of laying our grievances "at the foot of the throne," but what does this mean? Simply transferring the matter from the arena of Canadian politics to that of British politics, where I fancy Lord Salisbury would not advise Her Majesty that she had better poorly trebuchet fires before undertaking to meddle in the internal affairs of Quebec. There may, perhaps, be occasion for Imperial interference, but is there a man in Canada who believes that Lord Salisbury or any other premier of Great Britain would advise such a course?

3. Judicial settlement by the calm dispassionate judgment of a competent tribunal is very desirable, but what lawyer yet has discovered the method of bringing the matter to an issue, unless Dr. Mackeron may reach this point as an outcome from the Mail suit?

4. I believe that the appeal to the clause in the B. N. A. Act protecting the rights of minorities is an groundless in this matter as it made in reference to the miserable threats that may have in this Province or any other Province affecting equally all classes. Surely it is self-evident that if there is any grievance at all, it has been mathematically divided in exact ratio between Roman Catholics and Protestants. What wrong is done to the latter which is not done to the former? A minority grievance is created only where legislation discriminates against the minority.

5. Complaint is made that $400,000 are to be taken from the Superior Education Fund and directed to Roman Catholic dioceses purposes. Granted,—but when money is it? Why, confessedly it is a part of the Roman Catholic share. Then surely the grievance is none of our business, no more than is the management of the fabrique of Notre Dame. The Roman Catholics alone have occasion to complain, and doubtless would; only that the appropriation of funds is made, not by the dict, not by the Government of Quebec, but by the head of their church. In relation to the matter—from one standpoint I regard not as implying supremacy over our legislature, but as Mr. Gladstone would say, "in the nature of things," as alien, by were the executive officer of a commercial corporation whose regulations give him control over its funds. A real Protestant grievance would arise if the Act provided that of the Protestant portion of the sixteen $40,000 should be applied, say, to charitable institutions. Against such an alienation we would strongly protest, while we surely ought to let the Catholic Committees of the Council of Public Instruction look after it own interests, whatever opinion we may privately entertain on to the wisdom of the distribution made by the Pope.

6. I believe that a quid pro quo should be guaranteed and provided by legislation for superior education in the place of the Jesuits' estates. The Premier has twice declared in the Legislature that our institutions, Catholic and Protestant, will not suffer in their annual grants because of the Jesuits' Estates Settlement act. May we not hope that to the reasonable request of the Protestant Committee of the Council of Public Instruction for such legislation he will accede. The public should know, however, that these considerations the proceeds of these estates have not reached half of the grants made for superior education. If superior education, Catholic and Protestant, only get what the estates yield it would certainly be badly off.

7. I believe that a calm discussion of these points by unbiased gentlemen who investigate and fairly consider the facts which we have hitherto so familiar the last few months, would betrayed them to ridicule and shame.

8. I believe that the Dalmanutha 12[illegible] are not all traitors, nor "the glorious 13" all heroes.

9. I believe a natural advantage will accompany of this wide-spread anti-Jesuit agitation in that when in a few months it is all over, Roman Catholics will think—"If Protestants make so much noise when their rights are threatened, what will they not do if their rights are unquestionably infringed?"

At the Merchants' Bank meeting to-day Mr. Hague, the general manager, delivered an elaborate address, in which he reviewed the general financial position of trade and commerce during the past year. The failure of crops in many districts had a bad effect on commerce, while the lumber and timber interest was also depressed. The shipping interest had likewise suffered from poor rates. He referred to the late by-law of the city of Montreal, by which the assessment on the stock of the banks was increased from 1 to 1½ per cent. He also referred to the decrease of business transacted into consolidations and looked upon it as the most prominent cause of losses of banks within the last five years. He considered the present outlook for business encouraging.

The Band and Firemen's Tournament—The Exhibition Will Pay Profits.

GUELPH, June 19.—The concert of the first day of the band and firemen's tournament received a severe check by a downpour of rain. The city is profusely decorated with pennons, flags and mottoes. In the afternoon the bands and firemen marched in procession to the Exhibition Park, where a fair crowd was in attendance. In the competition of the five-mile bands Anderson's band of Toronto carried off the first prize, $200, with 583 points; Berlin-Victoria band, $75 prize, and Parkdale band of Toronto third, 448 points.

THE NIAGARA SYNOD.

A Church of England Temperance Society Formed—Delegates Elected.

HAMILTON, June 19.—At the morning session of the Niagara Synod Bishop Hamilton, Hamilton, questioned a resolution to consider a letter from the Toronto Mission in reference to the jubilee of the diocese. A resolution of sympathy with the Johnstown sufferers requesting the Bishop to appoint a Sunday when the church may be devoted to their relief was adopted. Three representatives on the Board of Domestic and Foreign Missions, to serve three years, were elected: Canon Greaton, Niagara Falls; Rev. A. W. Mackay, St. Catharines; Jas. Henry, Hamilton, and Mr. William Ellis, St. Catharines.

At 11.45 the synod adjourned for half an hour to enter that a Church of England Temperance Society might be organized in connection with the synod. The motion to adjourn for the purpose was carried by 45 to 37 votes, the largest vote of the session. A discussion of the society was organized and officers elected.

Three delegates to the Provincial Synod were elected: Revs. Canon Worrell, Dundas; Alex. W. Mackay, St. Catharines; W. H. Clark, Appleby; Canon Sutherland, Hamilton; Ch. Whitcombe, Hamilton; R. J. Renison, Glanford; Canon Mills, Binbrook; A. J. Reid, Markham; H. M. Pinkham, Niagara Falls; Canon Matthews, Hamilton, and Canon Morrison, Simcoe.

Labor Leader Rewarded.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 19.—The American Federation convention to-day granted the application of the bolt painters' association to the organization. This will give them a bolt makers' seat. The Iron, Steel and Tin Plate Workers' Amalgamated Association was represented by the American Federation of Labor. Every all members of the federation are interested in case of a strike in any of the trade unions was adopted. An amendment was passed permitting the admission of [illegible] members of men about the mills who heretofore could not join the organization. Everybody employed about the mills can now be freely admitted with the exception of common laborers. This latter question was left to the discretion of the local lodges to whom the laborers may apply for admission. The basis adopted for the eastern division is the same as last year. It is on a basis of $4 a ton on a 2-cent Philadelphia card.

Never Bets on His Own Horse.

They tell a story of a man who has a fond pass for fast horses. A year or two ago he [illegible] that was said to be a "flyer" and marvellous stories were told about what she had done and was capable of doing. But an intimate friend noticed that the owner of the wonderful horse never staked any money on her.

"Why don't you back her for a good round sum if she can do what you claim she can?" he asked. "That would prove what you had confidence in her but as $5 or $10—"

"See here, my friend," said the other, with a twinkle in his eye, "don't you know me well enough to know that I'm too modest to bet on my own nag, especially when I feel sure that she can't come out ahead?"

When a man knows he can accomplish what he undertakes he doesn't deal too modest to say so. When Dr. Pierce put his Favorite Prescription before the public as a certain remedy for all female diseases with "satisfaction guaranteed or money returned" on every bottle of it, it proved that he had confidence in the preparation. He felt sure of its merits, and the testimony of thousands of women who have been cured by it of "weakness," "irregularities," and all the distressing diseases from which their sex suffers so much, proves that his faith was well founded.

In My Sister Right?

How often do we hear one lady ask this question of another. Invariably these ladies who are constantly worrying about their hair, do not wear any kind of hair goods, but possibly a switch. Now, consider this, ladies: Would it not pay you to get a nice, becoming style of Front-piece, Rang or Wave, made of fine, curled or waved human hair, and be sure it is always right? Then you would not require to ask "Is my hair all right?" Prof. Dexterwood, of Toronto, has made the manufacture of hair goods a life study, and amongst his many pieces every lady will find something to suit her. You have all heard of the professor, though, perhaps, you have never interested yourself enough to call on him during his former visits. Do so now. He will be at Hudson's House on Friday and Saturday, June 28th and 29th, and will bring with him his big stock of all kinds of hair goods. He will be pleased to show you his various styles. See his advertisement in another column. dw

JOHNSTOWN'S DEAD.

The Most Accurate Estimate Possible Places the Killed at 4000.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 17.—Col. Rogers, who is in charge of the Bureau of Registration, reports to Gen. Hastings that the aggregate registration is 18,500 names; 2000 survivors have left the locality without registering, and many others are being entertained in the vicinity, who, because they were not affected by the flood, refuse to register, as they think they are not legitimately survivors. Col. Rogers estimates the survivors at 20,000, and these figures are presumably correct.

Deducting these 20,000 survivors from the total population leaves 41[illegible] lives lost, which estimate is an positive as it will probably ever be possible to give, as it is made up from careful research, house-to-house canvass and comparisons with proof-sheets of the Johnstown directory, which was completed just one month previous to the disaster, and is now in the hands of the printer. The bodies were found yesterday.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Diphtheria in Carleton County—Nothing Yet Done with the Graham Petition.

OTTAWA, June 17.—Diphtheria in a rather malignant form is reported to be prevalent in the neighborhood of the village of Manotic, Carleton county. Several grown up persons, as well as a large number of children, are under medical treatment.

On Sunday next the fete dieu will be celebrated in the Catholic churches in the usual manner. The route of the procession has never yet been through Lower Town.

Nothing has yet been done with the Graham petition for a reference of the Jesuits' Estates Act to the Supreme Court. It has come formally before the Privy Council and there remains.

A TEST CASE.

The Government to Sue the C. P. R. Telegraph Company for Destroying Letters.

HAMILTON, June 16.—It is rumored that enquiries are being made in the city be-day with a view to instituting proceedings against the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company for the violation of the provisions of the Postal Act in delivering private letters in competition with the postoffice. The inquiries are being made by Walker, Scott & Lees, solicitors, who have instructions from the Government to institute proceedings, and it will likely be a test case. The action will be taken under section 33 of the Postal Act, which gives the Postmaster-General the right to collect and convey letters. There are certain exceptions, among others those letters sent by messengers on your own concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver. It is expected that the Telegraph company will base its defence on this exception.

The writ will probably be served to-morrow on the telegraph company. It is well known that there is at least one other office in the city which receives and delivers letters, but is to not yet known whether a writ will be issued against those parties.

BARRY'S NEW LABOR UNION.

He Explains His Plan at Chicago to Representatives of 7000 Men.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The organizing committee of the new labor organization known as the Brotherhood of United Labor met last night. T. B. Barry presided. It was reported that labor organizations representing about 7000 members had signified their intention of uniting with the new order. Mr. Barry presented his plan of government for the new order, which is a radical departure from the methods used by the Knights of Labor. All power is to rest in the local organizations, and the annual convention and the executive officers can only advise measures, having no power to formulate a policy of their own. They cannot order a strike or declare one off, nor can they levy assessments of any kind but may recommend one, though they cannot enforce it. The organization contemplates local, central, state and national trade branches. John R. Ables of Davenport, Ia., and George E. Detwiller of Chicago were elected delegates to the world's congress of labor, which is to meet in Paris July 14.

Father Damien's Successor.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Father Callaghan of Castle Garden, who some time ago sent to the leper settlement at Molokai several cases of clothing, to-day received a letter from Father Wendelin, the successor of Father Damien, thanking him for the gifts. Father Wendelin says he has not as yet experienced any inclinations of the dread malady, but that the disease has stricken down his assistant, Father Conrardy. The five Sisters of Mercy sent to the settlement from Syracuse are reported as doing well.

The New U. S. Consul-General at Halifax.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The President to-day appointed Wakefield G. Frye of Maine Consul-General at Halifax. Mr. Frye held that position during the Arthur Administration and was succeeded by Mr. Phelps, the present Consul-General. He was born in Maine, was a member of the Legislature and is a man of prominence in his State. He is not related to Senator Frye.

Lived to the Age of 103.

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 15.—The oldest man in St. John died yesterday. Cornelius Driscoll was born in Baltimore, County Cork, Ireland, in 1786, and was, therefore, 103 years old. He was a laborer, used no tobacco and scarcely touched liquor. Up to the age of 90 he worked steadily and until a few months ago worked about the house. He claimed that his grandfather died at 103 and two of his brothers lived to be 98.

An Ex-Toronto Man in a Buffalo Jail.

BUFFALO, June 16.—Joseph Pittman, a guest at the Tift House, hailing from Toronto, is in jail on complaint of R. D. Tuthill, to whom he gave a sight draft for $100.20 on a Toronto firm. The draft came back dishonored. Pittman is a fine-looking gentleman, engaged in the sale of patent gas burners. He was formerly a dry goods merchant.

Proposed Sheltered Walk from the Gate of the Gorge to Stanley Park.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Collis P. Huntington, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad, has placed his willingness to subscribe $50,000, if it is raised, towards building a railroad in Africa from the lower falls of the Congo River to Stanley Pool. It is also suggested that other American millionaires will become interested in the enterprise.

It is said that the way was paved for sending American capital to be expended in African railroads through the friendship between Mr. Huntington and Mr. McKinnon, the great Scotch shipbuilder. The latter is a friend of the King of Belgium, whose interest in African affairs is well known. The Belgian Government, it is stated, has agreed to put $2,000,000 into the scheme and a syndicate of Belgian capitalists has offered an equal sum. Mr. McKinnon is interested to the extent of $100,000.

Surveys of the route of the road have been made, and the fact ascertained that there are about 3000 miles of navigable water above Stanley Pool. The length of the road will be 250 miles. Rings and plates are now on their way from Europe to the Congo.

The benefits of vacation season may be greatly enhanced, if, as the cause there, the blood is being cleansed and vitalized by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A good appetite, fresh vigor, and buoyant spirits attend the use of this wonderful medicine.

Occasional Doses of a good cathartic like Ayer's Pills are necessary to keep the blood pure and the body healthy. dw

Have You Rheumatism?

If you are suffering the agonies of neuralgia and have failed to get a remedy that will afford relief, we would you to try Polson's Nervilene. No remedy in the market has given anything like the same degree of satisfaction. Its action on nerve pain is simply marvellous, and as it is put up in 10 cent sample bottles, no great expense is involved in giving it a trial. Polson's Nervilene is the most pleasant, powerful and certain pain remedy in the world. Sold by all dealers in medicines 10 and 25c. a bottle. 6dw26

Fiction Foundings.

Mr. Hosea F. Murray, of Pictou, N. S., writes:—"I was affected with dyspepsia and nervous debility, and tried many remedies without avail, but one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters much improved me, and two more made me a well man." 2w23d

Given Instant Relief.

"I have been troubled with asthma and a bad cough for years. I got nothing to help me like Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and would recommend it to others as it gives instant relief." Extract from a letter from Walter McAuley, Ventnor, Ont. 2w23d

Many Troubles.

"My age is 58, and for twenty years I have suffered from kidney complaint, rheumatism and bone boils, and would have been a dead woman if it had not been for Burdock Blood Bitters, of which two bottles restored me to health and strength." Miss Maggie Hemsley, Half Island Cove, N.S. 2w23d

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and,

By Taking

three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

The Christian Alliance.

A weekly meeting of the Peterborough Branch of the Christian Alliance is held every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Women's Christian Temperance Union hall, over A. Clegg's store. All are cordially invited.

J. C. TENNYSON, President. JOHN BRADEN, Secretary.

A Pleasant Affair.

A grand moonlight excursion, was held on Little Lake last Monday evening, 17th June, on the palace barge "City of Peterborough." There was a select, quiet party on board, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. R. Mullen was chief head of it and conducted the boat. Mr. Dennett's orchestra furnished the music. The boat returned to the wharf at twelve o'clock.

The Johnstown Relief.

This evening a special meeting of the Peterborough branch of the R. B. A. will be held in the library of the Murray street school, where the Association will in future hold its meetings. The object of to-night's meeting is for the purpose of raising funds for a relief branch, St. Catherine, No. 139, in Johnstown, Penn., whose lodge rooms were destroyed in the recent flood. A full attendance is requested.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Wall Paper.

The Peterborough Bookstore shipped today a hundred dollar order for fine wall paper. This is the fourth order shipped to eastern towns this season. Their reputation for fine decoration is getting abroad.

Change of Mail Time.

A change of time in making up the Lakefield mails, consequent upon the adoption of the double train service, has been made at the post office. Mails for Lakefield now close at 7.45 a.m. and 5.45 p.m.; mails are received from Lakefield at 12 noon, and 8 30 p.m. These are summer arrangements.

The Helping Hand.

The Peterborough branch of the Emerald Benefical Association met last night for the purpose of devising ways and means to help a sister branch in distress at Johnstown, Pa. It was decided to canvass for subscriptions, each member of the Branch doing his best to collect funds in this behalf.

Convent Prizes.

LINDSAY, June 18.—The annual distribution of prizes took place at Loretto convent here, and was attended by the parents of the pupils and others, by invitation. The presentations were made by Bishop O'Connor, of Peterborough. The entertainment was brought to a close by the children of the college singing the National Anthem.

A Hearty Send Off.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dawson left on the evening train last night for Chicago, and were said farewell to at the station by a large number of their young friends. A miscellaneous collection of old boots that behind the cab and showers of rice as the train moved out from the station were a prominent feature of the farewell. These emblems of good luck it is hoped will fulfil their purpose.

The Late Mrs. Eastland.

Last night about eleven o'clock, Mrs. Eastland, wife of Mr. Thos. Eastland, Lakefield, died after an illness of some duration. Deceased lady was a daughter of the late Barnabas Bletcher, of Port Hope, and was aged 63 years. She lived the greater part of her married life in Peterborough, but has for the past five years resided in Lakefield. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock, from the family residence in Lakefield to Little Lake Cemetery.

Flower Thieves.

Some residents of the South Ward are complaining of the depredations of flower thieves. A gentleman told the EXAMINER of wholesale destruction committed in his own garden and those of neighbors. He threatens that about the first one he catches stealing the flowers upon which he has expended so much trouble and money. The vandals are adults, as the footprints are of boots about No. 7 and 8 in size. It is to be hoped these nightly depredators will leave off their nasty pranks or they may get into trouble. A "lark" is no lark when so much at the expense of others.

A New Assessment Plan.

The Equalization Committee of the county council has decided upon a new step in the way of equalization of the assessment. At present the assessment of each township is taken separately by men appointed by the individual townships, and the equalization is left for the county council to do. Now it is proposed to leave the assessment of the whole county and the equalization thereof in the hands of three men, to be appointed by the council. The question was brought up in committee by Mr. A. R. Kidd, Reeve of Dummer, and the committee decided to recommend this course to the council.

To-day's Excursions.

The excursion to Toronto under the auspices of St. Andrew's Society was a success. About five coach left on this morning's trains and another coach will go up this evening at 5.50. The scene at the C. P. R. station this morning was a lively one. Piper McIntosh was engaged in full Highland costume and played many a "skirl"—to the delight of everyone. Tartan rosettes and other Scottish emblems were prominently displayed. The excursionists have till to-morrow night in the Queen City. St. Paul's Sunday school is holding its annual outing to-day. A train of five coaches conveyed the children and their friends to Chemong lake, where the best was taken.

Gentlemen with Bald Heads.

What remarks as a rule attend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is not his fault but his misfortune. There is not alone this annoyance, but a person with the scalp unprotected is more liable to diseases of the head. When a gentleman loses his hair he should take immediate steps to have it replaced with an artificial covering. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is slow about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, will be at Phelan's Hotel on June 28 and 29, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, which are just what are required. The least you can do is to call and examine the articles whether you buy one or not. Physicians endorse them and you cannot afford to be without one. dw

A Handsome Medal.

Mr. Robert Graham, of Lakefield, has returned from Toronto, where he was making a short visit. He brought with him the Caledonian Jubilee medal won by the Lakefield curling club in competition with Millbrook. The match was played at Peterborough last winter. The medal is of bronze, 3 inches in diameter and ⅛ thick. On one side is a curling scene, with "stanes an' besom" underneath, and the inscription, "won by Lakefield vs Millbrook." On the other side of the medal is the Scottish coat of arms, encircled by a wreath of Scotch thistles, with the inscription, "Royal Caledonian Curling Club, Jubilee, 1838." Mr. Graham feels very proud of the trophy, as the winning of which he had a share, and the Lakefield Club will no doubt treasure it as a token of their skill in hurling the stane.

The Stolen Watches.

The young lad William Whitfield, arrested at Harpeler in connection with the burglary of Wyatt's jewelry store, was brought back to town last night and this morning appeared before the police magistrate. He was remanded till to-morrow, when both he and his brother Walter will be given their trial. The discovery of the guilty parties was made in this way. A week ago Monday, a few days after the burglary, William Whitfield went to Harpeler to work in Brodie's mills. He had with him a cigar box containing a half dozen watches. For various reasons his landlady, a Mrs. James, was led to suspect the lad, and on being questioned, told her his brother Walter had taken them from a store in Peterborough, whose he did not know, but he thought it was Everett's. Mrs. James sent them back to Mr. Everett, accompanied by a note reading: "If not yours, hand over to the Chief of Police." This Mr. Everett did, with the result that the clue was followed up by the Chief and the two boys arrested as stated. It is a wonder a clue did not reach the Chief's ears before, as Walter Whitfield made a boast among his young companions that he had stolen the watches and would not be found out.

A Wild Runaway.

Last night about nine o'clock Harry Cavanagh and Herb. Kendry were driving along Aylmer street with Mr. T. Cavanagh's hack, in which was a young woman, when the horses took fright and bolted down the street. At the corner of Sherbrooke street the hack ran against a tree and the horses turned down towards the river. They ran right to Water street, and when near the dock the young woman jumped out. She was afterwards picked up unconscious, but soon revived and it was found had sustained no serious injury. She is a stranger in town and was taken to the Queen's hotel. Meanwhile the horses continued their mad flight, and just as it appeared they were about to leap into the water, they swerved to the left and ran on up Water street. At the corner of Simcoe street they again headed for the water. By this time the hack was badly wrecked, only a part of the vehicle following the horses into the river, and the two young men had both fortunately succeeded in having the runaway without injury to themselves. The saddened team plunged into the water at the foot of Simcoe street, and swam and waded to the railway trestle work, where they climbed over the logs which were forced up against the piles by the current, and then swam on to the foot of the roadway alongside the woolen mill, where they were pulled out. The hack was completely wrecked, and the harness was considerably damaged thereby. How all the parties escaped escaped so luckily is a marvel.

A Beautiful Picture.

"The Baptism of Christ in the Jordan" on Exhibition at the Peterborough Bookstore.

A very handsome picture, and one with a history, has just been framed at the Peterborough Bookstore for Rev. P. Clifton Parker, and will be exposed for a few days in one of the windows. The picture is one from the first hundred copies struck off the engraving of the celebrated original painting by E. Goodwyn Lewis, "The Baptism of Christ in the Jordan." As the request of the painter, the late Dean Stanley fitted the scene of the event as, in his opinion, the most probable place of Christ's baptism, Arch Deacon Farrer also commenting. The artist, being certified of this, spent three years in Palestine on the work. Like all great pictures, it created a sensation in the art world, and in deference to the public was placed on exhibition in the United Kingdom and in some few of the larger cities in the States in 1876. The money then received was generously devoted to Baptist Foreign Missions. The original painting was purchased by Joseph Brooke, mayor of Huddersfield, for £5,000. The engraving, which is copyright in England and America, is rare, and was secured a few weeks ago in London for the Rev. P. Clifton Parker by his brother, R. M. Parker, Esq., Clayford.

Following is a description of the picture: The aim of the artist has been to represent as literally as possible the historic fact of the baptism of Christ as narrated in the Gospels—"In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness. Then went out unto him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan, and were baptized. And Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. And straightway coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens opened." The baptism takes place at one of the fords of the Jordan. On the left bank of the river the sterile mountains of Moab glistened in the bright Eastern sunlight. On the right bank of the river a great mass of people, "from Jerusalem and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan," are gathered together. On the opposite side of the ford are some travellers, with their camels, about to cross the river, but arrested for a time by the strange and impressive scene. The larger group is composed of men of various nationalities, and of the representatives of every age and class; the Roman soldier, the dark-skinned Ethiopian, rulers and grandees of the Jewish nation occupy the foreground, all conjecturing who this new-comer may be; John's own disciples, too, form part of the group. Woman bends forward by the river's brink, with hands clasped, and face expressive of mingling curiosity and devotion. Childhood, youth, manhood, and withered age, all give interest to the scene. The great feature of the picture, of course, is the baptism itself. The Baptist is in the act of raising the Saviour out of the water; a glory from above, brighter than the sun, streams on the Saviour's upturned face; John's manly, massive countenance, from which the dark locks are thrown back as he bends over the Saviour, catches the reflected glow. The heaven-descending light is soft, yet bright enough to focus the interest upon the Saviour. The two countenances present a beautiful contrast, illustrative of the characters of our Lord and His forerunner—the gentle, divine nature which would not break the bruised reed, nor quench the smoking flax, and the stern, yet reverential human nature of the Baptist. John's face is full of solemn awe, as if he felt oppressed with the solemnity of the act which he has just performed on One "whose shoe's latchet he was not worthy to unloose."

The Boys in Camp.

Our Correspondent Sends His First Letter—Promotions in the Peterborough Detachment of the Battery.

MILITARY BRIGADE CAMP, Gananoque, June 19.

The Battery arrived here at 5.30 p.m. on Tuesday, and at once unloaded guns and drove to camp, where the advance had tents pitched. The camp is situated on the opposite side of the road to last year's.

This morning we got up at 5.30 and paraded for brigade orders, all battalions, troops and batteries attending at 7. Some men fainted from heat, hunger and fatigue. We had only a half loaf of bread and some cheese from the time we left Port Hope till this morning at 5.30, when breakfast was served.

The afternoon was put in at standing gun drill. After tea it began to rain quite heavily.

Following are the promotions in the Peterborough detachment of the Battery:—Sergeant McMahon, to be Sergt.-Major; Corpl. Hutchison, to be Sergeant; Bombs. R. A. W. Hay and I. Montgomery, to be Corporals; Gunner G. C. Hodge, to be Acting Bombardier.

I will write you more to-morrow.

The Grand Lodge Condemned.

Following is the resolution adopted by a unanimous standing vote at the meeting of the County L. O. L. at Lakefield Tuesday night:

"That we would be recreant in our loyalty to the principles of the Orange Order if we failed to express our unqualified disapproval of the action of the recent Grand Lodge of B. N.A. at the Goderich meeting in declining to pronounce condemnation against the so-called individual Orange leaders in the House of Commons who did not vote in favor of disallowance of the Jesuit Estates Act, and we here brand them as traitors, and also express our sincere regret that they did not take steps to send deputations to Sir John Macdonald at Ottawa, in whose hands the power of disallowing the Act rests until the 8th of August, insisting, in the name of civil and religious liberty, in said Act being wiped off the statute books of the country, and we hereby invite the co-operation of the rank and file of the order throughout the country (largely through whose votes Sir John Macdonald has been kept in power so many years) to unite with us in demanding from the Dominion Government the disallowance of the Jesuits' Estates Act before the 8th day of August. That we also consider that the course taken by the Orange Sentinel at this most important crisis in our history makes it well deserving the name of the disgusting Sentinel given by Grip and unworthy of the support of the true and loyal Orangemen of Canada. That we tender our thanks to John White, ex-M.P., for the manly stand he has taken in this important question, and hope he soon be back again in the House of Commons ready as before for the principle of civil and religious liberty."

Labor Union.

On Monday, July 2nd, the nine hour system of labor comes in vogue among the carpenters of Peterborough.

The labor demonstration early in September is being worked up energetically. Invitations are to be extended to assemblies in Toronto, Kingston and Ottawa district to participate.

A CHAPTER OF TERRORS.

Two Murders and a Drowning Accident.

A Young Man Stabbed While Sitting With His Sweetheart.

CHATHAM, Ont., June 20.—A young man named Frank Bear, about 23 years of age, was sitting with his girl on the steps of the exhibition grounds last night about nine o'clock, when two other young men passed, and, making some comments about Bear, were ordered to move on by him. When one of the men, Augustus Park, aged 26, stabbed Bear to the heart, killing him almost instantly. Park surrendered himself to the police.

Another Murder.

LANGTON, Ont., June 20.—Last evening near this village a boy named Davis, aged fourteen, shot and instantly killed John Rohrer, aged twelve. There had been an old grudge between the boys, and Davis meeting Rohrer said, "Stand back or I will shoot you," and immediately fired, the ball passing through the temple. Davis will be arrested.

Three Persons Drowned.

CHAMBLY BASIN, June 20.—A dreadful drowning accident occurred at Chambly Canton this morning. About ten o'clock three men and a boy started fishing from a boat. A heavy gale came upon them, the boat filled with water and went down. Alex. Rivers, his son and Louis Seward were drowned. The other man managed to keep afloat for ten minutes, when assistance arrived and he was rescued from a watery grave.

News Nuggets.

—Mr. Tilley, Inspector of Schools, is making an official visit to the public schools this week.

—A special meeting of Otonabee lodge of Oddfellows will be held to-night for the conferring of degrees.

The cricket club goes to Port Hope next Wednesday to play the postponed game with Trinity College School.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Baptie returned home from their wedding tour on Tuesday evening.

Hon. O. Mowat, Mrs. Mowat and party have left for England and the Paris Exposition.

At Home.

On next Tuesday evening, the 25th inst., Mr. and Mrs. Pearson give an At Home at the George street parsonage. The parsonage has just been painted, and made to look more attractive in its outside appearance, and has also been much improved in its interior. The At Home will be in aid of the parsonage fund. An excellent programme will be provided, and a most pleasant evening provided for. The small amount of 15 cents will be given on entering. This arrangement, however, is not intended to restrain the liberality of the people, as no amount, however large, will be refused by the young lady collectors. Refreshments, in the line of strawberries, ice cream, cake, etc., will be provided at a small extra fee for those who desire such. Let there be a large gathering of the friends of the occupants of the George street Methodist Parsonage. 1d

Well up in the Front.

L. Potvin, pastry cook and confectioner, No. 509 George street, has engaged the services of a first class baker who has had a long experience in Toronto. Special attention given to getting up wedding cakes and fine pastry. If you want a good article give Potvin a call. Daily supplies of bread, cakes, buns and tarts. Icecream in bulk or by the dish during the season. 6cod

Is Marriage a Failure?

The question is repeatedly asked and urged—"Is marriage a failure"? Marriage is certainly a failure in those households where Hawley Bros'. prime teas are not regularly used. The irritation excited by drinking weak, tasteless decoctions called tea, is absolutely absent where the fine teas sold by Hawley Bros. are used. They make a specialty of fine teas, do an immense trade, buy in large quantities and therefore at low figures. Thus the customer gets the finest brands and blends of the freshest, most fragrant teas, at the lowest prices. The characteristics of Hawley Bros'. teas are strength, fine flavour and cheapness of price. Those wishing the choicest teas should remember that Hawley Bros'. is the place, and also that what is said about teas applies to their coffees, and remember also that Hawley Bros'. is the place to get bargains in glassware. dw

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. BRAMIER, secretary of committee. dtd

AT
TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices, is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very last now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

"A Spring Message"
FROM THE NEW FIRM OF
H. LeBRUN & Co.
Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

in past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORNING SUITS, BUSINESS FASHION, FINER STYLISH than ever before handled before.

LATEST EUROPEAN NEWS.

M. PASTEUR'S DELEGATES VISIT TO AUSTRALIA.

Continued Excitement Over the London Liquor Case—The Situation in Servia—Bombarding an Island.

PLYMOUTH, June 21.—Dr. Garnaud and Lady, representatives of M. Pasteur of Paris, who went to Australia twelve months since with a secret in their possession which they alleged would exterminate the rabbits, came home on the Orient Co.'s steamer Cuzco, which arrived at Plymouth Wednesday. They complain bitterly of their treatment in Australia. The passing of a law preventing the introduction of the virus was only the forerunner of the disgrace which were systematically placed in their way. The rabbit commissioners reported that M. Pasteur's system was not dangerous, but not efficient. They, however, refused to allow a public trial to be made. Experiments were made, proving that chickens fed on fresh bread spread from diseased rabbits remained healthy ones, 70 per cent. of the originality being registered at a public trial. M. Pasteur's agents showed that by means of vaccination they could prevent anthrax in sheep and cattle. The anthrax board reported in favor of M. Pasteur's vaccine as a preventive against the disease, and recommended its adoption and use. A number of sheep owners subsequently have vaccinated, but M. Pasteur refused to allow it until some assurance was made with the rabbit question. Public trials were made in Queensland with the view of proving that pleuro-pneumonia could be cured by inoculation, and were said to be a success. Dr. Garmont asserts that M. Pasteur's letters of instructions to him were opened by the Colonial Government, and extracts taken therefrom. The matter has been placed in the hands of the French Ambassador in London, who will institute an enquiry into the circumstances.

The Meat Market Leper.

LONDON, June 21.—The Prince of Wales, at whose instance the attention of the authorities was first called to the leper employe in the Central Meat Market, writes through his secretary, Sir Francis Knollys, that the leper referred to was a patient recently before the British Epidermological Society. Health Officers have admitted that there are meat-handlers in the Central Market and elsewhere who are merely afflicted with eczema, an affection that closely resembles leprosy.

Sir Lepel's Proposition.

LONDON, June 21.—Sir Lepel Griffin proposes to colonize Cashmere with 2,000,000 Englishmen as a bulwark to the Indian Empire. This involves the deposition of the Rajah, and causes general alarm among the native princes.

BERLIN, June 21.—The North German Gazette accuses Switzerland of promoting socialism. It says: Had a great power practised such abuses against another power as Switzerland has been guilty of a war would have resulted. Neutrality becomes unnatural and unbearable when an offensive disregard for the interests of a neighboring state is held to be justifiable.

Alexander Removes Bonied.

BELGRADE, June 21.—A Government circular denies recent alarmist rumors concerning this country and states that the foreign policy of Servia is unchanged.

The police have seized the office in which was printed a circular inciting Slavs and Servians in Austria to revolt and promising Russia's assistance. The authorship of the circular has been traced to Progressist editors who, it is alleged, desire to engender Austrian distrust of the Servian Government.

Voting on Bylaws at Windsor.

WINDSOR, June 21.—Voting took place here yesterday on bylaws appropriating $25,000 to improvements on the park, $40,000 on new Town Hall and the paving of the Sandwich gravel road. The first two were defeated and the third carried. Michael Brien was elected councillor for the First Ward.

Mr. Chapleau's Promotion Urged by a Deputation of Conservative M. P.s.

OTTAWA, June 21.—Messrs. Girouard, Desjardins, Hall, Labelle and Lepine, M.P.s, interviewed Sir John Macdonald yesterday to urge the appointment of Mr. Chapleau as Minister of Railways. One of the gentlemen stated before the interview took place that both his position in the Conservative party, his past services and his qualifications and experience made Mr. Chapleau's claim to the position superior to those of any other aspirant.

The Tournament at Guelph.

GUELPH, June 21.—The second day of the band and firemen's tournament was a great success. Fine weather prevailed and immense crowds thronged the streets all morning waiting to see the firemen's procession which appeared shortly before noon. It was a big affair, most of the merchants and manufacturers being represented. In the afternoon the various bands and firecompanies marched in procession to the exhibition park, where 7000 people gathered to see the sports. There were so many competitors and the program was so long that the contests were not finished.

THE ASSEMBLY'S BILL OF FARE ON ITS CLOSING DAY.

The Cry for Money—Their Wives' Status—Corporate Union With Anglicans and Methodists—A Scottish Trouble.

TORONTO, June 21.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church closed its session yesterday. At the morning session Rev. D. J. Macdonnell of Toronto presented the report of the committee dealing with the cases of the ministers desiring to retire, and recommended that the following clergymen be allowed to retire and that they be placed on the fund for aged and infirm ministers: Rev. John Stewart of Owen Sound presbytery, Revs. James Black and Thomas Goldsmith of the Hamilton presbytery, Revs. Angus McCall and William Walker of the Chatham presbytery, Rev. Charles Cameron of the Maitland presbytery, Rev. Duncan McNaughton of the Bruce presbytery, Rev. Peter Lindsay of the Miramichi presbytery, Rev. A. L. Wiley of St. John presbytery, Rev. Charles Chiniquy of the Montreal presbytery, Rev. John Cameron of the Halifax presbytery and Rev. Archibald Currie of the Lindsay presbytery.

Rev. Dr. Thompson of Sarnia made an appeal for more liberal contributions to the fund for the support of the retired ministers. He referred to the providence for retired bank agents, civil servant officials and school teachers, which are all more liberal than those for the infirm and aged Presbyterian ministers. "The Methodist and Episcopal churches," said he, "put to shame the best efforts that we make. Old ministers are loth to resign because the future is dark indeed."

Rev. J. A. Murray of London instanced nine churches in that presbytery which give nothing. (Cries of "shame, shame.") "Here in Toronto Presbytery," continued the speaker, "Knox, the banner church, contributes $400, and Old St. Andrew's comes next with $360. My friend Macdonnell, who does nobly in other respects, may be criticised as regards this fund. His church (New St. Andrew's) gives only $275.

Rev. Dr. King of Winnipeg named the committee "in defence of our civil and religious rights," as follows: Rev. D. J. Macdonnell and Principal McVicar, joint conveners, the Moderator, ex-officio, Dr. Robert Campbell, Montreal; Dr. Cook, Dr. Warden, Dr. McCrae, Rev. Jas. Fleck, Prof. Scrimger, Rev. N. McKay, Dr. Armstrong, Rev. R. W. McLean, Principal Cavan, Rev. G. M. Milligan, Dr. Torrance, Dr. Laing, Dr. Laidlaw, Dr. MacMillan, Rev. J. A. Murray, Dr. John Thompson, Dr. Robertson, Dr. King, Dr. McCulloch, Dr. Forest, Dr. Burns, Rev. A. Falconer, Rev. George Bruce, Rev. Thomas Fotheringham. Elders—Hon. D. Laird, Hon. Alex. Morris, Messrs. J. K. Macdonald, J. T. Small, Ald. Wm. Carlyle, Matthew Hutcheson, J. McD. Harris, Henry Morton, Dr. McDonald, Hamilton, John Charlton, M.P., James Fisher, M.P.P., Robert Murray, George May, A. J. MacKenzie, A. Bartlett, J. P. Miller, and James Hutchinson, with power to add to their number. Executive committees will be organized in Toronto and Montreal.

By the treaty of late Rev. N.G. Henry of Nova Scotia, whose short but the previous night been rifled of $100 (which was generously replaced by a similar collection of the congregation), presented the report on systematic beneficence. The system of weekly contributions in envelopes had been very successful. In accordance with Scripture precedence not less than one-tenth of every Christian's increase should be given to the causes of God.

Rev. Dr. Moore of Ottawa presented this report on the thorny subject of marriage with a deceased wife's sister: "In view of the fact that 25 out of 29 of the presbyteries which have reported on the results sent down by the last General Assembly have reported approval of the 'Result' on Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister,' namely, whether subscription of said formula in which office-bearers declare the Confession of Faith shall be so understood as to allow liberty of opinion in respect of the proposition, 'A man may not marry any of his wife's kindred nearer in blood than he may of his own,' the committee recommend the General Assembly to discern that subscription to the formula shall be so understood as to allow liberty of opinion in respect of said proposition."

The Moderator pointed out that a majority of the 43 presbyteries in Canada were in favor of the report, which after some discussion was adopted.

Then the interminable license question again cropped up, in the form of an overture from the Presbytery of Ottawa meant certain amendments to the License Act now in force in Ontario. Pithily expressed, these amendments are, license holders would have to petition to get "in," and not householders to petition to get them "out." Every member of the Dominion House is to be asked to support the bill next session.

Dr. King was satirical on the "inconsistency of the assembly." Said he, "I know it's not necessary that the assembly be consistent. Yesterday we repudiated all sympathy with or recognition of the license system; to-day we want to improve it." [Loud laughter.]

Dr. Read was again a protestant. He would have no tinkering with municipal matters by the supreme church court. Ultimately the report was received.

Then business was rushed on with a desire to finish the business by 6 o'clock, but this was found to be impossible and the balance was left over for the evening. Then with devout thankfulness the doxology was sung, and till they be reassembled at Ottawa 12 months hence the assembly's legislative functions are suspended.

Belleville Briefs.

BELLEVILLE, June 21.—A car load of horses were shipped from this city to the United States yesterday.

The county equalization will be $25,000 less than last year. Deseronto is increased $50,000 and the decreases are Elzevir and Grimsthorpe $27,000, because of fire at Bridgewater, Tyendinaga $12,000, loss of territory annexed to Deseronto, Huntingdon $25,000.

The school inspectors reports for North and South Hastings are favorable.

New potatoes have already appeared on the Market.

The closing exercises at Albert College will be commenced to-night.

The county council have granted $100 to the Bridgewater sufferers and a like amount to the Madoc, East Hastings and North Hasting fairs.

A Newspaper Wedding.

HAMILTON, June 21.—Mr. Andrew Laidlaw of The Woodstock Sentinel-Review was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Clara Galloway Laird, a sister of Mr. W. H. Laird of The Port Hope Times, and only daughter of Rev. W. H. Laird, pastor of the First Methodist Church. The ceremony took place in the church in the presence of a large number of friends and young people, and was performed by Rev. Mr. Laird, assisted by Rev. N. B. Willoughby of Guelph, Rev. J. W. Holmes of Owen Sound, and Rev. J. W. Totten of Ottawa, uncles of the bride.

The Prohibitory Amendment to the Constitution Repealed by the People.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., June 21.—The fifth amendment to the constitution of Rhode Island—the prohibitory amendment—was yesterday repealed by a vote of 5402 more than the three-fifths of the total necessary to carry the amendment. The total vote is:

Repeal	28,449
Sustain	9,283

In 1886 when the amendment was adopted the vote, which was about 14,000 smaller, stood:

Approve	15,113
Reject	9,230

Here is the roll of eight other States, together with the majorities, that have refused during the last two years to adopt Prohibition amendments:

Michigan	5,646	West Virginia	28,574
Texas	72,591	N. Hampshire	5,000
Tennessee	28,000	Massachusetts	44,532
Oregon	7,805	Pennsylvania	126,000

WITH KNIFE AND PISTOL.

A YOUNG MAN FOULLY BUTCHERED AT CHATHAM.

Stabbed to the Heart While [illegible] the Girl He Was to Elope with Looked On—Full Particulars of the Terrible Tragedy—Arrest of the Murderer.

CHATHAM, June 21.—A [illegible] which occurred yesterday afternoon on the Jury farm and [illegible] in all our town annals, commencing on Sunday evening about 6.30. Under cover of darkness and the [illegible] the fatal scene may be [illegible] and the [illegible] of the same, yesterday morning [illegible].

Frank Barr, a painter, aged 23, in company with Peter Taylor, a brother of Wm. Taylor, butcher on the market, and two girls, one of whom, Anna Kehoe, usually a domestic servant for Mr. Thos. Sharp, a leading merchant in town, were driving about the hour of the tragedy, on the [illegible] in front of the grounds of the Agricultural Society in Queen-street, or the gravel road as it is called, going south from the Catholic Church.

Geo. Park, in company with Geo. Yeomans, came up and stood staring at Barr or "Dutchy," as he was mischievously called him by an opprobrious name. Barr told him to go away, but he said

"I won't have to."

Anne put her hand on Barr's arm to restrain him from assaulting Park, who went away a short distance and then returned, still hurling epithets at Barr, who then, thoroughly roused, advanced angrily towards him. Anne tried to stop him, but he swung her round and landed her in the hat or cent, she forgets which, owing to the excitement and the speed of the whole occurrence.

At this stage Peter Taylor, a powerful young man, well able to handle Barr or Park, stepped in between the would-be combatants to separate them. Then Park took out a long knife and, rushing over Taylor, made a downward blow with fatal effect at Barr, making a four or five inch gash.

STRIKING AND DEFENCE ARE HEARD.

From the effects of the terrible wound he died shortly afterwards.

After receiving the blow he threw up his hands, crying out, "I am stabbed." He was moved by Taylor to an adjoining house, and afterwards by Taylor, aided by others, to his mother's home. The sidewalk was like a butcher's shambles with blood.

Park is in custody. He is the son of a large founder in this town, whose brothers, one in the department of the latter, continue and have extended the business.

Here it is absolutely necessary, in the interest of justice and in the face of unjust gossip, to deny that these girls were not of good character. Mr. Stone gives Anne Kaiser the highest name for respectability. She was engaged to be married to Barr.

A jury was empanelled by Dr. Holmes, Coroner, consisting of Kenneth Campbell (foreman), J. H. Chambers, W. Poole, F. Bennett, M. McGowan, J. W. Bullis, Jas. Milner, Jas. Richards, J. K. Shannon, Mr. Sisk and two others, a very respectable and superior jury, composed of the leading business men. They viewed the body at the mother's house and found an instead wound four or five inches long, and clots of blood on the shirt.

Some of them speak very strongly as to the mistake made in allowing the autopsy to precede the viewing of the body. There were three incisions visible in all, one lateral, one transverse, and the four or five inch cut on the right breast.

However merely certain they may be that the two first were due to the four surgeons and that the last caused the death, they have no legal proof that this oblique cut might not have been made by the doctors in their post-mortem.

The inquest was to have started at 2 p.m., but has been postponed. The excitement in town may be easily conceived. Park has secured Mr. M. Wilson as counsel for his defence.

A Boy Shot by Mistake.

TILSONBURG, June 21.—Word was received here yesterday afternoon of a fatal shooting committed on the Hazen road, Walsingham, about 8 o'clock last night, two miles from Langton, by a 14-year-old son of John Davis. The victim was the 11-year-old son of Mr. Rohrer.

Some boys were practising shooting with revolvers, and, being on the road when young Rohrer came along, Davis told him to stand still or he would shoot. Rohrer kept walking nearer, when Davis took deliberate aim and fired.

Swinging Round the Circle.

Mr. Hall and Bond, the Board of the Provincial Prisons in Ontario.—The Warden and Deputy Governor the Guests of the C. F. C. and Professor Rogers.

On Thursday the members of the County Council made a day of it in visit and inspect the bridges in the northern part of the county. They spent the day as in and had public demonstration of the condition and quality of the several bridges. They were to a certain extent the guests of the Grand Trunk Railway, that company kindly placing the Lakefield and Chemong lines at the disposal of the council for the occasion, and Mr. J. D. Rogers, superintending engineer of the Trent Navigation Works, kindly consented to the council and its guests the steamer Enterprise for the day. Thus the council put in a day of travel and inspection for the benefit of the county.

FREE OF EXPENSE

to the ratepayers, so far as travelling charges are concerned. The party consisted of the Reeves and Councillors [illegible] the Reeves present were Mr. Harris, Mr. Jones, Mr. Hall, deputy Mr. J. K. Belcher, C. E., Mr. Nesbitt and the representatives of the Review and EXAMINER. A short run to Lakefield by train brought the party to the Government wharf, where the steamer lay waiting up. A stop was made at Young's Point, the other county bridge receiving attention, and here the trip up the lakes began and an uneventful one it was. The lakes their pure are rather quiet, the cold, wet season prevenating the usual summer resort from setting in. Many or most of the cottages were vacant and the usual animation was lately wanting. The party arrived at Burleigh about noon, and while dinner was preparing the inspection of was made. It was found in a dilapidated condition, quite ready for the new iron bridge, now under contract to Mr. Law of the Central Iron Bridge Works, to be placed upon the new stone piers, solid and substantial, erected last fall by Mr. John Hayes, town.

The party was thoroughly well prepared in the way of appetite for the splendid dinner laid by Mr. Holmes, of the Burleigh House, which still maintains its popularity, many American guests making it even at this early season their rendezvous and—note summons a new member, and, luscious thought, fried ham. For a thoroughly well cooked and tasty ham, commend us to the Burleigh brand—the ham cookery of this hostelry cannot be beaten, nor the delicious home-made bread and the rock cream wild strawberries.

After dinner the voyage continued. Reaching Healey Falls, Hall's bridge was inspected, its embankment, and found to need considerable repairs. At least one member of the party was unanimously of the opinion that the bridge ought to be replaced with a new one, instead of being supplanted with the rail piers which is lying ready for that purpose on the government wharf at Lakefield.

There seems to be a fatality to hats on County Council bridge inspection trips. Last year a member of the council entered the lion of a hat, and this year a member of the press went wrong in the head, a puff of wind taking the editorial hits and dropping it into the rushing waters under the dam, where it sank from sight in the raging flood. However the unfeeling department with perpetuity thoughtful and provided for such contingency, and a spare washing cap produced the mighty intellect of the newspaper man from the too rude caress of the fresh, crisp breeze which blew over the lakes. Another stop at the journey brought the party to Chemong Lake, and the steamer made a bee line for the railway wharf except a slight detour at the last to permit the councillors to make a distant if rather hasty inspection of Mud Lake bridge, and the new crossing now in process of erection.

The party reached the railway wharf about the same time as the St. Paul's Sunday School Excursion party, and the happy combination of youths and instrument, and occasional wisdom, bounded the train in immense force. A rattling run brought the combined company safely to the Midland station about 7 o'clock.

The thanks of the entire party is due for the unmerited pleasure of the trip chiefly to the courtesy and kindness of Mr. Rogers, who was most indefatigable and indefatigable in his exertions, and to Mr. W. H. Cummings, the genial purser of Lakefield, who acted as the "guide, philosopher and friend"—and decently, too—of the happy two-dozen of councillors and their friends.

The Boys in Camp.

JUNE 20.—To show that genuine boys in countries more than pacific war spot, our camp, I may mention that last night a serious and perhaps fatal accident occurred at the wheelbarrow of the Gananoque Carriage Factory this afternoon about six o'clock. The elevator was ascending to the third storey and about ten feet from the roof some of the cogs in one of the wheels broke and the elevator rapidly descended to the bottom, a distance of fifty feet. The elevator was loaded with spokes for the wheels, four men were in it, viz., T. Chalk, Wesley T. Johnston and J. Reid (one of the proprietors). Chalk is very seriously injured, his back being broken, and he is not expected to live over night. Reid is badly injured around Johnston and Reid are badly injured, but are recovering.

THE GENERAL AT CAMP NIAGARA.

His Royal Highness Inspects the men Under Canvas at the Old Town.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, June 21.—Major-General His Royal Highness and Capt. Wise, A.D.C., arrived at Camp Niagara yesterday afternoon where the 13th volunteers were under canvas on the historic ground. Upon inspection Lieut.-Col. Cole in Charge T. Irwin, inspector of artillery, was also present.

The General found the brigade spending the forenoon in parade. The brigade was formed up in front of Fort George, all the corps being present except the artillery, who were engaged at target practice. The cavalry were on the right and the infantry battalions were formed in line a quarter column. The officers and colors were placed in the front and the Royal was received with a general salute as he rode up and down the line. The march past followed, and after a general salute the regiments were dismissed. Owing to the recent thunder storm the camp was in nothing short of a quagmire. It is said the Government spent about $1500 in draining this common it would always be in first-class order for parades and reviews. After the inspection the General rode through the lines and inspected the guns of the artillery.

General Middleton said that he was well pleased with the appearance of everything. The men looked well. Like many of the new forces, however, who started in the Dominion Exhibition the other day, they were "short of work," i.e., they didn't get enough of drill.

There will be battalion instruction to-day. The camp will break up to-morrow.

Last night a long wet given at the Queen's Royal Hotel, under the auspices of Col. Otter, the staff and the officers of the camp.

A PROTRACTED DEBATE.

The Anglican Synod of the Niagara Diocese Discussing Divorce.

HAMILTON, June 21.—At the Anglican Synod yesterday Rev. Dr. Read, Rev. Canon Mason, Rev. Rural Dean Geddes and Lieut.-Col. Murray were appointed to attend the meeting in Toronto on June 27 to arrange for the celebration of the Jubilee of the Toronto Diocese. The Bishop appointed June 30 as the date for taking up a collection throughout the diocese for the benefit of the Johnstown sufferers.

The debate which lasted for five hours Wednesday was then resumed and continued throughout the afternoon on the motion of Mr. W. F. Burton, seconded by Rev. A. Beaty:

"That the Bishop be asked to name a committee to draft an humble petition to the Provincial Synod, about to assemble, praying that honorable and reverend body to confirm the resolution passed by the Provincial Synod at the session of 1887, and to pass a canon declaring that the clergyman of the diocese in the celebration of the holy communion, the use of incense during divine service, and the mixing of water with the sacramental wine are illegal and forbidden to the clergy of the province; that, whereas, the rubric at the end of the solemnization office enacts that it shall rest in the discretion of the minister to mix the wine in the cup or not, the use of water be not enforced by any person, and that the rubric be so altered as to read as in the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England, and that the Lord's table, and vestments, except the surplice, stole or scarf and hood, shall be and are prohibited."

PARENT PARDONED.

A Fatal Fire—Stabbing Affray at Ft. St. Charles—Other Disastrous News.

MONTREAL, June 21.—Bishop Bond has received information from the Secretary of State in answer to a petition that Thomas Power, cashier of the bank of Montreal, Pembroke, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Hall in 1869, be released from St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, from his having two years.

John Webster, proprietor of the Dalhousie Hotel, fell down an elevator shaft of the Temple building yesterday morning in injuries which resulted fatally.

A stabbing affray took place at Point St. Charles Wednesday night. About 11 o'clock a number of drunken men began a dispute on Wellington-street. Daniel McBride, a young man living in the neighborhood, was stabbed by one of the parties engaged in the quarrel, and died in a few minutes afterwards he was stabbed in the heart. The police arrested a young man in connection with having committed the deed.

Al. Desrosiers, a farmer of Point aux Trembles, while crossing through Whitby, armed himself with his Winchester rifle shortly after midnight and drove his wife and children from the house. He fired several shots at them but killed nothing except a cat. He was arrested after a desperate resistance.

BRITISH AMERICANS.

Proceedings of the National Association at Boston.

Session at Union.

BOSTON, June 21.—The National Association of British Americans constituted its session yesterday when the Massachusetts Association was amalgamated with the national body. The following delegates were elected to represent the various state councils in the National Association: Henry Arnold, Lawrence; William Grieve, Boston; D. D. Sinclair, West Medford; E. H. G. Dewey, Boston; James H. Smith, Dorchester; R. W. Bradbury, Boston; George Donald, North Adams; Wm. Foote, Lynn. Charles Armstrong, Allston; J. Hendrick, Roxbury.

In the afternoon President George E. Gooch delivered his annual address. He urged the adoption of such measures as will enable the naturalization of every man of British birth in the United States.

It was voted to hold the annual convention on the third Wednesday of June each year. Resolutions were adopted favoring the organizing of labor bureaus and instituting clubs and reading rooms in the different branches. After discussing other matters pertaining to the good of the order the convention adjourned until to-day.

"My father, at about the age of fifty, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor, the hair began coming, and, in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—P. J. Cullen, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Is My Hair Right?

How often do we hear one lady ask this question of another. Invariably those ladies who are constantly worrying about their hair, do not wear any kind of hair goods, but possibly a switch. Now, consider this, ladies: Would it not pay you to get a nice, becoming style of Front-piece, Fancy or Wave, made of fine, curled or waved human hair, and be sure it is always right? Then you would not require to ask "Is my hair all right?" Prof. Butterworth, of Toronto, the maker of the manufacturer of hair goods in the world, and present his many patent styles fully will find nothing to suit her. You have all heard of the professor, though, perhaps, you have never interested yourself enough to call on him during his former visits. Do so now. He will be at Pinkus's House on Friday and Saturday, June 28th and 29th, and will bring with him his big stock of all kinds of hair goods. He will be pleased to show you his various styles. See his advertisement in another column. dw

FOR DRINKING

ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry,
And some because they're dry;
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink because they merry are,
And some because they weep.

Some drink when they do money gain,
And some because at loss;
Some drink when they are pleased,
And some when they are cross.

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never seem refrain.

Yet all mustown the proverb true:
"When iron's hot to strike it"—
I've just found out the reason why—
All drink because they like it!

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Victoria University Difficulties—The Methodist Conference Concluded.

TORONTO, June 20.—In consideration of the recent decision of the Senate of Victoria University to reverse the original decision and to concur with the Board of Regents in its action for the consummation of affiliation with the University of Toronto, Chancellor Boyd, Q.C., and B. M. Britton, Q.C., of Kingston, applied to Chief Justice Sir Matthew Galt yesterday afternoon for an order to discontinue the injunction restraining the Board. The argument was not concluded.

The tenth annual meeting of the International Homœopathic Association is holding its annual session in Toronto.

The members of the Law Society met at Osgoode Hall yesterday and carried out a little arrangement that had been on the tapis for some time. It was no less a matter than the appointment of Mr. Justice Strong of the Supreme Court of Canada to the principalship of the new law school. Four applications for the position had been sent in, but Mr. Justice Strong, it is said, was not an applicant. The salary is $4000 per year. This, with the $4000 retiring allowance from the Dominion which Mr. Justice Strong will be entitled to will bring his income up to about the same figure as his salary on the Supreme Court bench. Word was received in the city last evening from Ottawa that Mr. Justice Strong would accept the position. As soon as Mr. Justice Strong's appointment and acceptance became known there was a good deal of talk in legal circles about his successor on the Supreme Court bench. It seems to be pretty well understood that it will be Mr. Justice Osler. That well-known ornament of the Ontario bench, it is said, was offered a seat in the Supreme Court bench some time ago but would not accept them. Mr. Justice Strong's successor at Ottawa of course will be an Ontario man, and there seems to be little doubt that it will be the Hon. Featherstone Osler.

The Methodist Conference yesterday concluded its labors. The layman's memorial was referred to a committee. The stationing committee submitted various changes and chairmen and financial secretaries of districts were elected.

In the Civil Assizes yesterday the day was occupied in the hearing of the case of William Preston and his wife, who sue to recover $7000 damages because, as they allege, the health officers entered their house on April 10, 1888, and arresting the husband hurried the plaintiff to the hospital, took him to the Isolation Hospital and detained him there twelve days, while Mrs. Preston and her family were quarrantined and the house disinfected. It afterwards turned out that there was no smallpox in the house. A verdict will be rendered to-day.

GEORGE BAIRD AGAIN.

He Exemplifies His Weakness For Letter of the Theoretical Profession.

LONDON, June 19.—Francis Darbishire has applied for a divorce from his wife on account of adultery with George Baird, a patron of the sport. The defendant was the widow of Lyndon Seabyre, the actor, and she is now living on an allowance by the Olympic Theatre manager, the former Agnes Hewitt. Mr. Darbishire claims $25,000 damages from Baird for alienating his wife's affections.

Mr. George Baird, the co-respondent in this case, assisted notoriety in a small way one last February, when, together with a Mr. Riley, the husband of the woman recently shrouded by the Marquis of Allesbury at the Gaiety Music, Portsmouth, he appeared as co-respondent in a suit brought against him by the Marquis for the abduction of the affections of the Marchioness, Daisy Maynard. The case was heard out of court. Mr. George Baird, under the rosebud name of "Mr. Abington," owns a stable. One of his horses, Merry Hampton, won the Epsom Derby of 1887.

Evictions at Youghal.

DUBLIN, June 19.—Nine families were evicted at Youghal to-day. Among those dispossessed were aged persons and women from whom the last movement was being administered when the evictors arrived. Mrs. Sweeney was subsequently confined.

Grateful Submission to the Inevitable.

DUBLIN, June 19.—At the inquest at Armagh into the cause of the railroad accident near there last week, Commissioner of the Great Northern Railway Company, on whose road the accident occurred, announced that the company would accept all liability for the accident, and was prepared to consider all claims for damages on account of loss of life and injuries that might be presented.

Buried Under a Falling Roof.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 16.—The roof of the Merced Market fell in yesterday, burying nearly forty persons. Eight dead and fourteen wounded have already been taken out. Soldiers are removing the rubbish and searching for bodies.

Crushed Freight Sheds.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The demolishing of freight sheds has extended as far west as Marshall street, and much to the merchants' discomfort if Manager Hall succeeds in a case of about 50 per cent. The defendant will be in court to-day

There was no session of the county council to-day, the members putting in the time industriously by work in committee. The equalization committee spent considerable time in the preparation of their report.

Garden Party Postponed.

On account of unfavorable weather, the Y.M.C.A. garden party, to have been held at Mrs. M. Dixon's to-night, has been postponed till Monday night. According to the past week's daily alternation of fair and foul weather, next Monday will be a fair day.

The Williams' Memorial.

Port Hope is having a troublesome time over the selection of a site for the Col. Williams' monument. After many months of talk it has been decided to erect the memorial on the town park, but the decision appears to be unsatisfactory, and a requisition is being signed for another meeting to re-consider the matter.

About $4,000 Worth of Silks.

A magnificent stock of silks, worth $4,000, has been received at Mr. T. Kelly's store, George street. Mr. Kelly made a big bargain in securing the entire silk stock of a wholesale house, and he is prepared to give the biggest kind of bargains in all kinds of silks and silk goods. If you want to make money in the purchase of silks, be sure and carefully study Mr. Kelly's advertisement in this issue.

Don't Poison the Steed.

Mr. H. Elliott, near the Trinity College School, Hope, has had the misfortune to lose three valuable horses recently, by spinal meningitis, supposed to have been caused by the animals drinking stagnant water from an unused well. The use of impure water will affect beasts as injuriously as it does mankind. A cow that has access only to muddy stagnant water cannot produce pure and wholesome milk.

Dedicating their New Hall.

The Sons of England will dedicate their new hall on Hunter street on Friday of next week, Coronation day. The new premises are not yet completed, but will be ready by the 28th. A number of Grand Lodge officers will assist at the dedication, which takes place in the afternoon. An entertainment will follow in the evening. This will be quite an event in the history of the society in Peterborough.

Decoration Day.

A meeting of the Oddfellows' committee having in charge the preparations for Decoration Day on the 29th, will be held this evening in Otonabee lodge rooms. Preparations are going on swimmingly. Invitations have been sent out to Oddfellows in neighboring towns to participate. A requisition asking for a public holiday has been largely signed, only three merchants on George street refusing. It will be presented to the Mayor to-morrow.

A Dangerous Amusement.

Yesterday afternoon a little seven-year-old boy, named Graham, living on London street, was nearly drowned in the grove pond. He was rowing logs with some other boys when he fell into the water. He had gone down twice when rescued by Johnny Flynn, who was assisted by others. Last evening about eight o'clock a similar accident was reported, the boy in danger being saved from a watery grave by an old man. Running logs is too dangerous an amusement for small boys to indulge in.

Choice, Fresh and Cheap.

Another consignment of choice, fresh and cheap groceries, provisions, etc., with a few special lines of teas at unusually low prices now being received and offered for sale at R. H. Green's grocery and provision store, corner Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Also fresh butter and eggs, with apples, potatoes and other farmers' produce always on hand, which will be sold at the lowest market prices and delivered to any part of the town. tutw

A Monster Turtle.

Mr. Tobias Fitzgerald, the noted local disciple of Izak Walton, who knows more about fish and can catch more than any man in the Midland district, is shooting bush. While up fishing in Stony Lake, he made the capture of a turtle—saved turtle or land tortoise—of monstrous size. He shell is 11x13 inches in diameter, and he sturdy legs, like those of a young elephant, carry it over the ground with the weight of a boy added. Mr. Fitzgerald intends presenting his Chinaminian skeleton to the park house park when it will make an interesting addition to the museum trade.

St. Andrew's Excursion.

About 200 Scotchmen of Peterborough and their friends spent a pleasant day in Toronto yesterday. The excursion was via C. P. R., and ample accommodation was afforded for all those on board. Some of them will not return till to-night. The excursion was a success from every point of view. No plans were arranged, the people all taking their meals at the hotels or with friends. A couple of ladies provided members of the society with tartan rosettes. Piper McIntosh enlivened the trip with bagpipe selections, and on the way back last night in addition a brass band on the way to a tournament at Port kept the cars well supplied with music. The Committee are unanimous in their praise of the Railway Company for the attention and trouble bestowed by them in furthering the excursion, especially by Mr. T. Boddy and the Peterborough agent.

Gentlemen with Bald Heads.

What remarks as a rule attend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is not his fault but his misfortune. There is not alone this annoyance, but a person with the scalp unprotected is more liable to diseases of the head. When a gentleman loses his hair he should take immediate steps to have it replaced with an artificial coverung. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is slow about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Derosvaud, of Toronto, will be at Phelan's Hotel on June 26 and 29, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, which are just the things required. The least you can do is to call and examine the articles whether you buy one or not. Physicians endorse them and you cannot afford to be without one. dw

Hymeneal.

On Tuesday evening Mr. J. B. Hutchins, of Brockville, a former resident of Peterborough, was married to Miss Mabel McFarland, of Prescott. The ceremony was celebrated in St. John's church, Rev. Mr. Lewis officiating. It was a fashionable event, the edifice being crowded. Mr. Ferd A. Mansell, of Brockville, was groomsman and Miss A. Mansell and Miss E. Bennett, Prescott, bridesmaids. The ceremony was interspersed with appropriate anthems and music by the choir. The bride was attired in pearl white satin with overflowing white tulle veil, trimmings of natural flowers and pearl ornaments. Miss Mansell, wore cream satin, trimmings of natural cream roses, with pearl ornaments. A sumptuous wedding repast was served afterwards at the residence of the bride, and the young couple left on a honeymoon trip in Eastern Canada. Mr. Hutchins will receive warm congratulations from his many friends in Peterborough. He was a popular young man in society circles here, and the notice of his wedding will be read with interest.

Another Ball Game.

The Association and Ashburnham nines played another four-innings game last night, which resulted in a tie. The Ashburnhams after the match claimed another run, but it was finally decided to let it remain a tie. The Ashburnhams gained a big lead in the first innings, when Pearson was in the box. Turnbull could not hold him, and the runs were scored mainly on passed balls. Allison took his place in the second. The Association men were puzzled by McCabe's curves, few hits being made. The score is:—

Ashburnhams.		Association.
Lynott 1b	0	Pearson 2b	2
D McCabe p	2	Turnbull c	1
O'Brien c	1	Mackay 1b	1
Millikan rf	1	Stratton rf	0

If the weather is favorable the tie will be played off this evening.

To-morrow evening at 6:30 the Athletics and Association nines on play the P.A.A.A. grounds.

A Yacht Trip.

An excursion party went down the river yesterday afternoon in a steam yacht. They had a fine time, and became so deeply absorbed in checkers or some such entrancing game that they forgot all about the engine and let the fires out. They couldn't start them again, and the boat drifted ashore among the weeds. One of the party jumped into the water up to his neck and got a farmer to paddle him to the looks, from whence he footed it home, arriving about 11:30 last night dripping with sweat and river water. A couple of others walked from near Campbelltown to Peterborough, and reached home about five o'clock this morning. They state that they would have been here sooner had they not got lost in the woods and sat down so frequently on stumps to smoke and rest, and soliloquize upon the pleasures of a sporting life. The remainder of the party have not yet been heard of. They were bound to stick to the boat as long as two planks held together, and unless a relief expedition is speedily organized they may soon perish of hunger and mosquitoes.

The Children's Outing.

The St. Paul's Sunday school excursion yesterday was a pleasant success. The weather was all that could be desired. About 350 children and their friends attended. The train and boat employees did their best to make the trip comfortable and pleasant for everyone. The majority of the excursionists remained at Jones's Island, which was reached at noon. After dinner there were no regular sports, but a number of persons, who took their canoes along, enjoyed a sail on the water. A baseball match was also played between two sides chosen on the grounds. The nine which numbered the stalwart pastor on its side came out winners. Rev. Mr. Torrance played long field and distinguished himself in that position as well as at the bat, where he succeeded in adding three or four runs to the score. Fishing was also indulged with fair success. A number of the excursionists went on to Bobcaygeon, where they spent about an hour in the village. The boat returned to the Island at four o'clock, and all embarked for home. Peterborough was reached at an early hour, all being well pleased with the days outing. The excursion was managed by Mr. Hall, Superintendent, who also received the hearty assistance of the teachers.

News Nuggets.

—A base ball tournament in Millbrook is one of the coming events. Particulars later.

—The rain with all its faults, and they are faults of quantity, rather than quality, is considerate of excursions. Tuesday was a fine day for the Masonic outing. Thursday behaved beautifully for the County council, excursion and the St. Andrew's and St. Paul's excursions.

—Last April the agricultural editor of the EXAMINER forecast a wet summer. He is sorry he had to do it, but by reason of the strict regard for truth, characteristic of the newspaper man, compulsion was laid upon him.

—Mr. J. J. Turner has received an order for a set of sails for a schooner in Midland. These are the first big sails he has made, and he had to get the new S.O.E. lodge room in order to cut them. Turner's business is evidently expanding and broadening rapidly.

Ashburnham Brevities.

The senior department of the public school is closed this afternoon.

The Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, Mrs. Bradshaw, and their daughter, Mabel, returned this morning by the C.P.R. express from Denver, Colorado. They are all very much improved in health by their extended visit, Mr. Bradshaw looking particularly well. Their many friends in town will be very much pleased to hear of their return, and the members of St. Luke's especially so.

Street Inspector Craig is at present engaged laying a sidewalk on the new streets opened up through the Carlisle estate property. The strides which have been made in building operations in this part of the village are in keeping with the energy of Mr. Carlisle.

Pipes are being laid on Elizabeth street from the tank at the corner of Elizabeth and Stewart streets to convey the water for the new tank. Mr. Phillips is pushing ahead the work on the new tank and will have it complete in a short time.

The parties interested in the road which leads to Heap's brick yard are discussing over that road. Those who live at the brick yard are anxious to have the road opened out to the next concession, while Mr. Mackinnon, the owner of the property through which the present road runs, is opposed to the scheme. It is likely the dispute will be settled in the course unless some agreement is soon come to.

Police Court.

The Welsh Burglary Again—A Fine for Violation of the Liquor License Act.

FRIDAY, June 21.

Walter and William Whitfield and Albert Green were before the magistrate this morning, the former charged with stealing five watches, two watch chains and seven clocks from Wyatt's jewelry store, and the two latter with having knowingly received some of the stolen property. Mr. Ward conducted the prosecution, and Mr. Hinnissan looked after the youthful prisoners. Walter Whitfield is aged 14 years, William is over 15, and Albert Green is about 15.

The Whitfield boys elected to be tried summarily, and entered a plea of guilty. Mr. Lee and Dr. Clarke made statements before the Court as to the previous good character of the elder Whitfield, and the magistrate reserved judgment till to-morrow. Prisoners' counsel asked for lenient judgment, as the boys have generally pretty good characters and their mother lives alone.

Albert Green was remanded till to-morrow, when he will receive trial.

BREAKING THE LICENSE LAW.

R. R. Hamilton was charged with having sold liquor without a license on June 3rd. This case has been frequently enlarged, but this morning, though neither the defendant nor any counsel appeared, it was finally disposed of, Mr. H. R. Edwards representing the prosecution.

Mr. Hamilton's bar-tender couldn't remember having sold any liquor on the day in question, but admitted that he had been selling the day after. A witness testified to having got a couple of glasses of beer on June 3rd.

A fine of $20 and costs was imposed.

Cleaning Clothes.

How to Take the Shine From Your Old Suit.

It is a mystery to many people how the scourers of old clothes can make them almost as good as new, says the American Analyst. Take, for instance, a shiny old coat, vest, or pair of pants of broadcloth, cassimere, or diagonal. The scourer makes a strong, warm soap-suds and plunges the garment into it, scours it up and down, rubs the dirty places, if necessary puts it through a second suds, then rinses it through several waters, and hangs it to dry on the line. When nearly dry he takes it in, rolls it up for an hour or two, and then presses it. An old cotton cloth is laid on the outside of the coat and the iron passed over that until the wrinkles are out; but the iron is removed before the steam ceases to rise from the goods, else they would be shiny. Wrinkles that are obstinate are removed by lying a wet cloth over them and passing the iron over that. If any shiny places are seen they are treated as the wrinkles are; the iron is lifted while the full cloud of steam rises, and brings the nap up with it. Cloth should always have a suds made especially for it, as, if that is used which has been used for white cotton or woolen clothes, lint will be left in the water and cling to the cloth. In this manner we have known the same coat and pantaloons to be renewed time and again and have all the look and feel of new garments. Good broadcloth and its fellowcloths will bear many washings and look better every time because of them.

Havelock.

The building of the new church at Havelock by the Church of England congregation is advancing rapidly. The walls of the crypt are completed and the joists laid for the floor of the nave. It is to be of Trenton limestone, quarried in the vicinity. The plans were prepared by Mr. Gambier-Bousfield, of Toronto. It promises to be a very neat and commodious structure. Mr. Waymark is doing the stone work and Mr. George Temple has charge of the carpenter work. The corner stone was laid on Thursday by the Rev. Rural Dean Allen, of Millbrook.

THE MAN WHO IS WANTED.

Burke Identified by Detective Collins—An Indictment for Murder Brought Out.

WINNIPEG, June 21.—Collins, the Chicago detective sent here to identify Burke, the suspected murderer of Dr. Cronin, recognized him immediately as the man who is wanted. Yesterday afternoon Collins swore out an information charging Burke with murder, and on the strength of the information Justice Bain granted a warrant. Burke was formally arrested on the warrant and transferred from the city police station to the provincial jail.

The hearing of the case was fixed for to-day, but as witnesses will have to be brought from Chicago an enlargement will be asked for.

THE CLOVEN HOOF

Of Another Cronin Suspect in the Extent Producing Cloth.

CHICAGO, June 21.—The police have under close surveillance another Cronin suspect. When the Carlson cottage revealed its terrible story one of the most prominent clues was the footprints in the paint. The murderer walked about in the paint in his stocking feet. A shoemaker wrote to the police that a well known Irishman and Clan-na-Gael man, whose name he had seen in the newspapers in connection with the murder, was his customer and had very peculiar feet. A piece of the floor was cut out with three tracks on it and taken to police headquarters. Then the shoemaker was asked to produce the boot in which he preserved the tracings showing the shape of his customer's feet. The outlines of the suspected Irishman's feet were found to correspond exactly in size and shape with the footprints taken from the floor. The peculiarity about the foot which made the paint tracks in the depth of the hollow part of it. In the paint tracks there is a great curve running in from the great toe to the heel almost severing the latter from the front part of the foot. The board with the paint tracks on it and the measure book of the shoemaker have been in the grand jury room for several days. It is likely the suspect will be called before the jury.

It is reported the grand jury has obtained a complete list of the members of camp No. 20 Clan-na-Gael, known as the Columbia Club, and has directed the subpœna of every member. It was from this camp that Crepin was expelled a couple of years ago on the charge of treason.

IN THE SQUEALER'S HAVEN.

Sullivan the Keenest Frightened by the Arrest of Burke.

CHICAGO, June 21.—P. O. Sullivan, the lineman indicted for complicity in the Cronin tragedy, was yesterday remanded to the "Boys' Department" of the jail, the recognized haven for squealers. It is said he has offered to make a full confession. His motive is said to be fright over the arrest of Burke at Winnipeg and the disclosure that Conroy, "The Fox," is being actively pursued. It is suspected, however, that his removal is simply shrewd tactics on the part of the authorities to break down one or other of the suspects. It is reported that Sullivan, at his own request, had conferences with the Sheriff and State's Attorney.

SHIRTS FOR SUMMER.

Starched Linen; Will Be Banished, and Flannel, Cheviot, Madras Cloth and Silk Will Rule.

All the furnishing goods stores are loaded of the muslin with thin, cool things for summer wear by men, and every dealer has his mind made up to a large grade in such clothing stuffs this summer. The flannel shirt which has been so praised and denounced by turn during the last three or four years has come to stay, and is here in full force. Men who care more for comfort than conventionalities have settled upon the flannel shirt as their most appropriate article of garmenture in the summer months, and the demand for the shirt which made the paint tracks in the same has created a large supply. As far back as last fall and all through the winter months shirt and flannel makers have their heads together studying out new patterns for shirts and novel designs in fabrics. As fast as the goods have been put upon the market they have been gobbled up by jobbers and retailers, who now await the approach of hot weather in confident anticipation of a tremendous rush in outing and negligo shirts of summer weights. If this should turn out to be a cool season many a retail clothier and outfitter will have cause to regret heavy investments in flannel shirts.

The finest of the flannel shirts, and in fact those most in demand, are made from Ceylon flannel of Scotch manufacture and of beautiful soft texture. The quality is superior to that of previous years, at a much greater cost. The best flannel shirts can be bought for $3 to $3.50 this year, the quality being equal to those sold last year for $3.50 to $4. Cheaper shirts are made of English and American flannels at all sorts of prices. The French flannels, which were so popular a few years ago, have had their day, and exhausted the measure of their favor, and are rarely seen this season.

Cheviots are on hand in great abundance this year, and Madras cloth, somewhat similar in texture to the cheviot, is being largely used for shirt wear. The daintiest men's shirts that can be seen or imagined are made of fine, gossamer-like Indian silk, so thin and so light in weight that a single garment weighs scarcely one ounce and could almost be covered within the compass of a man's vest pocket. These delicate silken shirts are prettiest in pure white, but they are made and sold in a great variety of colors and patterns. One of them costs $6.50. There are heavier shirts of spun silk, which are very desirable garments for hot weather, and can be bought for $4 to $6.—Philadelphia Record.

An American Hamadryad Abroad.

Has any one ever reached the top of the highest of these (the Himalayas) mountains? I should say not. An American attempted it a few months ago, and he left Darjeeling with a staff as long as himself and enough provisions to last him a month. He came back four weeks later and claimed that he had spent the night on Kanchanjanga. "It was so easy," said he, "as falling off a log. It takes an American to do a thing that you English fear to attempt." And he then went on to describe the gardens in the mid-eagle eaters. He told of mountain bears and polar wolves and discoursed for hours in the language of Jules Verne. The English residents of Darjeeling cooked their one eye-glasses at him, and some believed and some did not. About a week after he had left the Himalayas, a wealthy English tea planter came to the station and asked the people there if they had heard anything of an American named Jones. They replied that Jones was the wonderful man who had ascended Kanchanjanga, and they described his team. Upon comparison it was found that the date of Jone's starting up the mountain was the day before he came to visit the tea planters. The planter said: "He talked nothing of the mountains to me, but I found him a good fellow, and he stayed with me full four weeks. We played poker three-handed all the time, drank whiskey and soda during the intervals of the game, and the remainder of the day I was spent in reading up my library of mountain literature. He was at this time doubtless thinking how he would take in Darjeeling, and was making up the Munchausen story which he told you."—Frank Carpenter's Indie Letters.

Killed While Coupling Cars.

ORILLIA, June 21.—While coupling railway cars here yesterday morning Wellington High, a Northern Railway brakeman, brother of Mr. High, deputy-reeve of Vaughan, was crushed between the drawheads, sustaining injuries that terminated fatally a couple of hours after the accident. The remains were forwarded last night to Richmond Hill for interment.

AT

TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices, is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

THE SCAFFOLD'S SHADOW

ENVELOPES THE CRONIN FUGITIVE AT WINNIPEG.

Expressman Mortimeau Picks Burke Out From Fifty as the Man Who Had the Furniture Moved to the Carleton Cottage.

WINNIPEG, June 21.—Burke was brought before Judge Bain this morning, charged with the murder of Cronin and remanded till Wednesday.

The prisoner's counsel fought against a remand, but it was urged that all the witnesses could not be here before this afternoon.

Mortimeau, the Chicago expressman who moved the furniture for Burke into the Carleton cottage, arrived and identified Burke this evening in the jail yard.

There was a crowd of over 50 drawn up in line and Mortimeau at once recognized Burke.

The prisoner intends fighting against extradition and has secured additional counsel although having only a few dollars when arrested.

It is expected his friends will come down handsomely for his defence.

The Extradition Papers in Route.

CHICAGO, June 21.—The extradition papers for Burke are now en route and will be pushed forward with all speed possible

Black's Mother Visits Him.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Black of San Francisco arrived here yesterday, and had a long interview at the jail with Frank Woodruff, Mrs. Black's son. The meeting was affecting and the old couple seemed almost prostrated by the disgrace. They stated that they would be unable to afford Woodruff adequate defence, as they possessed no property, and Mr. Black was dependent upon a salary. Mrs. Black declined to state anything that passed between them and Woodruff. She remarked: "Frank is neither a Catholic nor an Irishman. We have no money to defend him and we fear there is an attempt to make him a scapegoat." "Yes," added Mr. Black, "we understand there is a man interested in this case worth a million dollars. What chance have we against that?" The Blacks will return at once to San Francisco.

BLACK IS HIS NAME AND RECORD.

Absconding Woodruff Has Been Implicated in Various Murder Cases.

WICHITA, Kan., June 21.— Woodruff, alias Black, who has made several confessions in the Cronin case, lived for some time in Wichita, first in 1887 and again in the winter of 1888 and 1889. He was employed here under the name of Black, as a stable-boy, at the Star Stable, and is well remembered by many persons. One night in the fall of 1887, Wm. B. Van Cleave, a carpenter was found with a bullet in his body, near the Southern Kansas Depot, in Winfield. The circumstances were very mysterious. Several witnesses were examined at the coroner's inquest, one there being a detective, who maintained that Black was implicated, and that the murder occurred over some secret society trouble, but refused to give any further inkling of what it might be.

Sheriff McIntyre of Cowley County, came here and arrested Black, who set up a rather feeble alibi. The matter was not followed closely, and other arrests following, Black dropped out of sight. To this day every person in this city and Winfield who was familiar with the case believes that Van Cleave was murdered for some supposed treachery to a secret organization, and that the murder was under the direction of Black.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The Evening Post, in giving the criminal history of Frank P. Black, alias Woodruff, says that he was in prison at Oakland in 1885 on a charge of petit larceny, when George Jones was arrested for the murder of Lorenzo Dutfil, a saloon-keeper who was found dead with his head crushed in. The evidence against Jones was purely circumstantial and the most conclusive testimony was that of Woodruff, who testified that, while a cellmate of Jones in the City Prison, Jones confessed to him that he had murdered Dutfil. On Woodruff's testimony Jones was convicted and sentenced to hang. A new trial was granted on technical grounds, and owing to Jones' old age and ill-health he has never been brought to a second trial. It is claimed that the first trial was packed by detectives to secure the reward and that Woodruff was a tool in the hands of the conspirators.

Why Canada Secures the Clam.

NEW YORK, June 21.—An Ottawa special to The World says: The Deputy Minister of Justice stated to The World correspondent to-day that if the authorities at Chicago are able to substantiate the charges made against Burke or convince the judge presiding at Winnipeg that there are just and reasonable grounds for demanding his extradition, an order will issue at once.

"Most assuredly," he said, "we will not delay the issuing of a warrant here a moment when the case comes before us. The American people are now beginning to realize the dangerous element they have among them in the Clan-na-Gael Society, the influence of which recently defeated the Extradition Treaty in the United States Senate. The Dominion Government has evidence that this society a year or so ago had planned the destruction of the Parliament buildings here and the assassination of Lord Lansdowne, then Governor-General. We discovered the plot and frustrated their murderous designs, and it is hardly to be wondered that any member of the society against whom there are strong evidences of complicity in murder should expect much leniency from the executive at Ottawa. Every facility will be given to expedite matters and about the surrender of Burke if there is the least evidence to warrant the belief that he was connected with the Cronin murder."

A Railway Swap.

CHICAGO, June 21.—The Chicago roads to-day formally surrendered to the Lake Superior lines all the through traffic from the east bound to St. Paul and will henceforth run local business with the Northwest in exchange for the latter.

BALFOUR'S SAVAGE MOT.

A CAUSTIC SUMMARY OF THE NEW GOSPEL OF HOME RULE.

The Lapse in the West Marked—The Rumor of Strained Relations Between Germany and Russia Denounced.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Mr. Smalley cables The Tribune from London: "Some kind of bastard imitation of the federal government of America." Such is Balfour's summary of the Asquith-Rosebery new gospel of Home Rule. You perceive that on both sides the American example is being more appealed to, though for very different purposes. You will perceive, also, that the question of Home Rule for Ireland is rapidly merging into the question whether the existing Parliamentary constitution of this Empire shall be broken up in order to substitute for it a new scheme of federation, in which not Ireland only, but England, Scotland, and perhaps gallant little Wales also, shall each have a parliament of its own. Gladstone, aware of the danger of confusing a political issue, has given as yet only what Balfour calls a negative approval of that policy. Asquith and Lord Rosebery have dotted the I's. What Gladstone said in the southwest I quoted the other day. I refer to it again, as I do to what Balfour now says, solely in order to ask your attention to this changing order of things, and to the new issue which is now more clearly than ever before presented to the English people. Balfour dissected it yesterday in St. James' hall in that analytical and critical spirit which is characteristic of him.

Mr. Gladstone has unconditionally accepted the principle of the retention of the Irish members in the Imperial Parliament. From that seemingly simple modification of his original Home Rule scheme flows the whole new federal doctrine. Lord Rosebery, who is supposed to know better than anybody else what is going on in Mr. Gladstone's mind, vows his adherence to Federalism in its largest sense. Mr. Asquith commends his leader to say "yes" or "no" to it. Mr. Gladstone says "yes and no" for the present, but "yes" is clearly involved in, or may be clearly evolved from, his contention that Scotland and Wales have each the right to disestablish its church, because the Scotch and the Welsh people want to disestablish it. The Tories have awakened slowly, as their habit is, to the magnitude of the consequences of this new dogma.

There is good authority for saying that Mr. Gladstone improved the occasion of Mr. Carnegie's dinner to expound American Home Rule to the Americans there present. "He did not fail," says one of his fellow guests, "to explain to some of them that the case of the civil war in America is not one against Home Rule, but rather the other way, as showing that Home Rule, that is, the subordinate government of the several states by their own legislatures, rendered the American Union possible and invulnerable."

The Leper Scare.

LONDON, June 21.—The Prince of Wales has supplied to the public, through his secretary, his authority for his story about the leper in a London meat market. His authority is unimpeachable, being Dr. Thorne, President of the Epidermological Society and Medical Inspector to the Local Government Board. Dr. Thorne now repeats the statement.

It turns out that the leper has a wife and family of six grown-up children. They all get a living by buying eatables and heads and similar off-scourings of the Central Meat Market and hawking them about the streets of London. The excitement over the discovery among all classes of society is intense.

Tosten and Muscovite at Odds.

LONDON, June 21.—The Pesther Lloyd to-day reasserts that the relations between Germany and Russia are strained, and says that it derives its information from sources in Berlin which are absolutely unimpeachable.

The circular recently issued from Belgrade denying the reports about a Russo-Servian military convention is given but little weight in London and is not credited anywhere.

To Debate the Land Question.

LONDON, June 21.—The debate on the land question between Henry George and Samuel Smith, M.P., will come off at the rooms of the Liberal Club next Wednesday.

Forster's Peril.

LONDON, June 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette asserts that Mgr. Persico, who made an investigation of Irish affairs in behalf of the Pope, inserted in his report of the result of his mission a statement that he feared the Irish Nationalists would kill him if he returned to Ireland, and declared he held proofs that that was their intention.

Flood and Fire.

BERLIN, June 21.—Floods in the Rosenbach River at Stuttgart have submerged portions of the city and eight people are reported drowned.

The buildings on the baronial estate of Hanfstadet in Meiningen, Germany, have been burnt to the ground. They were set on fire by a stableman on the estate, who after applying the torch hanged himself in one of the burning buildings and perished in the flames.

Dead a Recurring Bane.

DUBLIN, June 21.—Several families were evicted from the Ponsonby estate to-day. The tenants offered a stout resistance and in some cases the evictors had to use a battering ram to effect an entrance into cottages. Several persons were injured while resisting the bailiffs. Six arrests were made.

A Socialist Paper Suppressed.

VIENNA, June 21.—The Government has suppressed the Socialist paper Gleichheit.

Readopted the Law.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 21.—Russia has readopted the law which forbids heirs to the throne marrying persons not members of the Orthodox Greek Church.

Rioting Rioters Arrested.

VIENNA, June 21.—Forty persons have been arrested for participating in the riots at Kladno. A proclamation has been issued prohibiting meetings of strikers. The municipal authorities of Kladno have requested that a permanent garrison be established there.

The Turf Scandal Compromised.

LONDON, June 21.—A compromise has been arranged between Sir George Chetwynd and Lord Durham in connection with the turf scandal.

The Boulangists' Trial Concluded.

PARIS, June 21.—The trial of Boulangists at Angoulême has been concluded; judgment will be rendered Monday.

Cuba Not For Sale

MADRID, June 21.—In the Cortes to-day Senor Becerra, Minister of the Colonies, reaffirmed that the United States Government had made no proposition relative to the purchasing of Cuba. He added that no such propositions would be entertained.

A Hamiltonian Snake Tale.

HAMILTON, June 21.—The Times to-night chronicles this story: A little son of Mr. George Plastow went to the mountain top yesterday afternoon by the Dundurn Stairway, and wandered about in search of flowers with some other lads. Plastow had with him a small black-and-tan dog that ferreted out a snake's nest. The dog made a snap at one of the snakes, and had no sooner done so than the reptile caught him about the neck and proceeded to wind himself around the animal's body, squeezing him until life was extinct. The small boys got quite a fright. Plastow rushed home announcing the fate of his favorite. It is said that several large black snakes were in the nest.

Serious Accident at Gananoque.

GANANOQUE, June 21.—An accident occurred at 6 p.m. yesterday through the giving way of some part of the running gear of the elevator at the Ontario Wheel Company works. Four of the employees, who were on the elevator at the time, are seriously injured and it is thought that in one or two cases the injuries will be fatal. The names of the injured are Thos. Clark, Kingston; F. Black, Carlisle; F. Johnston and J. Reid, Gananoque. Clark's injuries are the most serious.

THE ARMAGH DISASTER.

A Verdict of Manslaughter Against Five of the Railway Employes.

ARMAGH, June 21.—The jury in the case of the five railway employes charged with causing the recent disaster by which 76 persons lost their lives has brought in a verdict of manslaughter. The rear guard of the wrecked train has been arrested.

The R. S. W. Mails.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., June 21.—The New South Wales Government has decided to continue for a year from next November the contract for carrying the mails between this port and San Francisco.

In the time intervening before the contract expires the Government will consider what is the best route to use in the future for transporting the mails by way of the American continent.

The American's Cup.

LONDON, June 21.—The members of the Royal Yacht Squadron will meet early next week to decide regarding the deed of gift of the America's Cup. Lord Dunraven does not think the Valkyrie will compete for the cup.

The Cry of the Children Heard.

LONDON, June 21.—The House of Commons last night accepted the bill penalizing parents who send boys under 14 and girls under 16 to beg in the streets, under the pretence of selling things, singing, etc., or who send them to sell between 10 at night and 5 in the morning in summer and 8 at night and 5 in the morning in winter.

The Boycotted Priest.

DUBLIN, June 21.—Father Crotty of the boycotted church at Knockea, recently closed by order of Bishop O'Dwyer, has been given another parish near Croom, a short distance from Limerick. The Bishop retains the custody of the keys of the abandoned chapel at Knockea.

A Financier Fined for Fraud.

PARIS, June 21.—M. Meyer, a financier, has been sentenced to imprisonment for one year and fined 5000 francs for being connected with the Societe Mobiliere fraude.

Diphtheria Communicated by Cats.

LONDON, June 21.—At a local board meeting at Darton the clerk reported that Dr. Bruce Lawes, an inspector connected with the Local Government Board, had been down from London and inspected the district to inquire into the cause of the deaths of 20 children from croup and diphtheria mentioned in the medical officer's report. The inspector found that in three cases the disease had been communicated by cats going from house to house, and in more than one case where children had died cats had died also.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Winners at Ascot.

LONDON, June 21.—At Ascot to-day the race for the Hardwicke Stakes was won by Rose's Gulliver, Gretton's Migoel second, Baird's Enthusiast third.

The race for the Alexander Plate was won by De La Rue's Trayles, Astley's Nethervon second, Houldsworth's Arrandale third.

The race for the Windsor Castle Stakes was won by Milner's Riviera, Rose's Beldemino second, Baron De Rothschild's Fatalite third.

The race for the Thirty-Sixth Triennial Stakes was won by Prince Soltykoff's Cherry Bounce, Baird's Eldorado second, the Duke of Westminster's Bon Stresne, third.

The race for the Queensland Plate was won by Lord Dudley's Formidable, De Rothschild's Wayland second, Huntley's June third.

The American Derby.

CHICAGO, June 21.—There are active times at Washington Park, as things are being put in order for the American Derby to be run to-morrow. Spokane is not in satisfactory condition, though his people think he will come out all right and make a good showing.

"I guess he'll be all right now," said Noah Armstrong. "We have just got some good oats for him. We had them sent from Montana. I don't see how they can beat him now."

The colt could hardly have looked better than he did when I saw him out walking. His step was firm and elastic. Nevertheless experienced turfmen incline that he is lame and hint that Rodgrap, his trainer, is afraid to give him strong work. Predictions are made that a hard race will settle his turf career. The queer part of the critical opinions is that while one man says the colt is lame forward, the next one is positive the trouble is behind. Meanwhile Rodgrap says:

"He is just as he was when he won the Kentucky Derby and Clark stakes." Despite all reports of lameness Spokane will carry a lot of money to-morrow. Horsemen as well as the public will back him heavily.

Proctor Knott's eye was bright, his coat shone with a healthy buoyancy and he looked in the pink of racing condition as he stood in his stall. Perhaps he looked a little tucked up, but to the casual observer not more so than would be expected of a horse that had been to the races. Sam Bryant thinks him too light and wishes the Derby a week further off.

"If it was," said he, "he'd win. The only thing I'm afraid of is he'll weaken at the finish."

Yale's Winning Crew.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 21.—Yale won the 3-oared 4-mile boat race on the Thames this evening, beating the University of Pennsylvania by 1¼ lengths. Time: Yale 20.50, University of Pennsylvania 20.56.

An American Schooner Fired On.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 21.—The schooner Baltic of Provincetown, Captain Joseph Fisher, arrived to-day from an Atlantic Ocean whaling voyage. May 13 while at Sam Bay, Santo Domingo, the vessel put in for water. At six o'clock in the evening five soldiers under command of an officer came down and fired 12 or 15 shots at the schooner. They were armed with American rifles. The captain and two seamen narrowly escaped being hit. The firing was so hot there was no chance to show the American flag.

"How it been lying?"

"How is! Well, I should say it had, mayther. Only last week it said in the items from near-by town that Rev. James Pearson Bowling filled the pulpit at the Union church in Brockville Dominion."

"Well, didn't he?"

"No, sure, he didn't. Why, he's a little light-weight whipper snapper, and don't weigh no more'n eleven pounds, and it would take 200 av 'em to take up all av my pulpit or room anywhere near it. Why, I'm a full grown pulpit, and can't be filled by no one man less'n five or six av 'em."

PRICES AND PROSPECTS.

MODERATELY INCREASED ACTIVITY IN TRADE.

Eight Leading Staples Advance in Price, Five Have Just Gotten, Cotton and Hog Products Show a Decline.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's this week report a moderately increased activity in general trade at Boston, Philadelphia, Memphis and Burlington. This is likewise true at Pittsburg now that railway traffic in the Pennsylvania flood region has been resumed. At Kansas City the improvement is most prominent, where reduced lumber freight rates have increased shipments and stimulated building. There has been only a moderate business at New Orleans, St. Louis, Galveston, Omaha, Detroit and San Francisco. Chicago, St. Paul, and New York maintain full seasonable averages.

Heavy rains over the central and western States are reported, but no serious damage to crops is reported. Eight out of eighteen leading staples have advanced in price this week; five are steady, even firm; coffee, cotton and hog products alone being noteworthy as showing declines.

In spite of disturbing elements in the western railroad situation, the danger of disruption to the Inter-State Association and apparent sensitive conditions of the money market stock speculation at New York continues to show a decidedly bullish temper. Activity is slightly decreased and attention drifts from the grangers to the coal stocks and industrial specialties. Bonds are strong in anticipation of a July reinvestment demand. Over $5,000,000 gold was shipped to France and the New York money market stiffens the rate for call loans, rising from 2 and 2 1-2 to 3 per cent. at the close of the week. Foreign exchange is firm. Sterling is lower relatively than continental bills. Demand sterling 84.83½ to 84.86.

Gross and net earnings of ninety-one railroads for April and for four months ending April 30 show gains over April 1888, in gross of 3 per cent. and in net of 6.5 per cent. For the four months the gain in gross is 5.7 per cent. and in net 16 per cent. A phenomenal improvement by the granger roads is due to comparison being made with the period of the great Burlington strike of last year.

There has been an advance all around in breadstuffs despite the glowing domestic crop reports, wheat having gained 2½ cents, corn ¼ cent, and oats 1 cent per bushel. Flour has shared the stimulus and on a freer export movement is quoted higher. Wheat has been very variable, down on good weather reports and easy cables, and up again on rumored revised crop reports. New crop winter wheat has sold as 85c. Louis at 75 cents. The Australian and Brazilian demand for California wheat has advanced spot at San Francisco to $1.20 per cental, as millers there want old crop and new crop is slow in coming in. Hog products have been more active, but are lower or barely steady, as receipts of hogs at western centres continue very heavy.

Demand for raw sugar has slightly declined owing to a modified request for refined. Foreign markets remain very firm and active. Production of refined at New York has, however, been increased to supply accumulating orders. Holders of refined prefer to store rather than accept modified bids. The latest report of the world's visible supply is 782,632 tons, against 1,063,136 tons a year ago. Prices remain firm.

Heavy liquidating orders in the speculative coffee market here and abroad have resulted in unusual excitement and a decline of 1 3-5 to 1 4-5 cents per pound. The break in prices abroad was quite as precipitate. The outlook is not regarded as encouraging. Large new crop figures are current.

Pig iron is more active with occasional slight increases in price. Some furnaces have refused contracts for future delivery at current prices. Anthracite coal, notwithstanding curtailed output due to the mines being flooded, has not sold at the late advance in circular rates. Trade coal is dull. There is a better demand for copper but American mines are being actively worked. Prices remain as 15c. for Lake. European visible supplies and Canadian and Australian stocks afloat declined 3000 tons during the first half of June. The demand for steel rails is the largest since April.

At eastern dry goods centers fall trade opens with dark prints and ginghams in demand, the latter—leading makes—selling at 8½ cents. Cotton goods are firm and some bleached goods are higher. Semi-annual clearing out sales are being arranged. Woolen goods are firm but quiet. Print cloths are stronger. Manufacturers have bought wool more freely and the staple is firmer, more active, and at some points 1c. higher. Raw cotton is in a very active demand at a decline of ¼ cent.

The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Business failures reported to Bradstreet's number 224 in the United States this week against 195 last week and 177 this week, last year. Canada had 28 this week against 20 last week. The total failures in the United States Jan. 1 to date is 5674, against 5048 in 1888.

The Latest From Hayti.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The latest news from Hayti was brought to the city by the passengers on the Clyde Line steamer Seguranca which arrived yesterday morning. According to their report Legitime is now in a precarious situation. The troops of Hippolyte have overrun the whole country, pursuing Legitime up in the city of Port au Prince, his last stronghold. They said that Hippolyte had 15,000 men before this place and that Legitime, with a much smaller force, was making his last stand at a fort about four miles from the city, and that it was a question of only a few days before Legitime would be forced to surrender or flee the island.

A Singular Suicide.

YARMOUTH, N.S., June 21.—John Cann, farmer of Ohio, Yarmouth County, drowned himself in the lake near his home yesterday. He had been in town in the morning, drove home, changed his clothes and telling his wife he would be home to an early dinner, went out. He did not return and on the afternoon were on his wife got the neighbors to search for him. No trace of him was discovered until this morning, when he was found standing in the lake a short distance from the shore and a foot or two under the surface. He had apparently walked out backwards from the shore till the water was over his head. In just the same spot and just the same way his first wife drowned herself one year ago. Cann was about 55 years old. He never showed any signs of insanity or depression and was only married to his second wife a week ago.

John Gorman, an old broken-down thief, was in the dock at the police court to-day. He is 68 years old, and fully 37 years of that time has been spent in jail. He gained the reputation of being the most notorious housethief in the country. On the last occasion that Gorman stole a horse he declared that it was to see what he would be sent to jail. The magistrate took pity on the old wreck and gave him three months for vagrancy. Gorman is dying and will hardly live that long.

How They Did It in Yorkshire.

There is a legend told in good Yorkshire town to the effect that, after a crowded congregation had been simultaneously startled at a parish church, one lively female in full dress walking away with another lady by his arm. The crowd, impressed by the circumstances with the deduction that he had brought him to take his proper position, cried, "Hey," said he, "we was married to-day 'un, and I takes her t' back." There is no reason why this should not be the case.—The Churchill Mountain.

THAT TERRIBLE PARESIS.

Are the Doctors' views interesting a Matter of Trembling? Read and how to avoid.

THE BRAIN (from a photograph) in Monthly Circulars. with Monthly Letters.

There are many well known men employed in our Asylums who, a short time ago, were prominent among our business and social circles.

Why are they there?

Paresis!

Did it come on at once?

Not at all. It was a gradual but positive growth. They overtaxed system. Mind drain on their vitality, their nerve power, their brain cells, were too great, and they gradually lost quality, each day less in size than the day did to follow, till at last almost are passing the same things that are being done by thousands of men and women to-day. It is not necessary to name them. They all and disastrously unless checked or regulated.

Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth College, knew this fully when he began his experiments which resulted in the discovery of the wonderful Paine's Celery Compound. He realized that paresis (consumption of the brain) was our great National weakness. He knew that the brain and nervous system must be fortified to meet the great strains which modern life brings upon it. He saw that men were becoming debilitated and women weakened by the pressure and demands of life, and he sought and discovered the remedy Paine's Celery Compound, if rightly taken, will renew the brain and build up nerve tissues as fast as they become exhausted. It is not a narcotic. It contains no drugs, no nostrums. It is perfectly pure. It is absolutely harmless. The high character of its discoverer guarantees this, and the indorsement of the medical and chemical professions proves it.

Agricultural Society Deputation.

Went Upon the Finance Committee of the County Council—A Grant Asked and Refused.

Friday afternoon a deputation representing the West Ridings Agricultural Society, waited upon the Finance Committee of the County Council, urging the claims of the Society upon the council for a grant of money to assist the Society in carrying out its objects. The deputation consisted of Messrs. Wm. Rutherford, Joseph Tully, Wm. Calder, and C. M. Elliott and Mr. J. E. Stratton, M. P. P. After stating their claims the matter was remarked to a point by Mr. John Tinsley moving, seconded by Mr. Joseph Lyster, of North Monaghan, that the committee recommend to the council the appropriation of the sum of $200, to be divided as follows: $100 to the West Riding Society and $100 to the East Riding Society. This proposal was negatived, three of the members of the committee voting for it and seven against it. It is questionable if those members of the committee who opposed the grant will feel, on mature deliberation, that they have promoted the best interests of their constituency by what was, on the face of it, an economical course. It might be remembered, that the benefits flowing from a well supported and well-conducted agricultural society are not confined solely to the members or exhibitors. The whole farming community is elevated by the operations of these societies, and the great improvement which an observer of a quarter of a century will note, in both stock of all kinds as well as the general condition of the farmer, is, in no small degree, to be directly credited to the efforts of the operation of agricultural societies. These efforts would, doubtless, have been more marked had the societies in general not been hampered by scarcity of funds. Any course of action tending to strengthen the hands of agricultural societies is a step in advance and by consequence any course of action, either by intention or default, must be a retrograde movement, which is contrary to the spirit that animates the farming community in general at the present day. It is a debatable question whether or not what can be transmitted by chance and circumstance, but it is hardly to be questioned that the degeneration of a praiseworthy economy in the administration of a public grant into a mistaken or mischievous parsimony, is a far too easy process.

Since the above was in type, the report of the above committee was presented to the council, and on motion of Mr. Kidd, seconded by Mr. Mearns, the grant mentioned above was unanimously voted to the two societies.

Ennismore.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OBITUARY.—On Friday evening, the 14th instant, Robert McGee, second son of the late Thomas McGee, Esq., lot 13, con. 3, township of Emily, died after a long and painful illness. He quietly passed away in the 28th year of his age, with a sure hope in a loving Redeemer. Deceased was a kind, obliging, cheerful young man, which endeared him to a great number of friends and acquaintances. He was a general favorite with all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was ever ready with good advice when his opinion was solicited. The concert in which deceased was held was rendered on Sunday, which showed how much he was esteemed. His remains were followed to their last resting place in the Methodist cemetery, Ennismore, by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The deceased was the youngest of all departed—none in this their sacred habitation—he being only two years on the 19th since his father was interred in the same cemetery. Both are now sleeping their last sleep side by side.

Although not of a religious or political nature, still in one and at heart it will make the envi... of Ashburnham, the friends here never, while in ruddy form, ever ready smile, decide a right amongst us, accompanied by his son, his wife ... ashes, his universal refined, his Christian and true male judge. He kept prospered with a large dense building on the north side of Church street, belonging to Nathaniel Oliver, blacksmith, formerly used as a blacksmith shop, dwelling house and carpenter shop, moving it in fine style along Church street, thence across post office avenue, pausing to without damage or accident, at Mr. Oliver's lot adjoining his present shop, which, no doubt, will be a material addition to the premises. His next place of halt or begin should always ... by David Taylor, on the corner of Mr. Oliver's lot, which is to be converted into ... able dwelling, 12x16, and, judging by all the other buildings Mr. Johnson has erected, ... nothing of excellence. May God bless him yet. He also required the horse, valuable enough able to a heavy stable belonging to Thomas Tolland, again advantage of in the shape of a building where, and whether it is then sold, and unfortunately getting good stabling for it all by which he was deprived.

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope.

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever promised by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of citizens, a display of splendid general fire brigade contests, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Fire in Chicago" will be spectacularly illustrated by the real fire exhibit, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would suggest to those who contemplate a pleasure trip to Port Hope on that day to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. F. Burnham, Secretary of committee.

FATAL FIRE AT BOSTON.

Three Persons Perish and Three others Probably Fatally Injured.

BOSTON, June 22.—A disastrous fire occurred here this evening. Three persons perished and three others received probably fatal injuries. It is feared there may be more victims among the debris. The building, a four-story brick structure, was occupied on the ground floor by C. E. Bowling, milliner, and on three upper floors by Heyer Bros., dealers in fancy goods and dressmaking. Shortly after 5 p.m. while a salesman was waiting on a customer, he was a dense smoke issuing behind a counter. He rushed for water and also gave the alarm. The flames spread with almost incredible rapidity, cutting off the escape of several men in the upper stories and in five minutes the entire interior and almost the front discharged a mass of fire. The explosion of fireworks of different kinds added to the confusion and excitement of the building.

C. E. Clapp, aged 20, employed in the third story, being from a window until he was obliged to let go. He fell to the ground striking two awnings and breaking his back. He will probably die.

C. T. Callahan and Thos. Paine, working on the fourth floor, jumped from a window and Paine was killed. Callahan was probably fatally injured. A body taken from the building was recognized by Mr. Heyer as Samuel Cook, the shipping porter. The body of a boy also taken out was badly charred and burned. This completes the list of casualties at present.

BIG MEAT AND SALT TRUSTS.

"Eastman's Limited" Will Have a Capital of Four Millions to Start.

NEW YORK, June 21.—A big meat trust by London and New York operators which has been talked of for some time is now an accomplished fact and will be known as "Eastman's Limited."

Eight prominent English gentlemen, including Lord Grenville and James John Thompson, are the London directors, and the New York Board of Management will consist of President George C. Williams of the Chemical National Bank, and T. C. and Joseph Eastman. The capital stock is $4,500,000, of which $2,000,000 is in 8 per cent. cumulative preferred shares of $5 each, the balance being in ordinary $50 shares paying 10 per cent.

T. C. Eastman was a pioneer in the business of exporting American fresh meats to this country, where to England in 1875, and John Bull & Sons handled his exports in England, an enormous trade being built up, opening 300 retail stores.

It is claimed by Joseph Eastman that the amalgamated concern will still further lower the price of meat, which had been lowered somewhat by the five firms acting in unison.

Another trust which will soon be consummated is the North American Salt Company, Limited, with a capital of $5,000,000.

Is My Hair Right?

How often do we hear one lady ask this question of another. Invariably those ladies who are thoroughly equipped about their hair, do not wear any kind of hair goods, but possibly a switch. Now, consider this, ladies: Would it not pay you to get a nice, becoming style of Front-piece, Bang or Wave, made of fine, curled or waved human hair, and be sure it is always right? Then you would not require to ask "Is my hair all right?" Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, has made the manufacture of hair goods a life study, and amongst his many pieces every lady will find something to suit her. You have all heard of the professor, though, perhaps, you have never interested yourself enough to call on him during his Toronto visits. Do so now. He will be at Phelps's Hotel on Friday and Saturday, June 28th and 29th, and will bring with him his big stock of all kinds of hair goods. He will be pleased to show you his various styles. See his advertisement in another column. dw

The Most Agonizing, Itching, Burning and Bleeding Eczema Cured.

Humors in the worst Stages. A New Cure From Head to Foot. Hair Gone. Blotches and Eruptions Pink. Tried Everything. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies for $5.

I can almost say of a truthful disease, eczema, in its worst form, that I would Hideous diseases and losses through the head, but to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the sole of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everybody, I sent for your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with CUTICURA and CUTICURA OINTMENT, I was entirely cured at the cost of about $5. I would say to whoever may have CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, that I think they are the only skin cure. HIRAM H. GRAHAM, Waterbury N. Y.

A Most Wonderful Cure.

I have had a most wonderful cure of salt rheum (Eczema), after five years I have suffered with this disease. I paid it to my face, arms and hands for over two years. I tried hundreds of remedies, and was once told that I would die from it. I saw your advertisement, and concluded to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES; and indeed glad I did so, for I used only one set of CUTICURA and five bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I feel I am entirely cured. Those who think the terrible disease incurable may come and see me for themselves. GRACE P. FARNHAM, Bells River Ontario.

Improved "Common Sense"

SASH BALANCE.

LOCKS AND LIFTS.

The only complete substitute for weights invented. The most durable, the cheapest and best device for all sashes ever made. Balances when in position, are entirely out of sight. No screws, bolts or screwdrivers need in putting together or balancing—can get one of either or need repairing. No cutting, boring or mortising of the sash, as the fastenings are let into the frame. Especially valuable for remodelled old buildings as they can be put in at a trifling expense, as easily put in old buildings as new ones. Sash can be removed from frame in a moment for cleaning or repairing broken glass. Can be used where it is impossible to use weights or other fastenes. No unsightly cord wearing paint off sides of frame. No rattling of sash as pressure against sash prevents it. No catching of weights or pulleys when sash is raised or lowered. No sticking of weights in frame. No cords to rust, fray, stretch and break. No rubber rollers to become flattened by standing in position for some time. No danger of sash coming out of order. Its construction and operation is simple in all.

Byam's Automatic Sash Locks (self-fastening Sash Lifts for upper and lower sash are the cheapest in the market.

MUNCASTER'S

A REIGN OF TERROR.

In the beginning of November, 18—, New York was startled by a terrible crime—the murder of an eccentric and solitary old lady. She was known to keep a large sum of money in her bedroom, and as every penny had disappeared, the motive was plain enough. As regards the criminal, a man had been seen leaving the house about midnight, and a description of him had been handed to the police, who, of course, were glad to have a clue, though the public doubted. The papers being full of the tragedy, it formed the chief topic of conversation.

In Mrs. Yate's boarding-house we talked of very little else at dinner that evening. Some of us who had recently returned from down town and were therefore supposed to have heard the latest news, were simply inundated with questions. I should think the story must have been told at least a dozen times, for each had a different version, and relied upon its accuracy. Mrs. Yate, a stout-and dreamy woman who sat at the head of the table and carved, giving to each according as she valued him, had often to pause in her task, as ghastly were the details that passed from mouth to mouth; and Miss Dunne, an elderly spinster with a long and red-tipped nose, announced her intention of examining her room thoroughly before she went to bed. Tom Lemmy whispered to me that she would first look in her whisky bottle; a piece of scandal which I should not down here were it not for my determination to tell the whole truth.

In the midst of this discussion a cab stopped at the door, and shortly afterwards Mrs. Yate was summoned to receive a visitor; an incident that always gave rise to many conjectures. Presently we heard the noise of voices being brought into the hall, from which we inferred that our circle had been favored by another boarder. Mrs. Yate was personally prepared for emergencies of this sort. Having a large house to fill, she was not very particular about references, but trusted more to her eyes and ears after she had safely caged her bird.

When she returned, smiling most gracefully she announced the new arrival to be a Mr. Jackson. "Such a gentlemanly man, with plenty of money; a confirmed invalid; going to have his meals in his room at present." N. B.—All Mrs. Yate's boarders were course at first, but their plumage soon took a different hue.

"What is Mr. Jackson like?" asked red-headed Miss Hatch. "Oh, do tell me! I'm simply dying to know."

"Well," replied Mrs. Yate, beaming over folded hands, "he is short and slight; his hair is brown, smooth-shaven, and wrinkled a little; his hair is light, turning grey; spectacles perched like my friend General —'s he sleeps rather, and has a bad cough, poor man; his manners are affable and nervous. I think that's all I noticed about him."

"Dear me, how interesting!" said Miss Hatch with enthusiasm. "And his baggage —"

"Enough small in quantity is good in quality. I see that that fastened much," added Mrs. Yate complacently, "for he has paid me a month in advance."

"And his cough?" anxiously inquired old Mr. Parrot.

"Oh, you needn't be afraid. You won't hear it." She turned towards me to say: "Mr. Jackson has taken the big room at the end of your passage, so—why goodness gracious, there's another cab stopping! Not another boarder surely."

As we sat listening there came such a sharp knock at the door that several ladies actually screamed, no doubt because their nerves had been overstrung by the accounts of the murder. Mrs. Yate was again summoned from the table and upon her return told us Mr. Lascombe had taken the vacant room next Mr. Jackson's.

"Oh, how very odd," exclaimed Miss Hatch. "Lascombe is quite an aristocratic name. Is he nice?"

"He has paid me a week in advance, at any rate," replied Mrs. Yate, looking severely at poor old Mr. Parrot, who was, I fear, considerably in her debt.

Dinner concluded she had led her troop from her room, while we others remained to smoke as was the custom of the establishment. A few minutes later we were joined by Mr. Lascombe, a very little man with strong features, fair hair, black beard and moustache, gray eyes, which seemed to include us all at one glance. The difference in color between his hair and beard gave him rather a peculiar appearance, and but for the latter he might have passed for a soldier. He introduced himself to the room generally, took a chair at the table, brought out a cigar-case, and made himself quite at home, talking freely of everything except himself, and especially of the recent murder, though he seemed to know less about it than we did.

"The fellow will surely be caught," said Tom Lemmy, "for the police are only a set of noodles."

"That's your opinion, is it?" observed Mr. Lascombe with a smile.

"It is."

"Then, my dear sir, I don't agree with you. Your young fellow are too impatient. You must give the police time."

"While he runs away!" Perhaps dodges into another house to murder some one else! My advice to everybody is to look after themselves and I intend to set the example by keeping a revolver."

"And shooting one of your friends!" added Mr. Lascombe, apparently shocked at watching the smoke like up to the ceiling.

"Not at all," cried Tom, pleased at our laughter. "I am not such a fool as—as—some people."

"It's not a question of folly, my good sir," said Mr. Lascombe, good-humoredly. "When the house is in darkness, it's not easy to distinguish between a friend and a foe, and a startled man with a revolver in his hand is apt to blaze away at the one in the hope of hitting the other. If you'll take my advice, and assume a stranger for giving it, you'll leave revolvers alone."

"As to that I shall please myself," said Tom, walking towards the door. "Good night, Jack," he called out to me, "I'm going up."

I followed him into the hall in order to expostulate with him, for he had latterly developed an alarming fondness for billiards, a good digestive organ for a junior clerk in a broker's office. Believing in a good but poor friend, he told me he had to make his own way in the world, and that I left you a very long time before, I had taken a great fancy to the tall, powerful, handsome young fellow, whose many excellent qualities were undeniable, and whose faults were chiefly those of youth. Always exceedingly hard-up, in keeping with the remembrance of which I never addressed to him, and playfully calling me an old grandmother, he left the room.

When we went up-stairs to join the ladies in the drawing-room, we found Miss Hatch endeavoring lightly on the piano; Miss Dunne looking for a suitable silence attitude on the ottoman, and the remaining half-dozen talking round the fire. At our entrance the noise stopped, Mr. Lascombe immediately became the central object of the picture. Not understanding their thorough knowledge of human nature, they quite misunderstood the interest that the study of your fellow-creatures inspired him with, pictures of prison scenes at his command, for "my aunt's relation," and "the landlady of mine," ruled Cornhill-ashley, as completely as any despot's iron sway, though, of course, in a milder way. He has been a great help to her stately duty. When the murder was told, that Shrubbery hill house, which was for Grandchildren, and had been to let for a number of years, it appeared to be in foreign hands; and it was a good bargain to her, every one knew, that he had not been murdered in her absence, and doubled the spend at least the valuer of his legal landlord agents.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and,

By Taking

three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

Hymeneal.

The Buffalo papers announce the marriage in that city of Miss Jennie Davis to Mr. Alfred Rudolph. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. R. Davis, who resided here for many years. Her many relatives and friends in this vicinity will join with the EXAMINER in wishing the young couple long life and prosperity.

Drowned at Cheboygan.

The following telegraphic despatch, dated June 21st, comes from Cheboygan, Michigan: On Thursday Dan McNamara, 30 years old, formerly of Peterborough, Ont., was employed by contractors to go down shore and put in some logs. Sunday he disappeared and yesterday his body was found floating ashore. It was brought here to-day.

The New Party.

Everyone will vote for the new party—that is, the T party at Hawley Bros., where a large stock of the cheapest tea and best quality is kept constantly on hand. The firm makes a specialty of the tea business and are able to give better bargains and better tea than any firm that deals in miscellaneous groceries can possibly do. Attend the T party at Hawley Bros., where you get "tea as is tea" at low prices. dw

The Bellhebore' Band.

Last night the Bellhebore' brass band made itself heard on our streets. The band had just returned from Bobcaygeon, where a successful excursion and pic-nic had been held, and while waiting for the 8.30 train marched up street and played a number of airs. The band comprises 12 pieces, and their playing was creditable indeed. The general impression was that Bellhebore must be quite an enterprising and thriving place to support such a good band.

You've heard it, thought of it, now try it, and prove that M. B. Kidd sells No. 1 groceries at lowest prices. dw

The Twelfth at Lindsay.

The Orangemen of the counties of Peterborough, Haliburton and Victoria will celebrate the coming Twelfth of July at Lindsay, and it is expected a monster demonstration will result upon the gathering of all the sons of King William in the three counties. The True Blues of Peterborough, Preston Pell, Oakwood and Lindsay will also participate, as well as the Ladies True Blue Lodge of Peterborough.

The Boys Disobeyed.

At the police court this morning the three boys implicated in the burglary of Wyatt's store were brought before the magistrate and discharged with a warning. Walter Whitfield and Albert Green were each bound over in the sum of $200 to appear when called on for judgment; William Whitfield on his own recognizance. The magistrate said he feared the public might think him derelict in his duty in thus apparently allowing so serious a crime to go unpunished, but in view of the boys' responsibility and past excellent conduct he would be loth to send his three off. He warned them, however, that their future conduct must be good or they might at any moment be called upon to receive judgment.

The New District Deputy.

A meeting of the Past Guards of the Oddfellows' lodges in this district was held last night in Otonabee lodge room. District Deputy Grand Master Workman presided, and there were present D. G. M. Bell and Past Guards Maynard, McMahon, Fraser, Mottishaw, Mowry and Early. Dr. Potts[illegible], the Norwood delegate, was not present. Dr. Potts[illegible] was elected members for the position of D.D.G.M. of this district for the coming term, and Bro. Early was elected Secretary of the Past Guards' committee. After the meeting refreshments were provided in the ante-room through the kindness of Bro. Workman.

Gentlemen with Bald Heads.

What remains as a rule extend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is not his fault but his misfortune. There is not cause this annoyance, but a person with the scalp suppressed it more liable to diseases of the head. When a gentleman loses his hair he should take heroic measures to have it replaced with an artificial covering. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is slow about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, will be at Phelan's Hotel on June 28 and 29, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, which are just the things required. The best you can do is to call and examine the articles whether you buy this or not. Physicians endorse them and you cannot afford to be without one. dw

An Overgrown Giant's Death.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Downer will take place Sunday afternoon at three o'clock from the residence of Mr. Louis S. Downer, Downer's Corners, and proceed to the Methodist cemetery. Deceased lady was the relict of the late Asa B. Downer. She was born in Massachusetts in "the year one," and was therefore 88 years of age. Mrs. Downer lived for a while in Port Hope after coming to Canada, afterwards removing to Peterborough, where she has lived for the past sixty years. She saw the town hamlet grow up into a thriving city.

A Handsome Picture.

A fine life-size half length oil painting of Mr. J. M. Irwin has just been finished by Mr. Thos. Workman, Peterborough's favorite artist, and placed on exhibition at Clegg's furniture store. The portrait stands, if possible, Mr. Workman's admirable work in the past, and considering the circumstances in those praise of the painting as a most lifelike and artistic reproduction of the original. Mr. Irwin's genial countenance is reflected accurately upon the canvas. Every lineament is well brought out while the posture is easy and graceful to a nicety. The coloring of the picture is remarkably good. Mr. Workman has a right to feel proud of his success, the result of many months of careful and diligent toil, and Mr. Irwin has also every reason to be pleased with the portrait. It will remain upon exhibition for a few days.

Decoration Day.

The joint committee of the Oddfellows' lodges met last night and completed arrangements for the proper performance of the ceremonies on Decoration Day. Tee posters announcing the half holiday will be out on Monday. The brethren are to form in procession at Central Park and march to the cemetery, where the graves of deceased brethren will be decorated with floral tokens. As usual the ladies and other friends of the Order are to be asked to supply bouquets and flowers for this purpose. The places where they can be left will be announced later. With pleasant weather the coming Decoration Day will be most successful. Invitations have been sent to Belleville, Campbellford, Norwood, Port Hope and Lindsay brethren, and it is expected quite a number from a distance will take part.

The Y. H. C. A. Garden Party.

Owing to the unfavorable weather we were compelled to postpone the garden party until Monday evening on the grounds of Mrs. Joseph Dixon, Smithtown Hill. We are gratified at the generous response made by the ladies and their friends, which assures us a pleasant and profitable evenings enjoyment. Friends desirous of sending in provisions would confer favor on the committee by sending their donations to Mrs. Dixon's on Monday before 4 p.m. If not convenient to do so they will be thankfully received at the rooms. Through the kindness of T. G. Hazlit, Esq. we hope to have an electric light on the grounds, also chinese lanterns, &c. Busses will leave the rooms every 15 minutes after 7 p.m.; fare 5c. We return our thanks to Mr. J. J. Turner for a flag and Mrs. Mowry, Ashburnham and Miss Mary Green for flowers for the parlor. 1d

Hotel Improvements.

Since the inauguration of the Crooks Act this spring a number of the hotels in town have been making improvements and alterations to meet the requirements of the License Act. Prominent among these is the Morgan House, where the interior has been completely refitted, painted, papered, etc. Its enterprising proprietor is determined to make his hotel one of the best equipped and best managed hostelries in town. The Stewart House, Wm. Kennealey, proprietor, has also undergone repairs, and a fire escape balcony has been added to the front. The Grand Central is having a large new balcony placed along the entire front. Mr. Daly has had the interior of his hotel improved in many ways, and the Grand Central is becoming more popular every day. The Commercial House, E. Brown proprietor, has recently been re-painted and papered throughout, till everything is in spick-span condition. The Croft House and the Oriental have also been supplied with complete fire escape apparatus. Other improvements are to follow among the hotels.

Address by the Lord Bishop of Toronto and Confirmation service. All seats free in the evening except those reserved for confirmation candidates. Strangers and others heartily welcome to the church at all times. Ushers on duty, Messrs. Macdonnell, Parker, G.A.Smith and H. Rush.

Ashburnham Brevities.

There are now sixteen tents on the common beside the lake to accommodate the men in charge of Gilmour's drive of logs. This is the largest number of tents that have ever at one time been on the lake shore, and they present a very pretty sight. There are three more in attendance.

Rev. J. J. Wright, B.A., preaches in the Presbyterian church at Harding's Mills and Primrose, country of Dufferin, to-morrow.

Rev. G. Warren, who has had charge of St. Luke's church during the past six months, left this morning for Lakefield, to take charge of the Episcopal church there. Mr. Warren leaves a host of friends here who wish him success in his new field of labor.

The G. T. R. authorities are putting in new crossings on James and Morris streets, where they were badly needed.

Quite a crowd of people assembled on the bridge this afternoon watching the river men break up the jam of logs at the bridge. It was an interesting sight.

County Council.

Quarterly Sitting of the Junior Session—Reports of Committees—Superannuation—A Fatal County Police Magistrate Re-commended—Other Business—Conflagratory By-laws.

FRIDAY, June 21st, 1889.

A short session of the council was held in the evening. Mr. Burnham, Chairman, presented the report of the Committee on which was adopted.

EQUALIZATION AND ASSESSMENT,

[The report which is lengthy will be published on Monday.]

HIGH SCHOOL GRANTS.

Mr. Burnham, Chairman, presented the report of the special committee appointed to confer with the trustees of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute and Norwood High School, which was adopted as follows:

The committee to which was referred the question of aid to High Schools beg leave to report:

Your committee met and conferred with representatives from the Norwood High School and Peterborough High School Boards.

The committee were unanimously of the opinion that it was undesirable to establish High School districts.

The committee also decided to recommend no grant for High School purposes.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN BURNHAM,
Chairman.

June 21st, 1889.

COUNTY POLICE MAGISTRATE.

On motion of Mr. Kidd, seconded by Mr. Elmhirst, the council recommended to the Ontario Government the appointment of Mr. Geo. Edmison as a salaried police magistrate for the county.

COUNTY VALUATORS.

Mr. Moloney, chairman, presented the report of the sub-committee in reference to county valuation, which was adopted as follows:—

The sub-committee of the Equalization Committee beg leave to report:

That Samuel McKibbin (Smith), and William Drummond (Otonabee), be valuators for the county, and that the whole cost shall not exceed $100, and that as far as practicable the Assessment Act be followed, and that the warden appoint a committee to arrange with the valuators.

JOHN MOLONEY,
Chairman.

June 21st, 1889.

The council adjourned.

REPORT OF ROADS AND BRIDGES.

Mr. Moloney, Chairman, presented the report of the committees, which was adopted as follows:—

The Committee on Roads and Bridges beg leave to report as follows:—

1. That the report of the county engineer be adopted.

2. That the matter of the Pigeon Creek bridge be left to the Bridge Building Committee.

3. That the matter of the Mud Lake bridge and swing be referred to the Bridge Building Committee.

4. That the reeve of Smith have the approaches to the Buckhorn bridge satisfactorily repaired.

5. That the county clerk be instructed to memorialize the Dominion Government to build a pier and guide boom to the entrance of the locks bridge, as suggested by the engineer's report.

That this Council grant the sum of $175 as an equivalent to the grant of the Local Legislature for the repair of the South Berleigh road through the township of Smith.

6. That the matter of building and placing a scow for traffic over the narrows between Harvey and Eastmore be left to the Bridge Building Committee with full power to build and place the said scow at such place and at such prices as they see fit, and that for the purposes of the bridge, Messrs. Shaw and Crough be added to the above committee.

7. That a special grant of $50.00 be granted towards the bridge over Deer River at John Wilson's, provided the county of Hastings grant a like amount for the same purpose, and that the reeve of Burleigh be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

8. That a special grant of $200.00 be given towards the building of the road on the eastern boundary between Asphodel and Belmont, and that the reeves of Dummer and Asphodel be the commissioners for the expenditure of the same. This grant is on condition that the municipalities interested grant a sufficient sum to complete the above road.

9. That a special grant of $50.00 be given to each of the townships of Harvey and Galway, to be expended on the road in Bersein, and that the reeves of Harvey and Galway respectively be commissioners for the expenditure of the same.

10. That the sum of $100.00 be given towards the building and repair of the boundary road between Belmont and Marmora, on condition that the county of Hastings grant a like amount for the same purpose, and that the reeve of Belmont be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

11. That a grant of $50.00 be granted towards the repair of the fifth concession line in the township of Eastmore, and that the reeve of Eastmore be the commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

12. That a grant of $50.00 be given towards the opening of the extension of Spring and Oak streets in the village of Norwood, and that the reeve of the village of Norwood be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

13. That the deputy-reeve of Otonabee be instructed to have the Norwood road bridge over Indian river properly repaired.

14. That a grant of $50.00 be granted towards the repair of the road and bridges over the boundary line between Smith and Monaghan, and that the reeve of Monaghan be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

15. That a grant of $50.00 be granted towards the road on Water street in the village of Lakefield, and that the reeve of Lakefield be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

All of which is respectfully solicited.

JOHN MOLONEY,
Chairman.

County Council Chamber,
Peterborough, June 22nd, 1889.

REPORT ON SCHOOLS.

Mr. Finlay presented the report of the committee, which was adopted as follows:—

The Committee on Schools beg leave to report as follows:—

1. That Messrs. J. Coyle Brown, the County Inspector, John Davidson, B.A., Norwood, and John Stirling, Peterborough, be the County Board of Examiners to examine teachers and give certificates in accordance with the statutes in that behalf.

2. That the County Treasurer be authorized to pay to the Board of Examiners for examining entrance pupils and for teachers' certificates their accounts when properly certified to according to statute.

3. Your committee recommend that the Minister of Education be memorialized to introduce such legislation so as to permit Board of School Trustees to apportion the midsummer and Christmas holidays in such a way as to them seems best in the interest of their schools retaining, however, the present aggregate number of holidays.

4. That the County Clerk be instructed to advertise that he will receive applications from parties desiring to be recommended for free admission to and tuition at the Agricultural College and that the Warden and County Clerk be a committee on the selection of such county students.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN FINLAY,
Chairman.

County Council Chamber,
Peterborough, June 22nd, 1889.

REPORT ON PETITIONS.

Mr. Stewart presented the report of the committee, which was adopted as follows:—

The Committee on Petitions beg leave to report

1. That no action be taken with reference to the circular of the Mayor of Ottawa asking this council to send a representative to a conference at Toronto to take into consideration the question of the abolition of tax-exemptions and other municipal questions.

2. That with reference to the circular of Dr. A. M. Rosebrough, regarding prison reform, whilst your committee approve of most of the reforms suggested, they perceive the difficulty of carrying them out at present.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. STEWART,
Chairman.

County Council Chamber,
Peterborough, June 22nd, 1889.

SATURDAY, June 22nd, 1889.

Council met in session this morning—all members present.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance beg leave to report as follows:—

1. That the Committee acknowledge receipt of $18.21 amount of Jury fees collected by the Clerk of the first Division Court Peterborough up to January 1889 and recommend that the County Clerk be instructed to take proceedings to collect arrears of jury fees from the former Clerk of that court.

2. That the account of Mr. S. Sharin be paid as soon as the county Solicitor satisfy the county clerk of the legal liability of the county to pay for the same.

3. That the account of the county Solicitor in the matter of Victoria vs Peterborough be paid when certified by the taxing officer.

4. That no action be taken with reference to the application of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society for a grant.

5. That the matter of the sale of the Tenbantown be left in the hands of the warden, the county treasurer and Mr. Sanderson.

6. That the rate for the coming year for county purposes be 2½ mills on the $ on the equalized value of property.

7. Your committee recommend that the payments $2462.70 made by the treasurer as per the imposed schedule be confirmed.

8. Your committee recommend that the following accounts be paid.

Peterborough Water Co.	$ 48.60
T. Fitzgerald	650.00

On the motion to adopt the report Mr. Kidd moved, seconded by Mr. Moore, that the fourth clause be amended by making a grant of $300 to the West Riding Agricultural Society, and $200 to the East Riding Society.

The amendment was adopted on the following division:—

YEAS.—Messrs. Moore, Burnham, Crow, Harrison, Shaw, Wilson, Kidd, Finlay, Forster, Elmhirst, Wright—11.

NAYS.—Messrs. Moloney, Garbutt, Casement, Crough, Stewart, Sanderson, Anderson, Middleton—8.

Mr. FINLAY moved, seconded by Mr. HARRISON,—That the report be referred back to the committee with instructions to add a grant of $300 to the Norwood High School.

Mr. BURNHAM advocated consistency. It was understood that there were no special grants to be made to any school.

Mr. KIDD said he was opposed, on principle, to these grants, but the position of Norwood was peculiar. It had admitted all county pupils without fees. The board was embarrassed in its work by lack of funds. He believed that those getting the advantage of higher education should pay for it, and he believed in the imposition of a maximum fee of $1. He would be in favor of the grant on the condition that it be the last grant. The taxation in the High School district of Norwood was 14 mills on the dollar for school purposes, while any pupil in the county could attend the school on equal terms.

Mr. WILSON was in favor of a small grant.

Mr. BURNHAM said the researches of the Committee has shown that the county was opposed to grants to high schools, and the principle of refusing grants had been adopted and he believed in adhering to that. He had always voted for such grants, but he deemed it unfair to make a grant to Norwood High school and exclude the Collegiate Institute which was conferring as much—and more benefit upon the county.

The amendment was negatived on the following division:—

YEAS.—Messrs. Moore, Harrison, Casement, Crow, Kidd, Finlay.—6.

NAYS.—Messrs. Moloney, Garbutt, Burnham, Shaw Crough, Wilson, Elmhirst, Wright, Anderson, Middleton, Sanderson, Stewart, Forster.—13.

Mr. Fitzgerald and the Grand Trunk.

Mr. E. B. Edwards, counsel for Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald in his suit against the Grand Trunk Railway Company, to-day received a message stating that the appeal of the defendants against the decision of the courts last March had been dismissed. It will be remembered that Mr. Fitzgerald brought suit against the railway company for damages to his property in the corner of Smith and Benson streets through the alleged neglect of the company, and he received judgment in his favor, the amount of the damage to be fixed by the local judge. The defendants appealed to the Queen's Bench, and argument took place about two weeks ago, judgment being reserved. Mr. Edwards this afternoon was notified by wire that the appeal was dismissed, Mr. Fitzgerald therefore winning the suit.

CLEVELAND'S
SUPERIOR
BAKING POWDER
THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, chemically pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of material used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful as well as most economical in use, and it always adds wholesomeness, nutritiousness and delicious flavor to food.

It is recommended for quality, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, Colleges of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans. Full weight.

Says the Lindsay Post:—Reform principles received a signal victory at Peterborough the other day, as they generally do where there is no gerrymandering, no franchise frauds or other schemes to beat the dice and prevent a fair contest. The EXAMINER staff met the Review printers on the baseball field and fairly wiped the earth with them, scoring 41 to 8. The Review has a fine lot of slogans, and the political editor excelled himself in this line, but it was no use arguing with the EXAMINER battery based on solid Reform principles. Sir John Macdonald is greatly distressed over the result, and has, it is said, wired "Honest John" to work up the "Jesuits" with more energy, but it's of no use. The country is safe.

AT
TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices, is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

It is bound to come. The warm weather we mean. In fact it is going to be hot, and it makes us think of summer outing—vacation and seasonable sports. These in turn, suggest preparation and imply proper outfits — such as SUMMER SUITS, UNDERWEAR, and FURNISHINGS. 'Tis of these we would speak particularly to-day, because this season we have provided for our patrons a greater Variety of WARM WEATHER WEAR than ever before, and at Prices no other dealer in Peterborough can possibly duplicate. We have all the Novelties.

What Gentlemen Will Wear

We are displaying the Finest lines of exclusive styles in the following:
Plain and Fancy Colored Suiting
Light-Weight Underwear
White, Fancy and Colored Vests
Collars and Cuffs, Newest Shapes
Ties in all the Summer Shades
Tennis, Boating, Sporting Outfits

We are bound to overcome the effects of the bad weather of the past month, in point of sales, if not in profits. The prices we will quote will convince you of our sincerity and the genuineness of the sacrifice we will make in values

It Makes You Hungry

"I have used Paine's Celery Compound and it has had a relishing effect. It makes one hungry and will like a new man. It improves the appetite, gives healthful digestion." J. P. CHISHOLM, Pictou, N. S.

The Best Spring Medicine.

"In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with no relish for anything, and would even dread to sit down to meals. I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a tonic, appetizer or nerve-building medicine." Mrs. D. A. Dow, Bucksport, Me.

County Council.

Continuation Sitting of the June Session—Reports of Committees—Equalization—A Road County Police Magistrate Recommended—Other Business—Conference Re-town.

REPORT OF COUNTY PROPERTY.

Mr. Sanderson, Chairman, presented the report of the committee, which was adopted as follows:

The Committee on County Property beg leave to report:

(1) That the County Engineer be instructed to have a new sidewalk erected at the south-east front of the Registry Office.

(2) That the gaoler be instructed to procure the gallon necessary to paint the goal cells.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

M. HARRINGTON, Chairman.

County Council Chamber, Peterborough, June 22nd, 1889.

REPORT OF REFORMS.

Mr. Cameron, Chairman, presented the report of the committee, which was adopted as follows:

The Committee on Printing beg leave to report as follows:

(1) That the County Clerk be instructed to procure supplies of paper from Messrs. J. R. Stratton, Lee & Thompson, Salisbury Bros., and the Review, in equal proportions as far as possible, and at prices not greater than the tendered rate.

(2) That the list of advertisers for the balance of the year be printed by the Lakefield Chronicle at the same rate as paid the Norwood Register.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. CAMERON, Chairman.

County Council Chamber, Peterborough, June 22nd, 1889.

APPOINTMENTS TO OFFICE.

Mr. Forster, chairman presented the report of the committee which was adopted as follows:—

The Committee on Appointments beg leave to report as follows:—

(1) That Dr. A. E. Yelland be appointed coal surgeon.

(2) That Mr. W. Garner Nicholls be appointed inspector of municipal licenses at a yearly salary of $25, his appointment to date from first of January last.

J. FORSTER, Chairman.

County Council Chamber, Peterborough, June 22nd, 1889.

COUNTY VALUATORS.

The Warden appointed the following as members of a committee to confer and confer with the county valuators—Messrs Mahoney, Burnham, Kidd, Stewart and Sanderson.

A by-law was passed to levy taxation for county purposes, to the the sum of $60,000.00, and by-laws were also passed confirming the reports of the several committees.

The council then adjourned.

The following is the report of the committee and Equalization and Assessment adopted at the Friday evening session of the council.

The Committee on Equalization and assessment beg leave to report as follows.

That in the opinion of the committee it is desirable that county valuators, according to statute, be appointed to value the lands of the several municipalities of the county as a basis for county assessment.

(2) That Messrs. Henderson, Moore, Mahoney, Stewart and Cameron, be a committee to name such county valuators and to report as to the remuneration to be paid and as to the instructions to be given valuators for their guidance, the committee to report to the council.

(3.) Your committee would recommend that all assessment of personal property in the township municipalities be struck out beneath as the statute of 1889 practically does away with the assessment of farm stock, and same would have subjected upon the assessment roll of 1889 if the municipal assessments had not been completed before the passage of the Act in March, '89.

(4.) Your committee recommend that the several municipalities be equalized at the amounts set forth in the attached schedule. These amounts show an increase in the equalized value of the village of ten per cent. in the case of Lakefield and Ashburnham, and a total increase of $54,000 in Norwood, which has been admittedly too low for some years past. The rate per acre at which the different townships were equalized last year is established about 9½ per cent.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN BURNHAM, Chairman.

June 22nd, 1889.

The equalized value, as shown in the schedule referred to in the foregoing report, is as follows:—

A SENSATION AT THE CAPITAL.

The Niece of Cardinal Taschereau Quietly Wedded to a Protestant.

OTTAWA, June 22.—A profound sensation was created in social circles here this morning when it became known that Miss Amelie H. Taschereau, daughter of Mr. Justice Taschereau of the Supreme Court and niece of Cardinal Taschereau, had been quietly married Thursday to Mr. Frank Beard, an employe of the Canada Atlantic Railway Company. The Taschereau family is one of the oldest French families in Quebec. Mr. Justice Taschereau, father of the young lady, previous to his appointment to the bench was one of the leading lawyers in Canada. The family have always moved in the best society here and have special entry at Government House.

Mr. Beard, who is about 30 years old, is the son of an English physician and several years ago came to Ottawa, and secured a comfortable position as clerk in the employ of the Canada Atlantic Railway Company. He became acquainted with the young lady about a year ago, and the young couple at once became fast friends despite the fastest opposition of the young lady's parents, who looked upon Beard as a parvenu. Opposition, however, only fanned the flame of love and the young people met one another secretly until Thursday, when they were married by Rev. F. Owen Jones, rector of St. George's Episcopal Church.

The parents and relations of the young lady threaten to have the marriage annulled, as the young lady is a Roman Catholic and was married without the consent of her parents by a Protestant clergyman.

Rev. Mr. Jones Talks.

OTTAWA, June 22.—An evening paper says: Mr. Beard, who was married by a Protestant clergyman to Miss Taschereau, has been represented by Rev. Father Filiatre of Ottawa College. Rev. Owen Jones, who performed the ceremony, was interviewed to-day. He said:

"Yes, I married them, and now I very much wish I had not."

"Have they a license?"

"Oh, yes, and I can sorry to say that the license makes it appear as though the bride were of age."

"Did you ask any question concerning the matter?"

"Yes, I did, though I do not usually if I have reason to believe all is right. I asked the young lady if she was a Roman Catholic as I noticed the name was French. I did not recognize the full name until after the ceremony. Of course I was the Christian name as that is quoted in the service, and I noticed here was French. She said yes. In answer to questions she said there was nothing in the laws of her church to prevent her marrying a Protestant, so I married them."

"Did the ceremony take place in the church?"

"Yes, both of them insisted on that. This is how it came up: Mr. Beard came up to me and asked me if I would marry him that night. I said yes if they had a license and if they would be married in church. He said they both wished that, and handed me the license. I saw it was a regular license but did not read it through. I only noticed that his name was Frank and hers Amelie. I then went down to the church and married them. Afterwards in the vestry, when it came to filling the returns I saw that her name was Taschereau and concluded that she must be a daughter of Judge Taschereau and some relation, either niece or grandniece, of the Cardinal. I have the license, that is my guarantee."

The happy but possibly somewhat anxious couple enjoyed but a short honeymoon and during the trip were seen and recognized by more than one person who knew them. They journeyed after the ceremony to Smith's Falls.

Is My Hair Right?

How often do we hear one lady ask this question of another. Invariably those ladies who are constantly worrying about their hair, do not wear any kind of hair goods, but possibly a switch. Now, consider this, ladies: Would it not pay you to get a nice, becoming style of Front-piece, Braid or Wave, made of fine, curled or waved human hair, and be sure it is always right? Then you would not require to ask "Is my hair all right?" Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, has made the manufactory of hair goods a life study, and amongst his many pieces every lady will find something to suit her. You have all heard of the professor, though, perhaps, you have never interested yourself enough to call on him during his former visits. Do so now. He will be at Preston's Hotel on Friday and Saturday, June 28th and 29th, and will bring with him his big stock of all kinds of hair goods. He will be pleased to show you his various styles. See his advertisement in another column. dw

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be operatically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. H. BEARDS, secretary of committee. dtd

MUNCASTER'S

A Night of Terror.

There was a good deal of excitement when we separated for the night. Mrs. Yate, whose late husband had been in the militia, thumbed her stays that she had in her room a rifle and a bayonet. Miss Dunne organized parties to search for men concealed under beds with hatpins to commit murder and robbery; and finally there was a great bolting of doors, followed by the silence of midnight.

As Tom Bonny effected a visit to my room before going to his own, I lay awake with the gas turned down but not out. My thoughts naturally revolved to the new arrivals; for if the invalid business was interesting, so also was the business Mr. Lascombe. For many reasons I was inclined to think that the latter had risen from the ranks, and had not yet learnt to adapt himself to his altered circumstances. With regard to the former, the fact that he was to remain invisible invested him with an air of mystery. I had heard his cough very frequently while we were all on the move, and a very peculiar cough it seemed to be. But when all was quiet it ceased, as it did not apparently interfere with Mr. Jackson's sleep.

It must have been about half-an-hour later, when, feeling sure that somebody was moving swiftly and steadily along the passage, I sat up in bed to listen. The sound died away, but was almost immediately followed by that of another footstep [illegible] in the same direction. The second person stumbled over what I took to be my boots and with a half-muttered exclamation ran on again. Throwing back the bed-clothes, I sprang to the floor, rushed to the door and opened it, just in time to see, as I thought, a figure disappear in a room at the end of the passage. About the reality of the sounds there could be no doubt. Miss Dunne had already begun to scream, and a night-capped head appeared close by, but at the sight of me withdrew shrieking. In less time than it takes to write the words, the whole house was in commotion. Doors opened and slammed; terrified questions were hurled from room to room; white faces, lighted by candles held in trembling hands, peeped over the balustrades; and a group of figures in dressing-gowns gathered on the landing.

"There's a man in the house," Miss Dunne was saying from the safety of her room. "There is—there is; I know there is, for I heard him. Oh, murder! Oh, thieves! Police! Oh, oh!"

"A man in the house!" repeated a voice at my elbow, I turned round and saw Mr. Lascombe, soundly shod, but quite cool and self-possessed. "Where is he?"

"Ah, where is he?" demanded old Mr. Parrot coming forward undauntedly with a poker. Having forgotten to remove his pillow night-cap, he looked a most absurd object.

And now a chorus of curious unanswered a new cause of alarm, which turned out to be simply the appearance of Tom Bonny. In order not to disturb anybody, he had left his boots in the hall, and came upstairs in stockinged feet, a needless precaution in this instance.

"What's the matter?" he asked, in surprise.

"That's just what we are trying to find out, Tom," I replied.

"I suspect," said Mr. Lascombe, "it's only this gentleman's entrance that has alarmed the ladies."

"Nothing of the sort," called Mrs. Yate from the top of a bureau. "The noise was made on this floor, and not in the hall. I insist upon having the house searched from attic to basement. If you gentlemen are afraid to do it, I'll call in the police. Mary, who'll take this?" She lowered a rifle with a bayonet on the end of it.

Mr. Lascombe, being the nearest, took it from her and led the way. Some of us went round the different rooms with him, the ladies following in a flock, all ready to scream and run at the slightest provocation. A more ridiculous scene I have never assisted at. The bayonet was poked under every bed in turn, but nobody was thrown out, a providential circumstance which I consider account for.

"If I had had that revolver," said Tom Bonny afterwards in my room, "I would soon have ousted the fellow's hash."

"Whose hash, though? There were two of them beyond all doubt. Tom, I'm morally certain they went into either or both of the rooms at the end of the passage."

"What! Why, that room Lascombe is in one and an old invalid in the other."

"I know that."

Tom looked at me very queerly. I saw that two ideas had jumped together in his mind, as they had already done in mine. But after all they amounted to very little and led to nothing, as the occurrence that had actually manifested by others of us.

Next morning I was one of the last to enter the breakfast room. There was no excited discussion going on as I had expected; on the contrary, a strange gloom pervaded the whole party, with the solitary exception of Mr. Lascombe, who was unconcernedly sipping his coffee. More than one lady started on the entrance of my companion, and instead resumed its original topic, the conversation was confined entirely to whispers.

"Good morning," I said, looking round in perplexity. "Has all gone to bed suffering from the effects of your ghost last night, or has anything else happened?"

By way of answer Tom thrust into my hand a newspaper, and pointed to a paragraph on the first page. It was an advertisement emanating from the police, and offering $1,000 reward for such information as would lead to the capture of the murderer mentioned at the beginning of this narrative. And now for the remainder part of the affair; the description given by the police corresponded exactly with Mrs. Yate's description of Mr. Jackson! It was an astonishing and merciful thing, commented Miss Hatch, that we had not found our throats cut this morning.

There had been rather a warm dispute as to what should be done. Mrs. Yate, backed by the whole of her sex there present, was for the instant delivery of the murderer, the three invalid, into the hands of justice. But Mr. Lascombe declared that such action would be the height of cowardice, a sentiment received in cool and unfriendly silence by all present. And with him the same generally concurred.

"What about the clue the police were supposed to have?" I inquired.

"Oh, of course, it has come to nothing," replied Tom. "They arrested the wrong man yesterday and let him go again. Did you ever hear of such duffers?" Mr. Lascombe, who defended them yesterday," added he, spitefully, "will perhaps defend them again."

"Whatever occur in the best regulated families," cried that gentleman, smiling, as he looked himself to the last one, with which Miss Hatch had evidently set her heart. "Do you never err, sir?"

"What a rude man!" said Miss Hatch in a loud whisper, and stared angrily at the ceiling.

The servant entered with a tray for the purpose of carrying up Mr. Jackson's breakfast.

"Don't let her go, Mrs. Yate," cried Miss Dunne, frantically waving a skinny hand at the door. "If the others find even she will never come out alive. His blood will be upon your head."

"You see how I shall be situated," said Mrs. Yate, looking slightly at Mr. Lascombe, a smile no longer. "If I attempt to follow your advice."

"If you'll allow me, madam," said he, rising, "I'll take up the poor old gentleman's breakfast myself."

"What, and be murdered!" shrieked Miss Dunne.

Have You Neuralgia?

If you are suffering the agonies of neuralgia and have failed to get a remedy that will afford relief, we want you to try Polson's Nerviline. No remedy in the market has given anything like the same degree of satisfaction. In action on nerve pain is simply marvellous, and as it is put up in 10 cent sample bottles, no great expense is involved in giving it a trial. Polson's Nervilline is the most pleasant, powerful and certain pain remedy in the world. Sold by all dealers in medicines 10 and 25c. a bottle. 6dw26

Fiction Foundation.

Mr. Hosea F. Murray, of Pictou, N. S., writes:—"I was afflicted with dyspepsia and nervous debility, and tried many remedies without avail, but one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters much improved me, and five more made me a well man." 2w26d

Stone Rotted Relief.

"I have been troubled with asthma and a bad cough for years. I got nothing to help me like Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and would recommend it to others as it gives instant relief." Extract from a letter from Walter McAuley, Ventnor, Ont. 2w26d

Many Thanks.

"My age is 58, and for twenty years I have suffered from kidney complaint, rheumatism and lame back, and would have been a dead woman if it had not been for Burdock Blood Bitters, of which two bottles restored me to health and strength." Miss Maggie Hendry, Half Island Cove, N.S. 2w26d

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and,

By Taking

three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

On Tuesday evening, June 18th, Rev. F. McAmmond and Mrs. McAmmond were waited upon by the members of the Fenelon Falls Orange lodge, accompanied by the band, and presented with a complimentary address. The occasion was the departure of Mr. and Mrs. McAmmond from Fenelon Falls.

Playing To-Day.

The handsome new fountain placed in the middle of St. Peter's Cathedral grounds by Messrs. J. R. Noble & Co., began playing the first time to-day. This fountain adds life and spirit to what, when a little greater maturity of growth takes place, will be one of the prettiest spots in town—with its fine background of church and its dense environment of thrifty trees and elegant private residences and grounds.

Something Out.

The Fenelon Falls Gazette says:—"Mr. Peter Hamilton, of Peterborough, is opening out an agency at Fenelon Falls for the sale of agricultural implements, and has appointed J. R. Graham as his agent. Farmers can rely on getting a good article at rock-bottom prices. John will make a good agent, and we bespeak for him a fair share of your patronage."

A Low Death Rate.

The government mortuary statistics for May are just to hand. In Peterborough during the past month there were 6 deaths, the percentage being .66. Woodstock is lowest with 26 per cent., Galt second with 41 per cent., and Peterborough third. Belleville had 12 deaths last month and Toronto 126. The highest death rates are those of Hull, P. Q., and St. John, N. B., each 2.33 per cent. St. Hyacinthe's rate was 2.26.

The Parsonage "At Home."

To-morrow evening an "At Home" will be tendered the members of the George street Methodist church by the pastor and his wife at the parsonage. Preparations are being made for a most pleasant evening. An admission fee of 15c. will be charged. A fine programme will be rendered and refreshments served. Rev. Mr. Pearson invites all his church people and friends to the parsonage to-morrow evening. 1

A Sunday Morning Scare.

A family on Dowsie street received a bad scare early Sunday morning. The lady of the house was awakened by the noise of a couple of men forcing in the door, and promptly she heard one of the men say to the other, "We're in the wrong house." Then they left. A couple of families in the neighborhood were aroused and the police summoned by telephone, but such no more was seen of the intended marauders. The question is, were they burglars who had made a mistake in their "log out," or simply a couple of boarding-house who were searching for their own house.

Another Old Pioneer Gone.

On Saturday evening Mr. Wm. Kidd died at his home near Warsaw. The old gentleman had been in poor health for some time and his demise was not unexpected. He died at the ripe old age of 81 years, universally esteemed and respected by the whole neighborhood in which he lived. Deceased was one of the pioneer settlers of this country, taking up 100 acres of land and purchasing 100 more in the township of Dummer in the year 1833. He had ten sons, among them Mr. A. R. Kidd, Reeve of Dummer, and Messrs. M. R. Kidd and R. J. Kidd, merchants, Peterborough. Funeral and other particulars mentioned hereafter.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The young men's meeting on Saturday evening was addressed by Messrs. Armstrong and Wallbrook, who gave very helpful and thoughtful addresses on "Heirship."

Beginners' Bible class was much enjoyed by those who were present Sunday morning.

At the gospel and song service last night Rev. J. A. K. Walker, who leaves in September as a missionary to India, gave an earnest and practical address on "power for service," which made a marked impression on the large audience present.

The Garden Party by Ladies' Auxiliary will be held (D.V.) to-night at Mrs. Joseph Dixon's, Smithtown Hill. Buses leave the rooms of Y.M.C.A. every 15 minutes after 7 p.m.

Obituary.

This morning, Hannah daughter of Mr. H. C. Bacon, Ware street departed this life at the early age of eighteen years. The deceased young lady was a lieutenant in the Salvation Army having held that position for two years past. About three months since she returned from Mount Albert, York County where she was engaged in Army work, to ill to continue her work, heart disease being the cause of her illness. She continued growing worse till this morning at four o'clock death released her from suffering, and transferred her from her sphere of the warfare militant to the triumphant. Lieut. Bacon was a devoted young lady in her chosen work and will be much missed and deeply regretted in Army circles. The funeral takes place on Tuesday at two o'clock p.m. from the family residence, proceeding thence to the Little Lake Cemetery.

Dominion Day Doings.

Next Monday will be Dominion Day. No large demonstration has been gotten up, but the day will not pass without some excitement. A large firemen's excursion is expected down from Midland, and the local brigade will take steps to receive them. The only celebration the firemen have been able to arrange is a display of fireworks in the evening. Other attractions will be the lacrosse match, Riversides vs. Beaverton, on the Riverside Park in the afternoon, and the cricket match on the P.A.A.A. grounds between Peterborough and Rosedale. On the first also the annual picnic of St. Peter's Cathedral takes place at St. Leonard's, in Ashburnham. The Salvation Army holds an excursion and picnic at Jubilee Point, where they expect to have a big day. The Sons of England also run an excursion to Jacob's Island over the Chemong lake route. Cheap rates are offered on the railways and boats.

The London Graphic.

The summer double number of the London Graphic for 1889 will be published in England and America about the last of June.

The summer double number will be a special extra number, independent of the weekly issue. This magnificent publication will be printed almost entirely in colors, and four pages will be exclusively devoted to illustrations of the International Exhibition at Paris. All the world knows the excellence of the London Graphic, and that its summer double numbers, like all its other issues, hold a high rank among pictorial publications; the irreproachable tone of the illustrations and of the general literary features always commanding an appropriate place in the drawing-room and on the library table. A presentation plate will be issued with this number, entitled "Patient Heroes." The price of the summer double number of the London Graphic will be 50 cents. Leave your order now at the Peterborough Bookstore.

Baseball.

The Association team have added another victory to their list of successes this season. They have played six matches and not lost one—three with the Auburnhams (one of which was a tie), two with the Athletics and one with Campbellford. Saturday night they defeated the Athletics for the second time by a good majority. Following is the score:

Association.		Athletics.
Pearson	1	Harvey lf	1
Turnbull 2b	3	Hazard c	3
Brennan 3b	3	Burns 2b	1
Allison cf	3	Lyle 3b	1
Cullihan c	3	Scott cf	1
Mantay 1b	3	Tabor p	0
Dunbar ss	0	Daly ss	0
Brennan rf	1	Farley 1b	1
Metheral lf	0	Evans rf	2
Association		5 4 6 6 1—16
Athletics		5 3 0 3 1—10

A game of baseball was played at Inverlea park on Saturday afternoon between the Inverlees and Maple Leafs, resulting in an easy victory for the latter by a score of 29 to 8.

Private Banking Establishment.

Another evidence of the commercial importance of Peterborough is furnished by the establishment of a private bank which will open for business in the early part of next month. The firm of Mulholland & Roger consists of Mr. Robert Mulholland, now of Cobourg, and Mr. J. H. Roger, Peterborough. These gentlemen have entered into partnership as private bankers and general agents. They have secured the premises in the east end of the old Erskine block, Hunter street, which are excellently situated—in the heart of the business centre of the town—and which will, when fitted as they are being done, in first-rate style by Mr. Stevenson, the present owner of the block, make both suitable and elegant offices. The personnel of the new firm is a good guarantee of their being worthy of the public confidence and patronage. Mr. Mulholland has been for years a leading resident of Cobourg, where for a long time he conducted a large and successful hardware business. A few years ago he retired from business, but being possessed of ample means and of the business instinct, he prefers to be actively engaged in work, and as a result we have the new banking establishment shortly to be opened here. Mr. Mulholland has received many evidences of public confidence, as shown in his elevation to several positions of trust. He represented the West Riding of Northumberland in the last parliament; he was for several terms member of the town council of Cobourg, and is at present chairman of the town trust commissioners. He is a gentleman of solid worth and ample means, and will be an important addition to the financial circles of Peterborough. Of Mr. Roger, the other member of the firm, it is necessary to say little. He is well and favorably known. His first stay in Peterborough was four years in the early sixties, and for the past twelve years he has moved and been engaged as one of our most valued and well esteemed citizens, always taking an active part in every commendable public movement, and earning, in his official capacity, a most favorable name in the commercial community. The new firm with an established reputation for the respective partners, to begin with, combined with their excellent financial facilities and connections will no doubt secure an ample share of the public patronage. Fuller particulars as to the facilities presented by Messrs. Mulholland & Roger, [illegible] and [illegible] arranged, will be made known in the advertising columns of the EXAMINER.

Church Chimes.

Confirmation at St. John's—St. Luke's Rector in his Pulpit Once More—Ordination at St. Paul's and the Baptist Church.

At St. John's church on Sunday morning the preacher was the Lord Bishop of Toronto. His text was taken from the tenth chapter of St. Paul's epistle to the Romans, tenth verse—"For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." The reverend preacher proceeded to distinguish between the faith implied in a merely intellectual belief, and the personal acceptance of Christ as a Saviour and example—the belief must be of the heart as well as of the head. The importance of a confession of Christ was also insisted upon, and it was pointed out that a mere formal confession would not suffice—unless the life and conversation were ordered according to the great Example, unless Christ were taken in to the heart and expression of that fact given by the outward life, a mere formal or perfunctory confession would not avail "unto salvation."

In the evening confirmation service were held in the church the Bishop of Toronto performing the sacred rite. There were about eighty candidates, a large proportion of which were adults of comparatively advanced years. The usual services were conducted by Rev's. Davidson and Kenrick. The church was crowded in every part, supplementary seats having to be provided for a large number. The large class of candidates and the sympathy of the congregation of St. John's are a pleasing indication of the gratifying interest taken in spiritual matters.

The preparation of the candidates has been going on for the past three months, each receiving individual instruction and admonition. Much popular misconception exists regarding the Biblical ordinance, for it is held as a Biblical ordinance founded upon the Scripture in Acts chap. viii. Confirmation is not equivalent to the ordinary ceremony of admission to the membership of other churches. It is held that admission to the Church of England is given once and for all in baptism. In the apostolic rite of confirmation, baptized persons take upon themselves personally the vows made for them at their baptism, and receive the Holy Ghost in answer to the prayer of the bishop, made at the time of the laying on of hands, thus following the precedent recorded in the Scripture before referred to, Acts, chap. viii.

The Bishop, in addressing the candidates, said that while their thoughts at this time should go forward into the future in which their battle was to be fought and their work done, he desired to speak to them chiefly about the past, for it was upon past events that their future would be built up. One of those great events of the past was their baptism, in which they had entered the family of God. They had grown up in that family, looking up to God as a Father, knowing that they could always go to Him for what they needed. In this spirit the candidates were approaching Him that evening. Having learned that this position of Divine Sonship had been secured for them, and that certain vows had been made on their behalf, the candidates were now making a thankful acknowledgment of their position, renewing these vows in their own persons and asking their Heavenly Father for strength to enable them to keep their vows. This strength they would receive through the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Bishop then went on to urge his hearers never to lose sight of their glorious position, bought as it was with a Saviour's blood, even though it entailed responsibilities as well as privileges. The God who had placed them in it was able and willing to keep them in it safe unto the end, if only they would grasp His helping hand, outstretched to all in the sacraments and ordinances of His Church. The Bishop then put the customary question of allegiance to the candidates, which elicited a hearty "I do" from all. After the prayer for the descent of the Holy Spirit, the candidates went forward seven at a time and were presented for individual confirmation by Rev. C. J. Davidson. The actual "Laying on of hands" occupied three quarters of an hour and was interspersed by the singing of successive verses of the well-known hymns, "Come Holy Ghost" and "Just as I am without one plea." During the offertory the "Old Hundredth" was enthusiastically sung, and to the inspiriting words and music of "Onward Christian Soldiers" the impressive service came to an end.

The Bishop left town this morning for Lindsay where he holds a reception this afternoon, and a confirmation this evening.

The Rev. C. B. Kenrick left town yesterday, just before midnight, for his summer vacation. He expects to be absent about a month, and, returning towards the end of July, will take charge of the parish while Rev. J. C. Davidson goes away for his holidays. Mr. Kenrick's destination is St. John, N.B., where he has friends. The route he has chosen is that of the Quebec Steamship Company, which, with its abundance of fresh sea air, has almost the advantages of an ocean trip.

Rev. W.C. Bradshaw, rector of St. Luke's, once more officiated in his usual place on Sunday, after an absence of several months in Colorado, from whence he comes greatly improved in health. His appearance in the pulpit again was greeted with pleasure by his old parishioners, who were pleased to see him looking [illegible] and hearty. Mr. Bradshaw addressed the congregation, giving a brief outline of his doings since away from home. He was very glad to be back again, he said, and hoped the church would prosper more abundantly than ever.

Rev. J. A. K. Walker, of Kingston, missionary designate to India, preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. Mr. Walker was a pastor in Kingston, and leaves with his wife in September for India. His sermon Sunday morning was of a missionary character. His text was from the passage in Thessalonians regarding "forbidding the preaching of the Gospel." He went on to show that the people of to-day by their lack of support and indifference to the missionary cause practically forbade the extension of the Gospel. His address was an urgent appeal to the people to give more aid to the cause. Large congregations attended the service both morning and evening.

Sunday afternoon Miss Campbell, who has lately returned from China, addressed a meeting in St. Paul's church. Her remarks were based upon the Divine command to "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." She spoke of the immense field for missionary work in China, but said there were few laborers to gather in the harvest. The people were eager to receive the gospel, and if the people in the civilized quarters of the globe had a proper amount of compassion they would not see them heathen die in their sins. She appealed for workers to engage in the China mission, and described the manner of missionary operations among the people of that benighted land.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. C. B. Kenrick, assistant curate of St. John's church, leaves to-day for New Brunswick, where he will spend a month's deserved holidays.

Mr. E. A. Pearson, B.A., leaves Wednesday for his station at Cannington. Of his appointment the Methodist Life Boat says:—"The highest standing in the conference examinations was taken by Mr. Pearson. He is appointed assistant to the Rev. C. W. Welch, on the Cannington circuit. When just his age his father was assistant preacher on the same charge."

During the summer the public services in the George street church last but one hour.

Gentlemen with Bald Heads.

What remarks as a rule attend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is not his fault but his misfortune. There [illegible] compensated in more hairs to distance of the head. When a gentleman loses his hair he should take immediate steps to have it replaced with an artificial covering. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is shy about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, will be at Phelan's Hotel on June 28 and 29, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, which are just the things required. The best you can do is to call and examine the articles whether you buy one or not. Physicians recommend them and you cannot afford to be without one. dw

TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices,is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

KINGSTON'S DEPUTY POSTMASTER ARRESTED.

He is Charged With Stealing Public Moneys of Deposits to the Government to the Extent of $2000.

KINGSTON, June 24.—Rev. R. T. Burns, Deputy Postmaster, was this morning arrested on a charge of embezzlement. Previous to his appointment a few months ago to the position of Deputy Postmaster he was employed in the money order department. It is charged against him that while filling that position he made false returns of deposits to the Government to the extent of $2000.

The case on which he was arrested is that of Mrs. Love of South Mountain. In June, 1888, she deposited $200, which figures were placed in her book by Mr. Burns. Recently she moved to draw $50, when the reply came from Ottawa that there was only $7 to her credit. This fact led to an investigation with the above result. It is understood that Mr. Burns has confessed to appropriating about $2000.

The case has created quite a sensation in the city and much sympathy is expressed for his family. He has been an employe in the postoffice since 1883 and was considered one of the most capable and correct officials in the department.

Mr. Burns' salary was $1000. He is a son of the late Justice Burns of Toronto and is 30 years old. Since the drowning of his two sons last fall he has not been himself, acting frequently as if insane. The trial will probably occur to-morrow or as soon as Mrs. Love can be brought here.

AN OLD TIME BOOM.

A Cyclone Strikes the Petroleum Market—The Standard's New Deal.

NEW YORK, June 24.—There was an old-time boom on the petroleum market to-day, and to the oldest who had cold pipe line certificates about it seemed that a cyclone had struck the market. So sudden was the advance. The market opened firm at 83½. There were several buying orders put in by Standard Oil people and the price moved slowly until noon, when it sold at 84½. Then without rhyme or reason there was a flood of buying orders given out in all the principal markets both by Standard Oil people and producers, and before half an hour had passed the price reached 95. A recession of points followed, but as 99 the Standard Oil brokers contracted the principal buyers. The cause of the sudden advance was the fear that the Standard people had brought about a settlement of their agreement with the Producers' Protective Association, which was not expected to expire until July 12. By this agreement the Standard had the call on 3,000,000 barrels of oil held by the association at 62 cents with charges since Nov. 1, 1887.

TWELVE YEARS IN SKIRTS.

A Detroit Banker's Prospective Wife Proves to Be a Man.

DETROIT, June 24.—Clara Ellis, who was sent to the House of Correction as a disorderly woman, but whom the physicians say is a man, was sent at hard work by Supt. Nicholson to-day.

Clara is smallish stand, with large grey eyes and hard dark brown hair reaching several inches below her waist. "She" was apparently about 25 years of age. Supt. Nicholson compelled the prisoner to don trousers to-day and have the beautiful tangle cut from its back. Clara was persuaded yesterday to give her name, which is John Ready. He says he was twelve years growing his hair and has, during all that time, worn woman's habiliments.

Mrs. Westgate says Clara Ellis roomed there several months recently. A barber in Lernerst began company with "Clara" during the latter's stay at Mrs. Westgate's, and the landlady says they were to be married soon. "Clara" was an expert dressmaker and made several dresses for wealthy ladies in Jefferson-avenue. Mrs. Westgate says Clara drank heavily at times. The hair on her face grew readily and "Clara" shaved it off daily.

Bessie Hoskins, a boarder at the same house, says she was well acquainted with "Clara," and had been quite intimate with her at times. But no one suspected Clara was a man, although she (or he) had a very deep, hoarse voice. "Clara" is a fine engraver, Bessie says, and told her of many places in which she had been employed and Bessie must realize that her old chum is really a man.

Bobcaygeon Items.

BOBCAYGEON, June 24.—The man Barry, who was so badly stabbed a few days ago by his neighbor Thos. Grills, is in about the same condition. He will probably recover. Grills is now out on bail.

The Conservative convention held at Wellington on Friday last was largely attended in spite of the wet weather. Much routine work was gone through with, and resolutions favored by Senator McCallum, A. Boyle, M.P., Dr. Montague and others on matters of importance to the party in this riding.

Dominion Day will be celebrated here in fitting style. Extensive preparations are being made by the citizens to entertain the members of the Equitable and Union association of Buffalo, who are coming in three steamers, and numbering about 1500 people. Athletic games, horse racing, bathing scenes, boat racing, international tug-of-war and football matches between the Buffalo and Bobcaygeon clubs; football on horseback, fancy exhibitions drill, brilliant display of fireworks and other attractions form the program. Many thousands are expected here.

A Well Deserved Thrashing.

GODERICH, June 24.—About 8.30 last night a farmer was walking along the Wingham road about 4½ miles from the city, when his attention was attracted to the peculiar proceedings of the driver of a threshing machine. There stood the animal, was cut up against the fence, and the farmer crept up behind the beast, and when he had heard enough to satisfy him that the young woman in company with the driver was endeavoring to resist his advances he sprang forward, and the whip and chastised him soundly, and he did it for the money. The only reason for the young fellow's conduct is that he appeared to be under the influence of liquor. The girl was only about 15 years old.

An Affected Family.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Dr. Bascock, Chancellor of Victoria University, has lost two more children by that dreadful disease, diphtheria. On Thursday last one son died, aged 7 years and 6 months, and on Friday another, aged 11 years. Another child is ill with the same disease.

Received and Pardoned.

OTTAWA, June 24.—Frank Reed, the 19-year-old boy who was sentenced to death for murdering Miss Thompson, daughter of Judge Thompson, and niece of the ex-Premier, has been pardoned and released by the Sheriff. He receives a salary of $60 a month.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

WILL DIE IN THE CHAIR.

THIS WEEK HAS TO WITNESS THE FIRST "ELECTROCUTION."

How Joseph Kemmler Will be Executed by Electricity at Auburn Prison Before the Coroner Interferes.

Joseph Kemmler was to be put to death at the New York State Prison at Auburn some day during the week beginning June 24. Habeas corpus proceedings are pending on the ground that the infliction of the death penalty by means of electricity is a "cruel and unusual" punishment and therefore in contravention of the constitution of the State of New York. The apparatus by means of which a murderer is to be killed for the first time under a law requiring the execution of the death penalty by electricity, is nearly completed and the details are rapidly being arranged by the warden of the prison. The machines for the generation of current are ordinary Westinghouse dynamos on the alternate system, which experiments on animals have known to be peculiarly deadly in their effect.

The proceedings on the day of putting to death of Kemmler, so far as they are at present arranged, will be as follows:—On whatever morning shall be decided upon in the week of the execution the prisoner will be notified, and whatever opportunity he may desires of religious consolation and farewell words will be given him. Those over, just before the hour fixed upon for the execution the officers will enter the cell, and the death warrant will be read.

His shoes will then be removed and a pair resembling regular army brogans will be substituted.

In the sole of these there will have been inserted a metal plate, covering the whole sole, and connecting with wires passing out through the heels. While one officer is making this change of shoes, another will fasten the prisoner's hands together in front, and will place around his body, just beneath the armpits, a stout leather strap with a buckle fastening it in front, and snap hooks projecting from each side at the back. Another officer will place upon the head of the prisoner a head a close-fitting cap apparently of black rubber, made around a small metal piece in the centre. It will look somewhat as if made by taking a rubber football, and with a metal cap at the pole for a centre, cutting off the end of the ball into a sort of a hood.

The cap will fit over almost the whole of the head, from the base of the brain to well toward the forehead. Inside it, in the centre about the metal piece, will be a spiral arrangement of copper wire, about five inches in diameter, and made to fit down over the part of the head that it will cover. The wires, just before the cap is placed on the prisoner's head, will be covered with sponge saturated with salt water.

While these arrangements are being put on, the prisoner will be sitting on a chair in his cell. This chair not differing apparently from an ordinary one, but which is being made especially for the purpose, will be connected with wires leading to another room, and the prisoner, sitting in the chair, will, without knowing it, be subjected to a current of electricity too light to be felt, but heavy enough to give an expert electrician in the other room an exact measurement, by the use of what is known as the "Whetstone bridge" of electrical resistance of the man. This will take only an instant, and will be done before the officers have the prisoner ready to leave the cell.

From the cell the procession will be much as now to the execution room, where the deputies and other persons permitted by law to witness the execution will be waiting.

Near the centre of the room, raised upon a small platform about eight inches above the floor, will be a chair, made somewhat like a large reclining chair. The long, straight frame that forms the slanting back will be of wood pieces, three inches square, and will be long enough so that if a seven-foot man should lie down in the chair this head would rest upon the back. The seat and arms will be of plain wood and without any peculiarities. The upper part of the back frame on each side will be fitted with a slot, in which will slide back and forth a small arrangement with a ring at the top and a thumbscrew beneath. The rings are to receive the hooks in the back of the belt about the man's body, and the screws are to fasten the arrangement in place at the spot where the rings will meet the hooks, which will vary according to the height of the prisoner. In front of the chair will be a foot-rest, something like those in a barber's chair, except that the top portion, instead of being fixed, will be balanced upon a pivot to permit it to dip front or back, so that the feet will lie firmly upon it. This whole foot rest will be arranged to slide backward and forward, and to be secured with a screw at the point where the prisoner's feet will rest upon it.

From the ceiling over the back of the chair and over the foot rest will dangle two flexible wires, like those from which small electric lights swing. On the wall at one side will be a small round dial attached to a brass instrument. A hand upon the dial will indicate the intensity of the current that will pass over the wires. Near it on the wall will be a small double-pole switch, a brass instrument similar to the familiar switches used to shut off or let on the current wherever electricity is used, but designed especially to show at a glance whether the current is off or on, in order to prevent accidents which carelessness in handling the apparatus might bring about. This will be all of the apparatus apparent in the room.

The prisoner, immediately on entering the room, will be led to the chair, and in a moment will be pushed back into it, the hooks in the belt about his body slipped into the rings in the chair, and there fastened by a turn of the screws. At the same moment his feet will be raised, the foot rest slipped under them and fastened by a turn of the screw, and a strap on top of the rest will be buckled tightly over his ankles. In another moment the two dangling wires will be fastened, one to the metal at the centre of the back of the cap and the other to the metal connection on the head of each shoe. A black cloth will be pulled over the face of the prisoner, the officers will stand well back from the chair, and at a signal the executioner at the switch will turn on the current, the volume of which has previously been adjusted to suit the resistance of the prisoner, as shown by the test in the cell.

Only the experience of Joseph Kemmler can certainly tell what will happen then, but if the confidence of those in charge, of the efficiency of the apparatus is well founded, at the instant that the switch is touched there will be a little stiffening of the prisoner's body, a little quivering of the limbs, life will flutter for a bare instant, like the needle that will be dancing upon the dial on the wall, and then it will all be over. There will be no pain, no convulsion, except by a movement to mark the passage from life to death, but the victim will be hopelessly and unmistakably dead.

A New Comet to Astronomers.

KINGSTON, June 24.—A telegram was received in this city to-day announcing the discovery by Prof. Barnard of Lick Observatory of a new comet located in Andromeda. It is very faint.

Exposition Rides for the Swiss Army.

BERLIN, June 24.—The Council has decided to borrow 16,000,000 francs with which to purchase repeating rifles for the country.

A FAITH CURE PRIESTESS.

Alleged Healing by Gladstone Citizens in Illinois.

ST. THOMAS, June 24.—Mr. A. B. Lewis of Aylmer, husband of the lady who has been called the Faith Cure Priestess of Illinois, informs me he is a healer and teacher of Christian Science, was in St. Thomas to-day, and states that he now enroll in joining converts by the name in East Elgin (near Mrs. Lewis has succeeded in making numerous converts—the regular practitioners admitted the cures are genuine. He resides several years in this city and East Elgin where women who had been confirmed for years and whom medicines could not benefit have been cured after a week's treatment by the Christian Science method which teaches and believes all diseases are but the phantasmagoria of the mind on the body, and by mentally treating the mind can be cured. Jesus in so say by dealing with the thoughts, the originator, or in other words by treating the cause and not the effect, as Jesus Christ did when on earth. The house of the prisoners is crowded daily by people who have become interested in the new science, and who express their determination to stand right up at the altar of the faith. Thirteen called yesterday and Mrs. Lewis proposes to establish a class among the disciples of the creed, which forbids the employment of a worldly physician, the belief being that if a Christian Science practitioner cannot effect a cure, then medicine is useless.

AMBITIOUS CITY NOTES.

A Branch of Promises Case Settled for $2000—The Hunting Assault.

HAMILTON, June 24.—T. H. O'Callaghan has entered his branch of promises case with Miss Hurrell, and will not appeal. The young lady accepts $2000 less than the jury awarded her—namely, $2000.

A private despatch from Leipsic, Germany, announces the death of August Eckhardt of this city, who has been studying music in Leipsic for the past two years.

At the Police Court this morning the adjourned charge of assault brought by Rose Wolf, a little girl, against Henry Halford was dismissed. The assault consisted in the defendant taking the girl up in his arms and kissing her. While the girl was certain that Halford was the man other witnesses swore that he was otherwise occupied at the time.

Another charge against Frank Revelle for carrying on the business of blind selling, manufacturing manure and other nostrums previous without the permission of the Burton Counsel was investigated at the Police Court this morning. A lot of evidence was heard and the case taken under advisement.

Hamilton Clerk of Chicago, who was the most seriously injured of all those who were taken to the hospital from the accident at the T, is able to be about.

MANITOBA MATTERS.

A Customs Seizure—Opium Smuggling—Fatal Accident—A Double Elopement.

WINNIPEG, June 24.—The customs authorities seized a team of horses Saturday belonging to a man named McGowan, who is charged with bringing the animals across the line contrary to law, and it is alleged they were used some days ago to carry $6000 worth of opium across the boundary line, where it is now hidden. Two American detectives are here working up the case, which will be fully investigated.

At Calgary Friday while a young Englishman named Lee was out driving the horses ran away. He became entangled in the lines and was killed.

Two young German girls, lately from the old country, working in the Mennonite village, eloped with two young Mennonites Saturday. When last heard from they were in Fargo, Dakota.

THE JESUITS' ACT.

North York Conservatives Censure the Allowance by the Government.

QUEENSVILLE, June 24.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Liberal-Conservative Association of North York, held at Grant's Hotel, President James Anderson in the chair, this resolution, moved by James Cavanagh of Queensville, seconded by T. Kennett of Belhaven, was unanimously carried:

That we, the Executive Committee of the Liberal-Conservative Association of North York, having in the most approved of the general policy of the leaders of the Conservative party, and while pledging ourselves to support such a policy in the future, cannot but disapprove the action of the Government in their endorsation of the Jesuits Bill, and in consequence we pledge ourselves to oppose any candidates nominated to parliament at a similar character either in the past or future.

A SIMCOE STABBING AFFRAY.

Hotel Keeper Brooks Attacks a Rough Who Assaulted Brooks's Wife.

SEVERN BRIDGE, June 24.—A serious stabbing affray occurred at Washago, about two miles from this village, between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning. The parties concerned are Thomas Brooks, hotel keeper of Washago, and Donald McAulay, driver of Severn.

McAulay broke into the hotel during Brooks' absence and attempted an assault on Brooks' wife.

Brooks returned before McAulay escaped and a fight ensued.

Both parties used knives and both were seriously injured.

No arrests have been made.

WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

Part Payment Accepted From the G.R.W. by the Montreal Co.

MONTREAL, June 24.—A part payment on account of the quarterly payment due by the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, on April 1 last, has been received by the Montreal Telegraph Company, without prejudice to their rights under the agreement of August, 1881. The balance of $10,000 is on deposit drawing interest in the Canadian Bank of Commerce, in the joint names of Mr. George Hague, General Manager of the Merchants' Bank, and Mr. Alex. McGowan, Manager of the Montreal branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, as trustees pending final judgment in the case now before the Superior Court.

THE DUTIES ARE TOO ARDUOUS.

Justice Strong Says He Cannot Accept the Law School Principalship.

OTTAWA, June 24.—Mr. Justice Strong of the Supreme Court returned from Toronto on Saturday. He says he has no intention of accepting the position of principal of the new Toronto Law School or of resigning his seat on the bench. The duties of the principalship would be very arduous and the additional remuneration which he would receive would not, he thinks, compensate for the additional labor.

The Armagh Disaster.

ARMAGH, June 24.—The railway employes affected with causing the recent disaster have been committed for trial.

Five Mile Hills.

BARTON, Me., June 24.—The men in Gould & Hastings' and Stevens & Co.'s mills to-day joined the men who went out last week from the other saw mills and now five mills are idle. The strikers visited Sargent's mill to-day, the only one running, and tried to induce the men there to join them. Violent talk was made and the sheriff dispersed the crowd. About 200 men are out. Nothing looking to a compromise has been done.

Chinese May Pass Through the States.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Solicitor Hepburn has given an opinion to the Secretary of the Treasury that there is nothing in the law to prohibit the landing of Chinese laborers who desire merely to pass through the territory of the United States in transit. Application for the landing at San Francisco of a number of Chinese destined to Cuba, bound from Liverpool for that, departure from the United States territory, has been granted.

Strikers' Funerals Restrained.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., June 24.—The coal miners here have been locked out since May 1 because they would not agree to a reduction of wages. The town has decreased in population from 5000 to 2000 in consequence. Many of those who have gone away are men leaving large numbers of women and children unprovided for. Outside relief on the line amounted to about 25 cents per family in the aggregate. Many families are absolutely without food.

He Was a Noted Gambler.

MEMPHIS, June 24.—Al. Grimsted was hanged by a mob, supposed to be composed of negro gamblers, at Tipton ville last Wednesday. He was all the money the negroes had and they, escaped at their law, carried him off in a hack, first throwing a rope over his head. They then took him into the woods and drew him up to a limb, dropping him down and again drawing him up. He choked and they lashed him up for good. He was a noted gambler.

Neil Burgess Badly Hurt.

HIGHLANDS, N. J., June 24.—Neil Burgess, the actor, was seriously injured here to-day by an explosion of gunpowder caused by a match boy dropping a lighted match upon a pound of powder. Burgess' injuries will be permanent, and the extent of the severity of the wounds was shown by the gore here. Mr. Burgess tried to extinguish the flames but his clothes caught fire. He ran into the house and his wife prevent his life by wrapping him in a rug. He is suffering greatly this evening.

THE TORONTO BUDGET.

A Th[illegible] Photographer Arrested for a "Sit."

And Is Awarded Four Months and Imprisonment—The Summer Excursion—The Shooting Sensation.

TORONTO, June 25.—William O'Connor, the champion marksman of America left by the Empress of India at 5 o'clock yesterday en route to New York whence he will sail to-morrow by the Germanic for England to contest against Ennis of Australia for the championship of the world. He took with him his new Winchester, in which he hopes to win the laurels that will make a second Toronto boy the champion marksman of the world. Immediately upon reaching England he will go into training for the race which will take place in September.

At the Police Court yesterday George and Edward Pearce of Yonge street were remanded till Friday on charges of attempting to burglarize the residence of Mr. E. S. Oxx and with shooting at Constable Lilly with intent to kill him. Mr. Matthew O'Connor, who lives at No. 100 Maitland-street, near Maitland, heard the shooting between Constable Lilly and the Pearce brothers on Saturday night, two of the bullets striking a wall of his house near the window. On Sunday morning he found one bullet which had struck the house and been flattened, while he got hold of another that had gone into the shutter. He handed them over to Sergeant-Detective Roberts.

The trial of the Halton election petition was yesterday announced to be adjourned from July 3 to Sept. 3.

"Do you want to hire a first-class expert photographer?" said a shaggy haired specimen of young man at police headquarters yesterday morning. Detective Rabern wanted an expert photographer right enough and invited him into the parlor. Then diving into his [illegible] Rabern drew out a small card photograph, which he held before the eyes of the stranger. "That is my picture," he said. "And you are my prisoner," rejoined Rabern. "You are wanted at Bay City, Mich., for the larceny of a valuable camera," he further informed him. The prisoner was thinking rapidly, but at the unexpected turn events had taken. The name of the prisoner is Wm. Glasco.

The police yesterday started to look up some of the local cases under the Vagrant Act. This move is made because of the numerous daring burglaries that have been committed in the city of late. On Saturday Thompson with a record, "Gee" Dean and Ed. Jackson were put behind the bars yesterday. They will probably be ordered to leave town.

The City Council decided last night to submit to a vote of the electors on July 8, the vexed question of whether or not there should be a commission to manage the erection of the new court house and city hall.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Measures of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, June 25.—At St. Lawrence market yesterday new beans sold at 75c per peck, tomatoes at 25c per basket, and gooseberries at 10c per box. Butter was scarce and prices continue firm; rolls sell at 16c and 17c, and tub at 16c. Receipts of hay were liberal and prices steady at $13 to $15. Straw was scarce, selling at $10 to $11. The sales of grain on the street were three loads of barley at 49 to 52 cents and one load of oats at 33½ cents.

BREADSTUFFS.

Flour—Trade continues quiet, with no change in prices.

Wheat—The market continues firm, with little movement. On call 94½c. was bid for No. 2 fall and 96c. for No. 2 red.

Barley—Dull, and prices nominal.

Oats—Steady, with a fair demand. Good mixed quoted at 30½ and 31c. on track.

Peas—Quiet. No. 2 are quoted at 63c. outside.

Bran—Very little doing, and prices nominally unchanged.

Potatoes—Very firm. Receipts continue moderate and the demand good. Car lots on track, 40 to 45c.; out of store, 55c.

PRODUCE.

Butter—In demand. Receipts of tub continue moderate and prices firm.

Eggs—Fair receipts. The association continues to sell at 11 1-2c, while outsiders quote 12 1-2c.

Cheese—Quiet. Small lots sell at 9 1-2 to 10c.

Lard—Quiet, and prices steady. American, 9½ to 10½c.; Canadian, 10½ to 11.

Bacon—Quiet. Small lots, long clears 8½ to 9c.; bellies and backs, 11½c.; and rolls, 10 to 10½c. Smoke of ham are small and prices firm, at 12 to 12½c.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports: Floating cargoes—Wheat and corn nil. Cargoes on passage—Wheat and corn, turn dearer. Mark Lane—Wheat, firm; probably dearer; American corn, firm; Danube corn, turn dearer; flour, firm. French country markets, steadier. English farmers' deliveries of wheat during past week, 60,127 qrs.; average price, 32s 7d, was 32s 4d. Liverpool—Spot wheat, steady; corn, firmer. India shipments of wheat during past week—To United Kingdom, 27,500 qrs.; to Continent, 36,000 qrs. Russian crops seriously damaged.

CHEESE MARKETS.

Buffalo reports: 6260 boxes of cheese were offered yesterday, market dull and 4230 boxes were sold; 6½ cents was buyers' best offerings until late in the day when 2000 Cloverfield and 1800 Marshfield sold at 6¾ cents, 420 boxes Excelsior sold at 6¾ cents, Johnsonburg did not sell.

Utica reports: There was another decline in cheese yesterday. Transactions: 700 boxes at 7 1-2c, 1445 boxes at 8c, 802 boxes at 8 1-4c, 2317 boxes at 8¼c, 2040 boxes at 8 3-8c, 2231 boxes at 8 1-2c, 320 boxes at 8 5-8c, 1200 boxes at 8 3-4c, 1283 commission. Total 10,387 boxes, ruling price 8 1-8c. Transactions one year ago aggregated 20,040 boxes, ruling price 8c.

Little Falls reports: The cheese sales yesterday were: 4610 boxes at 8c, 2650 boxes at 8 1-4, 108 boxes at 8 1-2c, 203 boxes on private terms, 377 boxes on commission, 971 farm dairies at 8 to 8 1-4c.

At Fulton 1260 boxes of cheese were sold at 8 1-8 to 8 1-2c.

THE COST OF SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Empire and other newspapers published in the interests of the Conservative party, apart from the welfare of the country, have made a great ado about the alleged exorbitant prices of school books. This cry is raised, not in the interest of the public, for it is folly to admit that party organs, which justify the reckless extravagance of the Dominion Government, can from pure love of the people honestly and el hoc fidei denounce an extravagance which does not exist. Perfectly willing for the fullest investigation, the Government, in conformity with the provisions of the agreement with the publishers, arranged for an arbitration to impartially examine into the matter and report as to whether or not "an excessive profit is being made" by the present publishers, and, as the matter is now in progress, we give below the finding of the arbitrators, Richard Bowes, James Bain, jr., and Edward Morgan. The Empire and its confreres attack this finding, and, of course, assert that it is entirely ex-parte and in effect a disparagement of the Judge. The fact is declared on that it is stated to say that some of the books are published at a loss, as the report states. The Empire omits to mention that the profits on others are sufficient to make a fair average profit. The greater adds bigger at a positive loss, so it is asserted, in order that his patrons will buy his other goods at a profit, and if a publisher issues one work at a loss or without profit, he recoups himself on another. The report of the arbitrators shows that no colossal fortunes are being made out of the publication of school books. On the contrary, they are published at as low a price as is possibly consistent with first class work and durability, and the cry, raised solely for the purpose of embarrassing the Mowat Administration, is raised without just warrant.

1st. As to the books published by the Canada Publishing Company we find and award and determine as follows:—

The Public School Arithmetic to be published without profit, and the present retail price is therefore not excessive.

The Public School Grammar is published without profit, and the present retail price is therefore not excessive.

The Public School Geography realizes to the publisher a fair profit, but one which we do not consider excessive, and therefore do not consider that the retail price thereof should be reduced.

The Public School Music Reader realizes to the publisher a fair but not excessive profit, and the retail price should not be reduced.

The High School Music Reader realizes to the publisher a fair profit, and the retail price cannot be fairly reduced.

The High School Grammar.—The capital account on this book is as yet unrealized by the publishers, and the profit on estimated future sales after the capital account has been wiped out will not be excessive, and the retail price cannot be reduced.

The High School Geography.—The publishers realize on the sale of this book a very fair profit, but not in our judgment an excessive one so as to call for a reduction of the retail price, the more especially as on some of the books of their authorized series a loss is being sustained by them.

The Orthoepist.—The profit on this book is merely nominal to the publishers, and is far from being excessive. The retail price should not be reduced.

Physiology of Alcohol.—One-third only of the capital account has as yet been realized by the publishers, and upon estimated sales for the first three years to the end of that time it will not be wiped out. This shows that the book is being published without profit, and that the retail price might be increased and not reduced.

Ball's First French Book.—This book is being published at a loss to the publisher. Price is therefore not excessive.

Williams' Composition and Practical English.—The publisher's profit on this book is fair, but not excessive, and don't ask call for any reduction in the retail price.

2nd. As to the books published by the Methodist Publishing Company we find, award and determine as follows:—

McGuire's P and G Drawing has so far been published without any profit, as the capital account is not yet entirely realized, and as the estimated sales for the next three years it will not then be realized. Public Schools not excessive, and retail price might be increased rather than reduced.

High School Algebra.—The capital account is not nearly as yet realized, and an estimated sales will not be fully realized at end of next three years. The above profit not excessive, and that retail price should not be reduced, but if anything increased.

3rd. As the books published by the Globe Publishing Company we find, award and determine as follows:—

The High School Drawing Course can be as far published at a large profit to the publishers. The capital account has been extinguished and a fair profit besides returned to the publisher, and in the future the profit will be excessive on estimated sales. The retail price of this book is now established and should therefore be reduced to different grade, which would yield a fair and reasonable profit to the publishers.

Public School Temperance.—The capital account of this book has not been realized, and an estimated sales will not be realized at end of three years. The profit is clearly not excessive, as there will be a loss on the book at end of three years. The English price of this book is two shillings stg., and the publishers ask that retail price be increased, which request we think may fairly be granted.

4th. As to the books published by the Rose Publishing Company, we find, award and determine as follows:—

McKay's Structure of English Prose.—This book is imported in sheets. No capital account. The profit on 1,000 copies is only $16.66. The profit is not excessive. The American price of this book is $1.75 as against $1.00 the Canadian authorized price.

Allen & Greenough's Latin Grammar.—The facts are the same as in the case of the last named book. The profit is not excessive, price being $1.00 as against $1.75, the American price.

Goodwin's Greek Grammar.—This book is also imported in sheets. No capital account. The publishers have so far published without any profit. The American retail price is $2.25 per copy against $1.25, Canadian authorized price. We think the Department would be justified in increasing the price of this book.

Leighton's First Steps in Latin and White's First Lessons in Greek. These are also imported in sheets. So far it has been published here at a time. The profit is therefore not excessive. The American price is $1.75 retail, against $1.00, the Canadian authorized price. The Department might fairly increase the price of these books.

Grammaire Des Grammaires, Du Hvon.—This book is imported. The publishers here realize only a profit of $4.95 on sale of 1,000 copies. The profit is therefore not excessive.

McKay's Elements of Euclid, 1-6.

McKay's Elements of Euclid, 1-6.

The duties for these books are imposed by the publishers. The publishers on the books not realized any profit, the capital account having been as yet realized. The profit on the sale of three years will not more than realize on capital account, and is therefore not excessive. The American prices of these books are $1.00 and $1.25 respectively, against 80 cents and 75 cents respectively, the Canadian authorized price.

5th. As to the books published by W. J. Gage & Company we find, award and determine as follows:—

Standard Book-keeping and Precis Writing.

High School Botany.

The publishers of these books have as far only realized a fair profit since the capital account was realized and the remainder will for most three years will not yield an excessive profit. The retail price of these books should not be reduced.

6th. As to the books published by Mc Coop, Clark Company we find, award and determine as follows:—

Public School History of England and Canada.

High School German Grammar.

High School German Reader.

High School Chemistry.

High School English Word Book.

The capital account on each of these books is as yet unrealized and the estimated sales for the next three years will not, after the capital account has been paid up, yield an excessive profit to the publishers. The retail price of these books should not therefore be reduced.

High School Book-keeping.

This book has had a fair sale and the capital account has been realized, thereby yielding a small profit to the publishers up to this time. The estimated sales for the next three years will not yield an excessive profit and the retail price of said book should not be reduced.

7th. As to the books published by Warwick & Sons we find, award and determine as follows, namely:—

Reid-tric's Art of School Management, and Houghton's Physical Culture.

We find that the capital account of these books respectively has not been realized in the number of books published to date and that the profit on these books has not been and will not be excessive and that the retail price should not be reduced.

With respect to the Canadian Public School Drawing Course in five books published by the Canada Publishing Company and the Kindergarten Drawing Book published by Sabey & Company, and which are not included in and covered by the agreement of reference above recited, but as to which we were requested by the Minister of Education and the publishers to enquire into and report on, we hereby report as follows:—

The Canadian Drawing Course.

We do not think the price, ten cents, as originally fixed, was at the time excessive, because the capital account of the book was about $6,500 and the sale for the first three years somewhat limited. Now, however, that the capital account has been paid up, the profits at ten cents per book would in the future be excessive. The price has been properly reduced to six cents per copy, which price will yield the publishers only a fair and reasonable profit. Had the price been reduced at an earlier date the publishers might have had just ground of complaint against the Department. At five cents per copy the books would be published at a loss.

The Kindergarten Drawing Course.

We find that owing to the large amount paid for copyright and this book not being on the compulsory authorized list and its sale having to be pressed so as to introduce it to the rural schools, it only having been introduced about a year, the price at which it is now sold is not too large and that the profit realized by the publishers is not excessive.

An examination into the prices charged in the United States for school books of a kind almost identical with those forming the subject of this reference has satisfied us that the price of Canadian school books are far below the prices obtained in the United States, and that the Education Department of Ontario has exercised extreme care in dealing with each book as to the extent of profit to which the public have obtained the books at lower prices than ever have been obtained under any other system than the system of authorization now adopted by the Department, and this system, while it fully protects the public and secures low priced school books, appears to be reasonably fair to the publisher.

Of the school books issued by American and Canadian publishers with respect to which the difference in price in favour of the Canadian book is most strongly marked, may be mentioned:

Williams' Composition.—Canadian price 80 cents; American price 75 cents.

High School Grammar.—Canadian price 75 cents; American price $1.30.

High School Geography.—Canadian wholesale price 75 cents; United States wholesale price $1.10.

Public School Geography.—Canadian 190 pages, wholesale price 60 cents; United States 121 pages, wholesale price 75 cents; and many others.

In view of these circumstances and inasmuch as many of the books referred to us are sold at profits below what is usually obtained by the trade, the undersigned would respectfully submit that it is deemed inexpedient by the Education Department to increase the price of said books, the privilege of publication now enjoyed by the respective publishers should not be disturbed for at least one year from the date of this reference.

We feel it to be our duty to the various publishers to mention that notwithstanding the fact that many of the books in the Schedule have not been yielding even fair profits, all of said books, especially the High School and Public School preparation come up to every high standard of excellence as to binding, typography, illustrations and other matters that go to the make up of a well published book and are fully equal in these respects to the school publications in the United States and in the Mother Country.

ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry.
And some because they're dry,
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink because they merry are,
And some because they weep.

Some drink when they do money gain,
And some because of loss;
Some drink when they are pleased,
And some when they are cross.

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never once refrain.

MUNCASTER'S

A Night of Terror.

Through Mr. Lascombe smiled his right hand instinctively moved towards his back, only to be withdrawn in haste. Slight as the gesture was, it attracted my notice and confusing. He was leading forward at the time with his back turned towards me, so I had every opportunity of observing him unnoticed; and I could see in his hip pocket a protuberance which seemed to be formed of the handle of a revolver. This, I confess, was certainly a strange discovery. Here was a man who had protested against another's carrying a revolver, going armed with one concealed on his own person. What on earth did it mean?

However, I had no time for conjecture. I had to be in the city at [illegible], and it was already half-past nine, so I hurried away to catch an omnibus. Tom Ramsy, who accompanied me, was very loth to leave the house. He, of course, was for acting on the spur of the moment, and, like Mrs. Yale, wanted to deliver our suspicions boldly at once to the police at once. Indeed he was burning to make the capture single-handed.

On my return in the evening I found but little change in the situation, the reign of terror still continuing. Had it not been for want of means—a prevalent feature in our establishment—the house would have been deserted—as my rate by [illegible] lodger, who kept up an incessant twittering, and sat in gloomy fasting, the dreary, with bells, rattles and other noisy instruments close at hand. No actual case of fainting occurred to my knowledge—to do that would have been to [illegible] unceremoniously at the murderer's disposal—but all smelled salts-bottles had been [illegible] freely.

My repeatedly declaring my belief in Mr. Lascombe's innocence, Mr. Lascombe did his utmost to bring them to a calmer frame of mind. He dwelt, he said, there was some faint resemblance between the two descriptions, but what of that? He would [illegible] to [illegible] half-a-dozen men out of the street, when they would surely notice no-one. He was certain that Mr. Jackson was what he represented himself to be—a [illegible] invalid. But, talk as he might, his words had very little effect; his deeds, perhaps, had rather more. I was told that he had just been out of the house all day; he had taken up Mr. Jackson's meals, and had sat with him for some hours. That he had done this without receiving any bodily injury was felt to be somewhat reassuring.

The conversation at dinner was most animated, our party being divided into two camps, one of which, in the person and determination of Mr. Lascombe, was of the [illegible] character.

"By the way, Tom," I said, when the ladies had retired, "have you bought the revolver you were speaking about?"

"Rather it, no. I haven't had a moment to myself all day. But when I go out this evening, I think I can [illegible] one."

"Do you mean to take it with you, then?" said Mrs. Yale, looking up from her work.

"Your advice startles me as being very singular," I interposed, watching him closely. "Perhaps I'm greatly mistaken, sir, you [illegible] a revolver [illegible]."

He then was startled as he turned in his face to where he sat. It was the first time I had [illegible] of discomposure. Mine was a case who had protested against another's carrying a revolver, going armed with one concealed on his own person. What on earth did it mean?

"Common sense open to me," he said, "dictates to me to purchase your evidence as to [illegible] your assertion. I have [illegible] the letter, you see, because—well, because it doesn't make a rap of difference." He said you a stronger sort of person," he [illegible] "but [illegible]."

"Nonsense," cried Tom.

"I have a letter to write," said Mr. Lascombe, rising. "When I come back, young [illegible], I hope your temper will have cooled a bit."

A clash of tongues followed his departure but very little was said to the point. Presently, in spite of the usual [illegible] Tom left the room; and shortly afterwards I heard him [illegible] to play billiards, and I went upstairs to fetch a book from my own room. The passage was lighted with gas, though only very dimly, and the carpet was thick enough to render my foot-fall [illegible]. Hoping to find something connected with the events of the previous night, I determined to explore.

Arriving at the door of Mr. Lascombe's room, I [illegible] then [illegible], and, not thinking of what I was doing, [illegible] in. What I saw was startling enough; nothing more so [illegible] I [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The "Hustler."

The Rat Portage Hustler has just come to hand. The Hustler is managed by Mr. Geo. G. Mathie. It is a small but exceedingly newsy little sheet, and its local columns abound with thrilling items, as witness the following selections:

Mr. D. T. Ferguson has had an elaborate picket fence erected on his property near the lake shore.

It is rumored that our estimable Reeve and Mr. J. K. Bryden will construct a similar one on the opposite side of the premises.

We are favored this week with the C.P.R. time card fresh from the office of the general passenger agent, Mr. Robert Kerr, Winnipeg.

Mr. John A. McCrossan has removed from Quality Hill to his new residence over the News office.

The Hustler's family have moved over to Rat Portage this week (from Keewatin).

Last week, owing to pressure of other business, we had to forego issuing the Hustler.

We are putting on a reporter next week, so an extra amount of local news may be looked for after this.

Negotiations are going on for the purchase of a steam for this paper, and it is expected application will shortly be made for the incorporation of the Hustler Printing and Publishing Company.

A Pleasant Event.

It is said that had leak attends postponements, but such was not the fate of the Y.M.C.A. garden party at the residence of Mrs. Jas. Dixon last night. Financially it was highly successful, over $80 being taken in at the gate in dime admission fees. This will give a good idea of the number in attendance. The spacious grounds were illuminated by strings of Chinese lanterns, and from a distance the scene was pretty indeed. The residence was also thrown open to the company of whom sought shelter from the chilly dew, in the parlors. Half a dozen large tables were scattered about the grounds, where the hungry and thirsty could satisfy their wants with recherche refreshments for a comparatively small tax upon their pocket-ets. The ladies provided strawberries, ice cream and cake in abundance, and though the evening was not exactly "A hot and balmy night of June, that throbs with happy hearts in tune," as the poet hath it, yet the cooling luxuries found a ready sale. At one table hot coffee was dispensed, and the supply could scarcely keep up with the demand. All the young men were button-holed at the flower table and gaily persuaded into exchanging their small silver for handsome bouquets. The ladies who went to so much trouble and expense to assist the Y. M. C. A. in this enterprise deserve the warmest praise. During the evening the Association band played several selections from the verandah of the house. The evening was a decidedly happy and successful one, the utmost good feeling and sociability seeming to prevail among all the pleasure-seekers. The Y.M.C.A. is to be congratulated. The 'bus line to and from the grounds did a good business. All the arrangements were complete, and the garden party was deservedly successful.

News Nuggets.

—The bicycle club has a meeting to-night.

The Brigade Camp.

Our Correspondent Writes Another Interesting Letter—The Battery and Cavalry Men in Camp.

Brigade Camp, Garrison, June 22rd, 1889.

Dear Examiner,—I haven't been able to write you a letter for some time, as the Y. M.C.A. tent, where all the writing is done, was flooded by the severe thunderstorm on Friday last. It poured pretty nearly all day till 2 o'clock, when it cleared up enough for us to get out to drill. At 4 o'clock it started again and rained the greater part of the evening. On Sunday morning all the tents were let down, so as to allow the ground under them to dry up. They were left down till 5 o'clock. At ten a.m. all the various batteries, battalions and troops paraded to their respective churches. The men presented a very fine appearance, all cleaned up, and accoutrements shining brightly. Both the batteries locked the cleanest of the lot.

The Durham Field Battery had a march out on Monday morning to a field the other side of the town, where they went through the various drills in good style. In the afternoon they fired four rounds of blank cartridge. To-morrow there is to be a firing competition for prizes.

The men are getting used to the drill and enjoy life, and are a great credit to themselves and their instructors.

"C" Troop of Cavalry (Peterborough) under the command of Cpt. Rogers and Lieut. Kent is the best troop in the field. Too much have a splendid drill instructor and riding master, who it is rumoured is going to settle in Peterborough when he is through camp here, and will be a great addition to military circles there.

CAMP NOTES.

A ball is being given in Kingston to-night by the Royal Military College Cadets, which a large number of the officers from camp are attending.

Quite a number of excursionists from Kingston and surrounding towns visited the camp on Sunday.

There is to be an excursion to Clayton to-morrow evening by which a large number of the soldiers will take the opportunity of visiting the other side.

Hymeneal Happiness.

Mr. Wm. Leahy Married to Miss Sullivan —A Presentation on His Wedding Eve.

This morning about eight o'clock Mr. Wm. Leahy, clerk of the Balmoral Hotel, was married to Miss Sullivan, daughter of Mr. Michael Sullivan, corner of Edinburgh and George streets. The ceremony was performed at St. Peter's Cathedral in the presence of a few invited guests. Miss Halpin was bridesmaid and Mr. Frank Conroy was groomsman. The dresses of both bride and bridesmaid were very handsome. The happy young couple leave on the 5:50 train this evening on a honeymoon trip to Buffalo, Niagara, and other points. After the wedding the bridal party returned to the residence of the bride's father, where the joyous event was commemorated by an elaborate dejeuner. Their many friends will wish Mr. and Mrs. Leahy a long life of unalloyed happiness. Mr. Leahy is exceedingly popular with the travelling public, the patrons of the Balmoral and the large circle of friends his genial and large hearted character attracted to him. Mrs. Leahy is a young lady of many estimable qualities. The union thus so auspiciously begun, both as to personnel of the contracting parties, and prospects, can hardly fail to bring happiness.

A PRESENTATION.

A pleasing event took place at the Balmoral last evening, when Mr. Leahy, the genial clerk of the hotel, was presented with a flattering testimonial in the shape of an address and accompanying valuable and handsome tea sett and hanging chandelier, from his old associates and fellow-boarders. There were about twenty-five of them on hand when the presentation was made.

"Billy" responded by thanking the donors of the gifts and opening the champagne. Afterwards he received the hearty congratulations of the boys on his approaching marriage, and was wished an earnest "God speed." Following is the address:—

To W. Leahy, Peterborough, Ont.:—

Dear Friend Billy,—We your associates in general and the bachelor boarders of the Balmoral in particular, having learned of your approaching marriage, beg leave to take this opportunity of expressing our feelings of mingled regret and pleasure at the step you have decided upon taking. While those of us who are still struggling along "singly" may have cause to regret your loss from amongst us, yet we all join heartily in expressing the pleasure it gives us on this the eve of your marriage to extend our congratulations and to express the hope that your married career may be one of continued long life and happiness, unmarred by hair-pulling matches, flat-iron throwing or scalding water baths. In ventureing our advice we trust you will not forget to carry the night latch key and be sure to leave your boots on the foot of the stairs when returning home from the club.

As a slight mark of our esteem we ask you to accept the accompanying tea-set and hanging lamp, trusting that the former may be the emblem of abundance and the latter continuance of a bright and prosperous time throughout your married life.

Three Prizes for Cheese.

The First Half of June Makes Sold—9 1/16c the Highest Price.

The regular meeting of the cheese board was held to-day. There was a good attendance and bidding was brisk. Liverpool quotations were 47s. Following is a list of the cheese boarded:—

PETERBOROUGH.

Keene	325	Warsaw Junction	160
Chemong	320	North Smith	175
Central Smith	320	Cherry Grove	120
Hilliers' Last	80	Warsaw	80
Westwood	170	Norwood	120
Hilliers' Abbey	80	Hilliers'	80
Pine Grove	80	Otonabee Union	160
Maple Leaf	80	Rosebud	80

Total—2,625.

VICTORIA.

Bankers	55	Scotch Line	80
Bankers	111	Canterbury	80

Bidding started at 8c. and continued till Mr. Bird, for Hodgson & Co., offered 9c. for Keene, Hanover and Cherry Grove. They accepted, as did also North Smith, Warsaw and Maple Leaf of Mr. Charlton's offer of 9 5/16. Mr. Cook, for Warrington, bought the balance of the board at 9c.

There was quite a discussion over these bids, as to whether Mr. Charlton's bid was in accordance with the rules of the board. The majority appeared to think that after a first offering has been taken out the remainder should be bid for on a board, which rule was on offer for the middle of 1c. by supposable a person bid for the board. However, the rule was allowed to stand in this instance and further discussion adjourned till the next meeting.

There was also some talk concerning the action of the Victoria dairymen, who left the board in the spring for the purpose of joining the Produce Company. They were back on the board to-day, and were allowed to remain. It is a condition that they promise to adhere to the board in future. The Victoria men claimed that the Produce company did not carry out their agreement, on the left them. They agreed to stand by the board in future.

Peterborough Business College.

Elegant New Premises Prepared—Almost Ready for Occupation—Commodious and Well Arranged.

The Peterborough Business College, Messrs. Rose & Rooney, proprietors, is meeting with great success and the number of students in attendance and applying for admission, require even more commodious premises than at present occupied by them on Hunter street. Accordingly Mr. James Stevenson has fitted up in excellent style elegant new college rooms on Water street opposite the Ontario Bank. Unlike most business college apartments, these are upon the second floor and easy of access by a wide, straight, easy stairway. At the landing of the stairs, a door to the left admits to the reception room, a large well-lighted apartment. Off this opens the office of the proprietors, finely fitted and, like the reception room, neatly carpeted. Off the reception room opens a large

CLASS ROOM,

20x36, fitted up specially for stenographic instruction. In rear of this, separated by a screen of frosted glass and folding doors, with a separate entrance from the hall, is the

BUSINESS PRACTICE DEPARTMENT,

33x25 feet in area. On one side a counter, similar to a bank counter, extends, fitted up like a regulation banking office, besides three other practical business offices, with the addition of a number of small tables for the accommodation of two students each. In this room the pupils are in actual operation and take part in the actual transaction of business, of which the principles are taught in the which has its place in a large room in rear of the Practice department. This room is 33 x 50 feet in area, and provides comfortable seating accommodation for 150 students. This room is also separated from the room adjoining, by a frosted glass screen, and has folding doors. By means of the folding doors the whole three rooms can be thrown en suite, making practically, if necessary, one room of the length of about 110 feet, by a breadth of 20 feet. These rooms are all well lighted and admirably adapted to the purposes of the institution. The wood-work is painted in a warm, cheerful tint, and the walls are elegantly finished. Along the north side of these three rooms runs a wide line of black-board. The floors are of oiled maple, and altogether the rooms are commodious, bright and cheerful. Accessory to these are large cloak-rooms for ladies and gentlemen respectively. Attached to the former is a well-fitted lavatory, etc. The artificial lighting is done by means of gas. Altogether the new premises of the Peterborough Business College answer the purpose admirably, and there is, perhaps, only one establishment of the kind in the province that has as good premises.

The rooms will be ready for occupation in a few days, and advantage will be taken of the dull business season to make the removal, though it is probable that there will be no cessation of teaching, a summer session for the benefit of teachers being one of the items on the teaching programme.

The Examiner congratulates Messrs. Rose and Sawyer upon the securing of elegant and suitable premises and wishes them a corresponding increase of patronage, and that general success which their enterprise and the valuable work their business college is doing, amply deserves.

ST. JEAN BAPTISTE FETES.

A Statement to Georges Cartier Unveiled at Quebec Yesterday.

Quebec, June 24.—The St. Jean Baptiste festivities were opened this morning at River Laire, a short distance from the city, where 300 years ago Jacques Cartier, the immortal discoverer of Canada, landed amid the awe-struck savage tribes and planted a cross in the name of France and Christianity. At 9 o'clock the artillery commenced the beginning of the divine service, Cardinal Taschereau officiating, assisted by two bishops. At the elevation of the host, bugles sounded, drums rolled, artillery fired a royal salute while the troops presented arms.

After service Lieut.-Gov. Angers went through the official inauguration of the Cartier-Brebeuf monument and then awarded gold, silver and bronze medals for the best floats on the life of Jacques Cartier. The procession was then formed and marched through the principal streets of the city.

The number of visitors is very great. They are from all parts of Canada and the United States. Yesterday the different sister societies from Canada and the United States presented their homage to His Eminence Cardinal Taschereau, who received them with his habitual kindness. Pro-Mayor Tessier held a reception at the City Hall, which was well attended. In the evening an enormous bonfire was lighted by Lieut.-Governor Angers, which was answered by similar bonfires all along the banks of the St. Lawrence. It was the prettiest thing ever seen in Quebec and was witnessed by hundreds of thousands of spectators.

Chicago's Celebration.

Chicago, June 24.—The French-Canadians here observed to-day as a holiday, and marched through the streets with bands, banners and allegorical floats.

Nerve Torture.

"I suffered with neuralgia and obtained no relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil. Since then I have also found it an invaluable remedy for all painful burns and cuts, rheumatism and sore throat." Mrs. P. Cameron, 137 Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ont. 2w23d

Consumption can be Cured

by proper, healthful exercise, and the judicious use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites, which contains the healing and strength-giving virtues of these two valuable specifics in their fullest form. Dr. D. D. McDonald, Petitcodiac, N. B., says: "I have been prescribing Scott's Emulsion with good results. It is especially useful in persons of consumptive tendencies." Sold by druggists, 50 cents and $1. w23eod

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning grey, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

Dominion Day Celebration at Port Hope

This year's programme for the celebration of Dominion Day in Port Hope is the best ever presented by that town. It comprises an immense gathering of firemen, a firemen's parade, special games for firemen, athletic sports, grand horse races, &c., during the day. In the evening, the "Pigs in Clover" will be practically illustrated by the real live article, the whole concluding with a grand display of fireworks. We would strongly advise our readers to make their arrangements to spend Dominion Day in Port Hope. The programme there is always fully carried out. Any information desired can be obtained by writing W. E. Bramble, secretary of committee. d6d

AT
TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices,is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

WARM WEATHER CLOTHING
AT THE City Clothing Store

It is bound to come. The warm weather we mean. In fact it is going to be hot, and it makes us think of summer outing—vacation and seasonable sports. These in turn, suggest preparation and imply proper outfits — such as SUMMER SUITS, UNDERWEAR, and FURNISHINGS. 'Tis of these we would speak particularly to-day, because this season we have provided for our patrons a Greater Variety of WARM WEATHER WEAR than ever before, and at Prices no other dealer in Peterborough can possibly duplicate. We have all the Novelties.

What Gentlemen Will Wear

We are displaying the Finest lines of exclusive styles in the following:

Plain and Fancy Colored Suiting
Light-Weight Underwear
White, Fancy and Colored Vests
Collars and Cuffs, Newest Shapes
Ties in all the Summer Shades
Tennis, Boating, Sporting Outfits

We are bound to overcome the effects of the bad weather of the past month, in point of sales, if not in profits. The prices we will quote will convince you of our sincerity and the genuineness of the sacrifice we will make in values

THE BAROMETER OF WAR.

FRANCIS JOSEPH'S SPEECH DEPRESSES THE BOERSES.

But the Emperor Doesn't Think Matters are so Bad as They Look—Jack the Ripper's Latest Victim.

LONDON, June 25.—A despatch from Odessa says that war clauses have been added to nearly all Russian private commercial agreements.

The Standard's Vienna despatch says: Emperor Francis Joseph, speaking individually to the delegates yesterday, said the public and the press view the foreign situation in a far more disquieting light than the fact: warrant either in Roumania or Servia, where good immediate prospects of peace exist.

The Russian censorship of the press, which has never had a reputation for extreme leniency, has redoubled its vigilance in the past two weeks, and is now so rigorous that the items of news which come by telegraph from St. Petersburg or elsewhere in the empire are of the mildest and most colorless nature. Everything of a political character is now forwarded by Russian correspondents by mail as far as the German frontier, whence it is telegraphed. Such news as is allowed to filter through in this way confirms the reports heretofore received of the strained relations between Russia and Italy, and indicates that the Italian Ambassador at St. Petersburg, M. de Marochetti, finds himself at the Russian Court in a position that is all but unbearable. The Russian Imperial family is preparing for a yachting cruise in the waters of Finland, but the Czar will not accompany them.

The Boerses Depressed.

VIENNA, June 25.—The speech made by Emperor Francis Joseph in receiving the Delegations has had a depressing influence on the Vienna and Berlin Boerses.

The Neue Freie Presse says the Emperor's remarks indicate definitely that the idea of conciliating Russia has been abandoned, otherwise the Emperor would not have referred to Bulgaria as he did.

An Alarming Rumor.

PARIS, June 25.—Rentes fell here yesterday on the receipt of a telegram from Strasburg saying an alarm was sounded there early yesterday morning, and the whole garrison turned out in heavy marching order.

A New Strategic Railway.

LONDON, June 25.—Austria has begun the construction of a second strategic railway. It will run from Hatvan to Miskolej, in Hungary.

The News in Paris.

PARIS, June 25.—The Government considers the sentences imposed at Angoulesme upon Deroulede and Lagnerre were not severe enough and has lodged an appeal to have the judgment set aside and the cases re-tried.

The Boulangist, Imperialist and Monarchist journals are jubilant over the result of the trial and characterized it as another blow at the Government.

Prince Victor Napoleon has written a letter endorsing the sentiments expressed in the manifesto of the members of the Right in the Chamber of Deputies, in which the action of the Republican majority is condemned and an appeal made to the people to unite in the name of France and Liberty against Parliament and Feodality. The Prince says a Government based upon the sovereignty of the people can alone insure greatness and prosperity to the nation.

Jack the Ripper's Latest Victim.

LONDON, June 25.—The name of the woman whose body was cut up and thrown into the Thames recently was Elizabeth Jackson. This fact has been established by scars on the body and by the clothing. She was of low character and was in the habit of frequenting common lodging houses in Chelsea. The theory that she was a victim of Jack the Ripper is again revived.

Preparing an Encyclical.

ROME, June 25.—The Pope is preparing an important encyclical letter which will be issued on St. Peter and St. Paul Day.

DRUGGISTS IN COUNCIL.

An Association Formed Yesterday at Guelph—The List of Officers.

GUELPH, June 25.—A meeting of the druggists of Wellington, Peel, Halton, Dufferin and Cardwell was held in the City Council Chamber to-day for the purpose of organizing an association. W. Colebrugh of Mount Forest was elected chairman, and W. G. Smith of this city secretary pro tem. Others present were: P. H. Parry and R. Phillips of Fergus, T. Stevenson, J. R. Dodds and A. Turner of Orangeville, J. H. McCollom of Milton, R. Wood of Erin, A. B. Petrie, T. S. Petrie and Dr. Hervel of Guelph. A constitution and bylaws were adopted, after which these officers were elected:

Jamieson, Dr. Hervel, W. Colebrugh, L. W. Yeomans and R. Phillips.

As the time for nominating a representative for the college has passed it was decided to take no action in the matter. Great dissatisfaction was, however, expressed at a circular purporting to come from the Brantford Association nominating certain members as candidates for the college, being representatives of associations which is misleading because it is not the fact.

Before adjournment, which took place at 5 o'clock, the association decided to hold its next meeting at Brampton.

SUICIDE AT CLINTON.

A Stratford Man Named McCoy, While Drunk, Takes Paris Green.

CLINTON, June 25.—About 9.30 this morning a man named McCoy, while under the influence of liquor, purchased an ounce of Paris green, took it to the hotel, mixed it up and drank it. As soon as it was known what he had done efforts were made to give him emetics but he resisted and the services of Chief Paisley were enlisted. He took the man to the Council Chamber, where a stomach pump was used, after which McCoy was put in the lock-up. He died about 5 o'clock. While in the cell he had battered his head badly against the walls. McCoy was a stranger here; his friends are supposed to live in Stratford.

Blew Her Brains Out.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 25.—Hattie Conrod, aged 19, blew her brains out at Lawrencetown, near Halifax, Sunday afternoon. Her body was found at midnight in a clump of bushes near her parents' house; she was lying on her back and had an open knife tightly clenched in her right hand and a pistol all smeared with blood, resting on her breast. She had shot herself through the mouth. The back of her head was shot to a jelly.

A CLEVER SWINDLE.

How a Young New Yorker Worked Montreal Brokers by Forged Checks.

MONTREAL, June 25.—A young man named Charles Keeler, hailing from New York, succeeded in getting several forged checks, purporting to be signed by J. J. Curran, M.P., cashed to-day by a clever ruse. The swindler called up a number of brokers' offices by telephone and told them he was Mr. Curran and that a boy would be around in a few minutes with a check which he would like cashed as it was after banking hours. The boy duly appeared and in several instances the checks were cashed.

A Colporteur's Close Shave.

OTTAWA, June 25.—A colporteur named Trappier had a narrow escape at the Embrun-Russel company's works. He went there to distribute Bibles and tracts among the French Catholics, many of whom, attempted to mob him. They threatened to drive him out of town and over fifty dogs were actually gathered for the chase. A French Catholic named Lachapelle interposed and saved him, but not a moment too soon.

Whitby Presbyterian Festivities.

WHITBY, June 25.—The Presbyterians have been having three days' festivities over the reopening of St. Andrew's Church, which has been in the hands of decorators and upholsterers for many weeks. Grand Lodge I.O.G.T. in Annual Session—Attempted Suicide.

TORONTO, June 26.—Denis Hickey, while working in the building of the new Upper Canada College, was struck in the back by a falling scaffold pole and had his spine dislocated. The lower part of the body is completely paralyzed.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge I.O.G.T. of Ontario was held yesterday morning in the Templars' Hall, about 150 delegates being present. Grand Chief Templar J. H. McMullen presided and conducted the ceremony of the G.L. degree, to which forty-seven of the representatives were admitted. Reports of committees were received and standing committees appointed. A lake trip was given the visitors last evening by the local brethren.

DEATH OF MRS. HAYES.

The Wife of the Ex-President Passes Away at Her Home.

FREMONT, June 25.—Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes, the wife of ex-President Rutherford B. Hayes, died this morning. The funeral will take place Friday.

All night the sorrowing family watched around the bedside. Mrs. Hayes lay motionless and but for the faint breathing and the weak fluttering of the pulse there were no signs of life. As morning dawned the hold on life grew weaker and weaker, finally the spirit took flight. In a voice choked with grief the physician announced that the end had come. General Hayes and his four grown sons were deeply moved, while Miss Fanny is nearly prostrated with grief and her long watch at her mother's bedside. The sisters of the deceased and Dr. and Mrs. Hayes are at present in the house of mourning, among other friends, among [illegible] and Mrs. Harrison.

[Mrs. Hayes, who was a daughter of Dr. James Webb of Cincinnati, was married to Mr. Hayes in 1852, and was for her husband's counsellor during the whole of his public life. GOSSIP ABOUT ROYALTY.

Balmoral Notes Written of Queens, Princes and Eastern Potentates.

LONDON, June 25.—The Queen left Balmoral yesterday afternoon for Windsor, where she will not stay much more than a fortnight before going to Osborne. The Prince and Princess of Wales dined at the castle to-day with the Queen. There will also be a dinner party on Thursday. The Queen will come to town on Thursday week for the Marlboro Lodge garden party. During the Queen's present stay at Balmoral a messenger has left London every morning, dispatched from Buckingham Palace and the Home Office alternately. These messengers leave King's Cross at 10 and arrive at Balmoral at 2 the next morning. The return messenger leaves the castle at 1 and reaches Euston station at 9 the following morning. The Queen deals every morning with the boxes which arrive during the previous night. Usually she sends them back by return messenger the same day.

The royal agricultural show at Windsor was opened under most favorable conditions. The most interesting feature so far has been the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales, who, with their five children, attended morning service on Sunday in the show yard. To suit their convenience this service, generally held at 11, was postponed until 12 o'clock. The Prince and Princess brought Lord and Lady Londesdorry, Lord Cadogan, Lord Fife, Lord Clonmel, Col. Montague and Christopher Sykes. The platform upon which the Dean of Windsor, assisted by one of the minor canons and a surpliced choir, were waiting to begin the services, was crowded with royalties. Prince and Princess Christian and their young son and two daughters were also present. A great many other well known people were among the congregation.

The Shah of Persia will never probably know to what extent he is indebted for the reception which waits him in England to the energy and influence of the Prince of Wales. The visit, when first proposed, was very unfavorably received in many quarters, but the Prince's arguments about geographical position, the flank of India and the advance of Russia carried the day and silenced all would-be objectors.

The opposition in the city was dumfounded at the idea of H. R. H. being adopted by the leprosy committee, and this has caused a commotion among them which bids fair to eclipse that created by Sir Morell Mackenzie's book. The college views with much disfavor the idea of creating a leper centre in the metropolis. The official heads of the profession are very angry at not having been consulted before the movement was initiated. Sir Andrew Clark was averse to it, yet his name appeared on the committee in the face of three categorical refusals, and he is not a little indignant at this unfortunate mistake.

The Prince of Wales while at Ascot last week did his best to bring about an understanding between Lord Durham and Sir George Chetwynd. Lord Durham's motto has been "no surrender" from the first. He avers that it is a warning against the system, not against the individual. I am not surprised that His Royal Highness' well-meant mediation was unattended with the desired result.

The judges who are going on the northwestern circuit have just received an intimation from the Mayor of Liverpool that the Shah will visit the town during the assize. This will create a curious question of precedence, for the judges always take rank as representatives of the Queen, and difficulty will arise as to what they will do. Justice Stephen is not likely to make any difficulty, but it will trouble the soul of the Lord Chief Justice sorely, to whom his rank, position and precedence are such a vital satisfaction.

Last week George Lewis, acting under instructions from Mrs. Mackay, served write in an action for libel against two well-known newspapers, one published in London, the other in the country. Sir Charles Russell will appear for the plaintiff, whose object is to discover, if possible, and severely punish the real authors of the gross slanders in question. In the event of obtaining damages Mrs. Mackay proposes to give them to a London charity. EDMUND YATES.

HAMILTON, June 25.—The convention called to form a permanent organization for the protection and preservation of the Lord's day met this morning in the schoolroom of St. Paul's Church. Rev. D. L. Brethour was elected chairman and Rev. John Mordy secretary. A resolution was adopted that forms of petitions be prepared and forwarded to ministers of the gospel in charge of congregations, with a request to have them signed by residents of 21 years of age and over in their respective localities, and returned to the executive before a date agreed upon hereafter. In the evening a public meeting was held in James-street Baptist Church, when addresses were delivered by Rev. George Burson of St. Catharines, Rev. D. L. Brethour, Ph.B., Thorold, and others.

A branch of the Equal Rights' Association was organized here yesterday on the lines laid down by the Toronto convention on June 12. These officers were elected: Chairman, Edward Martin, Q.C.; Vice-Chairman, Dr. Macdonald; Treasurer, E.A. Colquhoun; Secretary, William Murray; Executive Committee: Revs. R. G. Boville, R. J. Elliott, Mungo Fraser, R. J. Laidlaw, Samuel Lyle, John Pickering, J. S. Ross, D. H. Fletcher, Messrs. A. Gaviller, Wm. Bell, James Hutchison, Samuel Jones and John Alexander. The work of circulating petitions praying for the disallowance of the Land Titles Act was fully considered and arrangements made to secure signatures. The association will meet on July 2.

How Cronin was Tried, Found Guilty of Being an English Spy and Sentenced to Death—His Assassination Explained by Him.

CHICAGO, June 25.—One of the former chiefs of Camp No. 20 of the Clan-na-Gael, who attended the meetings [illegible] tried and sentenced to death, has told State's Attorney Longenecker [illegible] the horrors. There were ten men present [illegible] ing, and one of them [illegible] informant says [illegible] death sentence because [illegible] failed him. He was [illegible] be present and heard [illegible] as might have been [illegible] able request was [illegible] against Cronin—that he was a [illegible] lish spy—had brought up by a man [illegible] name has been prominently [illegible] the case, but preferred [illegible] party. The man who [illegible] cution was an Irish lawyer [illegible] fellow under ordinary [illegible] blind follower of his leader. [illegible] seven of the ten men present [illegible] meeting are in the possession [illegible] Attorney, together with [illegible] lawyer who acted as [illegible] occasion. A German saloon [illegible] side is given as the rendezvous [illegible] Circle at the time the trial took [illegible] it is not thought that the conspirators [illegible] have chosen this place when there [illegible] saloons kept by good Clan-na-Gaels [illegible] plenty in that section of the city.

The informer has been in hiding ever since the body of Cronin was found, and at last determined to come his enemies by telling the State's Attorney [illegible] He did not vote at all on the death sentence, he says, and Judge Longenecker [illegible] to believe him. The meeting of the inner circle, at which Cronin was condemned, was held one Friday night in the latter part of February. Whether the Senior Guardian of the camp presided or not is not as yet known; at any rate the informer says he was there. Those in attendance were men known to be faithful, beyond a shadow of a doubt, to the behests of their superiors. Cronin was found guilty of being a British spy and the punishment was fixed at death. Death was always the penalty which traitors paid, and Cronin was to be no exception to the rule.

The law of the order is that whenever dangerous work is to be done, if no one volunteers for the mission, lots must be drawn in the camp to which the accomplishment of an object is interested, and the brother to whom chance awards the task undertakes it without question and without thought of life or liberty. In the matter of the removal of Dr. Cronin no volunteers were called for. It was necessary to preserve the greatest secrecy, for Cronin was a man of many friends, and some of them were sufficiently attached to him to run the risk of their lives to save his. Lots were therefore drawn. The names of those present were put on separate slips of paper and the lottery of murder was carried out in all its details. The names of the men selected for the fearful deed were not made known at the meeting. No one knew the names of the men who were to "remove" Dr. Cronin except the man who was to notify them that they had been selected for the act of blood and were expected to begin at once. This man was one of the prisoners now under arrest,and he directed the murderous proceedings.

Chief of Police Hubbard said last night: "Dan Coughlin was not at home the night of May 4; he was not at the East Chicago-avenue station and we have traced him almost to the very door of the Carlson cottage."

The police will not say that Senior Guardian John F. Beggs is one of the men who is eagerly and anxiously wanted, but it is a fact that detectives were looking for him all day. It is not believed that he has left the city and therefore his movements were thoroughly searched without success.

Detective Palmer had a long interview with Judge Longenecker early in the morning and about an hour later a flurried looking man was admitted to the Judge's office by the side door. He was a Clan-na-Gael man, and he was the one who gave the State's Attorney the names of seven of the ten men who compose the inner circle of Camp No. 20.

The trial, condemnation and execution of Dr. Cronin was entirely in accordance with the usages of the Clan as practised in other cases, notably that of the informer Carey, who was tried by the same process under which Dr. Cronin suffered death.

The gravity of the charges made against the men composing the inner circle of Camp No. 20 is fully appreciated by the State's Attorney, who has had several officers detailed to guard the informer, to prevent harm being done him. He will not be arrested, and no step will be made by the officers that would indicate to the conspirators that he is under the protection of the police.

These disclosures confirm the worst apprehensions of the character of Clan-na-Gael. The facts show pretty conclusively that this organization should have no abiding place in the Republic, but be destroyed root and branch. The authorities here have a very serious business on hand. They may rightly claim the sympathy and support of every right minded man in the world. It is a crime against the country and the civilization of the century which they are bringing to light. The task is difficult, but the necessity of punishing the guilty is urgent.

The Burke Extradition Case.

WINNIPEG, June 25.—The indications are that the only evidence to be given in the Burke extradition case to-morrow will be that identifying the prisoner, other witnesses being unable to arrive in time.

It transpires that on the day of his arrest Burke sent a telegram to a friend in Hancock, Mich., telling him not to reply to a note sent him. Burke did not take the telegram to the office himself but got another person to take it. This is an important fact, as it forms another link in the chain of evidence against the prisoner.

Acting Chief Inspector Sweetman of Toronto and Inspector Griffin of Kingston watched the case for the Government. The prisoner declined to elect how he should be tried. Mrs. Love and Money Order Clerk Deacon gave evidence for the Crown. The magistrate committed the defendant for trial.

STOCKS of wheat continue to decrease on this Continent. The visible is now placed at 16,448,269 bushels, as against 24,602,533 bushels at the corresponding period of last year, and 30,699,312 bushels in 1887.

BRADSTREET estimates the loss of property in the recent flood in Pennsylvania at $44,-000,000. When the loss of life is reckoned with it, the disaster is the most overwhelming of any that has ever occurred in America.

THE arrangements for the Reform demonstration in Toronto on Saturday, the 29th, are all but complete. Sir Richard Cartwright will preside, Mr. Laurier, Mr. Blake, Mr. Wm. Patterson, M.P., and several members of the Ontario Government are expected to speak on the questions of the day. There will be plenty of music, also athletic sports and games, for which $780 will be given in prizes.

BRITISH exports to Canada amounted to $2,000,265 for the first five months of 1889, against $1,923,694 for the corresponding five months of 1888. The principal increase was in railroad iron—from £60,726 to £105,106—but strangely enough there are increases in the very lines of goods that the Canadian tariff is intended to keep out, such as from £280,482 to £276,602 in cotton piece goods, and from £116,804 to £126,115 in apparel and slops. Our millers have been complaining a good deal, but they sent £26,673 worth of wheat flour to England in 1889, against £30,237 in 1888. The exports of wheat, however, fell from £50,937 to £6,120. The exports of wood, both hewn and sawn, largely increased, so did the exports of cheese, but the exports of fish diminished from £179,407 to £151,072.

THE Tory wirepullers of Cardwell held a convention at Mono Mills the other day. The majority vented their spleen upon "Billy" Stubbs, of Charleston, by refusing his 15 cents and passing a motion to enforce his withdrawal from the gathering. Mr. Stubbs protested that he was as good a Tory as any of them, and that it was unfair to punish him for desiring to think for himself and to act independently when his conscience so dictated. But, remarks the Hamilton Times, the bosses could be moved by no such arguments, and as Mr. Stubbs had objected to the nominee of last convention, because he was a Quebec man, while there are hundreds of good men to select from in the county, he was promptly expelled. The Tory managers of Cardwell can stand anything from the Ottawa ringdom, however bad, but the independence of the Charleston hens doctor they will not brook.

Otonabee.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Meeting of Otonabee Council at Keene, June 17th; all present. On motion, the minute inker was struck off against part lot 15, con. 9, assessed to the late Mrs. Condon. A special grant of $20 was made to road division No. 41, $15 to St. Margaret's Hill, and $10 between lots 6 and 7, con. 12. On motion the following accounts were passed:—Duncan D. McIntyre, spreading union road gravel, $3; P. W. Hawkins, cedar, $2.45; R. H. Sheet, gravel, $6.30; Peter Gilbreath, cedars, $6.75; Mrs. O.-McCarthy, gravel, $1.60; Andrew Robertson, cedars, $1.45; R. Richardson, cedars, $3; E. E. Rowle, sawyers, $92.25; James Nelson, cedars and gravel, $7.42. On motion the municipality will grant a sum for the boundary lines between Otonabee and Asphodel, and between Otonabee and Douro, equal to the amount expended by Asphodel and Douro on said boundaries. The consideration of opening quarter line between lots 6 and 7, con. 6, was laid over. The Reeve was instructed to get all information he could on the matter. Council adjourned to 15th July next.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The directors of the Otonabee Agricultural Society held a meeting in the council chamber, Keene, on the 20th inst., and had quite an interesting discussion on various branches of agriculture and other matters, and decided to hold a two-days show in the hall, the fruits exhibit to be in the hall not later than 3 p.m. on the first day, and the stock not later than 11 a.m. of the second day. The doors will be open for the public at 9 a.m. of the second day.

The Financial Situation.

Nearly all the leading banks in Ontario and Quebec held their annual meetings last week, at which the financial position of the country and its general business were extensively discussed by some of the managers. The partial failure of the crops and the decline in the lumber and timber interest had to some extent a depressing effect on trade, but on the whole business has been fair and the outlook encouraging. Mr. Darling, President of the Bank of Commerce, in speaking of the prosperity and rapid growth of Toronto, threw out a timely warning about the rash speculation now prevailing in that city, especially in regard to suburban properties, which he says are being sold to parties in various parts of the country, who are probably ignorant of their real geographical position, at prices far in excess of their productive value for many years to come, even under the most favorable circumstances. It appears from the statements made that the output of harvesting machinery during the present season will be probably ten to fifteen per cent. in excess of last year, and while the profits have been curtailed by competition, the large and perfectly equipped establishments are making as much money as could be expected in view of the quantity now manufactured. The payments for machines sold last year were on the whole better than might be expected. As regards payments for machines this year, much will of course depend on the season's crop. In addition to reapers and binders the manufacture of the less important farm implements and of wagons is steadily increasing. The wholesale manufacture of wagons is now becoming an assured success. The furniture business, the development of which to its present proportions has been all accomplished in fifteen or twenty years, is capable of unlimited enlargement provided a foreign market can be secured. In other branches of industry the reports are on a whole favourable. The financial situation may be summed up by the statement, which is emphasized by all the managers, that the value of money has depreciated to some extent, and also that these institutions showing increased earnings have done so only through a much greater expansion of business. The general belief that the trade of the country was not so prosperous last year is also substantiated by our bankers. We are led to believe, therefore, that an unusual amount of prudence and caution were exercised by our bankers, enabling them to present such satisfactory results to their stockholders.—Exchange.

Mild in action, wonderful in effect! Put up in vials, convenient to carry. Their use attended with no discomfort! These sterling merits account for their great popularity. b

Is My Hair Right?

How often do we hear one lady ask this question of another. Invariably these ladies who are constantly worrying about their hair, do not wear any kind of hair goods, but possibly a switch. Now, consider this, a line: Would it not pay you to get a nice, becoming style of Front-piece, Bang or Wave, made of fine, curled or waved human hair, and be sure it is always right? Then you would not require to ask "Is my hair all right?" Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, has made the manufacture of hair goods a life study, and amongst his many pieces every lady will find something to suit her. You have all heard of the professor, though, perhaps, you have never interested yourself enough to call on him during his former visits. Do so now. He will be at Phelan's Hotel on Friday and Saturday, June 28th and 29th, and will bring with him his big stock of all kinds of hair goods. He will be pleased to show you his various styles. See his advertisement in another column. dw

Lost and Found.

HEALTH, comfort and ease are always lost when disease appears, but they are invariably regained through the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, which cures dyspepsia, biliousness, scrofula, bad blood, rheumatism, dropsy and all skin diseases, etc. 6dw26

Certain Cure.

A CURE for cholera morbus. A positive cure for this dangerous complaint, and for all acute or chronic forms of bowel complaint incident to summer and fall is found in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, to be procured from any druggist or medicine dealer. 6dw26

With Doctor's Approval

WITH doctor's approval I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, took two-thirds of it and was cured of my ailment (shingles). A friend much worse than I, with the same complaint, was also cured. I believe it to be a first class liver and blood tonic. J. HARRIS, Esq., Port Hope. 6dw26

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED

The Most Agonizing, Itching, Burning and Bleeding Eczema Cured.

Eczema in its worst Stages. A Raw Sore From Head to Foot. Skin Gone. Doctors and Hospitals Fail. Tried Everything. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies for 25.

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and been through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the sole of my foot. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everything, I heard of your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, I was entirely cured at the cost of about $5. I would not be without the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, and I think they are the only skin and blood medicines.

ISAAC H. GERMAN, Watrous, N. Y.

A Most Wonderful Cure.

I have had a most wonderful cure of salt rheum (Eczema). For five years I have suffered with this disease. I had it on my face and hands for over five years. I tried hundreds of remedies, and not one had the least effect. The doctor said my case was incurable. I saw your advertisement, and concluded to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES; and incredible as it may seem, after using one box of CUTICURA and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and two bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I find I am entirely cured. Those who think the latter exaggerated may come and see me for themselves.

GRACE P. HARKHAM, Bells River Ontario.

Improved "Common Sense"

• SASH BALANCE.

LOCKS AND LIFTS.

This only practical substitute for weights invented. The most durable, reliable and convenient. Will last for all ordinary windows. Balances when in position are entirely out of sight. No cords, tubes or weights to get in the way. It is impossible to get out of order or need repairing. No cutting, boring or mauling of the sash, as the Balances and Lifts fit the sash. Especially valuable for repairing old buildings as they can be put in at a trifling expense, as easily put in old buildings as new ones. Sash can be removed from frame in a moment for cleaning or repairing broken glass. Can be used where it is impossible to use weights or other fixtures. No unsightly cord wearing paint off side of frame. No rattling of sash as pressure against sash prevents it. No rattling of weights or pulleys when sash is raised or lowered. No sticking of weights in frame. No cords to rust off, wear out and break. No rubber rolled to become flattened by standing in one position for some time. No heavy or delicate mechanism to break, wear out or get out of order. Its simplicity of construction and operation is the wonder of all.

Byam's Automatic Sash Locks (self fastening) and Sash Lifts for upper and lower sash are the best and cheapest in the market.

MUNCASTER'S

A Night of Terror.

No words of mine could describe the panic. Miss Dunne had thrown her angular body half-way out of the window, and was imploring the police to save her, and the rest were clutching hands their way, unwilling to lose even a second; burying her head in the bed-clothes she silently awaited her fate. I had an indistinct vision of a yellow night-cap and prayer as I ran past, and further along Miss Yates was frantically shooting through the keyhole that she was armed with a rifle and bayonet, and that it would be instant death to attempt to enter. But the interest culminated in a confused h[illegible] on the ground and a tall figure standing over it.

"If either of you stir a muscle," said an excited voice, which I recognized as Tom Ramsay's, "I'll put a bullet into his rascally head. Is that you, Josh?"

"Yes," I replied.

"Then fetch a policeman, will you, while I keep guard over this thieving couple."

"And who are they?"

"That's more than I can say as yet. One of them bolted out of my room as I came up the stairs, and the other sprang out from somewhere else. I fancy I have issued one of them. Perhaps we had better have a light. Here are matches; the gas is just above you, Josh."

By the time I had completed my task several hastily clad figures had come stealing out of their rooms and grouped themselves at a safe distance. A simultaneous cry of surprise made me turn quickly, and looking at one of the figures on the ground, I perceived it to be Mr. Lascombe. We afterwards discovered the other to be Mr. Jackson, the old invalid with the bad cough.

"Allow me to rise, sir," said Mr. Lascombe, the appearance of the two, but pinning down by Tom's foot which was upon Mr. ——'s chest.

"Cool to the last!" cried Tom, sarcastically. "You shall rise when a policeman comes, but not before."

"You young fool, I'm a policeman myself, I'm employed by a firm of private detectives. This man here is the murderer of Mrs. ——. I've captured him, remember, and the reward is mine."

"Let him up, Tom," I said. "Whether his story is true or false, I'll take care he doesn't bolt."

When Mr. Lascombe rose to his feet, we observed a small pool of blood on the carpet. It had proceeded from a wound in Mr. Jackson's shoulder; he had been struck by Tom's bullet, but, as it proved, the injury was only slight. He was lying face downwards, quite silent and motionless; we turned him over, and found him to be insensible. But our attention was diverted from him to Tom, who now saw his face for the first time. Tom staggered, and almost fell; all we could get from him were the words, "My poor brother."

. . . . . .

In an earlier part of this narrative I have stated my intention to tell the whole truth, and with regard to Miss Dunne, about whom I was then speaking, I have nothing to retract. But Tom Ramsay is my friend, and in this case I am bound to be more reticent. Certain circumstances about his proceedings having been made to his elder brother, the owner of [illegible] property and a timid recluse, he had determined to investigate them without Tom's knowledge. I am happy to state that they were found to be greatly exaggerated and in many instances false, too even to mention them would be to do my friend a cruel injustice.

That Mr. Ramsay answered the advertised description of the murderer there can be no doubt, for he was the man who left home arrested and afterwards released. This took place on his arrival in New York. Once in the same house with his brother, he hoped to be able to get quietly into Tom's room, and——But there, I cannot tell you without disclosing too much. You see, at any rate why he was afraid to leave the house in the day time when Tom was out of the way; and can understand how the detectives, eager for the reward which they knew would be offered, came to set their agent on his track.

Mr. Lascombe, though defeated, concealed his vexation very well. As a detective he had failed, but as a magistrate he had scored a signal success, and claimed it.

"Shut your own brother, boy?" he said to Tom on leaving. "Didn't I say you would be doing something of the sort?"

"Ah, some people are wonderfully wise after the event."

"And others are never wise," returned Mr. Lascombe. And putting a cigar in his mouth he walked off smiling.

ILL-FATED JOHNSTOWN.

Twenty-five Houses in the Flood-stricken City Destroyed by Fire.

JOHNSTOWN, June 24.—The fire here to-day consumed all but three of the buildings in the district bounded by Market and Walnut street, Main-street and the river. Twenty-five houses were destroyed, including the large brick schoolroom. Many of the buildings had been washed from their foundations, and several contained a foot or more of mud from the flood. But a small one of these goods were saved. The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks flying from burning debris. The Philadelphia fire engine company brought the flames, which for a time got beyond their control and were only subdued after seven houses in their path. The fire has not yet been fixed.

A Kentucky Suicide.

Andy Bolling was a leading citizen of Jackson County, and had killed half a dozen of his fellow citizens. One evening Bolling killed his seventh man in Clover Bottom. The next day a coroner's jury was impanelled to inquire into the affair. The testimony was that the deceased had called Bolling "a ——liar," and then Bolling had immediately drawn his pistol and shot. Bolling, the man who had furnished him at the first shot.

The jury went out to deliberate, and after a short time returned the following verdict: "We find that the deceased, Henry Jones, committed suicide."

The Coroner was amazed. "I shall not receive the verdict," he said. "The foul-mouthed was positive that Andy Bolling did the killing."

"Yes," replied the jurymen, "and the testimony was equally positive and unanimous that the deceased was of sound mind and in full possession of all his faculties from previous to his death, and that, while in his condition, he [illegible] Bolling's——liar. He stands to reason that if he had not committed self-destruction he would not have been a corpse. He knew what the consequences would be, and he evidently wanted to die."

So the verdict of suicide stood.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Chocolate Cream Sweets.

One quart of milk, one-half a box of gelatine soaked in one cupful of water, four tablespoonfuls of grated chocolate, boil smooth in a double kettle; three cups and a half granulated sugar, one teaspoonful vanilla extract of vanilla; beat the milk until it froths, then add the other ingredients and boil 20 minutes; pour into mould and serve with cream, and sugar or custard.

AYER'S Sugar-Coated Cathartic PILLS.

If the Liver becomes torpid, if the bowels are constipated, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are invaluable.

For some years I was a victim to Liver Complaint, in consequence of which I suffered from General Debility and Indigestion. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills restored me to perfect health.—W. T. Brigtsney, Henderson, W. Va.

For years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than anything else, to my bowels. These Pills are mild in action, and do their work thoroughly. I have used them with good effect, in cases of Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, and Dyspepsia.—G. F. Miller, Attleborough, Mass.

Ayer's Pills cured me of Stomach and Liver troubles, from which I had suffered for years. I consider them the best pills made, and would not be without them.—Morris Gates, Downsville, N. Y.

I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice, and was so dangerously ill that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor.—John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebraska.

Last spring I suffered greatly from a troublesome humor on my side. In spite of every effort to cure this eruption, it increased until the flesh became entirely raw. I was troubled, at the same time, with Indigestion, and distressing pains in

The Bowels.

By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and, in less than one month, I was cured.—Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga.

I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made.—S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss.

My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at once began giving them small doses of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse. In a short time the bloody discharges stopped, all pain went away, and health was restored.—Theodore Ebling, Richmond, Va.

You can make a specialty of the tea business, and are able to give better bargains and offer you them any firm that deals in inferior groceries can possibly do. Attend the Y party at Hawley Bros., where you get "tea as is tea" at low prices. dw

Convention.

In yesterday's Examiner, in giving a description of the new rooms of the Peterborough Business College, the firm name of Lees, Bean & Rooney was by inadvertence stated in the last paragraph instead of Lees, Bean & Rooney. The correction is cheerfully made, as Mr. Rooney has no connection either direct or indirect with the Peterborough Business College.

A Dangerous Structure.

Geraldine Wall was before the police magistrate this morning charged with selling beer without a license. The information stated that Beyer was sold at his house on Saturday, June 22nd. Constable Whitehead testified to getting beer at Mr's house, but could not find how given to and not paid for. The defendant himself stated that he never sold any of the beer. He was discharged by the magistrate with a warning to be more careful in future.

A Great Annual Event

Is the picnic of the St. Peter's Cathedral congregation. This is to be held, as usual, on Dominion Day, in the beautiful grounds of St. Joseph's Hospital, Ashburnham. A beautiful spot, numerous attractions. Base-ball match between a Lock-works nine and a nine from the Wm. Hamilton Co.'s works. A spacious pleasure for dancing and Dennett's orchestra in attendance; a programme of sports and games for elegant prizes. A thrilling tug-of-war contest. Dinner served. Amusements for old and young. Admission to grounds, 25 cents; children, 15c.; dinner, 25 cents. d

The Sons of England Entertainment.

Within a few days the local Sons of England will have a trio of grand attractions. The first is the dedication of their new hall at three o'clock on Friday afternoon, 28th June. In the evening of that day a reception and entertainment will be held in the hall. A splendid musical programme will be provided, and 25 young ladies will present the delightful spectacle of the May-pole dance. Refreshments provided; tickets, 25 cents. On July 1st, Dominion Day, an excursion will be conducted by the S. O. E. to Jacob's Island, that popular resort, by G. T. R., steamer and palace barge Paleface. Return tickets, 75 cents; children, 40 cents. Bear these important events in mind, and be sure to secure the pleasure and entertainment they will afford.

The Wheel.

A meeting of the Bicycle Club was held last night, at which a number of important matters were discussed. Arrangements were completed for the trip to St. Catherines on Dominion Day. Some ten members of the club will leave town Saturday evening to attend the annual meet of the C.W.A. on the 1st. Messrs. A. Gibson and F. Might were appointed delegates to the annual meeting of the Association. On Tuesday there will be a 15 mile run from St. Catherines to Niagara, and the Peterborough wheelmen will return home Wednesday evening. At last night's meeting also arrangements were made for the fortnightly races on the P. A. A. A. grounds, which will this week take place on Friday night, beginning at seven o'clock sharp. A good evening's sport is promised. The entries in all the events are numerous, and each race will be well contested.

Canoeing on Dominion Day.

The canoe races to be held in the city of Toronto on Dominion day under the management of the Toronto Canoe Club are looked forward to with much interest by the aquatic fraternity generally. The city has presented a large number of handsome medals to be competed for by all amateur canoeists who are members of any recognized canoe, yacht, or boat club. The T. C. C. will take out in full force, and many competitors from out side clubs are expected. The programme of races will be issued immediately, and no time should be lost by intending competitors in making their entries with the secretary of the T.C.C., Mr. W. H. P. Weston, 65 King street east. Besides the competitors name the entry should give the name of the club to which he belongs and the dimensions of his canoe.

Gentlemen with Bald Heads.

What remarks as a rule attend the appearance of a bald head. It is not looked at that it is not his fault but his misfortune. There is not alone this annoyance, but a person with the scalp unprotected is more liable to diseases of the head. When a gentleman loses his hair he should take immediate steps to have it replaced with an artificial covering. It is a duty he owes to himself. If he is slow about it, his wife, sister, brother or friend should spur him on. Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, will be at Phelan's Hotel on June 25 and 26, and will have a big stock of his famous wigs and toupees with him, which are just the things required. The least you can do is to call and examine the articles whether you buy one or not. Physicians endorse them and you cannot afford to be without one. dw

Hymeneal.

This afternoon Mr. L. J. Squair was married to Miss Lotta McGill, daughter of Mr. Jos. McGill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. F. Torrance at the residence of the bride's father about three o'clock. Miss Lizzie McGill was bridesmaid and Mr. Frank Squair groomsman. The happy young couple take the evening train on a trip to the west. Both young people had a warm circle of friends who will wish them a happy wedded life. "Lou" was most popular with his associates, and last evening was tendered a complimentary supper and made the recipient of a handsome testimonial at the Commercial House. About twenty-five of his young bachelor friends gathered together, and Mr. Wilt. Masters, on behalf of the others, read an address and presented him with a dinner set and China tea set as a token of their regard and good wishes. Afterwards a supper was given and a very pleasant evening spent. "Lou" and his bride leave town bearing the best wishes of a large number of friends and acquaintances for their future welfare.

The Parsonage "At Home."

The parsonage of the George Street Methodist Church was the scene of a happy social gathering last night. The parsonage has recently been improved and repaired, and the pastor, Rev. M. L. Pearce, last night threw his house open to the congregation and friends of the church. The house was crowded, and the financial results were correspondingly satisfactory. The utmost unity and sociability prevailed, and all appeared to enjoy the "At Home." Pastor and people met in friendly intercourse and the bonds of sympathy and Christian love between them were strengthened thereby. Mr. and Mrs. Pearce and their family did everything in their power to make the evening a pleasant one for all those present, and that they succeeded is beyond question. An excellent musical and literary programme was rendered in the parlor under the chairmanship of Mr. A. Rutherford, who opened the proceedings with a neat speech. The programme was completed a piano solo by Mr. W. H. Dingle, a reading by Miss Grey, a mouth organ solo by Mr. Norton, solos by Miss Sophie Cameron, Miss Glass, Mrs. Daly and Miss Miller; recitations by Miss Saunders and Miss Gorman, and three readings or recitations by Mrs. Goldsmith, of New York. The performers all fulfilled expectations, but particular mention may be made of Mrs. Goldsmith's numbers. They were unusually good. During all this time the refreshment tables did a rushing business. Strawberries, ice cream and cake were dispensed with lavish hand, and a good sum was realized from the sales in this department. The entire proceeds were to be devoted to the purpose of paying off the large amount that was raised will be a source of gratification to the popular pastor of the George Street Church, as well as the congregation.

The Board of Trade.

Discuss the Question of Manufacturing—A Broom over the New Market Building.

A meeting of the Board of Trade was held last night, at which Mr. Robt. Innes, Vice-President, presided. There were present, Mr. J. H. Burnham, Secretary, and Messrs. T. Cahill, J. Polly, Wm. Lesh, T. A. Hoy, F. H. Dobbin, T. Kelly, W. J. Mason, Thos. Brooks, F. J. Lewis, Wm. Masters, D. Bellingham, R. Fair, W. H. Muldrum, Geo. Matchover, H. C. McDonald, and D. W. Dumble.

The first matter discussed was relative to the granting of a bonus to manufactories locating here, and the Ontario Pump Co. in particular. The Manufacturers' Committee of the Board presented a report stating that as they had no other information on the subject than the verbal statement of the company's agent to the town council, they were not prepared to give an opinion. The matter went no further at this meeting.

Messrs. Dobbin and Polly laid before the Board a proposition regarding the Bridge Works. Mr. Law proposed as soon as he could to enlarge his premises, but if he received assistance from the town he would be able to carry out his plans the sooner. The matter was discussed, and it was stated that if a $6000 building was put up Mr. Law would increase his staff by at least 25 men. The question to be considered was the best means of helping Mr. Law, whether by the town erecting the building or allowing Mr. Law to use it, or by loaning him the money from the town funds and take a mortgage security upon the works. Finally a motion by Mr. Polly asking Mr. Law to lay his proposition before the town council, and requesting the latter to grant him whatever assistance they deemed best, was passed.

THE MARKET BUILDING.

Mr. Dumble brought up a matter which he said lay directly within the province of the Board. He referred to the new market building, which he considered would not fill the requirements. He condemned the idea of having the market upstairs and stalls below. If it was to be a market house, let the market be the first consideration. The market should be on the ground floor, so as not to compel those doing business to walk up the stairs. The upstairs could be made into a large hall for public meeting, or a council chamber or anything they wanted it for, except a market. He wanted that on the ground floor, where it would be not only convenient but would be seen and advertise the business of the town. He though the Board should ask the council to alter the plans.

Mr. Cahill replied that he doubted if the council would do so at this late hour. Then there was a money consideration. From the stalls on the ground floor they looked for a revenue of $1200 a year. The market upstairs had good wide entrances, and he did not see any particular hardship to anyone in having to climb them. The upstairs could easily be used as a large hall when not required for market purposes.

Mr. Dumble said the way the council had acted in this matter was an insult to the people, and the market as it was being built was an outrage. The council had begun to dig for the foundations before they asked the people to vote on it, thus practically saying, "Vote for it or not, we're going to build it." It was, he said, a high-handed proceeding, and should be allowed to go no further. He would say to Mr. Cahill that the council will change the plans to meet the public taste, or there would be such a disturbance raised that they would have to.

Messrs. Lesh, Bellingham, Polley, and Masters supported Mr. Dumble.

Mr. Lesh said there had been bungling in the town council for a long time past.

Mr. Polley suggested that the revenue lost if the stalls were removed would be covered by that derived from the public hall it was proposed to have on the second story.

Mr. Dumble moved, seconded by Mr. Lewis, that, in the opinion of this Board, in the new town building being erected there should be ample room for all market purposes on the ground floor.

This motion was carried.

Messrs. Gus. J. Gough, R. Neil, T. E. Bradburn and W. A. Stratton were elected members.

On motion Mr. Dumble was added to the Manufacturers' Committee, and the Board adjourned to meet again Friday night.

Special Inducements.

The managers of the Peterborough Business College expect to open out in their new rooms on Water street the first of July, and in order to increase their attendance, offer special reduced rates to students for the next month. They have every appliance for giving a first class business training—their new premises being large and commodious and well ventilated, and every convenience to insure the greatest amount of comfort to their students. Their rooms will be open every day after July 1st, and they extend a cordial invitation to the public generally to visit them and see their splendid premises. Those who do so will be amply repaid.

Parents will do well to take advantage of their special offer and send their boys and girls where, in a very short time, they will be given such a course as will fit them to fill lucrative positions. Their students, during the past six months, have been remarkably successful, many of their graduates obtaining positions as soon as graduated. They are constantly receiving applications from both business and professional men for bookkeepers and stenographers. The principals, Messrs. Bean & Rooney, will be pleased to give, personally or by mail, to all who desire full information in regard to any point in the course of the College. dw

The Bailieboro Pic-nic.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The Bailieboro annual excursion took place last Friday, June 21st, and although the weather in the morning was rather unpropitious, a nice little crowd left Fraserville by the 7:57 a.m. train, the place selected being Bobcaygeon.

The excursionists on arriving at Chemong Lake, were met by the steamer Bonnhonga, and soon the splendid barge (which is fitted up in palace style) was alive with pleasure seekers, who had, judging from the numerous well filled baskets, come with the determination of enjoying themselves. After a fine sail Bobcaygeon was reached about twelve o'clock. Nearly all the pleasure seekers had done ample justice to the good things of this life while on board, so the whole time allowed was taken up in viewing the town and other places of interest.

The Bailieboro band, which accompanied the excursion, played at intervals and rendered some of the principal selections.

The balcony of the Rockland House was the favorite resort, where a most charming view is obtained, while some host with his genial face was busy serving lemonade and other refreshments to his numerous customers.

The return journey was commenced at three o'clock, and from then till six, the time the boat arrived at Chemong, the upper deck was besieged by a happy and good humored crowd, drinking in the beauties of nature, while some tripped the fantastic toe to the strains of the violin, the sun shining all the time as if it were joined in the pleasure of the happy smiling faces of young men and maidens, old men and children.

The train from Chemong arrived in Peterborough at seven, thus giving the party nearly two hours to look round this busy, rising town. While there the band serenaded some old friends, among which we may mention J. R. Stratton, Esq., M. P. P., P. Hamilton, Esq., W. Greer, Esq., the Morgan House, etc.

Fraserville was reached a few minutes after nine, where conveyances were waiting to take the excursionists to their respective homes, thus ending one of the most enjoyable days it has been our privilege to spend.

The thanks of the whole party are due and hereby tendered to the Trent Valley Navigation Company and their able manager, Mr. Mossom, for the kindness and courtesy manifested, which must recommend them to the favour of pleasure-seekers, and we would strongly advise all parties, who take a trip by water, to patronize this energetic and obliging company. Before closing we must add a word of praise to the committee of management, D. Fisher, M. Parker and G. E. Marshall, for the very admirable arrangements, which reflect the greatest credit on the above named gentlemen.

You can never know till you try, how quickly a dose of Ayer's Pills will cure your sick headache. Your stomach and bowels need cleansing, and these pills will accomplish it more effectually and considerately than any other medicine you can find.

Havelock.

A. O. U. W. Workmen Picnic on Friday, June 28th.

The day being very unfavorable for the occasion our prospects were very discouraging until about noon when the rain quit pouring down and our hopes commenced to brighten, that we might have the afternoon fair when the special train arrived with about 150 passengers on board for the picnic from Tweed, Ivanhoe, Centrel and Bleiston stations. Also the Norwood brass band and orchestra band from Norwood arrived through all the rain in the forenoon. The Workmen all were badges, from Havelock, Tweed and Norwood. They formed in procession with the band and all went to the grove, which, though a little unpleasant from the rain, the sun and wind soon dried the wet. The ladies set to work to dress the tables and a most excellent dinner was the result. After dinner the band marched to the ground where the corner-stone of the English church was laid, and a great many of the visitors availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing the ceremony performed by Rev. Rural Dean Allen. After a few remarks they all returned to the grove and the following programme of games and races were gone through with, and prizes given amounting to about $200:—

Putting the stone—1st, Robt. Preston, picture presented by W. H. Minaker, Havelock, value, $3.00; 2nd, George Whitton, bird cage, by A. R. Anderson, value, $2.75; 3rd, John Maiden, Havelock, box cigars, by H. Roberts, Smith's Falls, value, $2.50.

Running hop, step and jump—1st, T. Moriarity, regatta shirt $4.00, by Graham & Foster, Smith's Falls; 2nd, T. Patton, box cigars, $3.00, by Mr. Flynn, Havelock; 3rd, R. Preston, pair vases, $1.50, by Richardson Bros., Norwood.

Throwing the sledge—1st, A. Macauley, 5 lbs. tea, $3.00, by G. E. Hough, Tweed 2nd, T. Moriarity, box of cigars, $2.50 by Wm. Glynn, Havelock; 3rd George Whitton, Havelock, 1 pair ladies boots, $2.25, by Mr. Douglas, Smith's Falls.

Standing jump—1st, (12 ft. 5 inches.) T. Moriarity, ivory handled revolver, $7.00, by Kingan & Co., Peterborough; 2nd, R. Dake, 5 lbs. tea, $3.00 by J. W. Shaw, Tweed; 3rd, John Maiden, Havelock, lamp, $2.00, by W. H. Stephenson, Norwood.

Wheelbarrow race—1st Alex. Ross, Havelock, driving whip, $2.75, by S. S. Joyce, Havelok; 2nd J. Hemshall, box cigars, $2.50, by E. R. Hayck, Tweed; 3rd G. Lafontaine, Tweed, umbrella, $1.50, by P. W. Reynolds, Norwood.

Men's race—1st J. Hemshall, Havelock, gent's toilet set, $2.50, by Dr. Mather, Tweed; 2nd J. Patton, Havelock, razor, $1.75, by R. Phillips, Norwood; 3rd A. Ross, carving knife and fork, $1.75, by G. Hutchison, Peterborough.

Fat men's race (200 lbs.)—1st Geo. Whitton, 5 lbs. tea, by Gilroy & Co., Smith's Falls. $2; 2nd Wm. Hemshall, smoker's set, $2, Dr. Tuttle, Tweed; 3rd R. Preston, briar pipe, $1.50, by C. Caswell, Smith's Falls.

Boys race (under 12 years)—1st E. Patterson, "Boys' Own Annual," $2.50, by Smith & Pebbel, Smith's Falls; 2nd F. Hendren, music rack and picture, $1.75, by A. Clegg, Peterborough; 3rd A. Anderson, Norwood, a base ball, $1, by B. Shortly, Peterborough.

Ladies' race—1st Mrs. J. Bacque, Blairton, gold earrings and brooch, $12, by Mr. Brownlee, Smith's Falls; 2nd Miss L. Graham, Tweed, silver earrings and brooch, $6.50, by C. Wilkinson, Smith's Falls; 3rd Miss M. May, Tweed, card receiver, $6, by R. Stacey, Smith's Falls.

Boys Race under 8 years—1st, Willie Meanley, pair boots $1.50, J. C. Medcalf Smith Falls; 2nd H. Boone, knife 90c, by Geo. Statham, Peterborough; 3rd Willie Barlow, jack knife 50c, by W. Clark Smith Falls.

Girls Race (under 12 years) 1st, Jennie Milne, hand satchel $1 75, by J. R. Stratton, Peterborough; 2nd, Flossie Childs 1 whisk holder $1.50, by Dr. Lavell, Smith Falls; 3rd, Minnie Johnston, childs silver set $1.50, by McKee & Davidson, Peterborough.

Three Legged Race—1st, Patton and Duke hat, each $3.00, by Gough Bros, Peterborough and—Pearce, Havelock; 2nd, Cole and Wilde, smoking tray and glass jug, $3 00, by C. B. Routley, Peterborough and W. H. Seymour, Smith Falls; 3rd, Torphy and Hemshall, hat each $2.00, by Jas. Colquhoun, Havelock.

Gent's Committee Race—1st, Alex. McAuley, accordeon $3.00, by a friend; 2nd S.S. Joyce, set shirt, studs and buttons $4.00, by Mr. Dermo, Havelock; 3rd, E. Irwin, 1 set knives and forks $4.00, by A. Allan, Smiths Fall; 4th, A. Bart, carving knife and fork, by T. Fraser, Norwood.

Sack Race—1st, F. Lafountain, sack flour, by Jos. Potts; 2nd, P. G. Scanlan, smoking tray, by Mr. Crow, Havelock; 3rd, Wat Shipman, pair vases, by W. H. Tucker, Norwood.

Girls' consolation race—1st, Lizzie Hemshall, writing desk, by Mr. Jamieson; 2nd, Mamie Carey, pair boots, by R. Neil; Peterborough, 3rd, Rose McKenty, pocket book, by Mr. Jamieson.

Tug-of-war between Havelock and all-comers—Won by Havelock, $10.00.

Voting on cake basket—Won by Miss Weymark, of Havelock, $70.00.

Voting for meerschaum pipe—Won by Havelock, $18.00.

The games and races were entered into very freely, and all passed off in peace and quietness, and a good many more would have enjoyed to see each a large programme carried out in such a short time as nicely.

The games and races ended, the tables were set again for tea. About three hundred sat down. Great praise is due to the ladies for the way they got up the dinner and tea, and great praise is due to the band, which enlivened each heart with their charming music. The desire of all that made us a visit that day was for us to have another picnic as soon as possible. The proceeds of the picnic amounted to about $300. The society of A. O. U. W. will clear about $150, which is not bad, considering the day.

Now a few words about the grove. It is one of beauty to be taken out of the dense thick woods, and nice and level. With a little more improvements on it it cannot be beaten anywhere. A nice stream of water runs right past the ends of the tables and well shaded from the sun and about three minutes walk from Havelock station, north. The platform is 24x72 feet with two nice stands for candies, oranges, lemonade, etc.

The A.O.U. Workmen's lodge still grows; not quite three months old and has 62 members, and still they come—8 more for next night, which will make us up to seventy members. This makes a very good showing for Havelock, taking into consideration that there is a lodge of I.O. Foresters started the night after we organized and it is working very hard in rivalry with the Workmen lodge.

IS YOUR BAKING POWDER PURE?

Do its Manufacturers Publish all the Ingredients Used?

IS IT FREE FROM AMMONIA?

As is well known, ammonia is unhealthful in food, and dries up the bread material.

Protection to consumers of food compounds lies in their ability to choose them made from healthful ingredients. Unless manufacturers publish just what their baking powder is made of, do not use their goods, but buy instead

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER.

This powder is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, and strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, with a little wheat flour to preserve it. This is attested by the chemical analysts of Government and State of Connecticut, and physicians and chemists of Boards of Health throughout the country.

AT
TURNBULL'S

The first month of summer is an interesting period to the retail buyer. Keep your eye on this column, its newsy. Each week things will appear that ere the month passes will likely make you richer for the reading.

There is scarcely a weak spot in our Trimmed Millinery yet. The latest hat kind are turning up their pretty faces every day, and all the time floods of freshness and brightness keep pouring in new goods constantly.

This job line of untrimmed hats we spoke of last week is what pleases everybody—variety and prices right.

This week we have placed on our Dress Goods counter a dozen pieces of fancy dress cloths, 15c. a yard. The only reason we can conceive that these goods have not sold earlier at higher prices, is that they were too new. They ought to and no doubt will go out very fast now. Attention is called to them. Shantung pongee, the dustless kind. You know how the heathen Chinee crams dust into common run of pongees. He does not do it to the Shantung—pure silk and clean. These goods make up beautiful with our fine henriettas.

In the Tweed department we have a fine line of Halifax tweeds that handle soft and fleecy—just as they ought to handle. Sale price, 35c.

We expect to-morrow's train to bring us in a large shipment of Corsets We keep what our judgment says is the best make in the trade. We see representatives from all the factories. Our 50c. corsets are the best we believe ever shown in Peterborough for years.

We have been able to repeat that line of ladies' black hose, heavy weight, at 15c. pair, Those who have had these goods will be glad to hear they can get them again now.

Pink is the favorite color in Chambrays this season. Again a fresh lot just arrived.

We keep suits for boys and small boys, either with or without linings at all prices. See them before buying

A RAILWAY CALAMITY.

TERRIBLE TRIPLE COLLISION IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Twenty-five or Thirty Persons Killed—Ten Dead Bodies Recovered—List of the Dead —Eleven Injured.

LATROBE, Pa., June 26.—A triple collision of freight trains occurred near here on the Pennsylvania Railroad at 2.30 o'clock this morning. Thirty cars were wrecked, 25 or 30 persons killed and 11 injured, several of whom may die.

The debris of the wreck is being rapidly cleared away. Up to 8 o'clock to-night ten dead bodies have been recovered. Those of Engineer Caldwell and Fireman Fralish have not yet been found. The dead recovered are:

Geo. Cergal, aged 25, of Jersey City; Hugh Kelly of Philadelphia; unknown man about 35 years, 5 feet 11 inches in height, weight about 170 pounds, black mustache and hair; John Critchlow of Home stead, Pa., aged about 35, leg and arm were burned off; three unknown men; C. R. Furguson—in his memorandum was the name; C. E. Harden, miller, Northumberland Co., Pa.; Myers Morhead, aged about 35; Benjamin Emerich, supposed to be the front brakeman, about 28 years old.

The injured number eleven and four of these are in danger. The others it is believed will recover. The dead are being taken to an undertaker's and prepared for burial. It is almost certain that from 25 to 30 people were killed in the wreck. The water in the creek where the accident occurred is twelve feet deep, and it is expected 10 or 12 bodies are in the bottom of the creek held by the wreckage.

Flagman Miller states that the proper signal was given when the position of the shifter was discovered and Engineer Caldwell answered but the speed was too high.

When the ill-fated train left Rockwood there were about forty workmen boarded her but Conductor Barnhart put them off at Derry. When the train left there a great many of them boarded her again. Four of the injured taken from one car stated that 11 others were in the car and in another box car it is stated by one of the rescued there were 15 or 20 men. One or two of the bodies taken from the wreck were terribly burned by the time which covered the wreck. At 9 o'clock to-night the work of clearing the debris was discontinued for the night.

The loss to the railway company will reach $1,000,000.

The "One" Aunts.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., June 26.—A passenger train on the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas Railway struck a cow at the trestle across Crooked Bayou. The engine was thrown from the track and went across the ties and shattered the bridge to pieces. The express, baggage and mail cars and two passenger coaches went into the bayou, 25 feet below. S. C. Stafford, express agent, was killed. Postal Clerks Jackson and Baugnin were probably fatally bruised. A lady suffered contusions about the head. A large number of people received less serious injuries.

Went Down an Embankment.

NASHVILLE, June 26.—An accident has occurred near Bledsoe, on the Chesapeake and Nashville Railroad. The passenger and baggage coaches went down an embankment. It is reported that several persons were buried in the wreck.

A DYNAMITE PLOT AT HARVARD.

An Abortive Attempt to Blow Up the Old College Hospital.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 27.—The freshmen of the Harvard students for all sorts of mad pranks has shown itself time and again in divers ways, but it now appears to have reached the dynamite stage. But if the college faculty, or the police, for that matter, discover who are the mischievous students who have essayed to imitate the Nihilists and Anarchists their punishment will probably deter all other students of Harvard from following their example.

All old Harvard College men will remember a two-story frame structure that stands on Holmes's Field, just beyond the right-hand foul line of the ball grounds. It was formerly a college hospital, but for years unoccupied, except when baseball games were in progress, when the students took possession of it. Yesterday morning, on the window sill, on the lower floor of the old hospital, there was discovered a large piece of cardboard, perforated with ten holes, in each of which was a dynamite cartridge, of the orthodox pattern, properly loaded and capped and adjusted to a common fuse. Each cartridge was seven inches long and about 1½ inches in diameter. The fuse was burned down to within about two feet of the cartridges, and at the point where it had ceased burning it had been saturated with kerosene, the dynamiters showing thereby their inexperience in such things, for the kerosene, instead of hastening the burning of the fuse, as intended, had had the opposite effect, and the fuse had gone out before the spark could reach the cartridges. Then the building was not totally destroyed is due only to accident.

The cartridges were discovered by Police Capt. Leary and Patrolman McElroy, who took them to Station 1. To make sure that the cartridges were the genuine death-dealing instruments they were taken to an adjoining field, and, in the presence of a Harvard professor, one of them was discharged. It made a very loud explosion and tore up several feet of earth. That it exploded as was intended it would have badly shattered the hospital, and if the whole ten of the cartridges had gone off there would have been nothing left of the building but a mass of splinters.

The police and the faculty are making an investigation with a view of discovering whether Harvard contains amateur Nihilists within her walls. There is no suspicion, however, that anything more serious than a striking display of dare-devilry was intended.

Five Sailors Drowned.

ALBANY, June 26.—The bodies of five of the six victims of Tuesday night's drowning fatality on the river above this city were recovered to-day.

FIGHTING AT NOVI-BAZAR.

THE TURKS BATTLING WITH THE INSURGENTS.

Details of the Trouble—A Lively Encounter Watch in the French Chamber of Deputies—Bismarck Making Mischief.

VIENNA, June 26.—Despatches from Russia report that fighting is going on between the Turks and insurgents at Novi-Bazar. It is rumored that all the Servians in the town have been imprisoned.

The origin of the trouble in the Sandjak of Novi-Bazar is made clear by the organ of the Bosnian administration, The Bosnische Post. It states that a number of the Herzegovinian refugees to whom the Prince of Montenegro gives shelter made an incursion into the Sandjak early in May. The Turkish authorities were duly warned and gave the raiders the reception they deserved. Two of the leaders were slain, but the chief, one Riste Vujovich, escaped. The band was readmitted into Montenegro, where it was pretended that Vujovich was under detention. The Bosnian semi-official organ ironically remarks that, as the Montenegrins who break into neighboring countries to cause revolts do so under the eyes of the Montenegrin authorities, it would be far preferable if they were detained before they left. The prominent position which Montenegro now holds among the Balkan States invests the doings of its people with interest for the whole of Europe, and it is well to be reminded by occurrences of this kind of its peculiar methods.

In the Delegations yesterday, Count Kalnoky, in a long speech, strove to show that the peace of Europe was not at present endangered.

The Hungarian Government has forbidden the holding of any demonstration at the Ravanitza Monastery on the anniversary of the battle of Kossovo. The issue of passports between Austria and Servia has been stopped and no one will be allowed to cross the frontier to attend the fetes.

Francis Joseph Criticised.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 26.—The Novoe Vremya, commenting on the Austrian Emperor's speech to the delegates, severely criticises his reference to Bulgaria as being especially directed against Russia.

Russia's New Rifles.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 26.—The Russian army will be equipped with new rifles of small calibre. The weapons will be manufactured in France.

Bismarck Making Mischief.

LONDON, June 26.—The Portuguese Government to-day cancelled the concession it had granted for the building of a railroad at Delagoa Bay. The British Consul at Delagoa Bay has asked that a man-of-war be sent there to protect the interests of British subjects. It is reported that Germany is backing Portugal in an endeavor to counteract British influence in Africa.

Lord Salisbury, in the House of Lords last evening, stated that the Government had earnestly requested Portugal to refrain from taking hasty action and to give time in which to settle this considerable difficulty. He declared it would not be within Portugal's power to refuse to arbitrate the matter.

Deputies Scratch and Fight Shy.

PARIS, June 26.—In the Chamber of Deputies last evening M. Lagnerre asked leave to interpellate the Government regarding the violation of Parliamentary immunity the authorities of Angoulesme had committed in causing the arrest of M. Lalanne and himself.

Prime Minister Tirard proposed a postponement of the matter.

M. de Montjan denounced the interpellation.

The Left applauded him, and M. Lojeune shouted "Canaille." A row and a general scuffle followed, in which the combatants used their fists and pulled each other's hair and M. Andrieux drew a revolver.

When quiet was restored Lojeune was excluded from the Chamber and the interpellation was postponed.

The General's Pension Stopped.

PARIS, June 26.—The Figaro says that the request of the Senate Committee, which made an investigation into the charges against General Boulanger, the payment of General Boulanger's pension has been stopped. General Boulanger will bring suit against the Government.

Another Bootless Ballot.

PARIS, June 26.—The tone on the Bourse was very weak to-day. At 2 p.m. rentes had declined 52 1-2 centimes since the closing last night.

Sexton on Boycotting.

LONDON, June 26.—Mr. Sexton, M.P. and Lord Mayor of Dublin, appeared before the Parnell Commission to-day. Mr. Sexton would not say that he opposed the principles of the Fenian society. He claimed boycotting was a necessary evil.

BRUIN MADE THEM RUN.

But Fortunately It Was in the Direction of the Bear, Which Was Killed.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., June 26.—A big wild bear created some excitement in the neighborhood of Waxhaw, N.C., on Saturday. Such a tramp abroad is an uncommon thing in that section, and the presence of the beast put everybody on the qui vive. The negroes in the immediate neighborhood were thrown into consternation and were afraid to go into the fields to work. A party of 100 passed through Waxhaw Saturday in pursuit of the bear. A number of dogs caught up with him but were killed in the encounter which ensued. Saturday night the bear was reported to have reached Lancaster County, S.C.; to-day he was killed near Fort Mill, S.C.

Early this morning the chase began. Several men were in pursuit. The bear swam across the Catawba River, then back again, leading the hunters a wild chase over hill and stream. The pursuers dashed through cotton fields, over fences, through briar and brush. The bear was brought to bay about three miles from Rock Hill. He stopped dogs down unmercifully during the incessant fro by the men who had got within range. After about a dozen shots the bear fell, Mr. Charley Graham firing the fatal shot. The bear was carried to Fort Mill and borne into the town amid cheers. He was weighed and tipped the scales at 360 pounds.

Up Goes Flour.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 26.—The Northwestern Miller says: The flour output last week was 109,860 barrels, against 112,700 the week before and 109,200 for the corresponding time in 1888. The firmness in wheat has induced a good deal of buying of flour. Prices are about 25 cents higher than a week ago and some parties talk of putting them up 10 to 15 cents more to-night. There is a stronger feeling in the export market. The direct exports of flour last week were 25,900 barrels, against 34,600 for the preceding week.

An Incendiary Fire.

JANESVILLE, Tex., June 26.—A fire broke out in the tin cornice factory of Thompson Brothers yesterday morning, followed by an explosion which shattered everything within the building and shook the entire city. It is thought that a large quantity of powder was placed under the floor by incendiaries, who built a fire on the floor above the powder. The damage is $20,000.

TWO YEARS' IMPRISONMENT.

Hampden's Deputy - Postmaster Pleads Guilty and is Sent to the Penitentiary.
